THE WEATHER—Generally fair tonight and Sunday

WASHINGTON DAILY HERALD.

BOOST
For Washington, her merchants and for public betterments. Don't knock.

VOL. 27. NO. 149 WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO. SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1912 Ten Cents a Week

DELEGATES NOW ROUNDING THE LAST LAP

...k of Compromise Candidate Is Fast Quieting Down---Committee on Credentials Work Hard on Contests Grinding Out in Each Case the Same Result.

...E CONVENTION VOTE SUSTAINS COMMITTEE

...legates Are All Tired Out and Anxious to Go Home, and the Program Is to Remain in Continuous Session Until Ticket Is Named.

...STICE HUGHES DECLINES NOMINATION WITH THANKS

...rk on the Preliminary Work of Organizing New Party Is Formally Commenced by Circulating a Pledge Which Is Being Signed by a Large Number of Delegates.

...ING FUNERAL HYMNS WHILE VOTE IS CAST

Chicago, June 22.—Delegates are slow today in getting to ...liseum, owing to the fact that a long session is expected. ...ly fifteen delegates were in seats one hour before convention ...s scheduled to be called to order. It now looks like nomina... would be made about midnight.

The convention was called to order at 10:45 and the pro... is to remain in session until nominations are made. A ... fight on the platform is possible. An adjournment will ...ly be before midnight. Looks like Taft and Sherman will ...named. But there is some talk of Hadley or Deneen for ... president. Doubted if either of last named would run. ... remaining contests will be disposed of first and then the ...form will be taken up. This will consume all afternoon it ...expected.

HUGHES DECLINES EMPHATICALLY.

Friends of Justice Hughes tried last effort to effect his ...ination by sending telegram asking if he would accept ...animous nomination. Hughes wired back: "Please stop ...y effort on my behalf, as nomination in any event would be ...clined."

This it is felt, settles whatever possibility there remained ... a compromise on Hughes.

"Roosevelt's name will not go before the convention with ... consent," said Dixon.

After Convention is over the third party formers will ...et to organize some sort of Central National Committee pre... ...ratory to holding convention of its own within next two ...onths.

Governor Hadley, coming out from Roosevelt's room af... a talk with the Colonel, said:. "Whether I will join any ...ird party is a question."

DELEGATES SING HYMNS.

The Credentials Committee majority report on contested ...legates in Florida and Mississippi. Roosevelt men stand ...d sing, "Nearer My God to Thee," "Lead Kindly Light" and ...ther favorite funeral songs. Plenty of confusion at times.

NEW PARTY WORK BEGUN.

Informal recess, waiting further report of the Credentials ...mmittee followed.

The ground work for new party commenced today with ... circulating of the following petition, which is widely ...gned:

"We, the undersigned, denouncing fraud perpetrated by ... so-called National Committee of the Republican party, ded... ...e ourselves to the progressive principles advocated and ...tained by Roosevelt, the next President of the United ...tes."

Roosevelt held a conference with his unseated delegates ... afternoon.

(Continued on Page Eight.)

THE BATTLE IS NOW OPENED AT BALTIMORE BY COMMONER

ROW IN DEMOCRATIC RANKS

MANY VOTES ARE DRIFTING FROM "TEDDY"

Plan For Continuation of Convention Is Abandoned.

COLONEL OPPOSED THE IDEA

Sage of Oyster Bay Will Be Nominated at a Future Convention If He Decides to Head an Independent Ticket—Still Willing to Bear the Responsibility If He Hears the Call—Ohio Delegates to Follow Their Individual Judgment.

Chicago, June 22.—At this time it seems certain that if Theodore Roosevelt heads an independent ticket, the convention which will name him will be held at a time considerably after the adjournment of the present Republican national convention. As a result of the decisive votes of the convention, particularly on the Fourth California district contest, and after a day's sober reflection on the part of his close advisers, the plan for a continuation of the present convention, as outlined, practically has been abandoned.

Some of Colonel Roosevelt's more radical supporters still cling to the belief that it would be wise to carry out their original plan, which in effect was stoutly to maintain that the Republican convention is irregular and illegal, and after its adjournment to proceed with an organization in the same hall and name their ticket, with Mr. Roosevelt at its head.

Colonel Roosevelt, however, refused to sanction this plan. He did not forbid it. He still maintains that he is bound to obey the wishes of his his supporters and that he is willing, as he expressed it in his statement, "personally to bear the responsibility."

Ohio Delegation's Attitude.

Although Ohio Roosevelt men, in response to the urgent appeal of James R. Garfield, agreed to follow the colonel's wishes in the convention, the 34 men, it is thought, are going to follow their individual judgment and act in each separate contingency as it arises.

The 14 Taft men on the delegation are voting straight with the winning machine and are standing upon their chairs and cheering with each successive Taft victory.

It appeared for a time as if Governor Johnson's appeal for the seating of the two contested California delegates would win over enough delegates to seat the two Roosevelt contestants despite the strategic skill of Taft leaders. The delegates from a host of states admired the dash, courage and fervid determination of the California governor.

When he exceeded the time limit for his speech Chairman Root gaveled him, but lots of protests arose throughout the hall and Johnson was permitted to finish the argument.

Convention votes disclosed a distinct trend away from Roosevelt. Ohio and other states were not budged from their stand, but some state delegations upon which Colonel Roosevelt relied prior to the blunder of Wednesday night, when he ordered a party bolt, are slipping from the rough rider's command, and some of the southern delegates whom he captured in the primary scramble for votes are back in the Taft column, it appears.

Hadley Considers Proposition.

Chicago, June 22.—Colonel Roosevelt announced that the new party will be christened either the Progressive party or the National Progressive party. It became known that Colonel Roosevelt has urged Governor Hadley not to consent to a nomination for the vice presidency in this convention. Governor Hadley has taken the matter under advisement.

Judge Impeached

Washington, June 22.—By unanimous vote the house judiciary committee today voted to impeach Judge Robert W. Archbald of the Commerce court. The hearings in the impeachment probe of Judge Archbald's official conduct concluded two weeks ago. It was alleged that he entered into waste coal pile "deals" with the Erie and other railroads while sitting as judge in cases in which these companies were concerned.

Implicates Another In Murder

Italian Admits Participation In Kelley's Island Murder.

Sandusky, O., June 22.—Rocco Klavetch, several days ago convicted of first degree murder of three quarrymen at Kelleys Island, in a long written statement confessed to killing one man and helping to carry his body and that of the other two murdered men to the lake. He says Dominic Selvaggio, his companion, now at the penitentiary under sentence of death, killed the other two.

AMERICAN STROKE BEST

Harvard Beats Yale In Three Annual Boat Races.

New London, Conn., June 22.—Harvard, with an American stroke, scored a triple rowing victory over Yale, employing British methods, on the Thames. Having won the freshman eight-oared event and the varsity fours, the Crimson came back with a varsity eight-oared crew that rowed away from Bob Cook's pupils from the start and came down to the judge's boat with nearly five lengths to spare. Harvard covered the four miles in 21 minutes 43½ seconds, while Yale's was timed in 22 minutes and 4 seconds.

On the Ground Early.

Columbus, O., June 22.—Robert P. Scott of Cadiz, Republican candidate for congressman-at-large, now making a personal tour of the state in behalf of his candidacy, will open up his headquarters in Columbus early next week and will remain on the job until after the nomination is made.

Bryan's Telegram to Six Presidential Candidates.

SCALP OF PARKER IS SOUGHT

Nebraskan's Message Is Aimed at Speaker Champ Clark, According to the Views of Some of the Democratic Leaders Now In the Convention City—Parker Backers Declare Affair Has Gone Too Far For Any Backward Step.

Baltimore, June 22.—A mild sensation was created in the Democratic camp here when it was learned that William J. Bryan had wired six of the Democratic candidates for president to join with him in a crusade against the selection of Judge Alton B. Parker of New York for temporary chairman. Bryan's telegram was addressed to Speaker Champ Clark, Governor Wilson, Governor Burke of South Dakota, Governor Foss of Massachusetts, Governor Baldwin of Connecticut and Mayor Gaynor of New York.

Strong efforts were being made to bring about a compromise which would avoid a fight between the Bryan and anti-Bryan forces on the floor of the convention, but leaders like Charles F. Murphy of New York, who arrived in Baltimore; Roger C. Sullivan of Illinois and Thomas Taggart of Indiana, insisted that the affair had now been carried too far for any backward step. The withdrawal of Judge Parker at this time would, it was conceded, be a Bryan victory, and would strengthen the commoner's hands at the opening of the convention.

Governor Wilson and Champ Clark answered the Bryan telegram. Governor Wilson's followers said he informed Mr. Bryan he was ready to support a progressive candidate for temporary chairman, which meant, of course, that he would join with the commoner in the fight against Judge Parker. Champ Clark was much more guarded in his reply, but argued against a fight on Parker.

As viewed by Democrats in Baltimore, the Bryan telegram was aimed chiefly at Speaker Clark. It has been no secret in Baltimore for some days that the speaker has gradually been turning from Bryan in an effort to capture delegates from the so-called conservative ranks. There have been rumors that the speaker was flirting with Charles F. Murphy, in the hope of obtaining New York's 90 delegates in exchange for votes in support of Judge Parker for temporary chairman.

The attitude assumed by Speaker Clark toward the Parker chairmanship fight will, in the opinion of Democratic leaders, eventually result in

Photo by American Press Associaties.

CHARLES F. MURPHY.

Democratic Leader Who Is Fighting William J. Bryan.

(Continued on Page Six.)

Bridge Building an Important Part of West Point Training

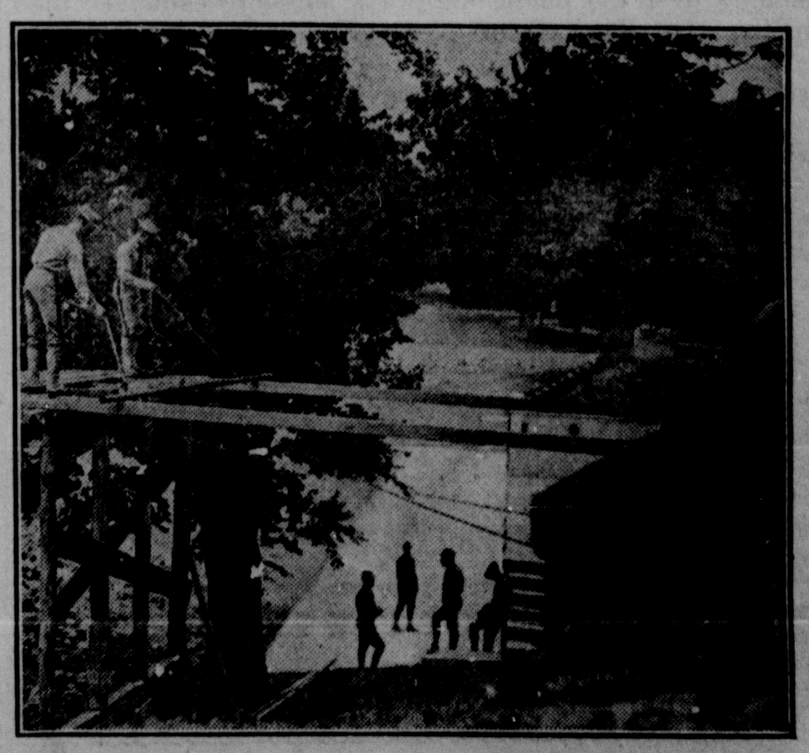

Photo by American Press Association.

THE man who is graduated from West Point must be able to do anything he may be called upon as an officer to order his men to do. A part of the engineering instruction of cadets is the building and repair of bridges, a branch of military science in which the Madero forces in Mexico are being tested as they pursue the Orozco rebels who have burned and wrecked railroad bridges as they retreated. The average cadet acquires skill in the construction of roughly built, but substantial bridges, and such scenes as those depicted in the accompanying photograph are common in the neighborhood of the military academy. The picture shows a detachment of cadets building an emergency bridge.

FAIR

THE WEATHER—Generally fair tonight and Sunday

WASHINGTON DAILY HERALD.

BOOST

For Washington, her merchants and for public betterments. Don't knock.

VOL. 27. NO. 149 WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO. SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1912 Ten Cents a Week

DELEGATES NOW ROUNDING THE LAST LAP

Talk of Compromise Candidate Is Fast Quieting Down---Committee on Credentials Work Hard on Contests Grinding Out in Each Case the Same Result.

THE CONVENTION VOTE SUSTAINS COMMITTEE

Delegates Are All Tired Out and Anxious to Go Home, and the Program Is to Remain in Continuous Session Until Ticket Is Named.

JUSTICE HUGHES DECLINES NOMINATION WITH THANKS

Work on the Preliminary Work of Organizing New Party Is Formally Commenced by Circulating a Pledge Which Is Being Signed by a Large Number of Delegates.

SING FUNERAL HYMNS WHILE VOTE IS CAST

Chicago, June 22.—Delegates are slow today in getting to the coliseum, owing to the fact that a long session is expected. Only fifteen delegates were in seats one hour before convention was scheduled to be called to order. It now looks like nominations would be made about midnight.

The convention was called to order at 10:45 and the program is to remain in session until nominations are made. A long fight on the platform is possible. An adjournment will hardly be before midnight. Looks like Taft and Sherman will be named. But there is some talk of Hadley or Deneen for vice president. Doubted if either of last named would run. The remaining contests will be disposed of first and then the platform will be taken up. This will consume all afternoon it is expected.

HUGHES DECLINES EMPHATICALLY.

Friends of Justice Hughes tried last effort to effect his nomination by sending telegram asking if he would accept unanimous nomination. Hughes wired back: "Please stop any effort on my behalf, as nomination in any event would be declined."

This it is felt, settles whatever possibility there remained for a compromise on Hughes.

"Roosevelt's name will not go before the convention with his consent," said Dixon.

After Convention is over the third party formers will meet to organize some sort of Central National Committee preparatory to holding convention of its own within next two months.

Governor Hadley, coming out from Roosevelt's room after a talk with the Colonel, said: "Whether I will join any third party is a question."

DELEGATES SING HYMNS.

The Credentials Committee majority report on contested delegates in Florida and Mississippi. Roosevelt men stand and sing, "Nearer My God to Thee," "Lead Kindly Light" and other favorite funeral songs. Plenty of confusion at times.

NEW PARTY WORK BEGUN.

Informal recess, waiting further report of the Credentials Committee followed.

The ground work for new party commenced today with the circulating of the following petition, which is widely signed:

"We, the undersigned, denouncing fraud perpetrated by the so-called National Committee of the Republican party, dedicate ourselves to the progressive principles advocated and maintained by Roosevelt, the next President of the United States."

Roosevelt held a conference with his unseated delegates this afternoon.

(Continued on Page Eight.)

THE BATTLE IS NOW OPENED AT BALTIMORE BY COMMONER

ROW IN DEMOCRATIC RANKS

Bryan's Telegram to Six Presidential Candidates.

SCALP OF PARKER IS SOUGHT

Nebraskan's Message Is Aimed at Speaker Champ Clark, According to the Views of Some of the Democratic Leaders Now In the Convention City—Parker Backers Declare Affair Has Gone Too Far For Any Backward Step.

Baltimore, June 22.—A mild sensation was created in the Democratic camp here when it was learned that William J. Bryan had wired six of the Democratic candidates for president to join with him in a crusade against the selection of Judge Alton B. Parker of New York for temporary chairman. Bryan's telegram was addressed to Speaker Champ Clark, Governor Wilson, Governor Burke of South Dakota, Governor Foss of Massachusetts, Governor Baldwin of Connecticut and Mayor Gaynor of New York.

Strong efforts were being made to bring about a compromise which would avoid a fight between the Bryan and anti-Bryan forces on the floor of the convention, but leaders like Charles F. Murphy of New York, who arrived in Baltimore; Roger C. Sullivan of Illinois and Thomas Taggart of Indiana, insisted that the affair had now been carried too far for any backward step. The withdrawal of Judge Parker at this time would, it was conceded, be a Bryan victory, and would strengthen the commoner's hands at the opening of the convention.

Governor Wilson and Champ Clark answered the Bryan telegram. Governor Wilson's followers said he informed Mr. Bryan he was ready to support a progressive candidate for temporary chairman, which meant, of course, that he would join with the commoner in the fight against Judge Parker. Champ Clark was much more guarded in his reply, but argued against a fight on Parker.

As viewed by Democrats in Baltimore, the Bryan telegram was aimed chiefly at Speaker Clark. It has been no secret in Baltimore for some days that the speaker has gradually been turning from Bryan in an effort to capture delegates from the so-called conservative ranks. There have been rumors that the speaker was flirting with Charles F. Murphy, in the hope of obtaining New York's 90 delegates in exchange for votes in support of Judge Parker for temporary chairman.

Photo by American Press Association.

CHARLES F. MURPHY.

Democratic Leader Who Is Fighting William J. Bryan.

The attitude assumed by Speaker Clark toward the Parker chairmanship fight will, in the opinion of Democratic leaders, eventually result in

(Continued on Page Six.)

MANY VOTES ARE DRIFTING FROM "TEDDY"

Plan For Continuation of Convention Is Abandoned.

COLONEL OPPOSED THE IDEA

Sage of Oyster Bay Will Be Nominated at a Future Convention If He Decides to Head an Independent Ticket—Still Willing to Bear the Responsibility If He Hears the Call—Ohio Delegates to Follow Their Individual Judgment.

Chicago, June 22.—At this time it seems certain that if Theodore Roosevelt heads an independent ticket, the convention which will name him will be held at a time considerably after the adjournment of the present Republican national convention. As a result of the decisive votes of the convention, particularly on the Fourth California district contest, and after a day's sober reflection on the part of his close advisers, the plan for a continuation of the present convention, as outlined, practically has been abandoned.

Some of Colonel Roosevelt's more radical supporters still cling to the belief that it would be wise to carry out their original plan, which in effect was stoutly to maintain that the Republican convention is irregular and illegal, and after its adjournment to proceed with an organization in the same hall and name their ticket, with Mr. Roosevelt at its head.

Colonel Roosevelt, however, refused to sanction this plan. He did not forbid it. He still maintains that he is bound to obey the wishes of his his supporters and that he is willing, as he expressed it in his statement, "personally to bear the responsibility."

Ohio Delegation's Attitude.

Although Ohio Roosevelt men, in response to the urgent appeal of James R. Garfield, agreed to follow the colonel's wishes in the convention, the 34 men, it is thought, are going to follow their individual judgment and act in each separate contingency as it arises.

The 14 Taft men on the delegation are voting straight with the winning machine and are standing upon their chairs and cheering with each successive Taft victory.

It appeared for a time as if Governor Johnson's appeal for the seating of the two contested California delegates would win over enough delegates to seat the two Roosevelt contestants despite the strategic skill of Taft leaders. The delegates from a host of states admired the dash, courage and fervid determination of the California governor.

When he exceeded the time limit for his speech Chairman Root gaveled him, but lots of protests arose throughout the hall and Johnson was permitted to finish the argument.

Convention votes disclosed a distinct trend away from Roosevelt. Ohio and other states were not budged from their stand, but some state delegations upon which Colonel Roosevelt relied prior to the blunder of Wednesday night, when he ordered a party bolt, are slipping from the rough rider's command, and some of the southern delegates whom he captured in the primary scramble for votes are back in the Taft column, it appears.

Hadley Considers Proposition.

Chicago, June 22.—Colonel Roosevelt announced that the new party will be christened either the Progressive party or the National Progressive party. It became known that Colonel Roosevelt has urged Governor Hadley not to consent to a nomination for the vice presidency in this convention. Governor Hadley has taken the matter under advisement.

Judge Impeached

Washington, June 22.—By unanimous vote the house judiciary committee today voted to impeach Judge Robert W. Archbald of the Commerce court. The hearings in the impeachment probe of Judge Archbald's official conduct concluded two weeks ago. It was alleged that he entered into waste coal pile "deals" with the Erie and other railroads while sitting as judge in cases in which these companies were concerned.

Implicates Another In Murder

Italian Admits Participation In Kelley's Island Murder.

Sandusky, O., June 22.—Rocco Klavetch, several days ago convicted of first degree murder of three quarrymen at Kelleys Island, in a long written statement confessed to killing one man and helping to carry his body and that of the other two murdered men to the lake. He says Dominic Selvaggio, his companion, now at the penitentiary under sentence of death, killed the other two.

AMERICAN STROKE BEST

Harvard Beats Yale In Three Annual Boat Races.

New London, Conn., June 22.—Harvard, with an American stroke, scored a triple rowing victory over Yale, employing British methods, on the Thames. Having won the freshman eight-oared event and the varsity fours, the Crimson came back with a varsity eight-oared crew that rowed away from Bob Cook's pupils from the start and came down to the judge's boat with nearly five lengths to spare. Harvard covered the four miles in 21 minutes 43½ seconds, while Yale's was timed in 22 minutes and 4 seconds.

On the Ground Early.

Columbus, O., June 22.—Robert P. Scott of Cadiz, Republican candidate for congressman-at-large, now making a personal tour of the state in behalf of his candidacy, will open up his headquarters in Columbus early next week and will remain on the job until after the nomination is made.

Bridge Building an Important Part of West Point Training

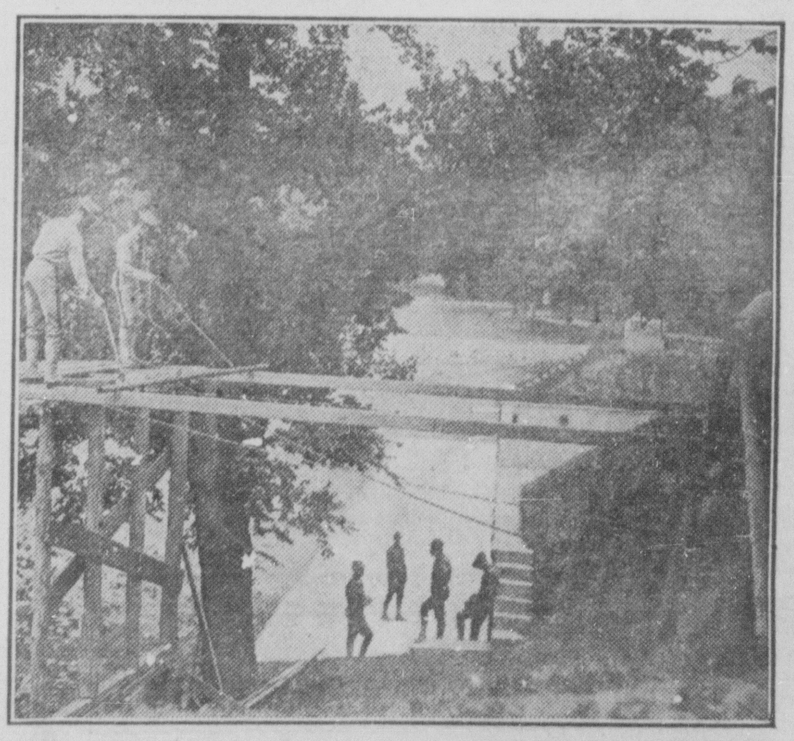

Photo by American Press Association.

THE man who is graduated from West Point must be able to do anything he may be called upon as an officer to order his men to do. A part of the engineering instruction of cadets is the building and repair of bridges, a branch of military science in which the Madero forces in Mexico are being tested as they pursue the Orozco rebels who have burned and wrecked railroad bridges as they retreated. The average cadet acquires skill in the construction of roughly built, but substantial bridges, and such scenes as those depicted in the accompanying photograph are common in the neighborhood of the military academy. The picture shows a detachment of cadets building an emergency bridge.

THE WEATHER—Generally fair tonight and Sunday

WASHINGTON DAILY HERALD.

BOOST
For Washington, her merchants and for public betterments. Don't knock.

VOL. 27. NO. 149 WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO. SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1912 Ten Cents a Week

DELEGATES NOW ROUNDING THE LAST LAP

of Compromise Candidate Is Fast Quieting Down---Committee on Credentials Work Hard on Contests Grinding Out in Each Case the Same Result.

E CONVENTION VOTE SUSTAINS COMMITTEE

legates Are All Tired Out and Anxious to Go Home, and the Program Is to Remain in Continuous Session Until Ticket Is Named.

STICE HUGHES DECLINES NOMINATION WITH THANKS

rk on the Preliminary Work of Organizing New Party Is Formally Commenced by Circulating a Pledge Which Is Being Signed by a Large Number of Delegates.

NG FUNERAL HYMNS WHILE VOTE IS CAST

Chicago, June 22.—Delegates are slow today in getting to iseum, owing to the fact that a long session is expected. ly fifteen delegates were in seats one hour before convention scheduled to be called to order. It now looks like nomina- would be made about midnight.

The convention was called to order at 10:45 and the pro- is to remain in session until nominations are made. A fight on the platform is possible. An adjournment will ly be before midnight. Looks like Taft and Sherman will named. But there is some talk of Hadley or Deneen for president. Doubted if either of last named would run. remaining contests will be disposed of first and then the form will be taken up. This will consume all afternoon it expected.

HUGHES DECLINES EMPHATICALLY.

Friends of Justice Hughes tried last effort to effect his ination by sending telegram asking if he would accept animous nomination. Hughes wired back: "Please stop effort on my behalf, as nomination in any event would be lined."

This it is felt, settles whatever possibility there remained a compromise on Hughes.

"Roosevelt's name will not go before the convention with consent," said Dixon.

After Convention is over the third party formers will et to organize some sort of Central National Committee pre- ratory to holding convention of its own within next two nths.

Governor Hadley, coming out from Roosevelt's room af- a talk with the Colonel, said:. "Whether I will join any ird party is a question."

DELEGATES SING HYMNS.

The Credentials Committee majority report on contested egates in Florida and Mississippi. Roosevelt men stand sing, "Nearer My God to Thee," "Lead Kindly Light" and her favorite funeral songs. Plenty of confusion at times.

NEW PARTY WORK BEGUN.

Informal recess, waiting further report of the Credentials mittee followed.

The ground work for new party commenced today with circulating of the following petition, which is widely ed:

"We, the undersigned, denouncing fraud perpetrated by so-called National Committee of the Republican party, ded- ourselves to the progressive principles advocated and tained by Roosevelt, the next President of the United tes."

Roosevelt held a conference with his unseated delegates afternoon.

(Continued on Page Eight.)

THE BATTLE IS NOW OPENED AT BALTIMORE BY COMMONER ROW IN DEMOCRATIC RANKS

MANY VOTES ARE DRIFTING FROM "TEDDY"

Plan For Continuation of Convention Is Abandoned.

COLONEL OPPOSED THE IDEA

Sage of Oyster Bay Will Be Nominated at a Future Convention If He Decides to Head an Independent Ticket—Still Willing to Bear the Responsibility If He Hears the Call—Ohio Delegates to Follow Their Individual Judgment.

Chicago, June 22.—At this time it seems certain that if Theodore Roosevelt heads an independent ticket, the convention which will name him will be held at a time considerably after the adjournment of the present Republican national convention. As a result of the decisive votes of the convention, particularly on the Fourth California district contest, and after a day's sober reflection on the part of his close advisers, the plan for a continuation of the present convention, as outlined, practically has been abandoned.

Some of Colonel Roosevelt's more radical supporters still cling to the belief that it would be wise to carry out their original plan, which in effect was stoutly to maintain that the Republican convention is irregular and illegal, and after its adjournment to proceed with an organization in the same hall and name their ticket, with Mr. Roosevelt at its head.

Colonel Roosevelt, however, refused to sanction this plan. He did not forbid it. He still maintains that he is bound to obey the wishes of his his supporters and that he is willing, as he expressed it in his statement, "personally to bear the responsibility."

Ohio Delegation's Attitude.

Although Ohio Roosevelt men, in response to the urgent appeal of James R. Garfield, agreed to follow the colonel's wishes in the convention, the 34 men, it is thought, are going to follow their individual judgment and act in each separate contingency as it arises.

The 14 Taft men on the delegation are voting straight with the winning machine and are standing upon their chairs and cheering with each successive Taft victory.

It appeared for a time as if Governor Johnson's appeal for the seating of the two contested California delegates would win over enough delegates to seat the two Roosevelt contestants despite the strategic skill of Taft leaders. The delegates from a host of states admired the dash, courage and fervid determination of the California governor.

When he exceeded the time limit for his speech Chairman Root gaveled him, but lots of protests arose throughout the hall and Johnson was permitted to finish the argument.

Convention votes disclosed a distinct trend away from Roosevelt. Ohio and other states were not budged from their stand, but some state delegations upon which Colonel Roosevelt relied prior to the blunder of Wednesday night, when he ordered a party bolt, are slipping from the rough rider's command, and some of the southern delegates whom he captured in the primary scramble for votes are back in the Taft column, it appears.

Hadley Considers Proposition.

Chicago, June 22.—Colonel Roosevelt announced that the new party will be christened either the Progressive party or the National Progressive party. It became known that Colonel Roosevelt has urged Governor Hadley not to consent to a nomination for the vice presidency in this convention. Governor Hadley has taken the matter under advisement.

Judge Impeached

Washington, June 22.—By unanimous vote the house judiciary committee today voted to impeach Judge Robert W. Archbald of the Commerce court. The hearings in the impeachment probe of Judge Archbald's official conduct concluded two weeks ago. It was alleged that he entered into waste coal pile "deals" with the Erie and other railroads while sitting as judge in cases in which these companies were concerned.

Implicates Another In Murder

Italian Admits Participation In Kelley's Island Murder.

Sandusky, O., June 22.—Rocco Klavetch, several days ago convicted of first degree murder of three quarrymen at Kelleys Island, in a long written statement confessed to killing one man and helping to carry his body and that of the other two murdered men to the lake. He says Dominic Selvaggio, his companion, now at the penitentiary under sentence of death, killed the other two.

AMERICAN STROKE BEST

Harvard Beats Yale In Three Annual Boat Races.

New London, Conn., June 22.—Harvard, with an American stroke, scored a triple rowing victory over Yale, employing British methods, on the Thames. Having won the freshman eight-oared event and the varsity fours, the Crimson came back with a varsity eight-oared crew that rowed away from Bob Cook's pupils from the start and came down to the judge's boat with nearly five lengths to spare. Harvard covered the four miles in 21 minutes 43½ seconds, while Yale's was timed in 22 minutes and 4 seconds.

On the Ground Early.

Columbus, O., June 22.—Robert P. Scott of Cadiz, Republican candidate for congressman-at-large, now making a personal tour of the state in behalf of his candidacy, will open up his headquarters in Columbus early next week and will remain on the job until after the nomination is made.

Bryan's Telegram to Six Presidential Candidates.

SCALP OF PARKER IS SOUGHT

Nebraskan's Message Is Aimed at Speaker Champ Clark, According to the Views of Some of the Democratic Leaders Now In the Convention City—Parker Backers Declare Affair Has Gone Too Far For Any Backward Step.

Baltimore, June 22.—A mild sensation was created in the Democratic camp here when it was learned that William J. Bryan had wired six of the Democratic candidates for president to join with him in a crusade against the selection of Judge Alton B. Parker of New York for temporary chairman. Bryan's telegram was addressed to Speaker Champ Clark, Governor Wilson, Governor Burke of South Dakota, Governor Foss of Massachusetts, Governor Baldwin of Connecticut and Mayor Gaynor of New York.

Strong efforts were being made to bring about a compromise which would avoid a fight between the Bryan and anti-Bryan forces on the floor of the convention, but leaders like Charles F. Murphy of New York, who arrived in Baltimore; Roger C. Sullivan of Illinois and Thomas Taggart of Indiana, insisted that the affair had now been carried too far for any backward step. The withdrawal of Judge Parker at this time would, it was conceded, be a Bryan victory, and would strengthen the commoner's hands at the opening of the convention.

Governor Wilson and Champ Clark answered the Bryan telegram. Governor Wilson's followers said he informed Mr. Bryan he was ready to support a progressive candidate for temporary chairman, which meant, of course, that he would join with the commoner in the fight against Judge Parker. Champ Clark was much more guarded in his reply, but argued against a fight on Parker.

As viewed by Democrats in Baltimore, the Bryan telegram was aimed chiefly at Speaker Clark. It has been no secret in Baltimore for some days that the speaker has gradually been turning from Bryan in an effort to capture delegates from the so-called conservative ranks. There have been rumors that the speaker was flirting with Charles F. Murphy, in the hope of obtaining New York's 90 delegates in exchange for votes in support of Judge Parker for temporary chairman.

Photo by American Press Association.

CHARLES F. MURPHY.

Democratic Leader Who Is Fighting William J. Bryan.

The attitude assumed by Speaker Clark toward the Parker chairmanship fight will, in the opinion of Democratic leaders, eventually result in

(Continued on Page Six.)

Bridge Building an Important Part of West Point Training

Photo by American Press Association.

THE man who is graduated from West Point must be able to do anything he may be called upon as an officer to order his men to do. A part of the engineering instruction of cadets is the building and repair of bridges, a branch of military science in which the Madero forces in Mexico are being tested as they pursue the Orozco rebels who have burned and wrecked railroad bridges as they retreated. The average cadet acquires skill in the construction of roughly built, but substantial bridges, and such scenes as those depicted in the accompanying photograph are common in the neighborhood of the military academy. The picture shows a detachment of cadets building an emergency bridge.

WASHINGTON DAILY HERALD

THE HERALD PUBLISHING COMPANY
W. W. MILLIKAN, President.
PUBLICATION OFFICE NO. 206 EAST COURT ST., OPP. POST OFFICE

Subscriptions: By Carrier 10 Cents a Week. In advance $5.00 for the year. By Mail and on all Free Rural Deliveries Cash in Advance $3.00 a year; $1.75, 6 months; $1.00, 3 months; 35c, 1 month.

ADVERTISING RATES FURNISHED ON APPLICATION

Obituaries, memorial notices, resolutions and cards of thanks will be charged for at half rates, or 2½ cents per line of six words.

Entered as Second Class Matter, August 20, 1910, at the Postoffice at Washington C. H., Ohio, Under the Act of March 3d, 1879.

TELEPHONES—Home No. 137. Bell, Main No. 170.

NOW FOR BALTIMORE.

The Republican National convention dragged through a rather tedious session on Friday and a great many men who had gone to Chicago to see the game from start to finish, were compelled to leave for home disappointed.

They had seen neither a bolt, and two nominations nor even one nomination.

Saturday morning a great number of the delegates declared themselves thoroughly tired out with the tedious routine of business into which the convention had settled on Friday and insisted that on Saturday there would be something doing, looking toward bringing the convention to an end.

For a time Friday it seemed that the people of the nation would be treated to or inflicted with (it's all according to the way you feel about it) two national conventions—one Republican and one Democratic, both in session at the same time.

The newspaper men who welcomed the opening of the Chicago gathered as a good news prospect, had begun to feel sorry for themselves and the public too, just as a determination to close the work up, if possible, at Chicago on Saturday seized upon the delegates.

There was not much of the sensational at Chicago in the Friday session—there were promising flashes but no real doings.

William Jennings Bryan has left Chicago post haste for Baltimore, fighting mad over the selection of Alton B. Parker as the temporary chairman of the Democratic convention and the Chicago gathering having quieted down, after being rolled out smooth, the public must now look to Baltimore for the fire works.

The bright prospects of a real scrap at Chicago failed of results and it may be that the prospects of peace and quiet at Baltimore may be unfounded and joyous political rioting may reign supreme in that convention.

The public has been standing on tip toe now for a week, waiting for the explosion to come. It would be cruel to stage both conventions in two consecutive weeks and then have no cylinder-heads blown out.

NEED FOR REGULATION.

The number of automobile accidents, increasing in the same proportion as the number of automobiles in use increases, and the fact that a very large percentage of these accidents is due to inexperience of those handling the wheel, is compelling thinking people to insist that regulatory legislation of some kind must be enacted.

Conditions growing out of the handling of automobiles by inexperienced persons and by mere youngsters too, are demanding attention.

Like the users of the toy pistol, and other obselete implements of extreme danger, designed originally for amusement only, the reckless drivers of automobiles must be saved, if it is possible to do so, from inflicting injury upon themselves.

The public of course, is more directly interested in seeing to it that automobiles are not permitted to be handled and driven through the public highways in a manner dangerous to occupants of the machine and to other travelers on the highway, than it is that the use of the toy pistol should be prohibited.

The toy pistol users were dangerous to themselves alone and yet the legislatures have laid hold of that danger and to a great extent have removed it.

The joy riders and the youngsters driving powerful automobiles over the public highways not only endanger their own lives but the lives of every member of the public who has an equal right to the use of the highway and the same or perhaps a greater necessity to travel it.

The increase in the use of these big machines has caused a great many of them to fall into inexperienced hands.

The morgue lists and the hospital lists will each day tell the consequences which follow this unlicensed and unbridled use of automobiles.

There should be something of knowledge and experience as well as age, required before the authorities allow the use of an automobile by any one.

The mere payment of a five dollar fee to the state and the purchase of a tin number tag, furnishes no protection to either the public or the automobile user.

Something more should be required, then the number of killed and injured will decrease instead of increase and in addition every one will feel safer, be safer and have a much clearer conscience.

The Union Central Life Insurance Company

High Interest Earnings, Low Death Rate and Economical Management enables the Union Central to give to its Policy Holders the Lowest Net Cost. For further information see

E. J. LIGHT, Agt., - NEW JUDY BLOCK Home Phone 538

COMPILED VALUABLE ARMY BOOK

Capt. Charles R. Howland of the Twenty-first infantry, U. S. A., is the author of a digest of the opinions of the judge advocate general that is considered by the war department so valuable that it has been officially adopted and ordered into use at once. Captain Howland is from Ohio and is a brother of Congressman Howland of that state.

Poetry-Today

THE COLONEL'S RIDE.

Out of the west to Oyster Bay,
Bringing to sagamore fresh dismay,
The noise of the conflict rose and fell,
"Liar!" and "Robber!" and shriek and yell,
Which told how the hosts of Taft arrayed
Were crushing the little Pinhead Brigade;
And none could stop them and none could stay,
And the Colonel a thousand miles away.

The messages came in fast and thick;
"For the love of Mike, bring the old Big Stick!"
The Colonel put on his brand-new hat,
For the one in the ring was mashed and flat,
And over his face came a shade of pain
As he ordered a seat in the reg'lar train—
No "special" prepared for him that day
To Chicago, a thousand miles away.

So he paid his fare and went aboard,
Resolving to crush the "thieving horde",
On the shores that Michigan's waters lave,
Where Flinn, McCormick and Dixon rave,
Where the rolling waves are green, not blue,
And the old steam rollers are rolling too—
The Colonel went off to lead the fray
In Chicago, a thousand miles away.

'Twere better far for this rhyme, of course,
If the train he took were a gallant horse,
But all may see in the train and man
The ride of the modern Sheridan.

* * *

The famous battle of Waterloo
Was fought on the day that he fought too,
And he now regrets that he didn't stay
From Chicago, a thousand miles away.

—New York Herald.

MRS. HENDERSON'S WAIST.

Mrs. Henderson isn't going to wear that pretty white waist of hers again, because it came from the wash all streaked and spotted by the rosin that was in the common yellow soap.

If Mrs. Henderson will have it washed again with Easy Task soap, which has no rosin in it to streak and rot the fabric, ten to one it will look like new. Easy Task does wonders for the clothes and for the women who work. Costs no more than poor soaps.

Want ads are profitable.

Weather Report

Washington, June 22.—Ohio, Indiana and Lower Michigan—Fair Saturday and Sunday; not much change in temperature.

Illinois—Generally fair Saturday and Sunday; light variable winds.

Tennessee, Kentucky and West Virginia—Fair Saturday and Sunday; not much change in temperature.

WEATHER OBSERVATIONS.

Observations of the United States weather bureau taken at 8 p. m. Friday:

	Temp.	Weather
Columbus	65	Cloudy
New York	70	Cloudy
Albany	66	Rain
Atlantic City	66	Clear
Boston	70	Cloudy
Buffalo	66	Cloudy
Chicago	64	Clear
St. Louis	77	Clear
New Orleans	82	Clear
Wasnington	76	Clear
Philadelphia	76	Clear

Weather Forecast.

Washington, June 22.—Indications for tomorrow:

Ohio—Fair; not much change in temperature; light variable winds.

Holding Up The Cement Road Work

The engineer in charge of building the cement road in Ross county ordered the contractors to suspend their work a day or two ago because the work was not coming up to the standard.

He then sent for an engineer from the State Highway commissioner's office, who will go over the work. The gravel being used is said to be anything but satisfactory. Two miles of the road will be built.

TYPEWRITER DEPARTMENT OPENED.

For several years, H. R. Rodecker has been handling typewriters, and has now added a complete typewriter department, carrying in stock the popular machines in new high grade thoroughly rebuilt typewriters. Remingtons, Underwoods, Smith Premiers, etc., which are fully guaranteed, and is prepared to supply customers any machine on the market at less than manufacturers' price.

MOVE ON NOW!

says a policeman to a street crowd, and whacks heads if it don't. "Move on now," says the big, harsh mineral pills to bowel congestion and suffering follows. Dr. King's New Life Pills don't bulldose the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action, and health follows. 25c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

"Process Butter" Defined By Commissioner Strode

The state dairy and food department from time to time is compelled to prosecute dealers in process butter or renovated butter, who fail to comply with the law requiring such butter to be sold under a stamp or label containing the words "Renovated Butter" or "Process Butter" in plain Gothic letters at least three-eights of an inch square. The fine for violation of this law is not less than $50.00 nor more than $100.00 for the first offence and for the second offense not less than $100.00 nor more than $300.00, or imprisonment not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days, or both. Some dealers sell this renovated or process butter for dairy butter, which is a distinct violation of the law.

For the information of all dealers and the public at large, the department has deemed it best to define what is meant by the different kinds of butter. The National law divides butter into three classes.

The first class is defined to be, "A food product usually known as butter, which is made exclusively of milk or cream, or both, with or without common salt, and with or without additional coloring matter." All butter which does not come under the terms of this definition, therefore necessarily falls into one of the other two classes.

The second class is defined as, "A grade of butter produced by mixing, refining, or in any way producing a uniform, purified, or improved product from different lots or parcels of melted or unmelted butter or butter fat, in which any acid, alkali, chemical, or other substance is introduced for the purpose of removing rancidity;" or "any butter or butter fat with which there is mixed any substance foreign to butter as cheapening the product, or any butter in the manufacture or manipulation of which any material is used herein defined, with the intention of with intent to cause the absorption of abnormal quantities of water, milk or cream."

The third class of butter is defined as process or renovated butter and is the grade which has been subjected to any process by which it is melted, clarified, or refined and made to resemble genuine butter.

Butters of the first and third classes are the only ones that can be legally sold in Ohio. Butters of the second class are considered as adulerations and cannot be sold legally in Ohio.

The department is sometimes asked whether a product known as ladled butter, which is made by mixing or reworking different lots or parcels of butter so as to secure a uniform product, can be legally sold. The answer to this question is, yes, providing that none of the butter entering into the uniform product is rancid or comes in the class of adulerated butter.

Butter of the first class can be sold without any card or designation of any kind. This includes the so-called country or creamery butter, dairy butter and the like, but butter of the third class, known as renovated butter, cannot be sold except it is labeled or stamped "renovated butter" or process butter."

What is known as merged butter cannot be sold legally under any name or circumstances in the state, as it is primarily and simply an adulteration.

At a meeting of the grocers of Cleveland recently, following an address made by Commissioner Strode, a gentleman who had been prosecuted by the department for selling renovated butter or process butter as dairy butter complained because he was fined and pleaded that he had not been fairly treated. It was noteworthy that this man received no sympathy at all from the grocers of Cleveland. The law is so clear and distinct upon this question that it is not possible for any one to make a mistake in the sale of process butter for dairy butter, if he will take a moment's time for investigation. The department is always lenient upon the side of honest mistakes, but it is the policy of the department to prosecute all violators of the law, whose evident intention it is to profit by the sale of renovated butter for creamery or dairy butter. This practice is unfair to all honest dealers and unfair also to the producers of creamery and dairy butter. The law requires how these different grades can be sold and the interest of the public and all honest dealers requires that the different grades of butter should be sold for what they are. The department hopes that by giving publicity to these facts it can reduce the necessity for prosecution and still further secure the co-operation of all honest dealers in the enforcement of the pure food laws.

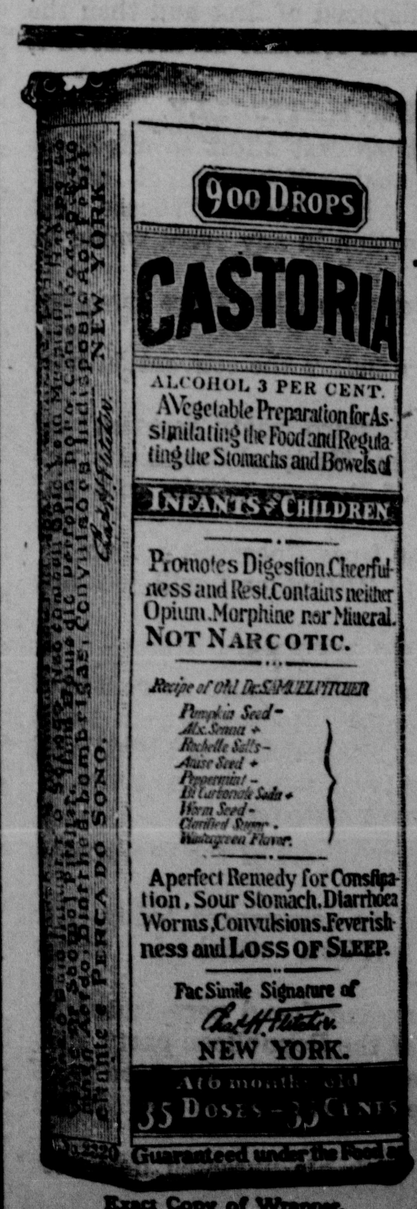
Man of Visions Is In the Toils

Noah Andersons, 23, the man who recently tried to secure $3,000 from the Fidelity Building & Loan Company of Columbus by representing that he owned the Renick farm in Pickaway county, is now confined in the Franklin county jail awaiting trial.

The young man claims to fortell many things, and that he has a wonderful Bible and a key which his mother used to own which gives him the power to see what is in the future.

"I know where Frank Coltz is buried," he told the officials, "and some of these days I will find his grave, but not as long as I have enemies who knock me." Coltz is the missing farm hand of the Hagelganz murder fame.

It is thought the fellow is unbalanced. Several years ago he was struck on the head with an ax, and since that time he claims to have had the power of divining things.



Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher
In Use For Over Thirty Years
CASTORIA
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

WASHINGTON DAILY HERALD

THE HERALD PUBLISHING COMPANY

W. W. MILLIKAN, President.

PUBLICATION OFFICE NO. 206 EAST COURT ST., OPP. POST OFFICE

Subscriptions: By Carrier 10 Cents a Week. In advance $5.00 for the year. By Mail and on all Free Rural Deliveries Cash in Advance $3.00 a year; $1.75, 6 months; $1.00, 3 months; 35c, 1 month.

ADVERTISING RATES FURNISHED ON APPLICATION

Obituaries, memorial notices, resolutions and cards of thanks will be charged for at half rates, or 2½ cents per line of six words.

Entered as Second Class Matter, August 20, 1910, at the Postoffice at Washington C. H., Ohio, Under the Act of March 3d, 1879.

TELEPHONES—Home No. 137. Bell, Main No. 170.

NOW FOR BALTIMORE.

The Republican National convention dragged through a rather tedious session on Friday and a great many men who had gone to Chicago to see the game from start to finish, were compelled to leave for home disappointed.

They had seen neither a bolt, and two nominations nor even one nomination.

Saturday morning a great number of the delegates declared themselves thoroughly tired out with the tedious routine of business into which the convention had settled on Friday and insisted that on Saturday there would be something doing, looking toward bringing the convention to an end.

For a time Friday it seemed that the people of the nation would be treated to or inflicted with (it's all according to the way you feel about it) two national conventions—one Republican and one Democratic, both in session at the same time.

The newspaper men who welcomed the opening of the Chicago gathered as a good news prospect, had begun to feel sorry for themselves and the public too, just as a determination to close the work up, if possible, at Chicago on Saturday seized upon the delegates.

There was not much of the sensational at Chicago in the Friday session—there were promising flashes but no real doings.

William Jennings Bryan has left Chicago post haste for Baltimore, fighting mad over the selection of Alton B. Parker as the temporary chairman of the Democratic convention and the Chicago gathering having quieted down, after being rolled out smooth, the public must now look to Baltimore for the fire works.

The bright prospects of a real scrap at Chicago failed of results and it may be that the prospects of peace and quiet at Baltimore may be unfounded and joyous political rioting may reign supreme in that convention.

The public has been standing on tip toe now for a week, waiting for the explosion to come. It would be cruel to stage both conventions in two consecutive weeks and then have no cylinder-heads blown out.

NEED FOR REGULATION.

The number of automobile accidents, increasing in the same proportion as the number of automobiles in use increases, and the fact that a very large percentage of these accidents is due to inexperience of those handling the wheel, is compelling thinking people to insist that regulatory legislation of some kind must be enacted.

Conditions growing out of the handling of automobiles by inexperienced persons and by mere youngsters too, are demanding attention.

Like the users of the toy pistol, and other obselete implements of extreme danger, designed originally for amusement only, the reckless drivers of automobiles must be saved, if it is possible to do so, from inflicting injury upon themselves.

The public of course, is more directly interested in seeing to it that automobiles are not permitted to be handled and driven through the public highways in a manner dangerous to occupants of the machine and to other travelers on the highway, than it is that the use of the toy pistol should be prohibited.

The toy pistol users were dangerous to themselves alone and yet the legislatures have laid hold of that danger and to a great extent have removed it.

The joy riders and the youngsters driving powerful automobiles over the public highways not only endanger their own lives but the lives of every member of the public who has an equal right to the use of the highway and the same or perhaps a greater necessity to travel it.

The increase in the use of these big machines has caused a great many of them to fall into inexperienced hands.

The morgue lists and the hospital lists will each day tell the consequences which follow this unlicensed and unbridled use of automobiles.

There should be something of knowledge and experience as well as age, required before the authorities allow the use of an automobile by any one.

The mere payment of a five dollar fee to the state and the purchase of a tin number tag, furnishes no protection to either the public or the automobile user.

Something more should be required, then the number of killed and injured will decrease instead of increase and in addition every one will feel safer, be safer and have a much clearer conscience.

The Union Central Life Insurance Company

High Interest Earnings, Low Death Rate and Economical Management enables the Union Central to give to its Policy Holders the Lowest Net Cost. For further information see

E. J. LIGHT, Agt., - NEW JUDY BLOCK Home Phone 538

COMPILED VALUABLE ARMY BOOK

Capt. Charles R. Howland of the Twenty-first Infantry, U. S. A., is the author of a digest of the opinions of the judge advocate general that is considered by the war department so valuable that it has been officially adopted and ordered into use at once. Captain Howland is from Ohio and is a brother of Congressman Howland of that state.

Poetry-Today

THE COLONEL'S RIDE.

Out of the west to Oyster Bay,
Bringing to sagamore fresh dismay,
The noise of the conflict rose and fell,
"Liar!" and "Robber!" and shriek and yell,
Which told how the hosts of Taft arrayed
Were crushing the little Pinhead Brigade;
And none could stop them and none could stay,
And the Colonel a thousand miles away.

The messages came in fast and thick;
"For the love of Mike, bring the old Big Stick!"
The Colonel put on his brand-new hat,
For the one in the ring was mashed and flat,
And over his face came a shade of pain
As he ordered a seat in the reg'lar train—
No "special" prepared for him that day
To Chicago, a thousand miles away.

So he paid his fare and went aboard,
Resolving to crush the "thieving horde",
On the shores that Michigan's waters lave,
Where Flinn, McCormick and Dixon rave,
Where the rolling waves are green, not blue,
And the old steam rollers are rolling too—
The Colonel went off to lead the fray
In Chicago, a thousand miles away.

'Twere better far for this rhyme, of course,
If the train he took were a gallant horse,
But all may see in the train and man
The ride of the modern Sheridan.

* * *

The famous battle of Waterloo
Was fought on the day that he fought too,
And he now regrets that he didn't stay
From Chicago, a thousand miles away.

—New York Herald.

MRS. HENDERSON'S WAIST.

Mrs. Henderson isn't going to wear that pretty white waist of hers again, because it came from the wash all streaked and spotted by the rosin that was in the common yellow soap.

If Mrs. Henderson will have it washed again with Easy Task soap, which has no rosin in it to streak and rot the fabric, ten to one it will look like new. Easy Task does wonders for the clothes and for the women who work. Costs no more than poor soaps.

Want ads are profitable.

Weather Report

Washington, June 22.—Ohio, Indiana and Lower Michigan—Fair Saturday and Sunday; not much change in temperature.

Illinois—Generally fair Saturday and Sunday; light variable winds.

Tennessee, Kentucky and West Virginia—Fair Saturday and Sunday; not much change in temperature.

WEATHER OBSERVATIONS.

Observations of the United States weather bureau taken at 8 p. m. Friday:

	Temp.	Weather
Columbus	65	Cloudy
New York	70	Cloudy
Albany	66	Rain
Atlantic City	66	Clear
Boston	70	Cloudy
Buffalo	66	Cloudy
Chicago	64	Clear
St. Louis	77	Clear
New Orleans	82	Clear
Wasnington	76	Clear
Philadelphia	76	Clear

Weather Forecast.

Washington, June 22.—Indications for tomorrow:

Ohio—Fair; not much change in temperature; light variable winds.

Holding Up The Cement Road Work

The engineer in charge of building the cement road in Ross county ordered the contractors to suspend their work a day or two ago because the work was not coming up to the standard.

He then sent for an engineer from the State Highway commissioner's office, who will go over the work. The gravel being used is said to be anything but satisfactory. Two miles of the road will be built.

TYPEWRITER DEPARTMENT OPENED.

For several years, H. R. Rodecker has been handling typewriters, and has now added a complete typewriter department, carrying in stock the popular machines in new high grade thoroughly rebuilt typewriters. Remingtons, Underwoods, Smith Premiers, etc., which are fully guaranteed, and is prepared to supply customers any machine on the market at less than manufacturers' price.

MOVE ON NOW!

says a policeman to a street crowd, and whacks heads if it don't. "Move on now," says the big, harsh mineral pills to bowel congestion and suffering follows. Dr. King's New Life Pills don't bulldoze the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action, and health follows. 25c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

"Process Butter" Defined By Commissioner Strode

The state dairy and food department from time to time is compelled to prosecute dealers in process butter or renovated butter, who fail to comply with the law requiring such butter to be sold under a stamp or label containing the words "Renovated Butter" or "Process Butter" in plain Gothic letters at least three-eights of an inch square. The fine for violation of this law is not less than $50.00 nor more than $100.00 for the first offence and for the second offense not less than $100.00 nor more than $300.00, or imprisonment not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days, or both. Some dealers sell this renovated or process butter for dairy butter, which is a distinct violation of the law.

For the information of all dealers and the public at large, the department has deemed it best to define what is meant by the different kinds of butter. The National law divides butter into three classes.

The first class is defined to be, "A food product usually known as butter, which is made exclusively of milk or cream, or both, with or without common salt, and with or without additional coloring matter." All butter which does not come under the terms of this definition, therefore necessarily falls into one of the other two classes.

The second class is defined as, "A grade of butter produced by mixing, refining, or in any way producing a uniform, purified, or improved product from different lots or parcels of melted or unmelted butter or butter fat, in which any acid, alkali, chemical, or other substance is introduced for the purpose of removing rancidity;" or "any butter or butter fat with which there is mixed any substance foreign to butter as cheapening the product, or any butter in the manufacture or manipulation of which any material is used herein defined, with the intention of with intent to cause the absorption of abnormal quantities of water, milk or cream."

The third class of butter is defined as process or renovated butter and is the grade which has been subjected to any process by which it is melted, clarified, or refined and made to resemble genuine butter.

Butters of the first and third classes are the only ones that can be legally sold in Ohio. Butters of the second class are considered as adulerations and cannot be sold legally in Ohio.

The department is sometimes asked whether a product known as ladled butter, which is made by mixing or reworking different lots or parcels of butter so as to secure a uniform product, can be legally sold. The answer to this question is, yes, providing that none of the butter entering into the uniform product is rancid or comes in the class of adulerated butter.

Butter of the first class can be sold without any card or designation of any kind. This includes the so-called country or creamery butter, dairy butter and the like, but butter of the third class, known as renovated butter, cannot be sold except it is labeled or stamped "renovated butter" or process butter."

What is known as merged butter cannot be sold legally under any name or circumstances in the state, as it is primarily and simply an adulteration.

At a meeting of the grocers of Cleveland recently, following an address made by Commissioner Strode, a gentleman who had been prosecuted by the department for selling renovated butter or process butter as dairy butter complained because he was fined and pleaded that he had not been fairly treated. It was noteworthy that this man received no sympathy at all from the grocers of Cleveland. The law is so clear and distinct upon this question that it is not possible for any one to make a mistake in the sale of process butter for dairy butter, if he will take a moment's time for investigation. The department is always lenient upon the side of honest mistakes, but it is the policy of the department to prosecute all violators of the law, whose evident intention it is to profit by the sale of renovated butter for creamery or dairy butter. This practice is unfair to all honest dealers and unfair also to the producers of creamery and dairy butter. The law requires how these different grades can be sold and the interest of the public and all honest dealers requires that the different grades of butter should be sold for what they are. The department hopes that by giving publicity to these facts it can reduce the necessity for prosecution and still further secure the co-operation of all honest dealers in the enforcement of the pure food laws.

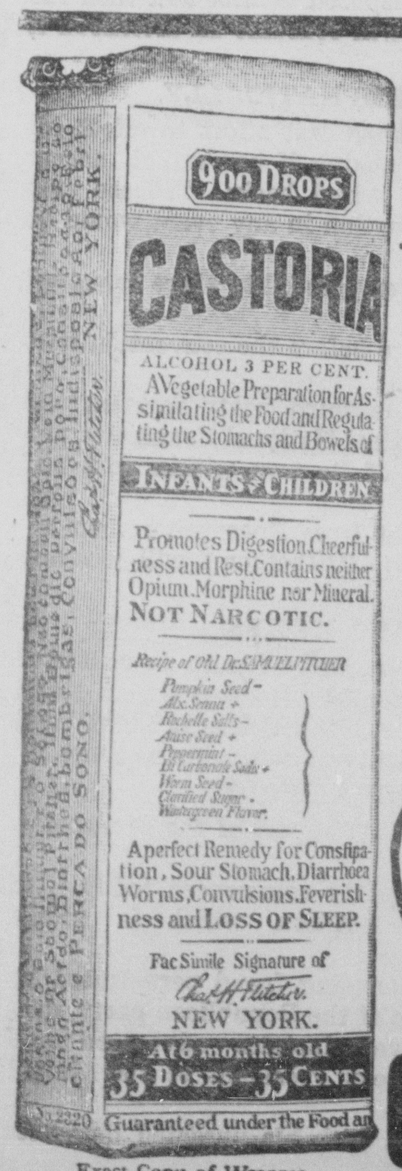
Man of Visions Is In the Toils

Noah Andersons, 23, the man who recently tried to secure $3,000 from the Fidelity Building & Loan Company of Columbus by representing that he owned the Renick farm in Pickaway county, is now confined in the Franklin county jail awaiting trial.

The young man claims to fortell many things, and that he has a wonderful Bible and a key which his mother used to own which gives him the power to see what is in the future.

"I know where Frank Coltz is buried," he told the officials, "and some of these days I will find his grave, but not as long as I have enemies who knock me." Coltz is the missing farm hand of the Hagelganz murder fame.

It is thought the fellow is unbalanced. Several years ago he was struck on the head with an ax, and since that time he claims to have had the power of divining things.



Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

WASHINGTON DAILY HERALD

THE HERALD PUBLISHING COMPANY
W. W. MILLIKAN, President.
PUBLICATION OFFICE NO. 206 EAST COURT ST., OPP. POST OFFICE

Subscriptions: By Carrier 10 Cents a Week. In advance $5.00 for the year. By Mail and on all Free Rural Deliveries Cash in Advance $3.00 a year; $1.75, 6 months; $1.00, 3 months; 35c, 1 month.

ADVERTISING RATES FURNISHED ON APPLICATION

Obituaries, memorial notices, resolutions and cards of thanks will be charged for at half rates, or 2½ cents per line of six words.

Entered as Second Class Matter, August 20, 1910, at the Postoffice at Washington C. H., Ohio, Under the Act of March 3d, 1879.

TELEPHONES—Home No. 137. Bell, Main No. 170.

NOW FOR BALTIMORE.

The Republican National convention dragged through a rather tedious session on Friday and a great many men who had gone to Chicago to see the game from start to finish, were compelled to leave for home disappointed.

They had seen neither a bolt, and two nominations nor even one nomination.

Saturday morning a great number of the delegates declared themselves thoroughly tired out with the tedious routine of business into which the convention had settled on Friday and insisted that on Saturday there would be something doing, looking toward bringing the convention to an end.

For a time Friday it seemed that the people of the nation would be treated to or inflicted with (it's all according to the way you feel about it) two national conventions—one Republican and one Democratic, both in session at the same time.

The newspaper men who welcomed the opening of the Chicago gathered as a good news prospect, had begun to feel sorry for themselves and the public too, just as a determination to close the work up, if possible, at Chicago on Saturday seized upon the delegates.

There was not much of the sensational at Chicago in the Friday session—there were promising flashes but no real doings.

William Jennings Bryan has left Chicago post haste for Baltimore, fighting mad over the selection of Alton B. Parker as the temporary chairman of the Democratic convention and the Chicago gathering having quieted down, after being rolled out smooth, the public must now look to Baltimore for the fire works.

The bright prospects of a real scrap at Chicago failed of results and it may be that the prospects of peace and quiet at Baltimore may be unfounded and joyous political rioting may reign supreme in that convention.

The public has been standing on tip toe now for a week, waiting for the explosion to come. It would be cruel to stage both conventions in two consecutive weeks and then have no cylinder-heads blown out.

NEED FOR REGULATION.

The number of automobile accidents, increasing in the same proportion as the number of automobiles in use increases, and the fact that a very large percentage of these accidents is due to inexperience of those handling the wheel, is compelling thinking people to insist that regulatory legislation of some kind must be enacted.

Conditions growing out of the handling of automobiles by inexperienced persons and by mere youngsters too, are demanding attention.

Like the users of the toy pistol, and other obselete implements of extreme danger, designed originally for amusement only, the reckless drivers of automobiles must be saved, if it is possible to do so, from inflicting injury upon themselves.

The public of course, is more directly interested in seeing to it that automobiles are not permitted to be handled and driven through the public highways in a manner dangerous to occupants of the machine and to other travelers on the highway, than it is that the use of the toy pistol should be prohibited.

The toy pistol users were dangerous to themselves alone and yet the legislatures have laid hold of that danger and to a great extent have removed it.

The joy riders and the youngsters driving powerful automobiles over the public highways not only endanger their own lives but the lives of every member of the public who has an equal right to the use of the highway and the same or perhaps a greater necessity to travel it.

The increase in the use of these big machines has caused a great many of them to fall into inexperienced hands.

The morgue lists and the hospital lists will each day tell the consequences which follow this unlicensed and unbridled use of automobiles.

There should be something of knowledge and experience as well as age, required before the authorities allow the use of an automobile by any one.

The mere payment of a five dollar fee to the state and the purchase of a tin number tag, furnishes no protection to either the public or the automobile user.

Something more should be required, then the number of killed and injured will decrease instead of increase and in addition every one will feel safer, be safer and have a much clearer conscience.

The Union Central Life Insurance Company

High Interest Earnings, Low Death Rate and Economical Management enables the Union Central to give to its Policy Holders the Lowest Net Cost. For further information see

E. J. LIGHT, Agt., NEW JUDY BLOCK Home Phone 538

COMPILED VALUABLE ARMY BOOK

Capt. Charles R. Howland of the Twenty-first Infantry, U. S. A., is the author of a digest of the opinions of the judge advocate general that is considered by the war department so valuable that it has been officially adopted and ordered into use at once. Captain Howland is from Obio and is a brother of Congressman Howland of that state.

Poetry-Today

THE COLONEL'S RIDE.

Out of the west to Oyster Bay,
Bringing to sagamore fresh dismay,
The noise of the conflict rose and fell,
"Liar!" and "Robber!" and shriek and yell,
Which told how the hosts of Taft arrayed
Were crushing the little Pinhead Brigade;
And none could stop them and none could stay,
And the Colonel a thousand miles away.

The messages came in fast and thick;
"For the love of mike, bring the old Big Stick!"
The Colonel put on his brand-new hat,
For the one in the ring was mashed and flat,
And over his face came a shade of pain
As he ordered a seat in the reg'lar train—
No "special" prepared for him that day
To Chicago, a thousand miles away.

So he paid his fare and went aboard,
Resolving to crush the "thieving horde"
On the shores that Michigan's waters lave,
Where Flinn, McCormick and Dixon rave,
Where the rolling waves are green, not blue,
And the old steam rollers are rolling too—
The Colonel went off to lead the fray
In Chicago, a thousand miles away.

'Twere better far for this rhyme, of course,
If the train he took were a gallant horse,
But all may see in the train and man
The ride of the modern Sheridan.

* * *

The famous battle of Waterloo
Was fought on the day that he fought too,
And he now regrets that he didn't stay
From Chicago, a thousand miles away.

—New York Herald.

MRS. HENDERSON'S WAIST.

Mrs. Henderson isn't going to wear that pretty white waist of hers again, because it came from the wash all streaked and spotted by the rosin that was in the common yellow soap.

If Mrs. Henderson will have it washed again with Easy Task soap, which has no rosin in it to streak and rot the fabric, ten to one it will look like new. Easy Task does wonders for the clothes and for the women who wash. Costs no more than poor soaps.

Want ads are profitable.

Weather Report

Washington, June 22.—Ohio, Indiana and Lower Michigan—Fair Saturday and Sunday; not much change in temperature.

Illinois—Generally fair Saturday and Sunday; light variable winds.

Tennessee, Kentucky and West Virginia—Fair Saturday and Sunday; not much change in temperature.

WEATHER OBSERVATIONS.

Observations of the United States weather bureau taken at 8 p. m. Friday:

	Temp.	Weather
Columbus	65	Cloudy
New York	70	Cloudy
Albany	66	Rain
Atlantic City	66	Clear
Boston	70	Cloudy
Buffalo	66	Cloudy
Chicago	64	Clear
St. Louis	77	Clear
New Orleans	82	Clear
Wasnington	76	Clear
Philadelphia	76	Clear

Weather Forecast.

Washington, June 22.—Indications for tomorrow:

Ohio—Fair; not much change in temperature; light variable winds.

Holding Up The Cement Road Work

The engineer in charge of building the cement road in Ross county ordered the contractors to suspend their work a day or two ago because the work was not coming up to the standard.

He then sent for an engineer from the State Highway commissioner's office, who will go over the work. The gravel being used is said to be anything but satisfactory. Two miles of the road will be built.

TYPEWRITER DEPARTMENT OPENED.

For several years, H. R. Rodecker has been handling typewriters, and has now added a complete typewriter department, carrying in stock the popular machines in new high grade thoroughly rebuilt typewriters. Remingtons, Underwoods, Smith Premiers, etc., which are fully guaranteed, and is prepared to supply customers any machine on the market at less than manufacturers' price.

MOVE ON NOW!

says a policeman to a street crowd, and whacks heads if it don't. "Move on now," says the big, harsh mineral pills to bowel congestion and suffering follows. Dr. King's New Life Pills don't bulldoze the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action, and health follows. 25c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

"Process Butter" Defined By Commissioner Strode

The state dairy and food department from time to time is compelled to prosecute dealers in process butter or renovated butter, who fail to comply with the law requiring such butter to be sold under a stamp or label containing the words "Renovated Butter" or "Process Butter" in plain Gothic letters at least three-eights of an inch square. The fine for violation of this law is not less than $50.00 nor more than $100.00 for the first offence and for the second offense not less than $100.00 nor more than $300.00, or imprisonment not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days, or both. Some dealers sell this renovated or process butter for dairy butter, which is a distinct violation of the law.

For the information of all dealers and the public at large, the department has deemed it best to define what is meant by the different kinds of butter. The National law divides butter into three classes.

The first class is defined to be, "A food product usually known as butter, which is made exclusively of milk or cream, or both, with or without common salt, and with or without additional coloring matter." All butter which does not come under the terms of this definition, therefore necessarily falls into one of the other two classes.

The second class is defined as, "A grade of butter produced by mixing, refining, or in any way producing a uniform, purified, or improved product from different lots or parcels of melted or unmelted butter or butter fat, in which any acid, alkali, chemical, or other substance is introduced for the purpose of removing rancidity;" or "any butter or butter fat with which there is mixed any substance foreign to butter as cheapening the product, or any butter in the manufacture or manipulation of which any material is used herein defined, with the intention of with intent to cause the absorption of abnormal quantities of water, milk or cream."

The third class of butter is defined as process or renovated butter and is the grade which has been subjected to any process by which it is melted, clarified, or refined and made to resemble genuine butter.

Butters of the first and third classes are the only ones that can be legally sold in Ohio. Butters of the second class are considered as adulerations and cannot be sold legally in Ohio.

The department is sometimes asked whether a product known as ladled butter, which is made by mixing or reworking different lots or parcels of butter so as to secure a uniform product, can be legally sold. The answer to this question is, yes, providing that none of the butter entering into the uniform product is rancid or comes in the class of adulerated butter.

Butter of the first class can be sold without any card or designation of any kind. This includes the so-called country or creamery butter, dairy butter and the like, but butter of the third class, known as renovated butter, cannot be sold except it is labeled or stamped "renovated butter" or process butter."

What is known as merged butter cannot be sold legally under any name or circumstances in the state, as it is primarily and simply an adulteration.

At a meeting of the grocers of Cleveland recently, following an address made by Commissioner Strode, a gentleman who had been prosecuted by the department for selling renovated butter or process butter as dairy butter complained because he was fined and pleaded that he had not been fairly treated. It was noteworthy that this man received no sympathy at all from the grocers of Cleveland. The law is so clear and distinct upon this question that it is not possible for any one to make a mistake in the sale of process butter for dairy butter, if he will take a moment's time for investigation. The department is always lenient upon the side of honest mistakes, but it is the policy of the department to prosecute all violators of the law, whose evident intention it is to profit by the sale of renovated butter for creamery or dairy butter. This practice is unfair to all honest dealers and unfair also to the producers of creamery and dairy butter. The law requires how these different grades can be sold and the interest of the public and all honest dealers requires that the different grades of butter should be sold for what they are. The department hopes that by giving publicity to these facts it can reduce the necessity for prosecution and still further secure the co-operation of all honest dealers in the enforcement of the pure food laws.

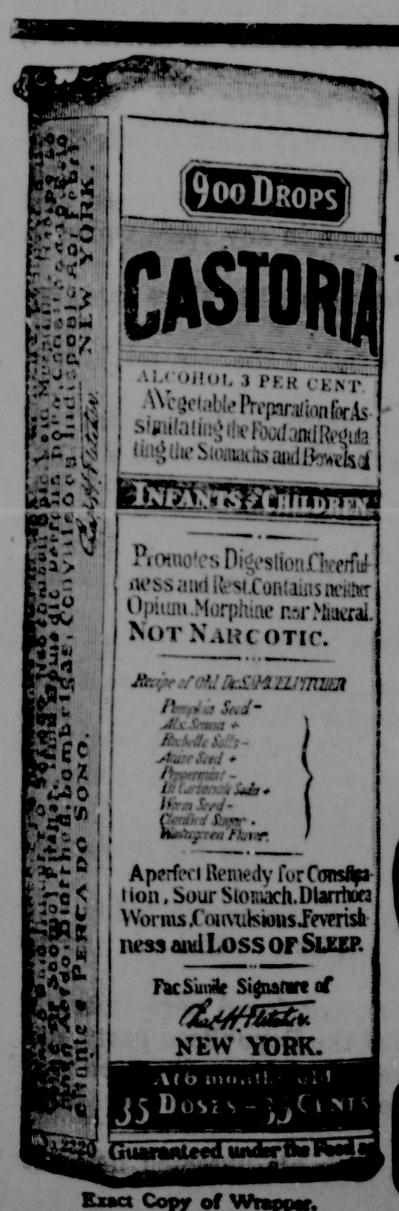
Man of Visions Is In the Toils

Noah Andersons, 23, the man who recently tried to secure $3,000 from the Fidelity Building & Loan Company of Columbus by representing that he owned the Renick farm in Pickaway county, is now confined in the Franklin county jail awaiting trial.

The young man claims to fortell many things, and that he has a wonderful Bible and a key which his mother used to own which gives him the power to see what is in the future.

"I know where Frank Coltz is buried," he told the officials, "and some of these days I will find his grave, but not as long as I have enemies who knock me." Coltz is the missing farm hand of the Hagelganz murder fame.

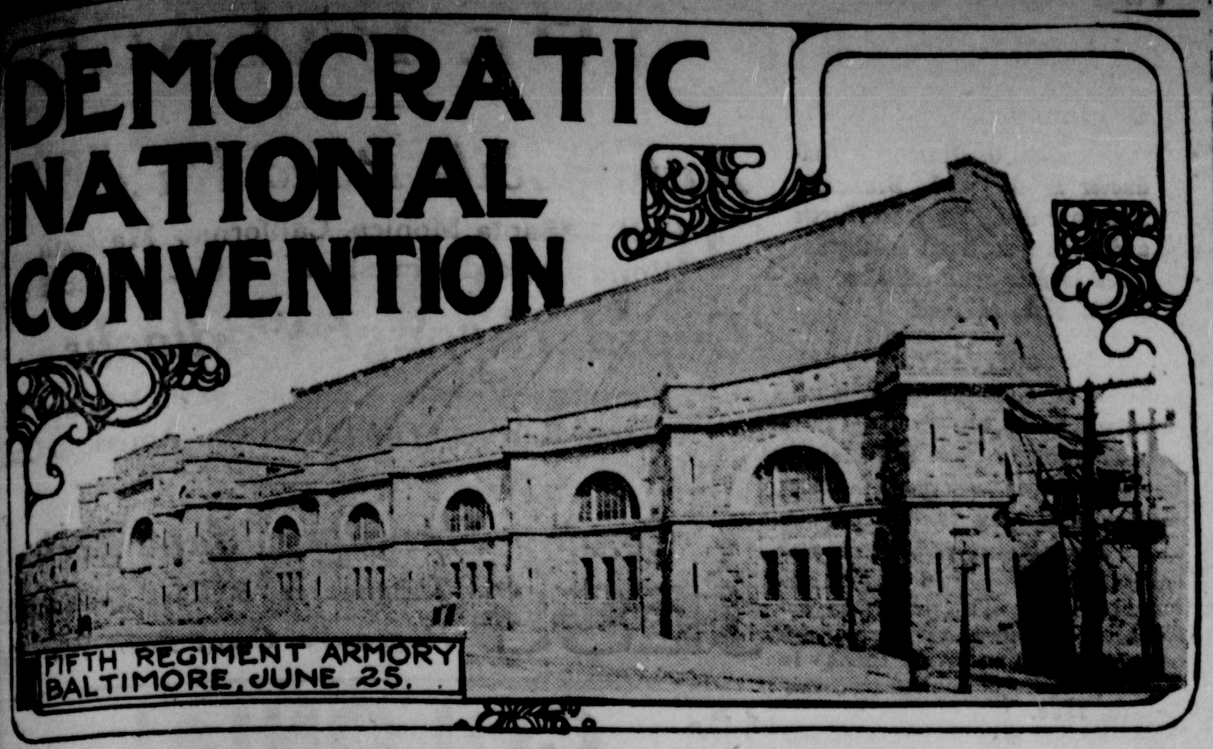
It is thought the fellow is unbalanced. Several years ago he was struck on the head with an ax, and since that time he claims to have had the power of divining things.



Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher
In Use For Over Thirty Years
CASTORIA
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION



FACTS ABOUT THE CONVENTION HALL.

The convention will be held in the drill room of the Fifth regiment armory.

The armory is near the Pennsylvania and B. and O. stations and occupies nearly two city blocks.

It has a floor space of 200 by 300 feet, capable of seating 12,000 people. By the use of temporary and permanent balconies this is being increased to 20,000.

Around the hall are twenty-one smaller rooms that can be used for the meeting of committees and for the press.

The roof is vaulted and at the highest point is more than 100 feet above the floor. Windows are high, and there is good ventilation.

Since the fire Baltimore has been rebuilt, and there are a number of first class new hotels. Average rates will be $3 and $4 a day. In addition citizens' homes will be thrown open.

By JAMES A. EDGERTON.

THE Democratic national convention of 1912 returns to the city where the first national convention of that party assembled eighty years ago. Up to and including 1824 presidential nominations were made by committees of congress. In that year the system was attacked, and between that and 1828 various conventions were held in different parts of the country, but no Democratic national convention, properly speaking, was assembled till 1832. That year one gathered at Baltimore and nominated President Andrew Jackson for a second term.

The convention which named Martin Van Buren as Jackson's successor also met in Baltimore, but was a year ahead of time, being held in 1835. The four succeeding national conventions of the party were likewise held in the Maryland metropolis—that of 1840 renominating Van Buren, that of 1844 naming James K. Polk, that of 1848 selecting Lewis Cass and that of 1852 choosing Franklin Pierce. Thus far Baltimore as a Democratic convention city was lucky, four of the five candidates named there having been elected.

With 1852, however, the scepter and the luck departed from Baltimore. Four years later Buchanan was nominated at Cincinnati. In 1860 the Democratic convention first met at Charleston and split into fragments, two of these afterward reassembling in Baltimore and naming two tickets, one headed by Stephen A. Douglas and the other by John C. Breckinridge. A third fragment reconvened at Richmond and indorsed Breckinridge. This splitting of the once proud and triumphant Democracy made possible the election of Abraham Lincoln, and the party of Jefferson and Jackson did not seat another president till 1885.

BURKE

Lincoln Renominated at Baltimore.

In those days Baltimore was as much the national convention city as Chicago is now. Not only the Democrats, but the Whigs, assembled there, Henry Clay and General Winfield Scott being among the candidates of that party selected in the Maryland city. The Republicans followed suit only once, Abraham Lincoln being renominated in Baltimore in 1864. His Democratic opponent in that campaign was General George B. McClellan, nominated at Chicago.

Only once has a Democratic convention gone to New York city. That was in 1868. Horatio Seymour was its permanent chairman, was sprung as a dark horse candidate and nominated against his protest.

The last Baltimore convention of any party was that of the Democrats, which named Horace Greeley in 1872. Greeley had already been made a candidate by the Liberal Republicans, and there was nothing left for the Democrats but to ratify him, which some of them did with wry faces. In its outcome that ticket was as ill starred as the one headed by Douglas twelve years earlier.

It is an interesting coincidence that the first Democratic convention met in Baltimore just eighty years ago and the last one exactly forty years ago.

Since 1872 the Democratic convention cities and nominees have been as follows: 1876, Samuel J. Tilden at Chicago; 1880, Winfield Scott Hancock at Cincinnati; 1884, Grover Cleveland at Chicago; 1888, Grover Cleveland at St. Louis; 1892, Grover Cleveland at Chicago; 1896, William J. Bryan at Chicago; 1900, William J. Bryan at Kansas City; 1904, Alton B. Parker at St. Louis; 1908, William J. Bryan at Denver.

The conclave of this year will be the twenty-first regular Democratic convention held and the ninth to meet in Baltimore. Only fifteen men have been named for president at the twenty previous conventions, and but six of these were elected. Outside of the eight conventions in Baltimore four were held in Chicago, three in St. Louis, two in Cincinnati and one each in New York, Kansas City and Denver.

Everybody Claiming It.

That ought to be enough statistics to hold the most omnivorous eater up of figures. If the average reader is not asleep by this time there is no hope of soothing him to slumber, and we may as well talk about something more interesting and up to date. But don't imagine from this that we are going into the prophet business and make a lot of wild guesses about who will be nominated at Baltimore. Not any prophesying for yours truly. First off, he does not know who will be nominated and holds rather decided opinions that anybody who claims to know is a bigger liar than Roosevelt says Taft is and almost as big as Taft says Roosevelt is. Reason No. 2: Even if he did know, everybody favoring the other fellow would say he didn't and would not be convinced until the convention had acted. After interviewing the managers of the various booms the writer is convinced that every candidate will win, that none will win, that it will be a dark horse, that it will be Bryan, that it will—oh, what's the use? Trying to reconcile the various claims would be making a raving bug out of a wooden Indian.

The press agent is abroad in the land, and he has Ananias, Baron Munchausen and all the other disciples of mendacity looking like the original truthful James. Press agent is not his proper name, however, for a press agent is supposed to tell the truth once in awhile. He is a "claim" agent and is on the job with both feet, likewise both elbows, both hands, both eyebrows and a perfectly marvelous mouth. To hear him tell it, his candidate has corralled all the delegates except a small minority that were fraudulently elected, also are weak minded, crooked and afflicted with other faults.

At noon of June 25 Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic national committee, calls the convention to order in the Fifth regiment armory, Baltimore. He will look out on the largest convention ever assembled in America, 1,094 delegates, as many more alternates and probably 18,000 other people. Likewise he will face the brightest outlook for victory that the Democrats have seen in twenty years. He will see on the floor as a delegate at large from Nebraska the man who has thrice been the standard bearer of the party.

There will be seven avowed candidates before the convention. How many will there be after the first ballot?

It is now plain that no man will have a majority on the first ballot. Seven pronounced candidates are in the field and the order of their strength as nearly as it can be arrived at is as follows: Champ Clark will be in the lead, with Woodrow Wilson not far behind. Third place will rest between Judson Harmon and Oscar W. Underwood. Governors Marshall of Indiana, Baldwin of Connecticut and Burke of North Dakota will each have the vote of his state and possibly a few delegates besides. Several dark horses will be in the background, notable among them being William J. Bryan, Mayor W. J. Gaynor of New York and Senator John W. Kern of Indiana. The ninety delegates from New York state are not instructed, and if they should be thrown to Gaynor he would at once become a formidable candidate. It is believed that Indiana would at any time throw her thirty votes to Kern, if he should have a chance for the nomination. As for Bryan, there is more or less sentiment for him in most of the delegations that might develop into a stampede in case of a deadlock. He will be a delegate, and the country is not without evidence of what that tongue may do with a national convention.

A United Democracy.

The meeting will be under bright auspices. The party will be more nearly united than it has been at any time since 1893. It has more than sixty majority in the national house of representatives, governors of most of the states, a strong working minority of the United States senate that, with the assistance of the La Follette Republicans, often becomes an actual majority; the administration of the two chief cities and of a majority of the other large cities of the country and a prospect of victory that increases with every turn of the political wheel. It faces a foe rent in twain by internecine warfare. It was during the second Cleveland administration that the Democratic party was torn by internal dissensions. As a result it has been out of power for nearly fifteen years. Now the shoe is on the other foot; the Republicans are split and the Democrats are united. Does this mean as long a swing of the pendulum in the other direction?

The historic associations of Baltimore will remind the delegates that the party can look back on more than 116 years of unbroken party existence. The groundwork was laid during the debates on the constitution and the administration of Washington. The actual beginning of the party as a national entity was the candidacy of Thomas Jefferson for the presidency in 1796. Four years later he was elected and for nearly a quarter of a century the Democratic-Republican party held complete sway. Then came the four years hiatus of John Quincy Adams, who called himself a national Republican and was really the founder of the Whig party. After that twelve years of Jackson and Van Buren and then alternating administrations with the Whigs until the clouds of civil war obscured the Democratic sun until its partial re-emergence under Cleveland.

The New Baltimore.

Baltimore is closely associated with much of this history. There met the first Democratic national convention ever held, and there were nominated Jackson, Van Buren, Polk, Cass, Pierce, Douglas and Greeley. It is a very different Baltimore that will greet the Democratic visitors this year. Since the great fire it has been rebuilt into a progressive modern city. In 1910 Baltimore was given a population of 558,485 and was the seventh city in the country. It still is a commercial center for much of the south and still regards Washington as a suburb, although the national capital has nearly two-thirds Baltimore's population. Better than all, the Maryland city still boasts the true southern hospitality.

The scene in a national convention of either of the great parties is one never to be forgotten. It is distinctively American. There is nothing quite like it in all the rest of the world. Here we make our rulers, who for a certain fixed period have more absolute power than any monarch unless it be the czar of all the Russias. Here we shape the policies that control congress. Here we reorganize the parties that rule the states.

The prevailing color scheme of any national convention is made up of the red, white and blue. Flags and bunting are everywhere. The tone theme is one of patriotic music, oratory and enthusiasm. The contest between the supporters of the various candidates is one of lung power. That, of course, is only the surface of the fight, but it is the surface that is seen by the spectator. Down on the floor the delegates are not doing so much cheering, but are engaged in a mighty struggle for votes. But to the onlooker it is a medley of color and of sound. The demonstration when the different candidates are named is a contest of sheer human endurance. The partisans cheer till they are compelled to stop from physical exhaustion. Little flags are waved by thousands of hands. Cheers go up in a volume of sound that drowns the band and merges the individual voices into one continuous roar.

Cheering by the Hour.

Now and then will come a lull when the band can be heard faintly on some patriotic air. First one voice and then another will take it up until the entire vast assemblage is singing. At the end the cheers burst forth once more in mightier volume than at first. Minutes pass, and the uproar continues. Improvised sessions of delegates march about the floor. Everything that can make a noise is brought into requisition, but the human voice dominates all the rest. It howls, it yells, it lets out Indian warwhoops, it trills, it yodels, it hurrahs, after which it yells some more. Some of these demonstrations have lasted an hour. Several of them have continued half an hour.

The scene in the various hotels is as characteristic as that of the convention hall itself. Here the various candidates and state delegations have their headquarters. Here are held the canfusses and secret conferences that are often more potent in deciding the issue than the actual convention sessions. Many of these nomination battles have been fought out in the hotels during all night conclaves, the convention the next day merely registering the verdict.

In the Democratic convention that will be called to order by Chairman Norman E. Mack on June 25 there are to be very few contests, so that there will be little time taken on the report of the credentials committee. The platform will occasion more debate, but even here there are no great issues dividing the delegates. There will be some difference of opinion on a few details, especially on the wool schedule of the tariff plank, but in the main the delegates are already agreed on the declaration of principles. William J. Bryan expects to have a hand in framing the platform, as he has had in framing every Democratic platform for the past sixteen years.

The platform adopted, the real contest of the convention will be on. First there will be the battle of the orators in presenting the candidates, then the battle of the ballots in choosing the man who is to bear the standard till November and perhaps is to be the head of the nation for the next four years.

Who will it be? Well, any of the candidates is a good bet, only don't bet too much. Also hedge.

BASIS OF REPRESENTATION.

Alabama	24	Nebraska	16
Alaska	6	Nevada	6
Arizona	6	N. Hampsh'e	8
Arkansas	18	New Jersey	28
California	26	New Mexico	8
Colorado	12	New York	90
Connecticut	14	N. Carolina	24
D. of Col'bia	6	N. Dakota	10
Delaware	6	Ohio	48
Florida	12	Oklahoma	20
Georgia	28	Oregon	10
Hawaii	6	Pennsylv'nia	76
Idaho	8	Philippines	6
Illinois	58	Porto Rico	6
Indiana	30	Rhode Island	10
Iowa	26	S. Carolina	18
Kansas	20	S. Dakota	10
Kentucky	26	Tennessee	24
Louisiana	20	Texas	40
Maine	12	Utah	8
Maryland	16	Vermont	8
Massachu'ts	36	Virginia	24
Michigan	30	Washington	14
Minnesota	24	W. Virginia	16
Mississippi	20	Wisconsin	26
Missouri	36	Wyoming	6
Montana	8
		Total	1,094

THE CANDIDATES.

Champ Clark of Mo.; b. Ky., 1850; college president at twenty-three; prosecuting attorney; member of congress since 1893; minority leader, 1908-11; speaker since 1911.

Woodrow Wilson of N. J.; b. Va., 1856; practiced law at Atlanta; professor in Bryn Mawr, Wesleyan and Princeton colleges; president Princeton, 1902-10; governor of N. J. since 1911.

Judson Harmon of O.; b. O., 1846; judge in two courts; attorney general U. S., 1895-7; professor of law; receiver of two railroads; governor of O. since 1909.

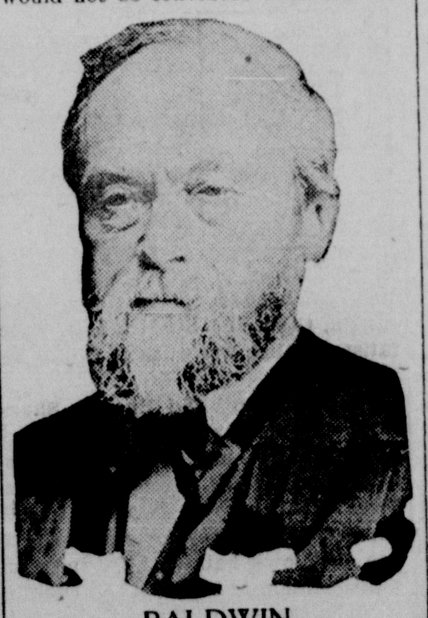
Oscar W. Underwood of Ala.; b. Ky., 1862; practiced law at Birmingham; helped frame state constitution; member of congress since 1895; majority leader since 1911.

Thomas R. Marshall of Ind.; b. Ind., 1854; lawyer at Columbia City; trustee Wabash college; governor of Ind. since 1909.

Simeon E. Baldwin of Conn.; b. Conn., 1840; professor of law at Yale; chief justice state supreme court 1907-10; governor of Connecticut since 1911.

John Burke of N. D.; b. Ia., 1859; county judge; member both houses state legislature; serving third term as governor of N. D.

Photos of Clark, Harmon, Underwood, Wilson and Burke copyright by American Press Association.



BALDWIN

Photos of Murphy and Mack © by American Press Association.

Prominent Democrats at the Convention.

PREVIOUS DEMOCRATIC CONVENTIONS IN BALTIMORE.

First convention, 1832; nominee, Andrew Jackson.

Convention of 1835; nominee, Martin Van Buren.

Convention of 1840; nominee, Martin Van Buren.

Convention of 1844; nominee, James K. Polk.

Convention of 1848, nominee, Lewis Cass.

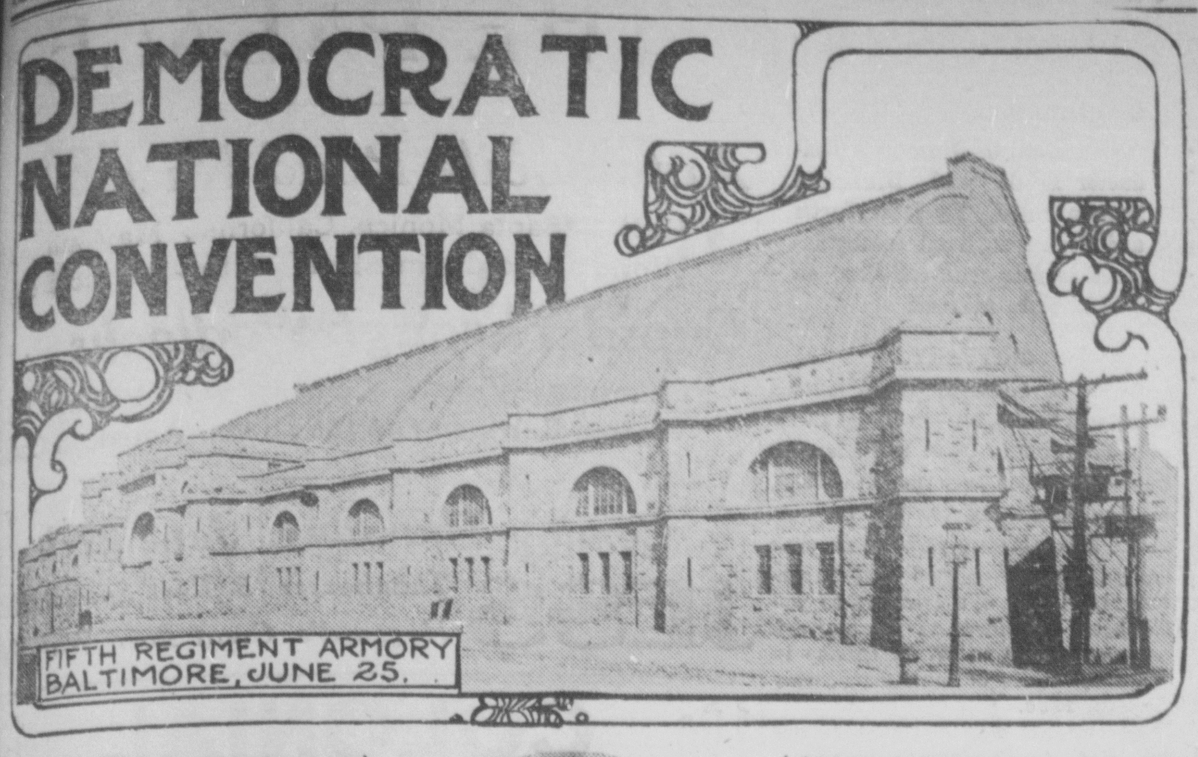
Convention of 1852, nominee, Franklin Pierce.

Convention of 1860, nominee, Stephen A. Douglas; also bolting convention ten days later; nominee, John C. Breckinridge.

Convention of 1872; nominee, Horace Greeley.

Henry Clay and Winfield Scott, Whigs, and Abraham Lincoln, Republican (second time), were also nominated at Baltimore.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION



FACTS ABOUT THE CONVENTION HALL.

The convention will be held in the drill room of the Fifth regiment armory.

The armory is near the Pennsylvania and B. and O. stations and occupies nearly two city blocks.

It has a floor space of 200 by 300 feet, capable of seating 12,000 people. By the use of temporary and permanent balconies this is being increased to 20,000.

Around the hall are twenty-one smaller rooms that can be used for the meeting of committees and for the press.

The roof is vaulted and at the highest point is more than 100 feet above the floor. Windows are high, and there is good ventilation.

Since the fire Baltimore has been rebuilt, and there are a number of first class new hotels. Average rates will be $3 and $4 a day. In addition citizens' homes will be thrown open.

By JAMES A. EDGERTON.

THE Democratic national convention of 1912 returns to the city where the first national convention of that party assembled eighty years ago. Up to and including 1824 presidential nominations were made by committees of congress. In that year the system was attacked, and between that and 1828 various conventions were held in different parts of the country, but no Democratic national convention, properly speaking, was assembled till 1832. That year one gathered at Baltimore and nominated President Andrew Jackson for a second term.

The convention which named Martin Van Buren as Jackson's successor also met in Baltimore, but was a year ahead of time, being held in 1835. The four succeeding national conventions of the party were likewise held in the Maryland metropolis—that of 1840 renominating Van Buren, that of 1844 naming James K. Polk, that of 1848 selecting Lewis Cass and that of 1852 choosing Franklin Pierce. Thus far Baltimore as a Democratic convention city was lucky, four of the five candidates named there having been elected.

With 1852, however, the scepter and the luck departed from Baltimore. Four years later Buchanan was nominated at Cincinnati. In 1860 the Democratic convention first met at Charleston and split into fragments, two of these afterward reassembling in Baltimore and naming two tickets, one headed by Stephen A. Douglas and the other by John C. Breckinridge. A third fragment reconvened at Richmond and indorsed Breckinridge. This splitting of the once proud and triumphant Democracy made possible the election of Abraham Lincoln, and the party of Jefferson and Jackson did not seat another president till 1885.

BURKE

Lincoln Renominated at Baltimore.

In those days Baltimore was as much the national convention city as Chicago is now. Not only the Democrats, but the Whigs, assembled there, Henry Clay and General Winfield Scott being among the candidates of that party selected in the Maryland city. The Republicans followed suit only once, Abraham Lincoln being renominated in Baltimore in 1864. His Democratic opponent in that campaign was General George B. McClellan, nominated at Chicago.

Only once has a Democratic convention gone to New York city. That was in 1868. Horatio Seymour was its permanent chairman, was sprung as a dark horse candidate and nominated against his protest.

The last Baltimore convention of any party was that of the Democrats, which named Horace Greeley in 1872. Greeley had already been made a candidate by the Liberal Republicans, and there was nothing left for the Democrats but to ratify him, which some of them did with wry faces. In its outcome that ticket was as ill starred as the one headed by Douglas twelve years earlier.

It is an interesting coincidence that the first Democratic convention met in Baltimore just eighty years ago and the last one exactly forty years ago.

Since 1872 the Democratic convention cities and nominees have been as follows: 1876, Samuel J. Tilden at Chicago; 1880, Winfield Scott Hancock at Cincinnati; 1884, Grover Cleveland at Chicago; 1888, Grover Cleveland at St. Louis; 1892, Grover Cleveland at Chicago; 1896, William J. Bryan at Chicago; 1900, William J. Bryan at Kansas City; 1904, Alton B. Parker at St. Louis; 1908, William J. Bryan at Denver.

The conclave of this year will be the twenty-first regular Democratic convention held and the ninth to meet in Baltimore. Only fifteen men have been named for president at the twenty previous conventions, and but six of these were elected. Outside of the eight conventions in Baltimore four were held in Chicago, three in St. Louis, two in Cincinnati and one each in New York, Kansas City and Denver.

Everybody Claiming It.

That ought to be enough statistics to hold the most omnivorous eater up of figures. If the average reader is not asleep by this time there is no hope of soothing him to slumber, and we may as well talk about something more interesting and up to date. But don't imagine from this that we are going into the prophet business and make a lot of wild guesses about who will be nominated at Baltimore. Not any prophesying for yours truly. First off, he does not know who will be nominated and holds rather decided opinions that anybody who claims to know is a bigger liar than Roosevelt says Taft is and almost as big as Taft says Roosevelt is. Reason No. 2: Even if he did know, everybody favoring the other fellow would say he didn't and would not be convinced until the convention had acted. After interviewing the managers of the various booms the writer is convinced that every candidate will win, that none will win, that it will be a dark horse, that it will be Bryan, that it will—oh, what's the use? Trying to reconcile the various claims would be making a raving bug out of a wooden Indian.

BALDWIN

The press agent is abroad in the land, and he has Ananias, Baron Munchausen and all the other disciples of mendacity looking like the original truthful James. Press agent is not his proper name, however, for a press agent is supposed to tell the truth once in awhile. He is a "claim" agent and is on the job with both feet, likewise both elbows, both hands, both eyebrows and a perfectly marvelous mouth. To hear him tell it, his candidate has corralled all the delegates except a small minority that were fraudulently elected, also are weak minded, crooked and afflicted with other faults.

At noon of June 25 Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic national committee, calls the convention to order in the Fifth regiment armory, Baltimore. He will look out on the largest convention ever assembled in America, 1,094 delegates, as many more alternates and probably 18,000 other people. Likewise he will face the brightest outlook for victory that the Democrats have seen in twenty years. He will see on the floor as a delegate at large from Nebraska the man who has thrice been the standard bearer of the party.

There will be seven avowed candidates before the convention. How many will there be after the first ballot?

It is now plain that no man will have a majority on the first ballot. Seven pronounced candidates are in the field and the order of their strength as nearly as it can be arrived at is as follows: Champ Clark will be in the lead, with Woodrow Wilson not far behind. Third place will rest between Judson Harmon and Oscar W. Underwood. Governors Marshall of Indiana, Baldwin of Connecticut and Burke of North Dakota will each have the vote of his state and possibly a few delegates besides. Several dark horses will be in the background, notable among them being William J. Bryan, Mayor W. J. Gaynor of New York and Senator John W. Kern of Indiana. The ninety delegates from New York state are not instructed, and if they should be thrown to Gaynor he would at once become a formidable candidate. It is believed that Indiana would at any time throw her thirty votes to Kern, if he should have a chance for the nomination. As for Bryan, there is more or less sentiment for him in most of the delegations that might develop into a stampede in case of a deadlock. He will be a delegate, and the country is not without evidence of what that tongue may do with a national convention.

A United Democracy.

The meeting will be under bright auspices. The party will be more nearly united than it has been at any time since 1893. It has more than sixty majority in the national house of representatives, governors of most of the states, a strong working minority of the United States senate that, with the assistance of the La Follette Republicans, often becomes an actual majority; the administration of the two chief cities and of a majority of the other large cities of the country and a prospect of victory that increases with every turn of the political wheel. It faces a foe rent in twain by internecine warfare. It was during the second Cleveland administration that the Democratic party was torn by internal dissensions. As a result it has been out of power for nearly fifteen years. Now the shoe is on the other foot; the Republicans are split and the Democrats are united. Does this mean as long a swing of the pendulum in the other direction?

The historic associations of Baltimore will remind the delegates that the party can look back on more than 116 years of unbroken party existence. The groundwork was laid during the debates on the constitution and the administration of Washington. The actual beginning of the party as a national entity was the candidacy of Thomas Jefferson for the presidency in 1796. Four years later he was elected and for nearly a quarter of a century the Democratic-Republican party held complete sway. Then came the four years hiatus of John Quincy Adams, who called himself a national Republican and was really the founder of the Whig party. After that twelve years of Jackson and Van Buren and then alternating administrations with the Whigs until the clouds of civil war obscured the Democratic sun until its partial re-emergence under Cleveland.

The New Baltimore.

Baltimore is closely associated with much of this history. There met the first Democratic national convention ever held, and there were nominated Jackson, Van Buren, Polk, Cass, Pierce, Douglas and Greeley. It is a very different Baltimore that will greet the Democratic visitors this year. Since the great fire it has been rebuilt into a progressive modern city. In 1910 Baltimore was given a population of 558,485 and was the seventh city in the country. It still is a commercial center for much of the south and still regards Washington as a suburb, although the national capital has nearly two-thirds Baltimore's population. Better than all, the Maryland city still boasts the true southern hospitality.

The scene in a national convention of either of the great parties is one never to be forgotten. It is distinctively American. There is nothing quite like it in all the rest of the world. Here we make our rulers, who for a certain fixed period have more absolute power than any monarch unless it be the czar of all the Russias. Here we shape the policies that control congress. Here we reorganize the parties that rule the states.

The prevailing color scheme of any national convention is made up of the red, white and blue. Flags and bunting are everywhere. The tone theme is one of patriotic music, oratory and enthusiasm. The contest between the supporters of the various candidates is one of lung power. That, of course, is only the surface of the fight, but it is the surface that is seen by the spectator. Down on the floor the delegates are not doing so much cheering, but are engaged in a mighty struggle for votes. But to the onlooker it is a medley of color and of sound. The demonstration when the different candidates are named is a contest of sheer human endurance. The partisans cheer till they are compelled to stop from physical exhaustion. Little flags are waved by thousands of hands. Cheers go up in a volume of sound that drowns the band and merges the individual voices into one continuous roar.

Cheering by the Hour.

Now and then will come a lull when the band can be heard faintly on some patriotic air. First one voice and then another will take it up until the entire vast assemblage is singing. At the end the cheers burst forth once more in mightier volume than at first. Minutes pass, and the uproar continues. Improvised sessions of delegates march about the floor. Everything that can make a noise is brought into requisition, but the human voice dominates all the rest. It howls, it yells, it lets out Indian warwhoops, it trills, it yodels, it hurrahs, after which it yells some more. Some of these demonstrations have lasted an hour. Several of them have continued half an hour.

The scene in the various hotels is as characteristic as that of the convention hall itself. Here the various candidates and state delegations have their headquarters. Here are held the cabals and secret conferences that are often more potent in deciding the issue than the actual convention sessions. Many of these nomination battles have been fought out in the hotels during all night conclaves, the convention the next day merely registering the verdict.

In the Democratic convention that will be called to order by Chairman Norman E. Mack on June 25 there are to be very few contests, so that there will be little time taken on the report of the credentials committee. The platform will occasion more debate, but even here there are no great issues dividing the delegates. There will be some difference of opinion on a few details, especially on the wool schedule of the tariff plank, but in the main the delegates are already agreed on the declaration of principles. William J. Bryan expects to have a hand in framing the platform, as he has had in framing every Democratic platform for the past sixteen years.

The platform adopted, the real contest of the convention will be on. First there will be the battle of the orators in presenting the candidates, then the battle of the ballots in choosing the man who is to bear the standard till November and perhaps is to be the head of the nation for the next four years.

Who will it be? Well, any of the candidates is a good bet, only don't bet too much. Also hedge.

BASIS OF REPRESENTATION.

Alabama	24	Nebraska	16
Alaska	6	Nevada	6
Arizona	6	N. Hampsh'e	8
Arkansas	18	New Jersey	28
California	26	New Mexico	8
Colorado	12	New York	90
Connecticut	14	N. Carolina	24
D. of Col'bia	6	N. Dakota	10
Delaware	6	Ohio	48
Florida	12	Oklahoma	20
Georgia	28	Oregon	10
Hawaii	6	Pennsylv'nia	76
Idaho	8	Philippines	6
Illinois	58	Porto Rico	6
Indiana	30	Rhode Island	10
Iowa	26	S. Carolina	18
Kansas	20	S. Dakota	10
Kentucky	26	Tennessee	24
Louisiana	20	Texas	40
Maine	12	Utah	8
Maryland	16	Vermont	8
Massachu'ts	36	Virginia	24
Michigan	30	Washington	14
Minnesota	24	W. Virginia	16
Mississippi	20	Wisconsin	26
Missouri	36	Wyoming	6
Montana	8

Total 1,094

THE CANDIDATES.

Champ Clark of Mo.; b. Ky., 1850; college president at twenty-three; prosecuting attorney; member of congress since 1893; minority leader, 1908-11; speaker since 1911.

Woodrow Wilson of N. J.; b. Va., 1856; practiced law at Atlanta; professor in Bryn Mawr, Wesleyan and Princeton colleges; president Princeton, 1902-10; governor of N. J. since 1911.

Judson Harmon of O.; b. O., 1846; judge in two courts; attorney general U. S., 1895-7; professor of law; receiver of two railroads; governor of O. since 1909.

Oscar W. Underwood of Ala.; b. Ky., 1862; practiced law at Birmingham; helped frame state constitution; member of congress since 1895; majority leader since 1911.

Thomas R. Marshall of Ind.; b. Ind., 1854; lawyer at Columbia City; trustee Wabash college; governor of Ind. since 1909.

Simeon E. Baldwin of Conn.; b. Conn., 1840; professor of law at Yale; chief justice state supreme court 1907-10; governor of Connecticut since 1911.

John Burke of N. D.; b. Ia., 1859; county judge; member both houses state legislature; serving third term as governor of N. D.

Photos of Clark, Harmon, Underwood, Wilson and Burke copyright by American Press Association.

Photos of Murphy and Mack © by American Press Association.

Prominent Democrats at the Convention.

PREVIOUS DEMOCRATIC CONVENTIONS IN BALTIMORE.

First convention, 1832; nominee, Andrew Jackson.

Convention of 1835; nominee, Martin Van Buren.

Convention of 1840; nominee, Martin Van Buren.

Convention of 1844; nominee, James K. Polk.

Convention of 1848, nominee, Lewis Cass.

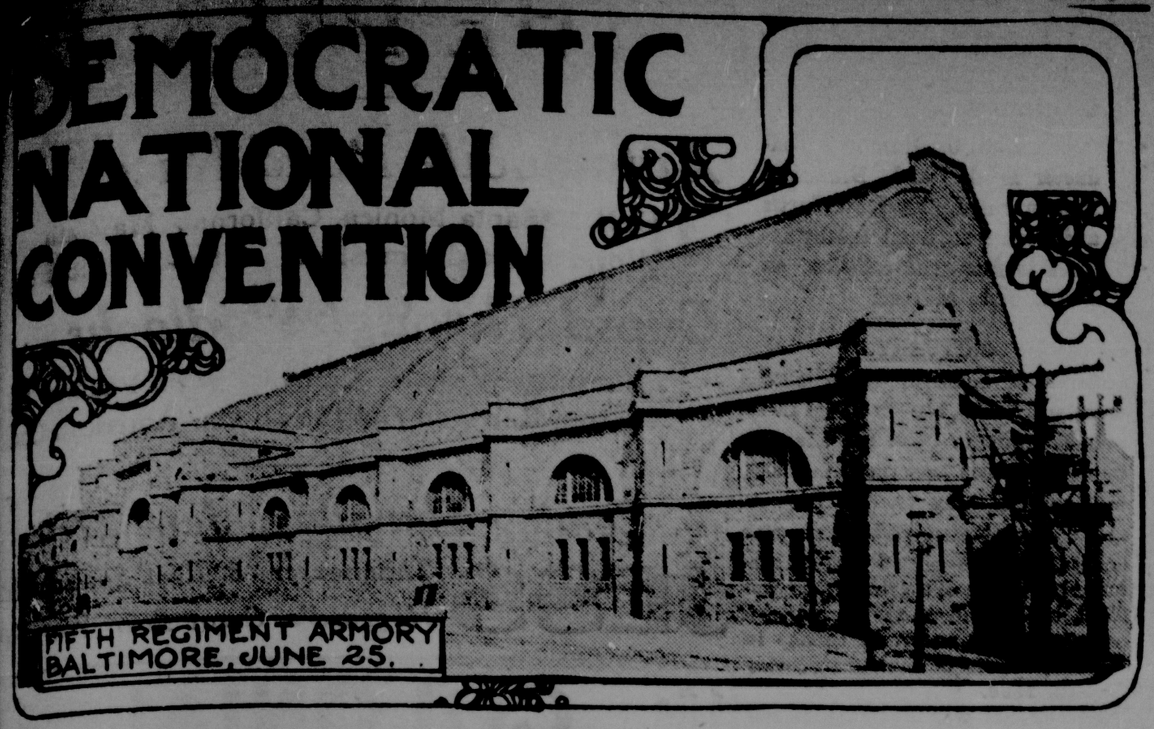
Convention of 1852, nominee, Franklin Pierce.

Convention of 1860, nominee, Stephen A. Douglas; also bolting convention ten days later; nominee, John C. Breckinridge.

Convention of 1872; nominee, Horace Greeley.

Henry Clay and Winfield Scott, Whigs, and Abraham Lincoln, Republican (second time), were also nominated at Baltimore.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION



FACTS ABOUT THE CONVENTION HALL.

The convention will be held in the drill room of the Fifth regiment armory.

The armory is near the Pennsylvania and B. and O. stations and occupies nearly two city blocks.

It has a floor space of 200 by 300 feet, capable of seating 12,000 people. By the use of temporary and permanent balconies this is being increased to 20,000.

Around the hall are twenty-one smaller rooms that can be used for the meeting of committees and for the press.

The roof is vaulted and at the highest point is more than 100 feet above the floor. Windows are high, and there is good ventilation.

Since the fire Baltimore has been rebuilt, and there are a number of first class new hotels. Average rates will be $3 and $4 a day. In addition citizens' homes will be thrown open.

By JAMES A. EDGERTON.

THE Democratic national convention of 1912 returns to the city where the first national convention of that party assembled eighty years ago. Up to and including 1824 presidential nominations were made by committees of congress. In that year the system was attacked, and between that and 1828 various conventions were held in different parts of the country, but no Democratic national convention, properly speaking, was assembled till 1832. That year one gathered at Baltimore and nominated President Andrew Jackson for a second term.

The convention which named Martin Van Buren as Jackson's successor also met in Baltimore, but was a year ahead of time, being held in 1835. The four succeeding national conventions of the party were likewise held in the Maryland metropolis—that of 1840 renominating Van Buren, that of 1844 naming James K. Polk, that of 1848 selecting Lewis Cass and that of 1852 choosing Franklin Pierce. Thus far Baltimore as a Democratic convention city was lucky, four of the five candidates named there having been elected.

With 1852, however, the scepter and the luck departed from Baltimore. Four years later Buchanan was nominated at Cincinnati. In 1860 the Democratic convention first met at Charleston and split into fragments, two of these afterward reassembling in Baltimore and naming two tickets, one headed by Stephen A. Douglas and the other by John C. Breckinridge. A third fragment reconvened at Richmond and indorsed Breckinridge. This splitting of the once proud and triumphant Democracy made possible the election of Abraham Lincoln, and the party of Jefferson and Jackson did not seat another president till 1885.

BURKE

Lincoln Renominated at Baltimore.

In those days Baltimore was as much the national convention city as Chicago is now. Not only the Democrats, but the Whigs, assembled there, Henry Clay and General Winfield Scott being among the candidates of that party selected in the Maryland city. The Republicans followed suit only once, Abraham Lincoln being renominated in Baltimore in 1864. His Democratic opponent in that campaign was General George B. McClellan, nominated at Chicago.

Only once has a Democratic convention gone to New York city. That was in 1868. Horatio Seymour was its permanent chairman, was sprung as a dark horse candidate and nominated against his protest.

The last Baltimore convention of any party was that of the Democrats, which named Horace Greeley in 1872. Greeley had already been made a candidate by the Liberal Republicans, and there was nothing left for the Democrats but to ratify him, which some of them did with wry faces. In its outcome that ticket was as ill starred as the one headed by Douglas twelve years earlier.

It is an interesting coincidence that the first Democratic convention met in Baltimore just eighty years ago and the last one exactly forty years ago.

Since 1872 the Democratic convention cities and nominees have been as follows: 1876, Samuel J. Tilden at Chicago; 1880, Winfield Scott Hancock at Cincinnati; 1884, Grover Cleveland at Chicago; 1888, Grover Cleveland at St. Louis; 1892, Grover Cleveland at Chicago; 1896, William J. Bryan at Chicago; 1900, William J. Bryan at Kansas City; 1904, Alton B. Parker at St. Louis; 1908, William J. Bryan at Denver.

The conclave of this year will be the twenty-first regular Democratic convention held and the ninth to meet in Baltimore. Only fifteen men have been named for president at the twenty previous conventions, and but six of these were elected. Outside of the eight conventions in Baltimore four were held in Chicago, three in St. Louis, two in Cincinnati and one each in New York, Kansas City and Denver.

Everybody Claiming It.

That ought to be enough statistics to hold the most omnivorous eater up of figures. If the average reader is not asleep by this time there is no hope of soothing him to slumber, and we may as well talk about something more interesting and up to date. But don't imagine from this that we are going into the prophet business and make a lot of wild guesses about who will be nominated at Baltimore. Not any prophesying for yours truly. First off, he does not know who will be nominated and holds rather decided opinions that anybody who claims to know is a bigger liar than Roosevelt says Taft is and almost as big as Taft says Roosevelt is. Reason No. 2: Even if he did know, everybody favoring the other fellow would say he didn't and would not be convinced until the convention had acted. After interviewing the managers of the various booms the writer is convinced that every candidate will win, that none will win, that it will be a dark horse, that it will be Bryan, that it will—oh, what's the use? Trying to reconcile the various claims would be making a raving bug out of a wooden Indian.

The press agent is abroad in the land, and he has Ananias, Baron Munchausen and all the other disciples of mendacity looking like the original truthful James. Press agent is not his proper name, however, for a press agent is supposed to tell the truth not without evidence of what that tongue may do with a national convention.

A United Democracy.

The meeting will be under bright auspices. The party will be more nearly united than it has been at any time since 1893. It has more than sixty majority in the national house of representatives, governors of most of the states, a strong working minority of the United States senate that, with the assistance of the La Follette Republicans, often becomes an actual majority; the administration of the two chief cities and of a majority of the other large cities of the country and a prospect of victory that increases with every turn of the political wheel. It faces a foe rent in twain by internecine warfare. It was during the second Cleveland administration that the Democratic party was torn by internal dissensions. As a result it has been out of power for nearly fifteen years. Now the shoe is on the other foot; the Republicans are split and the Democrats are united. Does this mean as long a swing of the pendulum in the other direction?

The historic associations of Baltimore will remind the delegates that the party can look back on more than 116 years of unbroken party existence. The groundwork was laid during the debates on the constitution and the administration of Washington. The actual beginning of the party as a national entity was the candidacy of Thomas Jefferson for the presidency in 1796. Four years later he was elected and for nearly a quarter of a century the Democratic-Republican party held complete sway. Then came the four years hiatus of John Quincy Adams, who called himself a national Republican and was really the founder of the Whig party. After that twelve years of Jackson and Van Buren and then alternating administrations with the Whigs until the clouds of civil war obscured the Democratic sun until its partial re-emergence under Cleveland.

The New Baltimore.

Baltimore is closely associated with much of this history. There met the first Democratic national convention ever held, and there were nominated Jackson, Van Buren, Polk, Cass, Pierce, Douglas and Greeley. It is a very different Baltimore that will greet the Democratic visitors this year. Since the great fire it has been rebuilt into a progressive modern city. In 1910 Baltimore was given a population of 558,485 and was the seventh city in the country. It still is a commercial center for much of the south and still regards Washington as a suburb, although the national capital has nearly two-thirds Baltimore's population. Better than all, the Maryland city still boasts the true southern hospitality.

The scene in a national convention of either of the great parties is one never to be forgotten. It is distinctively American. There is nothing quite like it in all the rest of the world. Here we make our rulers, who for a certain fixed period have more absolute power than any monarch unless it be the czar of all the Russias. Here we shape the policies that control congress. Here we reorganize the parties that rule the states.

The prevailing color scheme of any national convention is made up of the red, white and blue. Flags and bunting are everywhere. The tone theme is one of patriotic music, oratory and enthusiasm. The contest between the supporters of the various candidates is one of lung power. That, of course, is only the surface of the fight, but it is the surface that is seen by the spectator. Down on the floor the delegates are not doing so much cheering, but are engaged in a mighty struggle for votes. But to the onlooker it is a medley of color and of sound. The demonstration when the different candidates are named is a contest of sheer human endurance. The partisans cheer till they are compelled to stop from physical exhaustion. Little flags are waved by thousands of hands. Cheers go up in a volume of sound that drowns the band and merges the individual voices into one continuous roar.

Cheering by the Hour.

Now and then will come a lull when the band can be heard faintly on some patriotic air. First one voice and then another will take it up until the entire vast assemblage is singing. At the end the cheers burst forth once more in mightier volume than at first. Minutes pass, and the uproar continues. Improvised sessions of delegates march about the floor. Everything that can make a noise is brought into requisition, but the human voice dominates all the rest. It howls, it yells, it lets out Indian warwhoops, it trills, it yodels, it hurrahs, after which it yells some more. Some of these demonstrations have lasted an hour. Several of them have continued half an hour.

The scene in the various hotels is as characteristic as that of the convention hall itself. Here the various candidates and state delegations have their headquarters. Here are held the caucuses and secret conferences that are often more potent in deciding the issue than the actual convention sessions. Many of these nomination battles have been fought out in the hotels during all night conclaves, the convention the next day merely registering the verdict.

In the Democratic convention that will be called to order by Chairman Norman E. Mack on June 25 there are to be very few contests, so that there will be little time taken on the report of the credentials committee. The platform will occasion more debate, but even here there are no great issues dividing the delegates. There will be some difference of opinion on a few details, especially on the wool schedule of the tariff plank, but in the main the delegates are already agreed on the declaration of principles. William J. Bryan expects to have a hand in framing the platform, as he has had in framing every Democratic platform for the past sixteen years.

The platform adopted, the real contest of the convention will be on. First there will be the battle of the orators in presenting the candidates, then the battle of the ballots in choosing the man who is to bear the standard till November and perhaps is to be the head of the nation for the next four years.

Who will it be? Well, any of the candidates is a good bet, only don't bet too much. Also hedge.

BASIS OF REPRESENTATION.

Alabama	24	Nebraska	16
Alaska	6	Nevada	6
Arizona	6	N. Hampsh'e	8
Arkansas	18	New Jersey	28
California	26	New Mexico	8
Colorado	12	New York	90
Connecticut	14	N. Carolina	24
D. of Col'bia	6	N. Dakota	10
Delaware	6	Ohio	48
Florida	12	Oklahoma	20
Georgia	23	Oregon	10
Hawaii	6	Pennsylv'nia	76
Idaho	8	Philippines	6
Illinois	58	Porto Rico	6
Indiana	30	Rhode Island	10
Iowa	26	S. Carolina	18
Kansas	20	S. Dakota	10
Kentucky	26	Tennessee	24
Louisiana	20	Texas	40
Maine	12	Utah	8
Maryland	16	Vermont	8
Massachu'ts	36	Virginia	24
Michigan	30	Washington	14
Minnesota	24	W. Virginia	16
Mississippi	20	Wisconsin	26
Missouri	36	Wyoming	6
Montana	8
		Total	1,094

THE CANDIDATES.

Champ Clark of Mo.; b. Ky., 1850; college president at twenty-three; prosecuting attorney; member of congress since 1893; minority leader, 1908-11; speaker since 1911.

Woodrow Wilson of N. J.; b. Va., 1856; practiced law at Atlanta; professor in Bryn Mawr, Wesleyan and Princeton colleges; president Princeton, 1902-10; governor of N. J. since 1911.

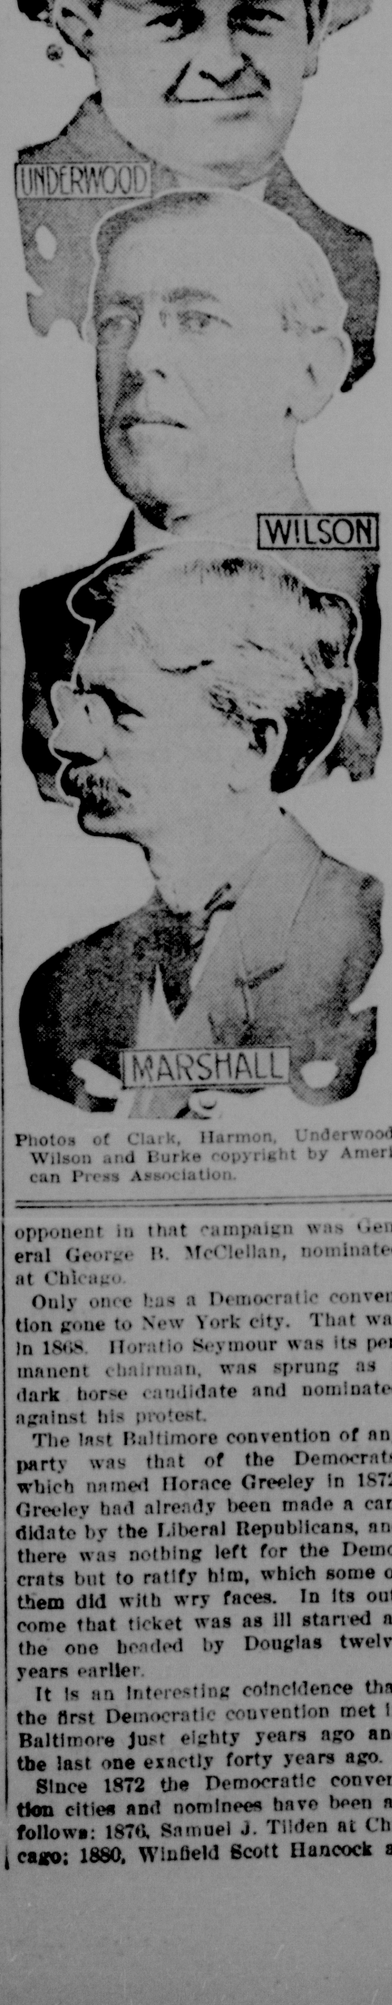
Judson Harmon of O.; b. O., 1846; judge in two courts; attorney general U. S., 1895-7; professor of law; receiver of two railroads; governor of O. since 1909.

Oscar W. Underwood of Ala.; b. Ky., 1862; practiced law at Birmingham; helped frame state constitution; member of congress since 1895; majority leader since 1911.

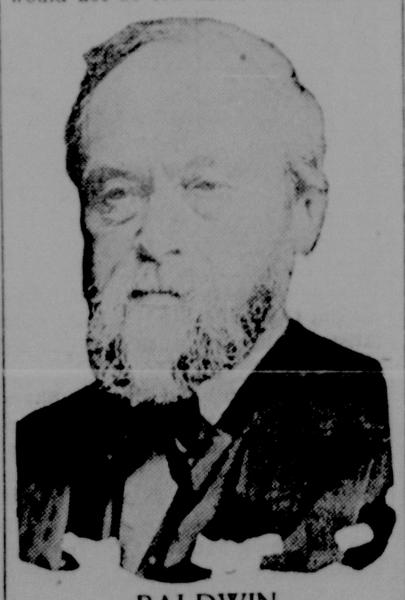
Thomas R. Marshall of Ind.; b. Ind., 1854; lawyer at Columbia City; trustee Wabash college; governor of Ind. since 1909.

Simeon E. Baldwin of Conn.; b. Conn., 1840; professor of law at Yale; chief justice state supreme court 1907-10; governor of Connecticut since 1911.

John Burke of N. D.; b. Ia., 1859; county judge; member both houses state legislature; serving third term as governor of N. D.



Photos of Clark, Harmon, Underwood, Wilson and Burke copyright by American Press Association.



BALDWIN

Photos of Murphy and Mack © by American Press Association.

Prominent Democrats at the Convention.

PREVIOUS DEMOCRATIC CONVENTIONS IN BALTIMORE.

First convention, 1832; nominee, Andrew Jackson.

Convention of 1835; nominee, Martin Van Buren.

Convention of 1840; nominee, Martin Van Buren.

Convention of 1844; nominee, James K. Polk.

Convention of 1848, nominee, Lewis Cass.

Convention of 1852, nominee, Franklin Pierce.

Convention of 1860, nominee, Stephen A. Douglas; also bolting convention ten days later; nominee, John C. Breckinridge.

Convention of 1872; nominee, Horace Greeley.

Henry Clay and Winfield Scott, Whigs, and Abraham Lincoln, Republican (second time), were also nominated at Baltimore.

BAINTER THROWS FIT PRISONER WALKS AWAY

Chief McCoy Starts to Workhouse With Three Prisoners, One Gets Sick and Another Escapes.

"GOPHER" SMITH IN THE WORKS

Albert Denner Seizes Opportunity and Bolts for Liberty at B. & O. Depot Early This Morning. Hoggy Bainter Taken to Home of Relative to Recover.

While Chief of Police McCoy was at the B. & O. depot awaiting the arrival of the early morning train so he could escort "Hoggy" Bainter, Albert Denner and "Gopher" Smith to the Columbus workhouse Saturday morning, Bainter suddenly threw a fit, falling to the floor and writhing in agony, and while Chief McCoy's attention was occupied with him for a moment Denner slipped quietly out of the depot and hot-footed it for parts unknown. In the end Chief McCoy was forced to board the train with only one of the men, "Gopher" Smith.

Arrangements had been made for taking Bainter and Denner to the workhouse, and late Friday evening it developed that "Gopher" Smith was in the city, and the police were ordered to arrest him and bring him in.

Smith is the man who was recently arrested on a charge of bootlegging, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $100 and costs and given 30 days in the workhouse. This was altered by most of the fine being suspended providing $25 and the costs were paid. Smith was released to secure the amount, dug up part of it and then disappeared.

When it became known that he was at home on "Flat Iron row" Cogswell and Bell went after him. Cogswell spied the man standing near the water tank at the "Point" and told him to come along. This was the signal for Smith to show his heels, which he did with surprising agaility. "Halt!" yelled Cogswell, and when Smith continued to run he pulled his gun and fired two shots, neither of which struck the fleeing man, but brought him to a standstill with his hands pointing toward the stars. He was locked up, commitment papers made out and arrangements made to take him to the workhouse with Bainter and Denner.

The report that Cogswell had shot the man spread throughout the city, but this was erroneous, the officer shooting to scare and not to hit.

When Chief McCoy landed at the depot with his three prisoners, Smith and Bainter were handcuffed together, and when Bainter threw the fit he pulled Smith to the floor with him. It was while Chief McCoy was releasing Smith from the painful grip of bracelets that Denner took the sprinting fever and bolted for liberty. He was out of sight in a moment, going at break-neck speed.

Bainter was taken to the home of Jack Bainter, who lives just across from the B. & O. and placed on a bed, where he remained for a long time in a semi-conscious condition.

Denner's bolt for liberty probably saves the county the expense of maintaining him in the workhouse, for if he ever returns the old fine will be enforced.

O. E. S.

Regular meeting of Royal Chapter No. 29, O. E. S., Monday evening, June 24, at 7:30. All members are requested to be present. Initiation and social hour.

VERA V. VEAIL, W. M.
MAE RODGERS, Secy.

NOTICE TO KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

On Wednesday evening, June 26th, members of Confidence lodge will entertain their families, sojourning Knights and their families and the families of deceased members, with a social session. The attendance of all included in this notice is desired. Program will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

COMMITTEE.

Aged Conductor Makes Last Trip

John Green, for 25 years a conductor on the D. T. & I. railroad, died at his home in Springfield Friday night after a short illness.

No man on the road is better known than Conductor Green, and the road has always found him efficient and always "on the job".

During the past few years he has been running between Ironton and Jackson, being a passenger conductor.

Sues for $263 Promissory Note

John Harbine has brought suit for the recovery of $263 with interest from February 8th, 1912, making Elmer Allen the defendant in the suit.

A copy of the note is attached and the plaintiff claims that it was issued to the Live Stock Remedy Company and endorsed by them to the plaintiff, who now seeks judgment in full.

Two Killed and Two Fatally Hurt

Special to Herald.

Conneaut, O., June 22.—Conductor Lyttle and Brakeman Ransen killed. Engineer Curtis and Brakeman Lamb fatally injured in rear end collision on Nickle Plate railroad.

OBITUARY.

Sarah E. Coonrod, whose maiden name was Davey, wife of Oliver Coonrod, daughter of John and Mary J. Davey, was born July the 18th, 1839, in Hampshire county, W. Va. At about 2 years of age she came with her parents and settled near Zanesville, O., where she grew up to womanhood. At about 21 years of age she was united to W. B. Crooks in the holy bonds of matrimony, May the 8th, 1860.

Mr. Crooks was a Union soldier and died in Andersonville prison, September, 1864.

Feb. 28th, 1866, she became the faithful wife of Morgan T. Smith, who died Oct. 28th, 1893. To these unions were born 8 children, 6 sons and 2 daughters.

June the 19th, 1902, she took the solemn vow of holy matrimony with Oliver Coonrod, of Washington C. H., O., and faithfully lived up to her promise until death, May the 30th, 1912, aged 72 years, 10 months and 12 days.

After appropriate services were held at the residence in Washington C. H., O., her remains were put on the train and conveyed to the cemetery of her choice near Purgitsville, W. Va. Four sons, many relatives and friends, listened to a fine talk by Rev. Brunk of the U. B. church. She leaves a husband, 4 sons and one daughter to mourn the great loss.

Norman J. and Col. W. E. Crooks, of Keyser, W. Va., Frank C. and E. L. Smith, respectively, of Purgitsville and Piedmont, W. Va., and Mrs. Carrie Gault, of Washington C. H., O. She also leaves 3 brothers and 3 sisters to remember the good example of her life, W. E. Davey, of Lebanon, Mo.; James and Frank Davey, Mrs. Rebecca Gault, Mrs. Lena Backenstoe, of Washington C. H., O., and Mrs. Phebe Smith, of Iowa. Mrs. Coonrod died as she had lived, a friend to everybody. From girlhood until death she was a strong believer in the Christian religion and lived out more than she professed. When the hour of death came, she was ready and willing to go at the Master's call, and with a smiling face fell asleep in Jesus.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep
From which none ever wake to weep."

When Jesus shall rule over all the earth, King of kings and Lord of lords thou wilt be one of His loving subjects to rejoice and praise him for so great salvation. When all voices in heaven, earth and sea are praising God, thy voice will help to swell the great song of praise unto the Lamb that was slain, but liveth again, forever and ever, Amen.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly tendered their services during the sickness of our loved one.

O. COONROD AND FAMILY.

DELICIOUS FRIED SPRING CHICKEN DINNER 25c, AT SOUTHERN CAFE, SUNDAY.

SECRET OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR.

"Grace, do you remember what luxuriant hair Mme. Melba had, when we heard her in Grand Opera?"

"Yes, Mary, and I also know her secret for it; I have seen two different letters in her own handwriting, which she gave to Kate Seaton Mason, the noted English Hair Specialist, stating she owes it all to her treatment.

"Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream—made from her private formula—may now be obtained at Blackmer & Tanquary's Drug Store right here in Washington C. H., and it is so easy for one to shampoo one's own hair with it, and such a satisfaction to know, when rubbing it into the scalp that it not only cleanses the hair and scalp beautifully, but it has tonic properties which will make the hair grow."

"It is only 25c a tube, enough for several shampoos, and Blackmer & Tanquary will return your money if you do not like it."

NOTICE TO JR. O. U. A. M.

Regular meeting Monday evening, June 24. Degree work and refreshments. Let all members be present.

W. G. EVANS, Sec.

NESTOR and AMERICAN

THE PALACE

Automobile Road Race

Held at Santa Monica, California, May 4th. The World's records smashed. A thrilling picture.

Cupid Through Padlocks

Charming Western Comedy with Pauline Bush Warren Kerrigan and the all star American Com'y

Coming Thursday, June 27th

JESS Thanhouser 3 Reel Special, Ride Haggard's Great Boer War Story

10c COLONIAL 10c

Vaudeville Tonight

WE-CHOK-BE The half-breed Sioux Indian girl, scored a big hit last evening. The act is decidedly out of the ordinary. She makes an entire change tonight.

Selig presents—The Redemption of "Greek Joe"

His Little Sister—Lubin Comedy

5c WONDERLAND 5c

Becky Gets a Husband Lubin Comedy

Under Mexican Skies A powerful drama of Old Mexico.

LOCAL CHURCHES.

Grace M. E. Church.
Rev. T. W. Locke, Pastor

Sabbath school at 9:15 a. m. C. E. Lloyd, superintendent.

Morning preaching services 10:30. Subject of sermon: "True Service and Its Reward."

General class meeting, 2:30.

Epworth League devotional meeting 6:45. Topic: "How Persecution Has Extended the Knowledge of God."

Evening preaching service 7:30. Sermon by the pastor.

Mid-week church service Thursday night at 7:30.

Wesley Chapel.

E. S. Norris, superintendent.

Sunday school at 2:30.

The Sunday school will observe Children's Day by rendering a special program at 2:30 o'clock.

Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Wm. Irwin Campbell, Pastor.

Sabbath school at 9:15 a. m. Superintendent, Ray F. Zaner.

Brotherhood Bible class, 9:00 a. m. Taught by pastor.

Morning worship at 10:30 a. m. Subject of sermon: "Lead in Triumph."

Evening services at 7:30 p. m. Subject of sermon: "Things New and Old."

East End Chapel.

Sunday school at 2 p. m.

Superintendent, E. T. Evans.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Mission.

Services held on third floor of Memorial Hall, conducted by Lay Reader, Calvin Thompson.

Morning prayer, 10:30 a. m.

Evening prayer, 3:45 p. m.

First Baptist Church.
Rev. A. W. West, Pastor.

Bible school 9:30 a. m. Albert Snyder, superintendent.

Morning preaching service 10:45. Subject of sermon: "Worshiping God in His Sanctuary."

B. Y. P. U. 6:45.

Evening service, 7:30 p. m.

Prayer meeting, Thursday, 7:15.

Church of Christ.

Rev. Bowman Hostetler, Pastor.

Bible school 9:15 a. m. L. Ettie Rannels, Supt.

Communion and preaching 10:30 a. m. The minister will preach on "Golden Treasure in Earthen Vessels."

Jr. C. E. 2 p. m. P. F. Goodwin, Supt.

C. E. Prayer meeting, 6:30 p. m. Topic: "Reading That Is Worth While." Led by Melwood Hostetler and Mrs. Gwen Stolzenberg.

Preaching, 7:30 p. m. Subject: "Beating Against the Current."

Mid-week prayer meeting Thursday, 7:30 p. m.

Oak Grove.

Bible school, 2 p. m.

Preaching, 3 p. m.

Vacuum Cleaners for rent—hand or electric—delivered and called for. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Want ads are profitable.

Trusted Public Servant Probably $11,000 Short

Charles E. Stocklen, owner of a grocery in Circleville, a highly respected citizen and treasurer of Circleville township, has disappeared, and his whereabouts is unknown, and according to the latest information from Circleville, several thousand dollars of the township's money has disappeared with him.

Stocklen, who had always held the confidence of the people and was widely known, numbering quite a few Washington and Fayette citizens among his friends, left about one week ago, and nothing has since been heard from him. The following article in Saturday's Enquirer probably sheds some light on the reason for his sudden leave-taking:

"Charles E. Stocklin, Treasurer of Circleville township, left his home in this city Thursday, the 13th, and no tidings have been received from him since. He said he would be back early, and left ostensibly for Columbus.

His accounts as Township Treasurer had just been checked by Inspector C. E. Godfrey, of the Auditor of State's office, and apparently were in a satisfactory condition. Since his departure two certificates of deposit on the Second National bank of this city for $5,000 each, which he exhibited to the inspector as a part of the township funds, are missing, and have been declared to be forgeries by the bank officials, who say Stocklin never had any funds of any kind on deposit there.

These, it is charged, were used as a blind to tide him over the inspection examination, and were immediately afterward destroyed. It is said he lost $16,000 in a mine, and in his efforts to recoup used the township funds. His alleged shortage is said to be approximately $11,000. The prosecuting attorney says a warrant will be issued today."

Fire Traps Plentiful Due To Carelessness

In a great many basement rooms in the city can be found an accumulation of boxes, boards, paper, excelsior and other highly inflammable material which only requires a spark to kindle a dangerous blaze in the heart of city blocks.

The average citizen in placing the inflammable material in the basement becomes so accustomed to seeing the accumulation that he does not pause to think that he is virtually building a heap of fagots under his place of business, but trusts to luck to take care of the dangerous material and prevent it from catching on fire.

One man who recently had occasion to visit a number of basement rooms states that he was greatly surprised at the ease with which a fire of very disastrous kind could be started—only a spark accidentally dropped being all that is required to kindle the pile of material.

"When one knows the condition of the average basement", said the man, "he is really surprised that there are not ten times more fires than there are, for the average basement is used as a catch-all for everything imaginable."

In the average city where lax observation of ordinances relating to the piling of inflammable material in or near buildings, is the custom, fire dangers are fifty per cent. greater than where a careful watch is maintained for material which is liable to start a disastrous fire.

A little care on the part of those who allow boxes, barrels, excelsior and other material to be piled in a heap in the basement or even a part of the business room itself, will greatly lessen fire dangers in any city, and especially in Washington.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

NAT. BANK OF COMMERCE,
Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

WOMEN SAVE MONEY.

Women are natural money-savers, no matter how much is said about what they spend for dresses and hats. They always know how to make a dollar go the farthest. That's why thoughtful women discover that by using Easy Task soap in their laundry work they save fuel and time and trouble and health and more than that, they save the clothes that are washed. Easy Task has no rosin in it to stay in the clothes and hold the dirt with it and rot the fabric.

Off For the Campaign With a Fast String

Wert Mallow, With Three Fast Campaigners and Two Green Trotters, Left This Morning.

GETS AWAY IN ELEGANT STYLE

The Tried and True Old Veteran, Major Mallow, Is the "Dean" of the Bunch.

After spending the winter or off-season at the local track, Wert Mallow shipped by Pennsylvania railroad in a special car, his string of speeders, consisting of three side-wheelers, Major Mallow, 2:03 1-4; Irish Lad, 2:12 1-4; C. O. R., a campaigner of two years' experience, and two green trotters, Bonnie Dotte and Georgia Fly.

Going with this aristocratic bunch of horse flesh are five care-takers, one blacksmith and a cook.

The horses and attendants will, leaving here Saturday morning, stop first at Coshocton for the spring races which open there next week.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to follow by train Sunday morning, arriving in Coshocton late Sunday evening ready for the work bright and early Monday morning.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to try out his string on the half mile tracks in less pretentious company before tackling the bigger game on the mile tracks.

Later on it is likely that the three pacers will campaign on the Grand Circuit speedways. It was in this blue ribbon society that Major Mallow made his great reputation and his fastest time.

Irish Lad has not yet joined in a contest with the fastest horses in the country, but may do so this year.

Owner and driver Mallow feels confident that a good season awaits him. His horses have had good training and are in tip-top condition.

From the youngsters in the string he expects great things.

PARRETT'S GROCERY

"The Yellow Front"

THE HOME OF QUALITY FOR 24 YEARS

Special Price on New Texas Tomatos Today of 10c Per Pound, or 40c Per Basket

A full barrel fancy red Radishes to sell at 1c per bunch.

Fine fat Plymouth Rock fry chickens, about 2-pound average, 30c per pound.

Alaska Peas, 8c per lb, 2 lbs for 15c, 4 lbs for 25c.

Fresh Green Beans, 12½c per pound.

We expect another shipment of fancy Black Raspberries this afternoon. Price will be 15c per quart.

Valencia Summer Oranges, the finest Oranges grown, sell at 25c, 30c, 35c and 40c per doz.

Try us for Boiled Ham, Sliced Beef, Breakfast Bacon—all sliced to suit you on our new slicing machine.

BAINTER THROWS FIT PRISONER WALKS AWAY

Chief McCoy Starts to Workhouse With Three Prisoners, One Gets Sick and Another Escapes.

"GOPHER" SMITH IN THE WORKS

Albert Denner Seizes Opportunity and Bolts for Liberty at B. & O. Depot Early This Morning. Hoggy Bainter Taken to Home of Relative to Recover.

While Chief of Police McCoy was at the B. & O. depot awaiting the arrival of the early morning train so he could escort "Hoggy" Bainter, Albert Denner and "Gopher" Smith to the Columbus workhouse Saturday morning, Bainter suddenly threw a fit, falling to the floor and writhing in agony, and while Chief McCoy's attention was occupied with him for a moment Denner slipped quietly out of the depot and hot-footed it for parts unknown. In the end Chief McCoy was forced to board the train with only one of the men, "Gopher" Smith.

Arrangements had been made for taking Bainter and Denner to the workhouse, and late Friday evening it developed that "Gopher" Smith was in the city, and the police were ordered to arrest him and bring him in.

Smith is the man who was recently arrested on a charge of bootlegging, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $100 and costs and given 30 days in the workhouse. This was altered by most of the fine being suspended providing $25 and the costs were paid. Smith was released to secure the amount, dug up part of it and then disappeared.

When it became known that he was at home on "Flat Iron row" Cogswell and Bell went after him. Cogswell spied the man standing near the water tank at the "Point" and told him to come along. This was the signal for Smith to show his heels, which he did with surprising agaility. "Halt!" yelled Cogswell, and when Smith continued to run he pulled his gun and fired two shots, neither of which struck the fleeing man, but brought him to a standstill with his hands pointing toward the stars. He was locked up, commitment papers made out and arrangements made to take him to the workhouse with Bainter and Denner.

The report that Cogswell had shot the man spread throughout the city, but this was erroneous, the officer shooting to scare and not to hit.

When Chief McCoy landed at the depot with his three prisoners, Smith and Bainter were handcuffed together, and when Bainter threw the fit he pulled Smith to the floor with him. It was while Chief McCoy was releasing Smith from the painful grip of bracelets that Denner took the sprinting fever and bolted for liberty. He was out of sight in a moment, going at break-neck speed.

Bainter was taken to the home of Jack Bainter, who lives just across from the B. & O. and placed on a bed, where he remained for a long time in a semi-conscious condition.

Denner's bolt for liberty probably saves the county the expense of maintaining him in the workhouse, for if he ever returns the old fine will be enforced.

O. E. S.

Regular meeting of Royal Chapter No. 29, O. E. S., Monday evening, June 24, at 7:30. All members are requested to be present. Initiation and social hour.

VERA V. VEAIL, W. M.
MAE RODGERS, Secy.

NOTICE TO KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

On Wednesday evening, June 26th, members of Confidence lodge will entertain their families, sojourning Knights and their families and the families of deceased members, with a social session. The attendance of all included in this notice is desired. Program will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

COMMITTEE.

Aged Conductor Makes Last Trip

John Green, for 25 years a conductor on the D. T. & I. railroad, died at his home in Springfield Friday night after a short illness.

No man on the road is better known than Conductor Green, and the road has always found him efficient and always "on the job".

During the past few years he has been running between Ironton and Jackson, being a passenger conductor.

Sues for $263 Promissory Note

John Harbine has brought suit for the recovery of $263 with interest from February 8th, 1912, making Elmer Allen the defendant in the suit.

A copy of the note is attached and the plaintiff claims that it was issued to the Live Stock Remedy Company and endorsed by them to the plaintiff, who now seeks judgment in full.

Two Killed and Two Fatally Hurt

Special to Herald.

Conneaut, O., June 22.—Conductor Lyttle and Brakeman Ransen killed. Engineer Curtis and Brakeman Lamb fatally injured in rear end collision on Nickle Plate railroad.

OBITUARY.

Sarah E. Coonrod, whose maiden name was Davey, wife of Oliver Coonrod, daughter of John and Mary J. Davey, was born July the 18th, 1839, in Hampshire county, W. Va. At about 2 years of age she came with her parents and settled near Zanesville, O., where she grew up to womanhood. At about 21 years of age she was united to W. B. Crooks in the holy bonds of matrimony, May the 8th, 1860.

Mr. Crooks was a Union soldier and died in Andersonville prison, September, 1864.

Feb. 28th, 1866, she became the faithful wife of Morgan T. Smith, who died Oct. 28th, 1893. To these unions were born 8 children, 6 sons and 2 daughters.

June the 19th, 1902, she took the solemn vow of holy matrimony with Oliver Coonrod, of Washington C. H., O., and faithfully lived up to her promise until death, May the 30th, 1912, aged 72 years, 10 months and 12 days.

After appropriate services were held at the residence in Washington C. H., O., her remains were put on the train and conveyed to the cemetery of her choice near Purgitsville, W. Va. Four sons, many relatives and friends, listened to a fine talk by Rev. Brunk of the U. B. church. She leaves a husband, 4 sons and one daughter to mourn the great loss.

Norman J. and Col. W. E. Crooks, of Keyser, W. Va., Frank C. and E. L. Smith, respectively, of Purgitsville and Piedmont, W. Va., and Mrs. Carrie Gault, of Washington C. H., O. She also leaves 3 brothers and 3 sisters to remember the good example of her life, W. E. Davey, of Lebanon, Mo.; James and Frank Davey, Mrs. Rebecca Gault, Mrs. Lena Backenstoe, of Washington C. H., O., and Mrs. Phebe Smith, of Iowa. Mrs. Coonrod died as she had lived, a friend to everybody. From girlhood until death she was a strong believer in the Christian religion and lived out more than she professed. When the hour of death came, she was ready and willing to go at the Master's call, and with a smiling face fell asleep in Jesus.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep
From which none ever wake to weep."

When Jesus shall rule over all the earth, King of kings and Lord of lords thou wilt be one of His loving subjects to rejoice and praise him for so great salvation. When all voices in heaven, earth and sea are praising God, thy voice will help to swell the great song of praise unto the Lamb that was slain, but liveth again, forever and ever, Amen.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly tendered their services during the sickness of our loved one.

O. COONROD AND FAMILY.

NESTOR and AMERICAN TONIGH

THE PALACE

Automobile Road Race

Held at Santa Monica, California, May 4th. Th World's records smashed. A thrilling picture.

Cupid Through Padlocks

Charming Western Comedy with Pauline Bus Warren Kerrigan and the all star American Com'y

Coming Thursday, June 27th

JESS Thanhouser 3 Reel Special, Ride Haggard's Great Boer War Stor

10c COLONIAL 10

Vaudeville Tonight

WE-CHOK-BE The half-breed Sioux In dian girl, scored a big hi last evening. The act decidedly out of the ordinary. She makes an entir change tonight.

Selig presents—The Redemption of "Greek Joe"

His Little Sister—Lubin Comed

5c WONDERLAND 5c

Becky Gets a Husband Lubin Comedy

Under Mexican Skies A powerful drama o Old Mexico.

Trusted Public Servant Probably $11,000 Short

Charles E. Stocklen, owner of a grocery in Circleville, a highly respected citizen and treasurer of Circleville township, has disappeared, and his whereabouts is unknown, and according to the latest information from Circleville, several thousand dollars of the township's money has disappeared with him.

Stocklen, who had always held the confidence of the people and was widely known, numbering quite a few Washington and Fayette citizens among his friends, left about one week ago, and nothing has since been heard from him. The following article in Saturday's Enquirer probably sheds some light on the reason for his sudden leave-taking:

"Charles E. Stocklin, Treasurer of Circleville township, left his home in this city Thursday, the 13th, and no tidings have been received from him since. He said he would be back early, and left ostensibly for Columbus.

His accounts as Township Treasurer had just been checked by Inspector C. E. Godfrey, of the Auditor of State's office, and apparently were in a satisfactory condition. Since his departure two certificates of deposit on the Second National bank of this city for $5,000 each, which he exhibited to the inspector as a part of the township funds, are missing, and have been declared to be forgeries by the bank officials, who say Stocklin never had any funds of any kind on deposit there.

These, it is charged, were used as a blind to tide him over the inspection examination, and were immediately afterward destroyed. It is said he lost $16,000 in a mine, and in his efforts to recoup used the township funds. His alleged shortage is said to be approximately $11,000. The prosecuting attorney says a warrant will be issued today."

Fire Traps Plentiful Due To Carelessness

In a great many basement rooms in the city can be found an accumulation of boxes, boards, paper, excelsior and other highly inflammable material which only requires a spark to kindle a dangerous blaze in the heart of city blocks.

The average citizen in placing the inflammable material in the basement becomes so accustomed to seeing the accumulation that he does not pause to think that he is virtually building a heap of fagots under his place of business, but trusts to luck to take care of the dangerous material and prevent it from catching on fire.

One man who recently had occasion to visit a number of basement rooms states that he was greatly surprised at the ease with which a fire of very disastrous kind could be started—only a spark accidentally dropped being all that is required to kindle the pile of material.

"When one knows the condition of the average basement", said the man, "he is really surprised that there are not ten times more fires than there are, for the average basement is used as a catch-all for everything imaginable."

In the average city where lax observation of ordinances relating to the piling of inflammable material in or near buildings, is the custom, fire dangers are fifty per cent. greater than where a careful watch is maintained for material which is liable to start a disastrous fire.

A little care on the part of those who allow boxes, barrels, excelsior and other material to be piled in a heap in the basement or even a part of the business room itself, will greatly lessen fire dangers in any city, and especially in Washington.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

NAT. BANK OF COMMERCE.
Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

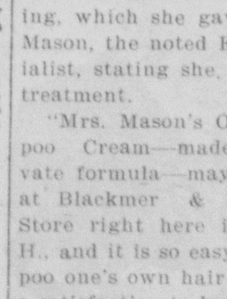
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

WOMEN SAVE MONEY.

Women are natural money-savers, no matter how much is said about what they spend for dresses and hats. They always know how to make a dollar go the farthest. That's why thoughtful women discover that by using Easy Task soap in their laundry work they save fuel and time and trouble and health and more than that, they save the clothes that are washed. Easy Task has no rosin in it to stay in the clothes and hold the dirt with it and rot the fabric.

DELICIOUS FRIED SPRING CHICKEN DINNER 25c, AT SOUTHERN CAFE, SUNDAY.

SECRET OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR.



"Grace, do you remember what luxuriant hair Mme. Melba had, when we heard her in Grand Opera?"

"Yes, Mary, and I also know her secret for it, I have seen two different letters in her own handwriting, which she gave to Kate Seaton Mason, the noted English Hair Specialist, stating she owes it all to her treatment.

"Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream—made from her private formula—may now be obtained at Blackmer & Tanquary's Drug Store right here in Washington C. H., and it is so easy for one to shampoo one's own hair with it, and such a satisfaction to know, when rubbing it into the scalp that it not only cleanses the hair and scalp beautifully, but it has tonic properties which will make the hair grow."

"It is only 25c a tube, enough for several shampoos, and Blackmer & Tanquary will return your money if you do not like it."

NOTICE TO JR. O. U. A. M.

Regular meeting Monday evening, June 24. Degree work and refreshments. Let all members be present.

W. G. EVANS, Sec.

LOCAL CHURCHES.

Grace M. E. Church.
Rev. T. W. Locke, Pastor

Sabbath school at 9:15 a. m. C. E. Lloyd, superintendent.

Morning preaching services 10:30. Subject of sermon: "True Service and Its Reward."

General class meeting, 2:30.

Epworth League devotional meeting 6:45. Topic: "How Persecution Has Extended the Knowledge of God."

Evening preaching service 7:30. Sermon by the pastor.

Mid-week church service Thursday night at 7:30.

Wesley Chapel.
E. S. Norris, superintendent.

Sunday school at 2:30.

The Sunday school will observe Children's Day by rendering a special program at 2:30 o'clock.

Presbyterian Church.
Rev. Wm. Irwin Campbell, Pastor.

Sabbath school at 9:15 a. m. Superintendent, Ray F. Zaner.

Brotherhood Bible class, 9:00 a. m. Taught by pastor.

Morning worship at 10:30 a. m. Subject of sermon: "Lead in Triumph."

Evening services at 7:30 p. m. Subject of sermon: "Things New and Old."

East End Chapel.
Sunday school at 2 p. m.
Superintendent, E. T. Evans.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Mission.
Services held on third floor of Memorial Hall, conducted by Lay Reader, Calvin Thompson.

Morning prayer, 10:30 a. m.
Evening prayer, 3:45 p. m.

First Baptist Church.
Rev. A. W. West, Pastor.

Bible school 9:30 a. m. Albert Snyder, superintendent.

Morning preaching service 10:45. Subject of sermon: "Worshiping God in His Sanctuary."

B. Y. P. U. 6:45.

Evening service, 7:30 p. m.

Prayer meeting, Thursday, 7:15.

Church of Christ.
Rev. Bowman Hostetler, Pastor.

Bible school 9:15 a. m. L. Ettta Rannels, Supt.

Communion and preaching 10:30 a. m. The minister will preach on "Golden Treasure in Earthen Vessels."

Jr. C. E. 2 p. m. P. F. Goodwin, Supt.

C. E. Prayer meeting, 6:30 p. m. Topic: "Reading That Is Worth While." Led by Melwood Hostetler and Mrs. Gwen Stolzenberg.

Preaching, 7:30 p. m. Subject: "Beating Against the Current."

Mid-week prayer meeting Thursday, 7:30 p. m.

Oak Grove.
Bible school, 2 p. m.
Preaching, 3 p. m.

Vacuum Cleaners for rent—hand or electric—delivered and called for. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Want ads are profitable.

Off For the Campaign With a Fast String

Wert Mallow, With Three Fast Campaigners and Two Green Trotters, Left This Morning.

GETS AWAY IN ELEGANT STYLE

The Tried and True Old Veteran, Major Mallow, Is the "Dean" of the Bunch.

After spending the winter or off-season at the local track, Wert Mallow shipped by Pennsylvania railroad in a special car, his string of speeders, consisting of three side-wheelers, Major Mallow, 2:03 1-4; Irish Lad, 2:12 1-4; C. O. R., a campaigner of two years' experience, and two green trotters, Bonnie Dotte and Georgia Fly.

Going with this aristocratic bunch of horse flesh are five care-takers, one blacksmith and a cook.

The horses and attendants will, leaving here Saturday morning, stop first at Coshocton for the spring races which open there next week.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to follow by train Sunday morning, arriving in Coshocton late Sunday evening ready for the work bright and early Monday morning.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to try out his string on the half mile tracks in less pretentious company before tackling the bigger game on the mile tracks.

Later on it is likely that the three pacers will campaign on the Grand Circuit speedways. It was in this blue ribbon society that Major Mallow made his great reputation and his fastest time.

Irish Lad has not yet joined in a contest with the fastest horses in the country, but may do so this year.

Owner and driver Mallow feels confident that a good season awaits him. His horses have had good training and are in tip-top condition.

From the youngsters in the string he expects great things.

PARRETT'S GROCERY

"The Yellow Front"

THE HOME OF QUALITY FOR 24 YEARS

Special Price on New Texas Tomatos Today of 10c Per Pound, or 40c Per Basket

A full barrel fancy red Radishes to sell at 1c per bunch.

Fine fat Plymouth Rock fry chickens, about 2-pound average, 30c per pound.

Alaska Peas, 8c per lb, 2 lbs for 15c, 4 lbs for 25c.

Fresh Green Beans, 12½c per pound.

We expect another shipment of fancy Black Raspberries this afternoon. Price will be 15c per quart.

Valencia Summer Oranges, the finest Oranges grown, sell at 25c, 30c, 35c and 40c per doz.

Try us for Boiled Ham, Sliced Beef, Breakfast Bacon—all sliced to suit you on our new slicing machine.

BAINTER THROWS FIT PRISONER WALKS AWAY

Chief McCoy Starts to Workhouse With Three Prisoners, One Gets Sick and Another Escapes.

"GOPHER" SMITH IN THE WORKS

Albert Denner Seizes Opportunity and Bolts for Liberty at B. & O. Depot Early This Morning. Hoggy Bainter Taken to Home of Relative to Recover.

While Chief of Police McCoy was at the B. & O. depot awaiting the arrival of the early morning train so he could escort "Hoggy" Bainter, Albert Denner and "Gopher" Smith to the Columbus workhouse Saturday morning, Bainter suddenly threw a fit, falling to the floor and writhing in agony, and while Chief McCoy's attention was occupied with him for a moment Denner slipped quietly out of the depot and hot-footed it for parts unknown. In the end Chief McCoy was forced to board the train with only one of the men, "Gopher" Smith.

Arrangements had been made for taking Bainter and Denner to the workhouse, and late Friday evening it developed that "Gopher" Smith was in the city, and the police were ordered to arrest him and bring him in.

Smith is the man who was recently arrested on a charge of bootlegging, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $100 and costs and given 30 days in the workhouse. This was altered by most of the fine being suspended providing $25 and the costs were paid. Smith was released to secure the amount, dug up part of it and then disappeared.

When it became known that he was at home on "Flat Iron row" Cogswell and Bell went after him. Cogswell spied the man standing near the water tank at the "Point" and told him to come along. This was the signal for Smith to show his heels, which he did with surprising agaility. "Halt!" yelled Cogswell, and when Smith continued to run he pulled his gun and fired two shots, neither of which struck the fleeing man, but brought him to a standstill with his hands pointing toward the stars. He was locked up, commitment papers made out and arrangements made to take him to the workhouse with Bainter and Denner.

The report that Cogswell had shot the man spread throughout the city, but this was erroneous, the officer shooting to scare and not to hit.

When Chief McCoy landed at the depot with his three prisoners, Smith and Bainter were handcuffed together, and when Bainter threw the fit he pulled Smith to the floor with him. It was while Chief McCoy was releasing Smith from the painful grip of bracelets that Denner took the sprinting fever and bolted for liberty. He was out of sight in a moment, going at break-neck speed.

Bainter was taken to the home of Jack Bainter, who lives just across from the B. & O. and placed on a bed, where he remained for a long time in a semi-conscious condition.

Denner's bolt for liberty probably saves the county the expense of maintaining him in the workhouse, for if he ever returns the old fine will be enforced.

O. E. S.

Regular meeting of Royal Chapter No. 29, O. E. S., Monday evening, June 24, at 7:30. All members are requested to be present. Initiation and social hour.

VERA V. VEAIL, W. M.
MAE RODGERS, Secy.

NOTICE TO KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

On Wednesday evening, June 26th, members of Confidence lodge will entertain their families, sojourning Knights and their families and the families of deceased members, with a social session. The attendance of all included in this notice is desired. Program will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

COMMITTEE.

Aged Conductor Makes Last Trip

John Green, for 25 years a conductor on the D. T. & I. railroad, died at his home in Springfield Friday night after a short illness.

No man on the road is better known than Conductor Green, and the road has always found him efficient and always "on the job".

During the past few years he has been running between Ironton and Jackson, being a passenger conductor.

Sues for $263 Promissory Note

John Harbine has brought suit for the recovery of $263 with interest from February 8th, 1912, making Elmer Allen the defendant in the suit.

A copy of the note is attached and the plaintiff claims that it was issued to the Live Stock Remedy Company and endorsed by them to the plaintiff, who now seeks judgment in full.

Two Killed and Two Fatally Hurt

Special to Herald.

Conneaut, O., June 22.—Conductor Lyttle and Brakeman Ransen killed. Engineer Curtis and Brakeman Lamb fatally injured in rear end collision on Nickle Plate railroad.

OBITUARY.

Sarah E. Coonrod, whose maiden name was Davey, wife of Oliver Coonrod, daughter of John and Mary J. Davey, was born July the 18th, 1839, in Hampshire county, W. Va. At about 2 years of age she came with her parents and settled near Zanesville, O., where she grew up to womanhood. At about 21 years of age she was united to W. B. Crooks in the holy bonds of matrimony, May the 8th, 1860.

Mr. Crooks was a Union soldier and died in Andersonville prison, September, 1864.

Feb. 28th, 1866, she became the faithful wife of Morgan T. Smith, who died Oct. 28th, 1893. To these unions were born 8 children, 6 sons and 2 daughters.

June the 19th, 1902, she took the solemn vow of holy matrimony with Oliver Coonrod, of Washington C. H., O., and faithfully lived up to her promise until death, May the 30th, 1912, aged 72 years, 10 months and 12 days.

After appropriate services were held at the residence in Washington C. H., O., her remains were put on the train and conveyed to the cemetery of her choice near Purgitsville, W. Va. Four sons, many relatives and friends, listened to a fine talk by Rev. Brunk of the U. B. church. She leaves a husband, 4 sons and one daughter to mourn the great loss.

Norman J. and Col. W. E. Crooks, of Keyser, W. Va., Frank C. and E. L. Smith, respectively, of Purgitsville and Piedmont, W. Va., and Mrs. Carrie Gault, of Washington C. H., O. She also leaves 3 brothers and 3 sisters to remember the good example of her life, W. E. Davey, of Lebanon, Mo.; James and Frank Davey, Mrs. Rebecca Gault, Mrs. Lena Backenstoe, of Washington C. H., O., and Mrs. Phebe Smith, of Iowa. Mrs. Coonrod died as she had lived, a friend to everybody. From girlhood until death she was a strong believer in the Christian religion and lived out more than she professed. When the hour of death came, she was ready and willing to go at the Master's call, and with a smiling face fell asleep in Jesus.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep
From which none ever wake to weep."

When Jesus shall rule over all the earth, King of kings and Lord of lords thou wilt be one of His loving subjects to rejoice and praise him for so great salvation. When all voices in heaven, earth and sea are praising God, thy voice will help to swell the great song of praise unto the Lamb that was slain, but liveth again, forever and ever, Amen.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly tendered their services during the sickness of our loved one.

O. COONROD AND FAMILY.

DELICIOUS FRIED SPRING CHICKEN DINNER 25c, AT SOUTHERN CAFE, SUNDAY.

SECRET OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR.

"Grace, do you remember what luxuriant hair Mme. Melba had, when we heard her in Grand Opera?"

"Yes, Mary, and I also know her secret for it; I have seen two different letters in her own handwriting, which she gave to Kate Seaton Mason, the noted English Hair Specialist, stating she owes it all to her treatment.

"Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream—made from her private formula—may now be obtained at Blackmer & Tanquary's Drug Store right here in Washington C. H., and it is so easy for one to shampoo one's own hair with it, and such a satisfaction to know, when rubbing it into the scalp that it not only cleanses the hair and scalp beautifully, but it has tonic properties which will make the hair grow."

"It is only 25c a tube, enough for several shampoos, and Blackmer & Tanquary will return your money if you do not like it."

NOTICE TO JR. O. U. A. M.

Regular meeting Monday evening, June 24. Degree work and refreshments. Let all members be present.

W. G. EVANS, Sec.

THE PALACE

Automobile Road Race

Held at Santa Monica, California, May 4th. The World's records smashed. A thrilling picture.

Cupid Through Padlocks

Charming Western Comedy with Pauline Bush Warren Kerrigan and the all star American Com

Coming Thursday, June 27th

JESS Thanhouser 3 Reel Special, Rid Haggard's Great Boer War Sto

10c COLONIAL 10

Vaudeville Tonight

WE-CHOK-BE The half-breed Sioux In dian girl, scored a big h last evening. The act decidedly out of the ordinary. She makes an entir change tonight.

Selig presents—The Redemption of "Greek Joe"

His Little Sister—Lubin Comed

5c WONDERLAND 5

Becky Gets a Husband Lubin Comedy

Under Mexican Skies A powerful drama o Old Mexico.

Trusted Public Servant Probably $11,000 Short

Charles E. Stocklen, owner of a grocery in Circleville, a highly respected citizen and treasurer of Circleville township, has disappeared, and his whereabouts is unknown, and according to the latest information from Circleville, several thousand dollars of the township's money has disappeared with him.

Stocklen, who had always held the confidence of the people and was widely known, numbering quite a few Washington and Fayette citizens among his friends, left about one week ago, and nothing has since been heard from him. The following article in Saturday's Enquirer probably sheds some light on the reason for his sudden leave-taking:

"Charles E. Stocklin, Treasurer of Circleville township, left his home in this city Thursday, the 13th, and no tidings have been received from him since. He said he would be back early, and left ostensibly for Columbus.

His accounts as Township Treasurer had just been checked by Inspector C. E. Godfrey, of the Auditor of State's office, and apparently were in a satisfactory condition. Since his departure two certificates of deposit on the Second National bank of this city for $5,000 each, which he exhibited to the inspector as a part of the township funds, are missing, and have been declared to be forgeries by the bank officials, who say Stocklin never had any funds of any kind on deposit there.

These, it is charged, were used as a blind to tide him over the inspection examination, and were immediately afterward destroyed. It is said he lost $16,000 in a mine, and in his efforts to recoup used the township funds. His alleged shortage is said to be approximately $11,000. The prosecuting attorney says a warrant will be issued today."

Fire Traps Plentiful Due To Carelessness

In a great many basement rooms in the city can be found an accumulation of boxes, boards, paper, excelsior and other highly inflammable material which only requires a spark to kindle a dangerous blaze in the heart of city blocks.

The average citizen in placing the inflammable material in the basement becomes so accustomed to seeing the accumulation that he does not pause to think that he is virtually building a heap of fagots under his place of business, but trusts to luck to take care of the dangerous material and prevent it from catching on fire.

One man who recently had occasion to visit a number of basement rooms states that he was greatly surprised at the ease with which a fire of very disastrous kind could be started—only a spark accidentally dropped being all that is required to kindle the pile of material.

"When one knows the condition of the average basement", said the man, "he is really surprised that there are not ten times more fires than there are, for the average basement is used as a catch-all for everything imaginable."

In the average city where lax observation of ordinances relating to the piling of inflammable material in or near buildings, is the custom, fire dangers are fifty per cent. greater than where a careful watch is maintained for material which is liable to start a disastrous fire.

A little care on the part of those who allow boxes, barrels, excelsior and other material to be piled in a heap in the basement or even a part of the business room itself, will greatly lessen fire dangers in any city, and especially in Washington.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

NAT. BANK OF COMMERCE,
Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

WOMEN SAVE MONEY.

Women are natural money-savers, no matter how much is said about what they spend for dresses and hats. They always know how to make a dollar go the farthest. That's why thoughtful women discover that by using Easy Task soap in their laundry work they save fuel and time and trouble and health and more than that, they save the clothes that are washed. Easy Task has no rosin in it to stay in the clothes and hold the dirt with it and rot the fabric.

Off For the Campaign With a Fast String

Wert Mallow, With Three Fast Campaigners and Two Green Trotters, Left This Morning.

GETS AWAY IN ELEGANT STYLE

The Tried and True Old Veteran, Major Mallow, Is the "Dean" of the Bunch.

After spending the winter or off-season at the local track, Wert Mallow shipped by Pennsylvania railroad in a special car, his string of speeders, consisting of three side-wheelers, Major Mallow, 2:03 1-4; Irish Lad, 2:12 1-4; C. O. R., a campaigner of two years' experience, and two green trotters, Bonnie Dotte and Georgia Fly.

Going with this aristocratic bunch of horse flesh are five care-takers, one blacksmith and a cook.

The horses and attendants will, leaving here Saturday morning, stop first at Coshocton for the spring races which open there next week.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to follow by train Sunday morning, arriving in Coshocton late Sunday evening ready for the work bright and early Monday morning.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to try out his string on the half mile tracks in less pretentious company before tackling the bigger game on the mile tracks.

Later on it is likely that the three pacers will campaign on the Grand Circuit speedways. It was in this blue ribbon society that Major Mallow made his great reputation and his fastest time.

Irish Lad has not yet joined in a contest with the fastest horses in the country, but may do so this year.

Owner and driver Mallow feels confident that a good season awaits him. His horses have had good training and are in tip-top condition.

From the youngsters in the string he expects great things.

LOCAL CHURCHES.

Grace M. E. Church.
Rev. T. W. Locke, Pastor

Sabbath school at 9:15 a. m. C. E Lloyd, superintendent.

Morning preaching services 10:30. Subject of sermon: "True Service and Its Reward."

General class meeting, 2:30.

Epworth League devotional meeting 6:45. Topic: "How Persecution Has Extended the Knowledge of God."

Evening preaching service 7:30. Sermon by the pastor.

Mid-week church service Thursday night at 7:30.

Wesley Chapel.
E. S. Norris, superintendent.

Sunday school at 2:30.

The Sunday school will observe Children's Day by rendering a special program at 2:30 o'clock.

Presbyterian Church.
Rev. Wm. Irwin Campbell, Pastor.

Sabbath school at 9:15 a. m. Superintendent, Ray F. Zaner.

Brotherhood Bible class, 9:00 a. m. Taught by pastor.

Morning worship at 10:30 a. m. Subject of sermon: "Lead in Triumph."

Evening services at 7:30 p. m. Subject of sermon: "Things New and Old."

East End Chapel.
Sunday school at 2 p. m.
Superintendent, E. T. Evans.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Mission.
Services held on third floor of Memorial Hall, conducted by Lay Reader, Calvin Thompson.

Morning prayer, 10:30 a. m.
Evening prayer, 3:45 p. m.

First Baptist Church.
Rev. A. W. West, Pastor.

Bible school 9:30 a. m. Albert Snyder, superintendent.

Morning preaching service 10:45. Subject of sermon: "Worshiping God in His Sanctuary."

B. Y. P. U. 6:45.

Evening service, 7:30 p. m.

Prayer meeting, Thursday, 7:15.

Church of Christ.
Rev. Bowman Hostetler, Pastor.

Bible school 9:15 a. m. L. Ettie Rannels, Supt.

Communion and preaching 10:30 a. m. The minister will preach on "Golden Treasure in Earthen Vessels."

Jr. C. E. 2 p. m. P. F. Goodwin, Supt.

C. E. Prayer meeting, 6:30 p. m. Topic: "Reading That Is Worth While." Led by Melwood Hostetler and Mrs. Gwen Stolzenberg.

Preaching, 7:30 p. m. Subject: "Beating Against the Current."

Mid-week prayer meeting Thursday, 7:30 p. m.

Oak Grove.
Bible school, 2 p. m.
Preaching, 3 p. m.

Vacuum Cleaners for rent—hand or electric—delivered and called for. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Want ads are profitable.

PARRETT'S GROCERY

"The Yellow Front"

THE HOME OF QUALITY FOR 24 YEARS

Special Price on New Texas Tomatos Today of 10c Per Pound, or 40c Per Basket

A full barrel fancy red Radishes to sell at 1c per bunch.

Fine fat Plymouth Rock fry chickens, about 2-pound average, 30c per pound.

Alaska Peas, 8c per lb, 2 lbs for 15c, 4 lbs for 25c.

Fresh Green Beans, 12½c per pound.

We expect another shipment of fancy Black Raspberries this afternoon. Price will be 15c per quart.

Valencia Summer Oranges, the finest Oranges grown, sell at 25c, 30c, 35c and 40c per doz.

Try us for Boiled Ham, Sliced Beef, Breakfast Bacon—all sliced to suit you on our new slicing machine.

IN SOCIETY

One of the prettiest and most recherche of afternoon teas was given from four to six o'clock Friday afternoon by Mrs. Bertha S. Miller, in honor of her guest, Mrs. John Bixler, of Lafayette, Ind., and Mrs. Byron Gifford, of Chicago.

The artistic home formed the background for sixty women in lovely summer toilets and in its exquisite decorations flaunted June the month of roses.

The rooms were radiant with a profusion of crimson ramblers, their brilliant bloom filling jardiners and vases in graceful clusters, and a tall vase of blue larkspur won the admiration of the guests.

The dining room was a picture, the pretty table having for its centerpiece a beautiful basket of white carnations and crimson ramblers, and the ramblers banking sideboard and serving table.

Mrs. Miller, always the most charming of hostesses, was wearing black chiffon, embroidered in lavender, over white taffeta.

Mrs. Bixler, who is a pretty brunette with very attractive manner, wore a becoming white lingerie gown of lace and mull.

Mrs. Gifford, nee Anna Louise Rothrock, was as glad to see all her old friends as they were to see her, and was looking lovely in a hand-embroidered white batiste over pink.

Assisting in the afternoon's cordial hospitalities were Mrs. Frank L. Stutson, Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, Mrs. Fuller Hess, Mrs. Albert Glascock, Mrs. Gerrie Spragg and Miss Florence Ustick.

Receiving at the door were two handsome little pages in white, Mrs. Miller's son, Oliver, and Mrs. Bixler's son, Jack.

Mrs. Carl Baer, of Hope, Ark., was also an out-of-town guest.

Miss Dorothy Bush, the talented young pianist who won the silver medal at the W. C. T. U. musical contest last week, gave a pleasing piano recital Friday afternoon at the Stinson Conservatory.

Miss Bush played six numbers with exceptional expression and accuracy for so young a pupil. She was assisted by Miss Virginia Sites in a duet and pretty solo.

After the recital Mrs. Stinson took thirty-five of the younger students of the Conservatory for an automobile ride and then to Willis park, where they spent a merry hour with swings, games and refreshments.

Upon their return Miss Bush treated the crowd to ices and cream.

Miss Marie Melvin gave a beautiful party for Miss Bertha Briggs, a bride of next week, Friday evening.

Thirty girl friends of Miss Briggs were in attendance and the affair resulted in a "Kitchen Shower," with a number of useful gifts for culinary use, largely aluminum ware.

A white and crimson color scheme was artistically carried out in quantities of crimson ramblers, white lilies and elder blossoms and crimson hearts.

The red and white was also employed in the delicious refreshments served.

Miss Briggs was wearing a very pretty gown of white batiste embroidered in blue, and Miss Melvin white dimity, lace trimmed.

During the evening Miss Margaret McClure added to the pleasure of the occasion with brilliant piano renditions.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. George Melvin, Misses Margaret Briggs and Ann Lawrence.

The wedding of Miss Ann Kirby Quinn, whose engagement to Mr. Herbert Allan Ottewill, of London, England, was recently announced, will not be solemnized at the bride's home here as was originally intended, but will take place in London on July 2d, the bride's mother, Mrs. L. S. Quinn, and her uncle, Mr. Kirby Smith, being in that city. Mr. Smith expects to come home early in July and Mrs. Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will come over in August. After a visit here Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will go to China where the groom is in the British Consular service.—Hillsboro Gazette, June 21.

Mr. Albert Glascock is spending the day in Cincinnati.

• • •

Prof. D. A. Ferree is in Columbus taking his M. A. degree.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, are spending Sunday here.

• • •

Mr. A. L. Cherry, of Ghormley's Station, is a business visitor here today.

• • •

Mrs. W. A. Patton, of Leesburg, was the guest of Mrs. Al Martin, Friday.

• • •

Mr. George Adams and son, Wilbur, went to Cincinnati to attend the races today.

• • •

Mrs. Harry Colwell is the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Colwell in Lancaster.

• • •

Mrs. A. Dewey and daughter, Corrine, of Leesburg, were the guests of Mrs. Hibben Ervin Friday.

• • •

Miss Helen Harper left this morning on a ten days' visit with Miss Sarah Holmes in Augusta, Ky.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cave returned today from a pleasant outing in Springfield and at Russel's Point.

• • •

Miss Sybel Hoover, who has been the guest of Miss Helen Willis, left this morning for her home in Gibson, Ill.

• • •

Miss Charlotte Dahl returned this morning from a visit of several weeks with a school friend at Nashville, Tenn.

• • •

Mrs. Isaac Cook returns to St. Louis, Mo., Sunday, after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCrea.

• • •

Mr. H. A. Thissel, of Philadelphia, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. G. M. Ustick and daughter, Miss Florence, for a couple of days.

• • •

Mrs. A. E. Baum, Mrs. Kate Latham and Fred Bradfute, spent Wednesday in Springfield, attending the G. A. R. encampment.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cissna, Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford and Ruth and Nell Cissna, made a motoring trip to Dayton yesterday.

• • •

Mrs. Walter McLean and children, Richard and Lucile, are visiting Mrs. McLean's mother, Mrs. Ada Fortune in Pittsburg, Pa., and will also visit in Albion, Pa.

• • •

Master Billy Merriweather is visiting his uncle, Mr. William Merriweather at Reeseville. Mr. Nicholas Merriweather accompanied his nephew, returning tonight.

• • •

Mrs. Chas. Reid returned last evening from Chicago where she accompanied her husband to attend the Convention. Hon. C. A. Reid expected to remain until tonight.

• • •

Mr. F. B. Creamer returned Friday from a business trip to Texas, Mrs. Creamer also returning from Hillsboro, where she visited her mother, Mrs. Hickle, during his absence.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Van Winkle and son, Ervin, are spending the week end in Cincinnati and Mrs. Van Winkle will remain next week to be the guest of Mrs. Geo. Fabb

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. George Hays and Delbert, Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. N. S. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snider and daughter, Sylvia, and Miss Fern Sunkle, were among the week's visitors at the Springfield encampment.

• • •

Mrs. Thomas Cheesman, of Mt. Auburn, Cincinnati, visited Mrs. Lelia Counts the past two days, enroute from the encampment at Springfield, which she attended as a Cincinnati delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dale and daughters, made a motoring trip to Princetown to visit relatives this week. Miss Pauline Dale remained for an indefinite stay.

• • •

Mr. L. W. Buckmaster is down from Columbus for the day. Washington friends regret to learn that Mrs. Buckmaster has been dangerously ill during the past few weeks. Her present condition is more hopeful.

• • •

Mr. R. C. Hunt has returned from a ten days' business trip to Adairville and Bowling Green, Ky., accompanied by his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. W. Hunt and son, Edward, who will be Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's guests.

• • •

Miss Josephine Porter and little niece, Martha Porter, have returned from a visit in Cincinnati, Norwood and Lebanon. At Lebanon they visited Miss Porter's niece, Miss Lida Posey, who is attending the university.

• • •

Mrs. Ellis Ramsey and two children, arrived from Saginaw, Mich., Friday evening and will reside with Capt. Ramsey, who has opened his beautiful home on Washington avenue, after having it closed during the winter season. Mr. Ramsey expects to join his wife shortly.

• • •

Mrs. French Wilson, of Williamsp[illegible]; Mrs. O. C. Wilson, of Zanesville, spent Thursday and Friday the guests of Miss Ruth Smithers. Miss Smithers has for her guest at present, Mrs. A. H. Tinker and granddaughter, Ruth, and Miss Madge Putman, of Frankfort.

• • •

Miss Louise Weaver has returned from Wilson college, Chambersburg, Pa., to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver. Since the college closed, Miss Weaver visited school friends in New York and Trenton, N. J.

• • •

Dr. Robert Thornton returned today from Columbus, where he has been taking the state medical examinations, subsequent to his graduation from the Ohio Starling Medical college. After a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Thornton, Dr. Thornton returns to the capital city to take the position of interne in the Protestant hospital.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rodecker and children, and Mrs. Anna Hicks motored to Springfield to attend the encampment this week and brought back with them Mr. Rodecker's mother, Mrs. Ellen Rodecker, who was W. R. C. delegate from Lancaster to the encampment. Mrs. Rodecker returned to Lancaster today.

Screen Doors and Windows rewired—called for and delivered. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

WHEN SERVANTS WERE SLAVES.

It hasn't been so many years since servants were practically slaves; they were bound out for a term of years and never could hope to better their conditions. The world is advancing, however, and now servants, especially those who do washing and housecleaning, are better treated. Easy Task laundry soap, that does half the work itself, and which cleans pots and pans and painted work like magic, is responsible for much of this emancipation. Only 5 cents a cake, too.

Pumps repaired. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Tri-County Chautauqua, Greenfield, Aug. 1 to 11 Inclusive

The Seventh Assembly of the Tri-County Chautauqua Association at Greenfield, has been set for August 1 to 11, inclusive. The association owns beautiful Chautauqua park with a magnificent steel auditorium and other extensive improvements. Every year has witnessed a notable advance and this year will be no exception to the general rule. The recreative side of Chautauqua life will be especially emphasized, and tennis courts, croquet grounds, quoits, base ball and other games provided.

The program is one of unusual strength. From nine o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night, every hour is filled with lectures, music and entertainment. A special feature is the engagement of Price's Premier band for three open-air concerts daily.

Four other splendid musical organizations have been engaged, the Hearon sister, the Mendelssohn Male Quartette, The Ernest Gamble Concert party and the Kaffir Boy Choir.

The lecturers include Richmond Pearson Robson, Ernest Thompson Seaton, Governor Hoch, of Kansas, "Mother" Lake, the foremost woman orator on the Chautauqua platform, Frank Dixon, Adam Bede, Prof. Gilbert, Chas. E. Thorn, Geo. W. Phillips and others equally well known.

The readers and impersonators include Lulu Tyler Gates, Maude Willis, Miss Edna Haas, and the Pierces in short plays and sketches A program of interest is the "Songs and Stories of the Red Men" by the Gales.

The morning programs have been made especially strong in the interest of the large number of campers who remain permanently on the grounds. Prof. Gilbert will conduct a class in Nature Study and Rev. Geo. Phillips will deliver a remarkable series of Bible lectures.

Another Strong Lecture Course

The purchasing committee of the Jeffersonville Lecture Course, consisting of H. L. Hire, S. M. Taggart, M. F. Hudson, J. A. McKillip and G. W. Blessing, met at the Farmers' bank rooms recently and selected the following talent for 1912-13: Opening number, White's Musical Review, the date will be announced later. The other numbers, whose dates will also be announced later, are Dr. Newell D. Hillis, Geo. R. Stewart, The Opollo Concert Co., and Leland T. Powers, entertainer.

The committee believe they have a strong attraction and if the price indicates anything it will be the best ever given in the history of the Jeffersonville Lecture course.

When the Lecture Course was first started, some twelve or fifteen years ago, the expense was guaranteed by a large number of business men. The price of the talent at that time was from $175 to $250 and the price for a season ticket was, as it is now, $1.00. From the very start it paid its way, with a small profit, which was set aside, it not being the intention of the promoters to make it a profit-sharing institution, until the profits amounted to something like $500. The committee and officers deemed it prudent to secure better talent, which they have done for the past three or four years. This met with the approval of the lecture going class, for the attendance has increased so that the receipts are meeting the talent at a cost of $575 to $650, leaving the original surplus in the hands of the treasurer.

The influence of this lecture course has had its effect upon Jeffersonville and the community at large for good both from an intellectual and moral standpoint.

PILES CURED AT HOME BY NEW ABSORPTION METHOD.

If you suffer from bleeding, itching, blind or protuding Piles, send me your address, and I will tell you how to cure yourself at home by the new absorption treatment; and will also send some of this home treatment free for trial, with references from your own locality if requested. Immediate relief and permanent cure assured. Send no money, but tell others of this offer. Write today to Mrs. M. Summers, Box P, Notre Dame, Ind.

Awaiting Plans For New Building

Mr. R. C. Hunt, who will soon commence the erection of a modern three-story apartment hotel on the site of the Imperial Hotel, is now awaiting the plans for the new building, and when he once decides upon the plans will soon have work on the building under way.

The site of the Imperial has long since been cleared of the ruins, and by the middle of the summer it is expected that the new structure will be well under way, and finished at the earliest possible moment.

FALLS DOWN STAIRS.

Mrs. Fred Swartz, North North street, fell down stairs last night, breaking her left arm and suffering very painful bruises. She is quite badly injured and suffering greatly.

Odd Fellows Adopt Plans

The Milledgeville lodge of Odd Fellows adopted plans for their new building at a recent meeting, deciding to erect a two-story brick structure instead of a three-story building as at first contemplated.

The structure will be erected upon the site of the building destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, and will contain two business rooms on the first floor, and splendid lodge rooms on the second floor.

The basement will also be enlarged and large storage quarters arranged, so that fruit, vegetables and other goods of similar nature can be stored in large quantities.

The building will cost approximately $7,000 and the contract will be let and the work commenced within the coming month.

Owing to some little delay Milledgeville will not be lighted with electricity for a week or ten days.

DEATHS

WINGARD.

Paul S. Wingard, aged 5 months, son of Sidney S. and Mattie Wingert, died Saturday morning, June 22, at 4:30 o'clock, at the residence on Oakland avenue. Burial will take place in Springfield Sunday.

OSWALD.

John Oswald died Friday evening at his home in Muncie, Ind. The remains will be brought here on the 9:38 C. H. & D. train Sunday morning, and will be taken by Undertaker Klever to Bloomingburg, where the burial will take place at 2 p. m.

Plumbing. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

STUTSON'S

Special Bargain Giving Tonight

Extra Special Tonignt IN Lingerie Waists

98c BEAUTIFULLY MADE AND TRIMMED Sold $1.50. Tonight, 98c

We Are Showing a Selection of

Muslin Underwear

At Unequalled Values

Beautiful sheer materials — lace and embroidery trimmed.

Special value tonight in

Corset Covers

19c, 39c, 49c

Special values tonight in

Gowns

49c, 69c, 79c, 98c

WE CARRY THE

Kayser Glove

Absolutely the best silk glove on the market. Long and short gloves — white, black and colors

50c, 75c

$1.00, $1.50

OUR LINE OF

Corsets

Includes the leading makes in the most fashionable models

Come and See Us Tonight

FRANK L. STUTSON

Order only the original well known

Neverdust

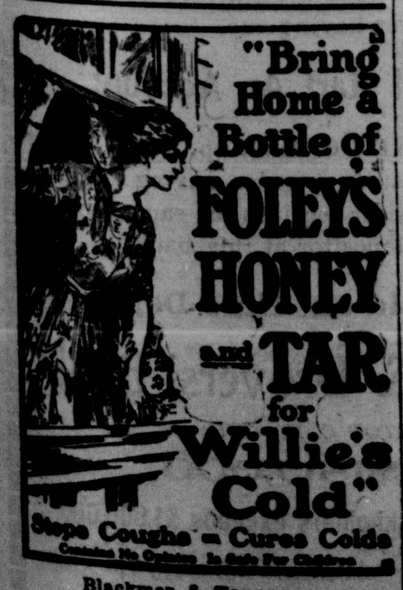
A sanitary sweeping compound. Put up in two kinds. No. 1 for floors, linoleums, etc. No. 2 for carpets and rugs.

Beware of Substitutes. Manufactured and for Sale by

The Neverdust Mfg. Co.

Or The M. C. Ortman Grocery

Washington C. H., O.



Blackmer & Tanquary.

THE OLD RELIABLE

STILL IN THE LEAD

We have nice green beans, sugar peas, cucumbers, new beets, new potatoes, tomatoes, nice strawberries, pine apples, gooseberries, oranges and bananas. Swift's premium bacon, also the English cured bacon, very fine, 20c per lb., nice smoked bacon, 16c per lb. See us, we are your friends. Yours,

J. W. DUFFEE & CO.

The Old Reliable Cash Grocers, Both phones No. 77.

IN SOCIETY

One of the prettiest and most recherche of afternoon teas was given from four to six o'clock Friday afternoon by Mrs. Bertha S. Miller, in honor of her guest, Mrs. John Bixler, of Lafayette, Ind., and Mrs. Byron Gifford, of Chicago.

The artistic home formed the background for sixty women in lovely summer toilets and in its exquisite decorations flaunted June the month of roses.

The rooms were radiant with a profusion of crimson ramblers, their brilliant bloom filling jardiners and vases in graceful clusters, and a tall vase of blue larkspur won the admiration of the guests.

The dining room was a picture, the pretty table having for its centerpiece a beautiful basket of white carnations and crimson ramblers, and the ramblers banking sideboard and serving table.

Mrs. Miller, always the most charming of hostesses, was wearing black chiffon, embroidered in lavender, over white taffeta.

Mrs. Bixler, who is a pretty brunette with very attractive manner, wore a becoming white lingerie gown of lace and mull.

Mrs. Gifford, nee Anna Louise Rothrock, was as glad to see all her old friends as they were to see her, and was looking lovely in a hand-embroidered white batiste over pink.

Assisting in the afternoon's cordial hospitalities were Mrs. Frank L. Stutson, Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, Mrs. Fuller Hess, Mrs. Albert Glascock, Mrs. Gerrie Spragg and Miss Florence Ustick.

Receiving at the door were two handsome little pages in white, Mrs. Miller's son, Oliver, and Mrs. Bixler's son, Jack.

Mrs. Carl Baer, of Hope, Ark., was also an out-of-town guest.

Miss Dorothy Bush, the talented young pianist who won the silver medal at the W. C. T. U. musical contest last week, gave a pleasing piano recital Friday afternoon at the Stinson Conservatory.

Miss Bush played six numbers with exceptional expression and accuracy for so young a pupil. She was assisted by Miss Virginia Sites in a duet and pretty solo.

After the recital Mrs. Stinson took thirty-five of the younger students of the Conservatory for an automobile ride and then to Willis park, where they spent a merry hour with swings, games and refreshments.

Upon their return Miss Bush treated the crowd to ices and cream.

Miss Marie Melvin gave a beautiful party for Miss Bertha Briggs, a bride of next week, Friday evening.

Thirty girl friends of Miss Briggs were in attendance and the affair resulted in a "Kitchen Shower," with a number of useful gifts for culinary use, largely aluminum ware.

A white and crimson color scheme was artistically carried out in quantities of crimson ramblers, white lilies and elder blossoms and crimson hearts.

The red and white was also employed in the delicious refreshments served.

Miss Briggs was wearing a very pretty gown of white batiste embroidered in blue, and Miss Melvin white dimity, lace trimmed.

During the evening Miss Margaret McClure added to the pleasure of the occasion with brilliant piano renditions.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. George Melvin, Misses Margaret Briggs and Ann Lawrence.

The wedding of Miss Ann Kirby Quinn, whose engagement to Mr. Herbert Allan Ottewill, of London, England, was recently announced, will not be solemnized at the bride's home here as was originally intended, but will take place in London on July 2d, the bride's mother, Mrs. L. S. Quinn, and her uncle, Mr. Kirby Smith, being in that city. Mr. Smith expects to come home early in July and Mrs. Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will come over in August. After a visit here Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will go to China where the groom is in the British Consular service.—Hillsboro Gazette, June 21.

Mr. Albert Glascock is spending the day in Cincinnati.

* * *

Prof. D. A. Ferree is in Columbus taking his M. A. degree.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, are spending Sunday here.

* * *

Mr. A. L. Cherry, of Ghormley's Station, is a business visitor here today.

* * *

Mrs. W. A. Patton, of Leesburg, was the guest of Mrs. Al Martin, Friday.

* * *

Mr. George Adams and son, Wilbur, went to Cincinnati to attend the races today.

* * *

Mrs. Harry Colwell is the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Colwell in Lancaster.

* * *

Mrs. A. Dewey and daughter, Corrine, of Leesburg, were the guests of Mrs. Hibben Ervin Friday.

* * *

Miss Helen Harper left this morning on a ten days' visit with Miss Sarah Holmes in Augusta, Ky.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cave returned today from a pleasant outing in Springfield and at Russel's Point.

* * *

Miss Sybel Hoover, who has been the guest of Miss Helen Willis, left this morning for her home in Gibson, Ill.

* * *

Miss Charlotte Dahl returned this morning from a visit of several weeks with a school friend at Nashville, Tenn.

* * *

Mrs. Isaac Cook returns to St. Louis, Mo., Sunday, after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCrea.

* * *

Mr. H. A. Thissel, of Philadelphia, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. G. M. Ustick and daughter, Miss Florence, for a couple of days.

* * *

Mrs. A. E. Baum, Mrs. Kate Latham and Fred Bradfute, spent Wednesday in Springfield, attending the G. A. R. encampment.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cissna, Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford and Ruth and Nell Cissna, made a motoring trip to Dayton yesterday.

* * *

Mrs. Walter McLean and children, Richard and Lucile, are visiting Mrs. McLean's mother, Mrs. Ada Fortune in Pittsburg, Pa., and will also visit in Albion, Pa.

* * *

Master Billy Merriweather is visiting his uncle, Mr. William Merriweather at Reeseville. Mr. Nicholas Merriweather accompanied his nephew, returning tonight.

* * *

Mrs. Chas. Reid returned last evening from Chicago where she accompanied her husband to attend the Convention. Hon. C. A. Reid expected to remain until tonight.

* * *

Mr. F. B. Creamer returned Friday from a business trip to Texas, Mrs. Creamer also returning from Hillsboro, where she visited her mother, Mrs. Hickle, during his absence.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Van Winkle and son, Ervin, are spending the week end in Cincinnati and Mrs. Van Winkle will remain next week to be the guest of Mrs. Geo. Fabb

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. George Hays and Delbert, Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. N. S. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snider and daughter, Sylvia, and Miss Fern Sunkle, were among the week's visitors at the Springfield encampment.

* * *

Mrs. Thomas Cheesman, of Mt. Auburn, Cincinnati, visited Mrs. Lelia Counts the past two days, enroute from the encampment at Springfield, which she attended as a Cincinnati delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dale and daughters, made a motoring trip to Princetown to visit relatives this week. Miss Pauline Dale remained for an indefinite stay.

* * *

Mr. L. W. Buckmaster is down from Columbus for the day. Washington friends regret to learn that Mrs. Buckmaster has been dangerously ill during the past few weeks. Her present condition is more hopeful.

* * *

Mr. R. C. Hunt has returned from a ten days' business trip to Adairville and Bowling Green, Ky., accompanied by his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. W. Hunt and son, Edward, who will be Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's guests.

* * *

Miss Josephine Porter and little niece, Martha Porter, have returned from a visit in Cincinnati, Norwood and Lebanon. At Lebanon they visited Miss Porter's niece, Miss Lida Posey, who is attending the university.

* * *

Mrs. Ellis Ramsey and two children, arrived from Saginaw, Mich., Friday evening and will reside with Capt. Ramsey, who has opened his beautiful home on Washington avenue, after having it closed during the winter season. Mr. Ramsey expects to join his wife shortly.

* * *

Mrs. French Wilson, of Williamsp[illegible]; Mrs. O. C. Wilson, of Zanesville, spent Thursday and Friday the guests of Miss Ruth Smithers. Miss Smithers has for her guest at present, Mrs. A. H. Tinker and granddaughter, Ruth, and Miss Madge Putman, of Frankfort.

* * *

Miss Louise Weaver has returned from Wilson college, Chambersburg, Pa., to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver. Since the college closed, Miss Weaver visited school friends in New York and Trenton, N. J.

* * *

Dr. Robert Thornton returned today from Columbus, where he has been taking the state medical examinations, subsequent to his graduation from the Ohio Starling Medical college. After a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Thornton, Dr. Thornton returns to the capital city to take the position of interne in the Protestant hospital.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rodecker and children, and Mrs. Anna Hicks motored to Springfield to attend the encampment this week and brought back with them Mr. Rodecker's mother, Mrs. Ellen Rodecker, who was W. R. C. delegate from Lancaster to the encampment. Mrs. Rodecker returned to Lancaster today.

Screen Doors and Windows rewired—called for and delivered. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

WHEN SERVANTS WERE SLAVES.

It hasn't been so many years since servants were practically slaves; they were bound out for a term of years and never could hope to better their conditions. The world is advancing, however, and now servants, especially those who do washing and housecleaning, are better treated. Easy Task laundry soap, that does half the work itself, and which cleans pots and pans and painted work like magic, is responsible for much of this emancipation. Only 5 cents a cake, too.

Pumps repaired. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Tri-County Chautauqua, Greenfield, Aug. 1 to 11 Inclusive

The Seventh Assembly of the Tri-County Chautauqua Association at Greenfield, has been set for August 1 to 11, inclusive. The association owns beautiful Chautauqua park with a magnificent steel auditorium and other extensive improvements. Every year has witnessed a notable advance and this year will be no exception to the general rule. The recreative side of Chautauqua life will be especially emphasized, and tennis courts, croquet grounds, quoits, base ball and other games provided.

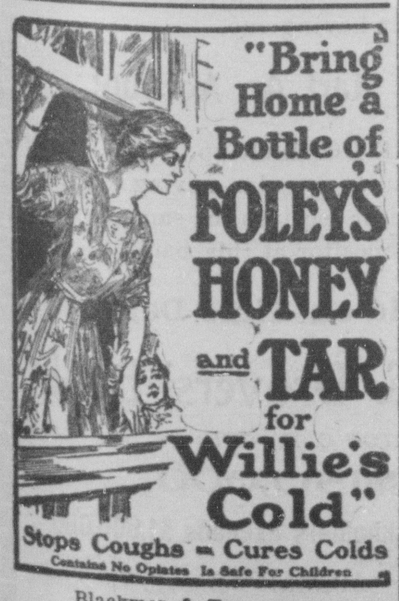
The program is one of unusual strength. From nine o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night, every hour is filled with lectures, music and entertainment. A special feature is the engagement of Price's Premier band for three open-air concerts daily.

Four other splendid musical organizations have been engaged, the Hearon sister, the Mendelssohn Male Quartette, The Ernest Gamble Concert party and the Kaffir Boy Choir.

The lecturers include Richmond Pearson Robson, Ernest Thompson Seaton, Governor Hoch, of Kansas, "Mother" Lake, the foremost woman orator on the Chautauqua platform, Frank Dixon, Adam Bede, Prof. Gilbert, Chas. E. Thorn, Geo. W. Phillips and others equally well known.

The readers and impersonators include Lulu Tyler Gates, Maude Willis, Miss Edna Haas, and the Pierces in short plays and sketches A program of interest is the "Songs and Stories of the Red Men" by the Gales.

The morning programs have been made especially strong in the interest of the large number of campers who remain permanently on the grounds. Prof. Gilbert will conduct a class in Nature Study and Rev. Geo. Phillips will deliver a remarkable series of Bible lectures.



Blackmer & Tanquary.

STUTSON'S

Special Bargain Giving Tonight

Extra Special Tonignt

IN

Lingerie Waists

98c BEAUTIFULLY MADE AND TRIMMED Sold $1.50. Tonight, 98c

We Are Showing a Selection of

Muslin Underwear

At Unequalled Values

Beautiful sheer materials — lace and embroidery trimmed.

Special value tonight in

Corset Covers

19c, 39c, 49c

Special values tonight in

Gowns

49c, 69c, 79c, 98c

WE CARRY THE

Kayser Glove

Absolutely the best silk glove on the market. Long and short gloves — white, black and colors

50c, 75c

$1.00, $1.50

OUR LINE OF

Corsets

Includes the leading makes in the most fashionable models

Come and See Us Tonight

FRANK L. STUTSON

Another Strong Lecture Course

The purchasing committee of the Jeffersonville Lecture Course, consisting of H. L. Hire, S. M. Taggart, M. F. Hudson, J. A. McKillip and G. W. Blessing, met at the Farmers' bank rooms recently and selected the following talent for 1912-13: Opening number, White's Musical Review, the date will be announced later. The other numbers, whose dates will also be announced later, are Dr. Newell D. Hillis, Geo. R. Stewart, The Opollo Concert Co., and Leland T. Powers, entertainer.

The committee believe they have a strong attraction and if the price indicates anything it will be the best ever given in the history of the Jeffersonville Lecture course.

When the Lecture Course was first started, some twelve or fifteen years ago, the expense was guaranteed by a large number of business men. The price of the talent at that time was from $175 to $250 and the price for a season ticket was, as it is now, $1.00. From the very start it paid its way, with a small profit, which was set aside, it not being the intention of the promoters to make it a profit-sharing institution, until the profits amounted to something like $500. The committee and officers deemed it prudent to secure better talent, which they have done for the past three or four years. This met with the approval of the lecture going class, for the attendance has increased so that the receipts are meeting the talent at a cost of $575 to $650, leaving the original surplus in the hands of the treasurer.

The influence of this lecture course has had its effect upon Jeffersonville and the community at large for good both from an intellectual and moral standpoint.

PILES CURED AT HOME BY NEW ABSORPTION METHOD.

If you suffer from bleeding, itching, blind or protuding Piles, send me your address, and I will tell you how to cure yourself at home by the new absorption treatment; and will also send some of this home treatment free for trial, with references from your own locality if requested. Immediate relief and permanent cure assured. Send no money, but tell others of this offer. Write today to Mrs. M. Summers, Box F, Notre Dame, Ind.

Awaiting Plans For New Building

Mr. R. C. Hunt, who will soon commence the erection of a modern three-story apartment hotel on the site of the Imperial Hotel, is now awaiting the plans for the new building, and when he once decides upon the plans will soon have work on the building under way.

The site of the Imperial has long since been cleared of the ruins, and by the middle of the summer it is expected that the new structure will be well under way, and finished at the earliest possible moment.

FALLS DOWN STAIRS.

Mrs. Fred Swartz, North North street, fell down stairs last night, breaking her left arm and suffering very painful bruises. She is quite badly injured and suffering greatly.

Odd Fellows Adopt Plans

The Milledgeville lodge of Odd Fellows adopted plans for their new building at a recent meeting, deciding to erect a two-story brick structure instead of a three-story building as at first contemplated.

The structure will be erected upon the site of the building destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, and will contain two business rooms on the first floor, and splendid lodge rooms on the second floor.

The basement will also be enlarged and large storage quarters arranged, so that fruit, vegetables and other goods of similar nature can be stored in large quantities.

The building will cost approximately $7,000 and the contract will be let and the work commenced within the coming month.

Owing to some little delay Milledgeville will not be lighted with electricity for a week or ten days.

Order only the original well known

Neverdust

A sanitary sweeping compound. Put up in two kinds. No. 1 for floors, linoleums, etc. No. 2 for carpets and rugs.

Beware of Substitutes. Manufactured and for Sale by

The Neverdust Mfg. Co.

Or The M. C. Ortman Grocery

Washington C. H., O.

DEATHS

WINGARD.

Paul S. Wingard, aged 5 months, son of Sidney S. and Mattie Wingert, died Saturday morning, June 22, at 4:30 o'clock, at the residence on Oakland avenue. Burial will take place in Springfield Sunday.

OSWALD.

John Oswald died Friday evening at his home in Muncie, Ind. The remains will be brought here on the 9:38 C. H. & D. train Sunday morning, and will be taken by Undertaker Klever to Bloomingburg, where the burial will take place at 2 p. m.

Plumbing. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

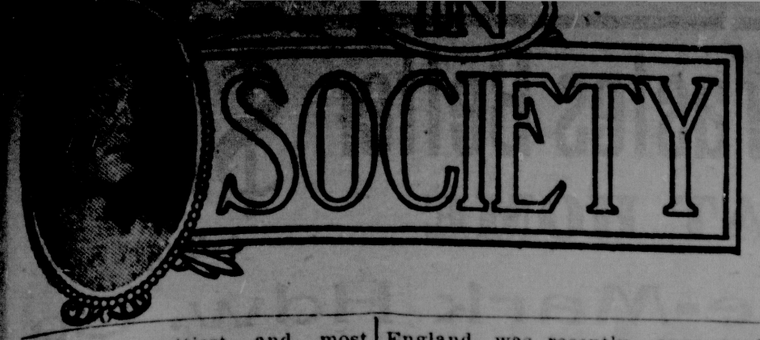
THE OLD RELIABLE

STILL IN THE LEAD

We have nice green beans, sugar peas, cucumbers, new beets, new potatoes, tomatoes, nice strawberries, pine apples, gooseberries, oranges and bananas. Swift's premium bacon, also the English cured bacon, very fine, 20c per lb., nice smoked bacon, 16c per lb. See us, we are your friends. Yours,

J. W. DUFFEE & CO.

The Old Reliable Cash Grocers. Both phones No. 77.



One of the prettiest and most recherche of afternoon teas was given from four to six o'clock Friday afternoon by Mrs. Bertha S. Miller, in honor of her guest, Mrs. John Bixler, of Lafayette, Ind., and Mrs. Byron Gifford, of Chicago.

The artistic home formed the background for sixty women in lovely summer toilets and in its exquisite decorations flaunted June the month of roses.

The rooms were radiant with a profusion of crimson ramblers, their brilliant bloom filling jardiners and vases in graceful clusters, and a tall vase of blue larkspur won the admiration of the guests.

The dining room was a picture, the pretty table having for its centerpiece a beautiful basket of white carnations and crimson ramblers, and the ramblers banking sideboard and serving table.

Mrs. Miller, always the most charming of hostesses, was wearing black chiffon, embroidered in lavender, over white taffeta.

Mrs. Bixler, who is a pretty brunette with very attractive manner, wore a becoming white lingerie gown of lace and mull.

Mrs. Gifford, nee Anna Louise Rothrock, was as glad to see all her old friends as they were to see her, and was looking lovely in a hand-embroidered white batiste over pink.

Assisting in the afternoon's cordial hospitalities were Mrs. Frank L. Stutson, Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, Mrs. Fuller Hess, Mrs. Albert Glascock, Mrs. Gerrie Spragg and Miss Florence Ustick.

Receiving at the door were two handsome little pages in white, Mrs. Miller's son, Oliver, and Mrs. Bixler's son, Jack.

Mrs. Carl Baer, of Hope, Ark., was also an out-of-town guest.

Miss Dorothy Bush, the talented young pianist who won the silver medal at the W. C. T. U. musical contest last week, gave a pleasing piano recital Friday afternoon at the Stinson Conservatory.

Miss Bush played six numbers with exceptional expression and accuracy for so young a pupil. She was assisted by Miss Virginia Sites in a duet and pretty solo.

After the recital Mrs. Stinson took thirty-five of the younger students of the Conservatory for an automobile ride and then to Willis park, where they spent a merry hour with swings, games and refreshments.

Upon their return Miss Bush treated the crowd to ices and cream.

Miss Marie Melvin gave a beautiful party for Miss Bertha Briggs, a bride of next week, Friday evening.

Thirty girl friends of Miss Briggs were in attendance and the affair resulted in a "Kitchen Shower," with a number of useful gifts for culinary use, largely aluminum ware.

A white and crimson color scheme was artistically carried out in quantities of crimson ramblers, white lilies and elder blossoms and crimson hearts.

The red and white was also employed in the delicious refreshments served.

Miss Briggs was wearing a very pretty gown of white batiste embroidered in blue, and Miss Melvin white dimity, lace trimmed.

During the evening Miss Margaret McClure added to the pleasure of the occasion with brilliant piano renditions.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. George Melvin, Misses Margaret Briggs and Ann Lawrence.

The wedding of Miss Ann Kirby Quinn, whose engagement to Mr. Herbert Allan Ottewill, of London, England, was recently announced, will not be solemnized at the bride's home here as was originally intended, but will take place in London on July 2d, the bride's mother, Mrs. L. S. Quinn, and her uncle, Mr. Kirby Smith, being in that city. Mr. Smith expects to come home early in July and Mrs. Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will come over in August. After a visit here Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will go to China where the groom is in the British Consular service.—Hillsboro Gazette, June 21.

Mr. Albert Glascock is spending the day in Cincinnati.

• • •

Prof. D. A. Ferree is in Columbus taking his M. A. degree.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, are spending Sunday here.

• • •

Mr. A. L. Cherry, of Ghormley's Station, is a business visitor here today.

• • •

Mrs. W. A. Patton, of Leesburg, was the guest of Mrs. Al Martin, Friday.

• • •

Mr. George Adams and son, Wilbur, went to Cincinnati to attend the races today.

• • •

Mrs. Harry Colwell is the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Colwell in Lancaster.

• • •

Mrs. A. Dewey and daughter, Corrine, of Leesburg, were the guests of Mrs. Hibben Ervin Friday.

• • •

Miss Helen Harper left this morning on a ten days' visit with Miss Sarah Holmes in Augusta, Ky.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cave returned today from a pleasant outing in Springfield and at Russel's Point.

• • •

Miss Sybel Hoover, who has been the guest of Miss Helen Willis, left this morning for her home in Gibson, Ill.

• • •

Miss Charlotte Dahl returned this morning from a visit of several weeks with a school friend at Nashville, Tenn.

• • •

Mrs. Isaac Cook returns to St. Louis, Mo., Sunday, after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCrea.

• • •

Mr. H. A. Thissel, of Philadelphia, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. G. M. Ustick and daughter, Miss Florence, for a couple of days.

• • •

Mrs. A. E. Baum, Mrs. Kate Latham and Fred Bradfute, spent Wednesday in Springfield, attending the G. A. R. encampment.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cissna, Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford and Ruth and Nell Cissna, made a motoring trip to Dayton yesterday.

• • •

Mrs. Walter McLean and children, Richard and Lucile, are visiting Mrs. McLean's mother, Mrs. Ada Fortune in Pittsburg, Pa., and will also visit in Albion, Pa.

• • •

Master Billy Merriweather is visiting his uncle, Mr. William Merriweather at Reeseville. Mr. Nicholas Merriweather accompanied his nephew, returning tonight.

• • •

Mrs. Chas. Reid returned last evening from Chicago where she accompanied her husband to attend the Convention. Hon. C. A. Reid expected to remain until tonight.

• • •

Mr. F. B. Creamer returned Friday from a business trip to Texas, Mrs. Creamer also returning from Hillsboro, where she visited her mother, Mrs. Hickle, during his absence.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Van Winkle and son, Ervin, are spending the week end in Cincinnati and Mrs. Van Winkle will remain next week to be the guest of Mrs. Geo. Fabb

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. George Hays and Delbert, Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. N. S. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snider and daughter, Sylvia, and Miss Fern Sunkle, were among the week's visitors at the Springfield encampment.

• • •

Mrs. Thomas Cheesman, of Mt. Auburn, Cincinnati, visited Mrs. Lelia Counts the past two days, enroute from the encampment at Springfield, which she attended as a Cincinnati delegate.

Princetown to visit relatives this week. Miss Pauline Dale remained for an indefinite stay.

• • •

Mr. L. W. Buckmaster is down from Columbus for the day. Washington friends regret to learn that Mrs. Buckmaster has been dangerously ill during the past few weeks. Her present condition is more hopeful.

• • •

Mr. R. C. Hunt has returned from a ten days' business trip to Adairville and Bowling Green, Ky., accompanied by his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. W. Hunt and son, Edward, who will be Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's guests.

• • •

Miss Josephine Porter and little niece, Martha Porter, have returned from a visit in Cincinnati, Norwood and Lebanon. At Lebanon they visited Miss Porter's niece, Miss Lida Posey, who is attending the university.

• • •

Mrs. Ellis Ramsey and two children, arrived from Saginaw, Mich., Friday evening and will reside with Capt. Ramsey, who has opened his beautiful home on Washington avenue, after having it closed during the winter season. Mr. Ramsey expects to join his wife shortly.

• • •

Mrs. French Wilson, of Williamsp[illegible]; Mrs. O. C. Wilson, of Zanesville, spent Thursday and Friday the guests of Miss Ruth Smithers. Miss Smithers has for her guest at present, Mrs. A. H. Tinker and granddaughter, Ruth, and Miss Madge Putman, of Frankfort.

• • •

Miss Louise Weaver has returned from Wilson college, Chambersburg, Pa., to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver. Since the college closed, Miss Weaver visited school friends in New York and Trenton, N. J.

• • •

Dr. Robert Thornton returned today from Columbus, where he has been taking the state medical examinations, subsequent to his graduation from the Ohio Starling Medical college. After a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Thornton, Dr. Thornton returns to the capital city to take the position of interne in the Protestant hospital.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rodecker and children, and Mrs. Anna Hicks motored to Springfield to attend the encampment this week and brought back with them Mr. Rodecker's mother, Mrs. Ellen Rodecker, who was W. R. C. delegate from Lancaster to the encampment. Mrs. Rodecker returned to Lancaster today.

Screen Doors and Windows rewired—called for and delivered. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

WHEN SERVANTS WERE SLAVES.

It hasn't been so many years since servants were practically slaves; they were bound out for a term of years and never could hope to better their conditions. The world is advancing, however, and now servants, especially those who do washing and housecleaning, are better treated. Easy Task laundry soap, that does half the work itself, and which cleans pots and pans and painted work like magic, is responsible for much of this emancipation. Only 5 cents a cake, too.

Pumps repaired. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Tri-County Chautauqua, Greenfield, Aug. 1 to 11 Inclusive

The Seventh Assembly of the Tri-County Chautauqua Association at Greenfield, has been set for August 1 to 11, inclusive. The association owns beautiful Chautauqua park with a magnificent steel auditorium and other extensive improvements. Every year has witnessed a notable advance and this year will be no exception to the general rule. The recreative side of Chautauqua life will be especially emphasized, and tennis courts, croquet grounds, quoits, base ball and other games provided.

The program is one of unusual strength. From nine o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night, every hour is filled with lectures, music and entertainment. A special feature is the engagement of Price's Premier band for three open-air concerts daily.

Four other splendid musical organizations have been engaged, the Hearon sister, the Mendelssohn Male Quartette, The Ernest Gamble Concert party and the Kaffir Boy Choir.

The lecturers include Richmond Pearson Robson, Ernest Thompson Seaton, Governor Hoch, of Kansas, "Mother" Lake, the foremost woman orator on the Chautauqua platform, Frank Dixon, Adam Bede, Prof. Gilbert, Chas. E. Thorn, Geo. W. Phillips and others equally well known.

The readers and impersonators include Lulu Tyler Gates, Maude Willis, Miss Edna Haas, and the Pierces in short plays and sketches A program of interest is the "Songs and Stories of the Red Men" by the Gales.

The morning programs have been made especially strong in the interest of the large number of campers who remain permanently on the grounds. Prof. Gilbert will conduct a class in Nature Study and Rev. Geo. Phillips will deliver a remarkable series of Bible lectures.

Another Strong Lecture Course

The purchasing committee of the Jeffersonville Lecture Course, consisting of H. L. Hire, S. M. Taggart, M. F. Hudson, J. A. McKillip and G. W. Blessing, met at the Farmers' bank rooms recently and selected the following talent for 1912-13: Opening number, White's Musical Review, the date will be announced later. The other numbers, whose dates will also be announced later, are Dr. Newell D. Hillis, Geo. R. Stewart, The Opollo Concert Co., and Leland T. Powers, entertainer.

The committee believe they have a strong attraction and if the price indicates anything it will be the best ever given in the history of the Jeffersonville Lecture course.

When the Lecture Course was first started, some twelve or fifteen years ago, the expense was guaranteed by a large number of business men. The price of the talent at that time was from $175 to $250 and the price for a season ticket was, as it is now, $1.00. From the very start it paid its way, with a small profit, which was set aside, it not being the intention of the promoters to make it a profit-sharing institution, until the profits amounted to something like $500. The committee and officers deemed it prudent to secure better talent, which they have done for the past three or four years. This met with the approval of the lecture going class, for the attendance has increased so that the receipts are meeting the talent at a cost of $575 to $650, leaving the original surplus in the hands of the treasurer.

The influence of this lecture course has had its effect upon Jeffersonville and the community at large for good both from an intellectual and moral standpoint.

PILES CURED AT HOME BY NEW ABSORPTION METHOD.

If you suffer from bleeding, itching, blind or protuding Piles, send me your address, and I will tell you how to cure yourself at home by the new absorption treatment; and will also send some of this home treatment free for trial, with references from your own locality if requested. Immediate relief and permanent cure assured. Send no money, but tell others of this offer. Write today to Mrs. M. Summers, Box F, Notre Dame, Ind.

Awaiting Plans For New Building

Mr. R. C. Hunt, who will soon commence the erection of a modern three-story apartment hotel on the site of the Imperial Hotel, is now awaiting the plans for the new building, and when he once decides upon the plans will soon have work on the building under way.

The site of the Imperial has long since been cleared of the ruins, and by the middle of the summer it is expected that the new structure will be well under way, and finished at the earliest possible moment.

FALLS DOWN STAIRS.

Mrs. Fred Swartz, North North street, fell down stairs last night, breaking her left arm and suffering very painful bruises. She is quite badly injured and suffering greatly.

Odd Fellows Adopt Plans

The Milledgeville lodge of Odd Fellows adopted plans for their new building at a recent meeting, deciding to erect a two-story brick structure instead of a three-story building as at first contemplated.

The structure will be erected upon the site of the building destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, and will contain two business rooms on the first floor, and splendid lodge rooms on the second floor.

The basement will also be enlarged and large storage quarters arranged, so that fruit, vegetables and other goods of similar nature can be stored in large quantities.

The building will cost approximately $7,000 and the contract will be let and the work commenced within the coming month.

Owing to some little delay Milledgeville will not be lighted with electricity for a week or ten days.

DEATHS

WINGARD.

Paul S. Wingard, aged 5 months, son of Sidney S. and Mattie Wingert, died Saturday morning, June 22, at 4:30 o'clock, at the residence on Oakland avenue. Burial will take place in Springfield Sunday.

OSWALD.

John Oswald died Friday evening at his home in Muncie, Ind. The remains will be brought here on the 9:38 C. H. & D. train Sunday morning, and will be taken by Undertaker Klever to Bloomingburg, where the burial will take place at 2 p. m.

Plumbing. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

STUTSON'S

Special Bargain Giving Tonight

Extra Special Tonignt IN Lingerie Waists

98c BEAUTIFULLY MADE AND TRIMMED Sold $1.50. Tonight, 98c

We Are Showing a Selection of

Muslin Underwear

At Unequalled Values

Beautiful sheer materials — lace and embroidery trimmed.

Special value tonight in

Corset Covers

19c, 39c, 49c

Special values tonight in

Gowns

49c, 69c, 79c, 98c

WE CARRY THE

Kayser Glove

Absolutely the best silk glove on the market. Long and short gloves — white, black and colors

50c, 75c

$1.00, $1.50

OUR LINE OF

Corsets

Includes the leading makes in the most fashionable models

Come and See Us Tonight

FRANK L. STUTSON

Order only the original well known

Neverdust

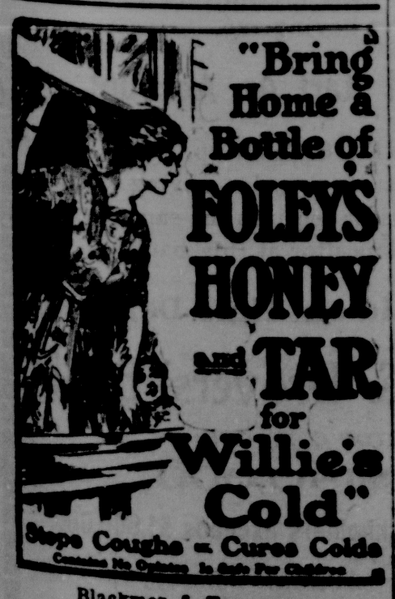
A sanitary sweeping compound. Put up in two kinds. No. 1 for floors, linoleums, etc. No. 2 for carpets and rugs.

Beware of Substitutes. Manufactured and for Sale by

The Neverdust Mfg. Co.

Or The M. C. Ortman Grocery

Washington C. H., O.



Blackmer & Tanquary.

THE OLD RELIABLE

STILL IN THE LEAD

We have nice green beans, sugar peas, cucumbers, new beets, new potatoes, tomatoes, nice strawberries, pine apples, gooseberries, oranges and bananas. Swift's premium bacon, also the English cured bacon, very fine, 20c per lb., nice smoked bacon, 16c per lb. See us, we are your friends. Yours,

J. W. DUFFEE & CO.

The Old Reliable Cash Grocers, Both phones No. 77.

BAINTER THROWS FIT PRISONER WALKS AWAY

Chief McCoy Starts to Workhouse With Three Prisoners, One Gets Sick and Another Escapes.

"GOPHER" SMITH IN THE WORKS

Albert Denner Seizes Opportunity and Bolts for Liberty at B. & O. Depot Early This Morning. Hoggy Bainter Taken to Home of Relative to Recover.

While Chief of Police McCoy was at the B. & O. depot awaiting the arrival of the early morning train so he could escort "Hoggy" Bainter, Albert Denner and "Gopher" Smith to the Columbus workhouse Saturday morning, Bainter suddenly threw a fit, falling to the floor and writhing in agony, and while Chief McCoy's attention was occupied with him for a moment Denner slipped quietly out of the depot and hot-footed it for parts unknown. In the end Chief McCoy was forced to board the train with only one of the men, "Gopher" Smith.

Arrangements had been made for taking Bainter and Denner to the workhouse, and late Friday evening it developed that "Gopher" Smith was in the city, and the police were ordered to arrest him and bring him in.

Smith is the man who was recently arrested on a charge of bootlegging, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $100 and costs and given 30 days in the workhouse. This was altered by most of the fine being suspended providing $25 and the costs were paid. Smith was released to secure the amount, dug up part of it and then disappeared.

When it became known that he was at home on "Flat Iron row" Cogswell and Bell went after him. Cogswell spied the man standing near the water tank at the "Point" and told him to come along. This was the signal for Smith to show his heels, which he did with surprising agaility. "Halt!" yelled Cogswell, and when Smith continued to run he pulled his gun and fired two shots, neither of which struck the fleeing man, but brought him to a standstill with his hands pointing toward the stars. He was locked up, commitment papers made out and arrangements made to take him to the workhouse with Bainter and Denner.

The report that Cogswell had shot the man spread throughout the city, but this was erroneous, the officer shooting to scare and not to hit.

When Chief McCoy landed at the depot with his three prisoners, Smith and Bainter were handcuffed together, and when Bainter threw the fit he pulled Smith to the floor with him. It was while Chief McCoy was releasing Smith from the painful grip of bracelets that Denner took the sprinting fever and bolted for liberty. He was out of sight in a moment, going at break-neck speed.

Bainter was taken to the home of Jack Bainter, who lives just across from the B. & O. and placed on a bed, where he remained for a long time in a semi-conscious condition.

Denner's bolt for liberty probably saves the county the expense of maintaining him in the workhouse, for if he ever returns the old fine will be enforced.

O. E. S.

Regular meeting of Royal Chapter No. 29, O. E. S., Monday evening, June 24, at 7:30. All members are requested to be present. Initiation and social hour.

VERA V. VEAIL, W. M.
MAE RODGERS, Secy.

NOTICE TO KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

On Wednesday evening, June 26th, members of Confidence lodge will entertain their families, sojourning Knights and their families and the families of deceased members, with a social session. The attendance of all included in this notice is desired. Program will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

COMMITTEE.

Aged Conductor Makes Last Trip

John Green, for 25 years a conductor on the D. T. & I. railroad, died at his home in Springfield Friday night after a short illness.

No man on the road is better known than Conductor Green, and the road has always found him efficient and always "on the job".

During the past few years he has been running between Ironton and Jackson, being a passenger conductor.

Sues for $263 Promissory Note

John Harbine has brought suit for the recovery of $263 with interest from February 8th, 1912, making Elmer Allen the defendant in the suit.

A copy of the note is attached and the plaintiff claims that it was issued to the Live Stock Remedy Company and endorsed by them to the plaintiff, who now seeks judgment in full.

Two Killed and Two Fatally Hurt

Special to Herald.

Conneaut, O., June 22.—Conductor Lyttle and Brakeman Ransen killed. Engineer Curtis and Brakeman Lamb fatally injured in rear end collision on Nickle Plate railroad.

OBITUARY.

Sarah E. Coonrod, whose maiden name was Davey, wife of Oliver Coonrod, daughter of John and Mary J. Davey, was born July the 18th, 1839, in Hampshire county, W. Va. At about 2 years of age she came with her parents and settled near Zanesville, O., where she grew up to womanhood. At about 21 years of age she was united to W. B. Crooks in the holy bonds of matrimony, May the 8th, 1860.

Mr. Crooks was a Union soldier and died in Andersonville prison, September, 1864.

Feb. 28th, 1866, she became the faithful wife of Morgan T. Smith, who died Oct. 28th, 1893. To these unions were born 8 children, 6 sons and 2 daughters.

June the 19th, 1902, she took the solemn vow of holy matrimony with Oliver Coonrod, of Washington C. H., O., and faithfully lived up to her promise until death, May the 30th, 1912, aged 72 years, 10 months and 12 days.

After appropriate services were held at the residence in Washington C. H., O., her remains were put on the train and conveyed to the cemetery of her choice near Purgitsville, W. Va. Four sons, many relatives and friends, listened to a fine talk by Rev. Brunk of the U. B. church. She leaves a husband, 4 sons and one daughter to mourn the great loss.

Norman J. and Col. W. E. Crooks, of Keyser, W. Va., Frank C. and E. L. Smith, respectively, of Purgitsville and Piedmont, W. Va., and Mrs. Carrie Gault, of Washington C. H., O. She also leaves 3 brothers and 3 sisters to remember the good example of her life, W. E. Davey, of Lebanon, Mo.; James and Frank Davey, Mrs. Rebecca Gault, Mrs. Lena Backenstoe, of Washington C. H., O., and Mrs. Phebe Smith, of Iowa. Mrs. Coonrod died as she had lived, a friend to everybody. From girlhood until death she was a strong believer in the Christian religion and lived out more than she professed. When the hour of death came, she was ready and willing to go at the Master's call, and with a smiling face fell asleep in Jesus.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep
From which none ever wake to weep."

When Jesus shall rule over all the earth, King of kings and Lord of lords thou wilt be one of His loving subjects to rejoice and praise him for so great salvation. When all voices in heaven, earth and sea are praising God, thy voice will help to swell the great song of praise unto the Lamb that was slain, but liveth again, forever and ever, Amen.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly tendered their services during the sickness of our loved one.

O. COONROD AND FAMILY.

DELICIOUS FRIED SPRING CHICKEN DINNER 25c, AT SOUTHERN CAFE, SUNDAY.

SECRET OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR.

"Grace, do you remember what luxuriant hair Mme. Melba had, when we heard her in Grand Opera?"

"Yes, Mary, and I also know her secret for it; I have seen two different letters in her own handwriting, which she gave to Kate Seaton Mason, the noted English Hair Specialist, stating she owes it all to her treatment.

"Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream—made from her private formula—may now be obtained at Blackmer & Tanquary's Drug Store right here in Washington C. H., and it is so easy for one to shampoo one's own hair with it, and such a satisfaction to know, when rubbing it into the scalp that it not only cleanses the hair and scalp beautifully, but it has tonic properties which will make the hair grow."

"It is only 25c a tube, enough for several shampoos, and Blackmer & Tanquary will return your money if you do not like it."

NOTICE TO JR. O. U. A. M.

Regular meeting Monday evening, June 24. Degree work and refreshments. Let all members be present.

W. G. EVANS, Sec.

NESTOR and AMERICAN

THE PALACE

Automobile Road Race

Held at Santa Monica, California, May 4th. The World's records smashed. A thrilling picture.

Cupid Through Padlocks

Charming Western Comedy with Pauline Bush Warren Kerrigan and the all star American Com'y

Coming Thursday, June 27th

JESS Thanhouser 3 Reel Special, Ride Haggard's Great Boer War Story

10c COLONIAL 10c

Vaudeville Tonight

WE-CHOK-BE The half-breed Sioux Indian girl, scored a big hi last evening. The act i decidedly out of the ordinary. She makes an entir change tonight.

Selig presents—The Redemption of "Greek Joe"

His Little Sister—Lubin Comedy

5c WONDERLAND 5c

Becky Gets a Husband Lubin Comedy

Under Mexican Skies A powerful drama o Old Mexico.

Trusted Public Servant Probably $11,000 Short

Charles E. Stocklen, owner of a grocery in Circleville, a highly respected citizen and treasurer of Circleville township, has disappeared, and his whereabouts is unknown, and according to the latest information from Circleville, several thousand dollars of the township's money has disappeared with him.

Stocklen, who had always held the confidence of the people and was widely known, numbering quite a few Washington and Fayette citizens among his friends, left about one week ago, and nothing has since been heard from him. The following article in Saturday's Enquirer probably sheds some light on the reason for his sudden leave-taking:

"Charles E. Stocklin, Treasurer of Circleville township, left his home in this city Thursday, the 13th, and no tidings have been received from him since. He said he would be back early, and left ostensibly for Columbus.

His accounts as Township Treasurer had just been checked by Inspector C. E. Godfrey, of the Auditor of State's office, and apparently were in a satisfactory condition. Since his departure two certificates of deposit on the Second National bank of this city for $5,000 each, which he exhibited to the inspector as a part of the township funds, are missing, and have been declared to be forgeries by the bank officials, who say Stocklin never had any funds of any kind on deposit there.

These, it is charged, were used as a blind to tide him over the inspection examination, and were immediately afterward destroyed. It is said he lost $16,000 in a mine, and in his efforts to recoup used the township funds. His alleged shortage is said to be approximately $11,000. The prosecuting attorney says a warrant will be issued today."

Fire Traps Plentiful Due To Carelessness

In a great many basement rooms in the city can be found an accumulation of boxes, boards, paper, excelsior and other highly inflammable material which only requires a spark to kindle a dangerous blaze in the heart of city blocks.

The average citizen in placing the inflammable material in the basement becomes so accustomed to seeing the accumulation that he does not pause to think that he is virtually building a heap of fagots under his place of business, but trusts to luck to take care of the dangerous material and prevent it from catching on fire.

One man who recently had occasion to visit a number of basement rooms states that he was greatly surprised at the ease with which a fire of very disastrous kind could be started—only a spark accidentally dropped being all that is required to kindle the pile of material.

"When one knows the condition of the average basement", said the man, "he is really surprised that there are not ten times more fires than there are, for the average basement is used as a catch-all for everything imaginable."

In the average city where lax observation of ordinances relating to the piling of inflammable material in or near buildings, is the custom, fire dangers are fifty per cent. greater than where a careful watch is maintained for material which is liable to start a disastrous fire.

A little care on the part of those who allow boxes, barrels, excelsior and other material to be piled in a heap in the basement or even a part of the business room itself, will greatly lessen fire dangers in any city, and especially in Washington.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

NAT. BANK OF COMMERCE,
Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

WOMEN SAVE MONEY.

Women are natural money-savers, no matter how much is said about what they spend for dresses and hats. They always know how to make a dollar go the farthest. That's why thoughtful women discover that by using Easy Task soap in their laundry work they save fuel and time and trouble and health and more than that, they save the clothes that are washed. Easy Task has no rosin in it to stay in the clothes and hold the dirt with it and rot the fabric.

LOCAL CHURCHES.

Grace M. E. Church.
Rev. T. W. Locke, Pastor

Sabbath school at 9:15 a. m. C. E. Lloyd, superintendent.

Morning preaching services 10:30. Subject of sermon: "True Service and Its Reward."

General class meeting, 2:30.

Epworth League devotional meeting 6:45. Topic: "How Persecution Has Extended the Knowledge of God."

Evening preaching service 7:30. Sermon by the pastor.

Mid-week church service Thursday night at 7:30.

Wesley Chapel.
E. S. Norris, superintendent.

Sunday school at 2:30.

The Sunday school will observe Children's Day by rendering a special program at 2:30 o'clock.

Presbyterian Church.
Rev. Wm. Irwin Campbell, Pastor.

Sabbath school at 9:15 a. m. Superintendent, Ray F. Zaner.

Brotherhood Bible class, 9:00 a. m. Taught by pastor.

Morning worship at 10:30 a. m. Subject of sermon: "Lead in Triumph."

Evening services at 7:30 p. m. Subject of sermon: "Things New and Old."

East End Chapel.
Sunday school at 2 p. m.
Superintendent, E. T. Evans.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Mission.
Services held on third floor of Memorial Hall, conducted by Lay Reader, Calvin Thompson.

Morning prayer, 10:30 a. m.
Evening prayer, 3:45 p. m.

First Baptist Church.
Rev. A. W. West, Pastor.

Bible school 9:30 a. m. Albert Snyder, superintendent.

Morning preaching service 10:45. Subject of sermon: "Worshiping God in His Sanctuary."

B. Y. P. U. 6:45.

Evening service, 7:30 p. m.

Prayer meeting, Thursday, 7:15.

Church of Christ.
Rev. Bowman Hostetler, Pastor.

Bible school 9:15 a. m. L. Etta Rannels, Supt.

Communion and preaching 10:30 a. m. The minister will preach on "Golden Treasure in Earthen Vessels."

Jr. C. E. 2 p. m. P. F. Goodwin, Supt.

C. E. Prayer meeting, 6:30 p. m. Topic: "Reading That Is Worth While." Led by Melwood Hostetler and Mrs. Gwen Stolzenberg.

Preaching, 7:30 p. m. Subject: "Beating Against the Current."

Mid-week prayer meeting Thursday, 7:30 p. m.

Oak Grove.
Bible school, 2 p. m.
Preaching, 3 p. m.

Vacuum Cleaners for rent—hand or electric—delivered and called for. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Want ads are profitable.

Off For the Campaign With a Fast String

Wert Mallow, With Three Fast Campaigners and Two Green Trotters, Left This Morning.

GETS AWAY IN ELEGANT STYLE

The Tried and True Old Veteran, Major Mallow, Is the "Dean" of the Bunch.

After spending the winter or off-season at the local track, Wert Mallow shipped by Pennsylvania railroad in a special car, his string of speeders, consisting of three side-wheelers, Major Mallow, 2:03 1-4; Irish Lad, 2:12 1-4; C. O. R., a campaigner of two years' experience, and two green trotters, Bonnie Dotte and Georgia Fly.

Going with this aristocratic bunch of horse flesh are five care-takers, one blacksmith and a cook.

The horses and attendants will, leaving here Saturday morning, stop first at Coshocton for the spring races which open there next week.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to follow by train Sunday morning, arriving in Coshocton late Sunday evening ready for the work bright and early Monday morning.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to try out his string on the half mile tracks in less pretentious company before tackling the bigger game on the mile tracks.

Later on it is likely that the three pacers will campaign on the Grand Circuit speedways. It was in this blue ribbon society that Major Mallow made his great reputation and his fastest time.

Irish Lad has not yet joined in a contest with the fastest horses in the country, but may do so this year.

Owner and driver Mallow feels confident that a good season awaits him. His horses have had good training and are in tip-top condition.

From the youngsters in the string he expects great things.

PARRETT'S GROCERY

"The Yellow Front"

THE HOME OF QUALITY FOR 24 YEARS

Special Price on New Texas Tomatos Today of 10c Per Pound, or 40c Per Basket

A full barrel fancy red Radishes to sell at 1c per bunch.

Fine fat Plymouth Rock fry chickens, about 2-pound average, 30c per pound.

Alaska Peas, 8c per lb, 2 lbs for 15c, 4 lbs for 25c.

Fresh Green Beans, 12½c per pound.

We expect another shipment of fancy Black Raspberries this afternoon. Price will be 15c per quart.

Valencia Summer Oranges, the finest Oranges grown, sell at 25c, 30c, 35c and 40c per doz.

Try us for Boiled Ham, Sliced Beef, Breakfast Bacon—all sliced to suit you on our new slicing machine.

BAINTER THROWS FIT PRISONER WALKS AWAY

Chief McCoy Starts to Workhouse With Three Prisoners, One Gets Sick and Another Escapes.

"GOPHER" SMITH IN THE WORKS

Albert Denner Seizes Opportunity and Bolts for Liberty at B. & O. Depot Early This Morning. Hoggy Bainter Taken to Home of Relative to Recover.

While Chief of Police McCoy was at the B. & O. depot awaiting the arrival of the early morning train so he could escort "Hoggy" Bainter, Albert Denner and "Gopher" Smith to the Columbus workhouse Saturday morning, Bainter suddenly threw a fit, falling to the floor and writhing in agony, and while Chief McCoy's attention was occupied with him for a moment Denner slipped quietly out of the depot and hot-footed it for parts unknown. In the end Chief McCoy was forced to board the train with only one of the men, "Gopher" Smith.

Arrangements had been made for taking Bainter and Denner to the workhouse, and late Friday evening it developed that "Gopher" Smith was in the city, and the police were ordered to arrest him and bring him in.

Smith is the man who was recently arrested on a charge of bootlegging, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $100 and costs and given 30 days in the workhouse. This was altered by most of the fine being suspended providing $25 and the costs were paid. Smith was released to secure the amount, dug up part of it and then disappeared.

When it became known that he was at home on "Flat Iron row" Cogswell and Bell went after him. Cogswell spied the man standing near the water tank at the "Point" and told him to come along. This was the signal for Smith to show his heels, which he did with surprising agaility. "Halt!" yelled Cogswell, and when Smith continued to run he pulled his gun and fired two shots, neither of which struck the fleeing man, but brought him to a standstill with his hands pointing toward the stars. He was locked up, commitment papers made out and arrangements made to take him to the workhouse with Bainter and Denner.

The report that Cogswell had shot the man spread throughout the city, but this was erroneous, the officer shooting to scare and not to hit.

When Chief McCoy landed at the depot with his three prisoners, Smith and Bainter were handcuffed together, and when Bainter threw the fit he pulled Smith to the floor with him. It was while Chief McCoy was releasing Smith from the painful grip of bracelets that Denner took the sprinting fever and bolted for liberty. He was out of sight in a moment, going at break-neck speed.

Bainter was taken to the home of Jack Bainter, who lives just across from the B. & O. and placed on a bed, where he remained for a long time in a semi-conscious condition.

Denner's bolt for liberty probably saves the county the expense of maintaining him in the workhouse, for if he ever returns the old fine will be enforced.

O. E. S.

Regular meeting of Royal Chapter No. 29, O. E. S., Monday evening, June 24, at 7:30. All members are requested to be present. Initiation and social hour.

VERA V. VEAIL, W. M.
MAE RODGERS, Secy.

NOTICE TO KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

On Wednesday evening, June 26th, members of Confidence lodge will entertain their families, sojourning Knights and their families and the families of deceased members, with a social session. The attendance of all included in this notice is desired. Program will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

COMMITTEE.

Aged Conductor Makes Last Trip

John Green, for 25 years a conductor on the D. T. & I. railroad, died at his home in Springfield Friday night after a short illness.

No man on the road is better known than Conductor Green, and the road has always found him efficient and always "on the job".

During the past few years he has been running between Ironton and Jackson, being a passenger conductor.

Sues for $263 Promissory Note

John Harbine has brought suit for the recovery of $263 with interest from February 8th, 1912, making Elmer Allen the defendant in the suit.

A copy of the note is attached and the plaintiff claims that it was issued to the Live Stock Remedy Company and endorsed by them to the plaintiff, who now seeks judgment in full.

Two Killed and Two Fatally Hurt

Special to Herald.

Conneaut, O., June 22.—Conductor Lyttle and Brakeman Ransen killed. Engineer Curtis and Brakeman Lamb fatally injured in rear end collision on Nickle Plate railroad.

OBITUARY.

Sarah E. Coonrod, whose maiden name was Davey, wife of Oliver Coonrod, daughter of John and Mary J. Davey, was born July the 18th, 1839, in Hampshire county, W. Va. At about 2 years of age she came with her parents and settled near Zanesville, O., where she grew up to womanhood. At about 21 years of age she was united to W. B. Crooks in the holy bonds of matrimony, May the 8th, 1860.

Mr. Crooks was a Union soldier and died in Andersonville prison, September, 1864.

Feb. 28th, 1866, she became the faithful wife of Morgan T. Smith, who died Oct. 28th, 1893. To these unions were born 8 children, 6 sons and 2 daughters.

June the 19th, 1902, she took the solemn vow of holy matrimony with Oliver Coonrod, of Washington C. H., O., and faithfully lived up to her promise until death, May the 30th, 1912, aged 72 years, 10 months and 12 days.

After appropriate services were held at the residence in Washington C. H., O., her remains were put on the train and conveyed to the cemetery of her choice near Purgitsville, W. Va. Four sons, many relatives and friends, listened to a fine talk by Rev. Brunk of the U. B. church. She leaves a husband, 4 sons and one daughter to mourn the great loss.

Norman J. and Col. W. E. Crooks, of Keyser, W. Va., Frank C. and E. L. Smith, respectively, of Purgitsville and Piedmont, W. Va., and Mrs. Carrie Gault, of Washington C. H., O. She also leaves 3 brothers and 3 sisters to remember the good example of her life, W. E. Davey, of Lebanon, Mo.; James and Frank Davey, Mrs. Rebecca Gault, Mrs. Lena Backenstoe, of Washington C. H., O., and Mrs. Phebe Smith, of Iowa. Mrs. Coonrod died as she had lived, a friend to everybody. From girlhood until death she was a strong believer in the Christian religion and lived out more than she professed. When the hour of death came, she was ready and willing to go at the Master's call, and with a smiling face fell asleep in Jesus.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep
From which none ever wake to weep."

When Jesus shall rule over all the earth, King of kings and Lord of lords thou wilt be one of His loving subjects to rejoice and praise him for so great salvation. When all voices in heaven, earth and sea are praising God, thy voice will help to swell the great song of praise unto the Lamb that was slain, but liveth again, forever and ever. Amen.

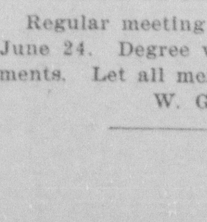
CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly tendered their services during the sickness of our loved one.

O. COONROD AND FAMILY.

DELICIOUS FRIED SPRING CHICKEN DINNER 25c, AT SOUTHERN CAFE, SUNDAY.

SECRET OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR.



"Grace, do you remember what luxuriant hair Mme. Melba had, when we heard her in Grand Opera?"

"Yes, Mary, and I also know her secret for it; I have seen two different letters in her own handwriting, which she gave to Kate Seaton Mason, the noted English Hair Specialist, stating she owes it all to her treatment.

"Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream—made from her private formula—may now be obtained at Blackmer & Tanquary's Drug Store right here in Washington C. H., and it is so easy for one to shampoo one's own hair with it, and such a satisfaction to know, when rubbing it into the scalp that it not only cleanses the hair and scalp beautifully, but it has tonic properties which will make the hair grow."

"It is only 25c a tube, enough for several shampoos, and Blackmer & Tanquary will return your money if you do not like it."

NOTICE TO JR. O. U. A. M.

Regular meeting Monday evening, June 24. Degree work and refreshments. Let all members be present.

W. G. EVANS, Sec.

NESTOR and AMERICAN TONIGH

THE PALACE

Automobile Road Race

Held at Santa Monica, California, May 4th. Th
World's records smashed. A thrilling picture.

Cupid Through Padlocks

Charming Western Comedy with Pauline Bush
Warren Kerrigan and the all star American Com'y

Coming Thursday, June 27th

JESS Thanhouser 3 Reel Special, Rider
Haggard's Great Boer War Story

10c COLONIAL 10c

Vaudeville Tonight

WE-CHOK-BE The half-breed Sioux Indian girl, scored a big hit last evening. The act is decidedly out of the ordinary. She makes an entire change tonight.

Selig presents—The Redemption of "Greek Joe"

His Little Sister—Lubin Comedy

5c WONDERLAND 5c

Becky Gets a Husband Lubin Comedy

Under Mexican Skies A powerful drama of Old Mexico.

LOCAL CHURCHES.

Grace M. E. Church.
Rev. T. W. Locke, Pastor

Sabbath school at 9:15 a. m. C. E. Lloyd, superintendent.

Morning preaching services 10:30. Subject of sermon: "True Service and Its Reward."

General class meeting, 2:30.

Epworth League devotional meeting 6:45. Topic: "How Persecution Has Extended the Knowledge of God."

Evening preaching service 7:30. Sermon by the pastor.

Mid-week church service Thursday night at 7:30.

Wesley Chapel.
E. S. Norris, superintendent.

Sunday school at 2:30.

The Sunday school will observe Children's Day by rendering a special program at 2:30 o'clock.

Presbyterian Church.
Rev. Wm. Irwin Campbell, Pastor.

Sabbath school at 9:15 a. m. Superintendent, Ray F. Zaner.

Brotherhood Bible class, 9:00 a. m. Taught by pastor.

Morning worship at 10:30 a. m. Subject of sermon: "Lead in Triumph."

Evening services at 7:30 p. m. Subject of sermon: "Things New and Old."

East End Chapel.
Sunday school at 2 p. m.
Superintendent, E. T. Evans.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Mission.
Services held on third floor of Memorial Hall, conducted by Lay Reader, Calvin Thompson.

Morning prayer, 10:30 a. m.
Evening prayer, 3:45 p. m.

First Baptist Church.
Rev. A. W. West, Pastor.

Bible school 9:30 a. m. Albert Snyder, superintendent.

Morning preaching service 10:45. Subject of sermon: "Worshiping God in His Sanctuary."

B. Y. P. U. 6:45.

Evening service, 7:30 p. m.

Prayer meeting, Thursday, 7:15.

Church of Christ.
Rev. Bowman Hostetler, Pastor.

Bible school 9:15 a. m. L. Etta Rannels, Supt.

Communion and preaching 10:30 a. m. The minister will preach on "Golden Treasure in Earthen Vessels."

Jr. C. E. 2 p. m. P. F. Goodwin, Supt.

C. E. Prayer meeting, 6:30 p. m. Topic: "Reading That Is Worth While." Led by Melwood Hostetler and Mrs. Gwen Stolzenberg.

Preaching, 7:30 p. m. Subject: "Beating Against the Current."

Mid-week prayer meeting Thursday, 7:30 p. m.

Oak Grove.
Bible school, 2 p. m.
Preaching, 3 p. m.

Vacuum Cleaners for rent—hand or electric—delivered and called for. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Want ads are profitable.

Trusted Public Servant Probably $11,000 Short

Charles E. Stocklen, owner of a grocery in Circleville, a highly respected citizen and treasurer of Circleville township, has disappeared, and his whereabouts is unknown, and according to the latest information from Circleville, several thousand dollars of the township's money has disappeared with him.

Stocklen, who had always held the confidence of the people and was widely known, numbering quite a few Washington and Fayette citizens among his friends, left about one week ago, and nothing has since been heard from him. The following article in Saturday's Enquirer probably sheds some light on the reason for his sudden leave-taking:

"Charles E. Stocklin, Treasurer of Circleville township, left his home in this city Thursday, the 13th, and no tidings have been received from him since. He said he would be back early, and left ostensibly for Columbus.

His accounts as Township Treasurer had just been checked by Inspector C. E. Godfrey, of the Auditor of State's office, and apparently were in a satisfactory condition. Since his departure two certificates of deposit on the Second National bank of this city for $5,000 each, which he exhibited to the inspector as a part of the township funds, are missing, and have been declared to be forgeries by the bank officials, who say Stocklin never had any funds of any kind on deposit there.

These, it is charged, were used as a blind to tide him over the inspection examination, and were immediately afterward destroyed. It is said he lost $16,000 in a mine, and in his efforts to recoup used the township funds. His alleged shortage is said to be approximately $11,000. The prosecuting attorney says a warrant will be issued today."

Fire Traps Plentiful Due To Carelessness

In a great many basement rooms in the city can be found an accumulation of boxes, boards, paper, excelsior and other highly inflammable material which only requires a spark to kindle a dangerous blaze in the heart of city blocks.

The average citizen in placing the inflammable material in the basement becomes so accustomed to seeing the accumulation that he does not pause to think that he is virtually building a heap of fagots under his place of business, but trusts to luck to take care of the dangerous material and prevent it from catching on fire.

One man who recently had occasion to visit a number of basement rooms states that he was greatly surprised at the ease with which a fire of very disastrous kind could be started—only a spark accidentally dropped being all that is required to kindle the pile of material.

"When one knows the condition of the average basement", said the man, "he is really surprised that there are not ten times more fires than there are, for the average basement is used as a catch-all for everything imaginable."

In the average city where lax observation of ordinances relating to the piling of inflammable material in or near buildings, is the custom, fire dangers are fifty per cent. greater than where a careful watch is maintained for material which is liable to start a disastrous fire.

A little care on the part of those who allow boxes, barrels, excelsior and other material to be piled in a heap in the basement or even a part of the business room itself, will greatly lessen fire dangers in any city, and especially in Washington.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

NAT. BANK OF COMMERCE,
Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

WOMEN SAVE MONEY.

Women are natural money-savers, no matter how much is said about what they spend for dresses and hats. They always know how to make a dollar go the farthest. That's why thoughtful women discover that by using Easy Task soap in their laundry work they save fuel and time and trouble and health and more than that, they save the clothes that are washed. Easy Task has no rosin in it to stay in the clothes and hold the dirt with it and rot the fabric.

Off For the Campaign With a Fast String

Wert Mallow, With Three Fast Campaigners and Two Green Trotters, Left This Morning.

GETS AWAY IN ELEGANT STYLE

The Tried and True Old Veteran, Major Mallow, Is the "Dean" of the Bunch.

After spending the winter or off-season at the local track, Wert Mallow shipped by Pennsylvania railroad in a special car, his string of speeders, consisting of three side-wheelers, Major Mallow, 2:03 1-4; Irish Lad, 2:12 1-4; C. O. R., a campaigner of two years' experience, and two green trotters, Bonnie Dotte and Georgia Fly.

Going with this aristocratic bunch of horse flesh are five care-takers, one blacksmith and a cook.

The horses and attendants will, leaving here Saturday morning, stop first at Coshocton for the spring races which open there next week.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to follow by train Sunday morning, arriving in Coshocton late Sunday evening ready for the work bright and early Monday morning.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to try out his string on the half mile tracks in less pretentious company before tackling the bigger game on the mile tracks.

Later on it is likely that the three pacers will campaign on the Grand Circuit speedways. It was in this blue ribbon society that Major Mallow made his great reputation and his fastest time.

Irish Lad has not yet joined in a contest with the fastest horses in the country, but may do so this year.

Owner and driver Mallow feels confident that a good season awaits him. His horses have had good training and are in tip-top condition.

From the youngsters in the string he expects great things.

PARRETT'S GROCERY

"The Yellow Front"

THE HOME OF QUALITY FOR 24 YEARS

Special Price on New Texas Tomatos Today of 10c Per Pound, or 40c Per Basket

A full barrel fancy red Radishes to sell at 1c per bunch.

Fine fat Plymouth Rock fry chickens, about 2-pound average, 30c per pound.

Alaska Peas, 8c per lb, 2 lbs for 15c, 4 lbs for 25c.

Fresh Green Beans, 12½c per pound.

We expect another shipment of fancy Black Raspberries this afternoon. Price will be 15c per quart.

Valencia Summer Oranges, the finest Oranges grown, sell at 25c, 30c, 35c and 40c per doz.

Try us for Boiled Ham, Sliced Beef, Breakfast Bacon—all sliced to suit you on our new slicing machine.

BAINTER THROWS FIT PRISONER WALKS AWAY

Chief McCoy Starts to Workhouse With Three Prisoners, One Gets Sick and Another Escapes.

"GOPHER" SMITH IN THE WORKS

Albert Denner Seizes Opportunity and Bolts for Liberty at B. & O. Depot Early This Morning. Hoggy Bainter Taken to Home of Relative to Recover.

While Chief of Police McCoy was at the B. & O. depot awaiting the arrival of the early morning train so he could escort "Hoggy" Bainter, Albert Denner and "Gopher" Smith to the Columbus workhouse Saturday morning, Bainter suddenly threw a fit, falling to the floor and writhing in agony, and while Chief McCoy's attention was occupied with him for a moment Denner slipped quietly out of the depot and hot-footed it for parts unknown. In the end Chief McCoy was forced to board the train with only one of the men, "Gopher" Smith.

Arrangements had been made for taking Bainter and Denner to the workhouse, and late Friday evening it developed that "Gopher" Smith was in the city, and the police were ordered to arrest him and bring him in.

Smith is the man who was recently arrested on a charge of bootlegging, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $100 and costs and given 30 days in the workhouse. This was altered by most of the fine being suspended providing $25 and the costs were paid. Smith was released to secure the amount, dug up part of it and then disappeared.

When it became known that he was at home on "Flat Iron row" Cogswell and Bell went after him. Cogswell spied the man standing near the water tank at the "Point" and told him to come along. This was the signal for Smith to show his heels, which he did with surprising agaility. "Halt!" yelled Cogswell, and when Smith continued to run he pulled his gun and fired two shots, neither of which struck the fleeing man, but brought him to a standstill with his hands pointing toward the stars. He was locked up, commitment papers made out and arrangements made to take him to the workhouse with Bainter and Denner.

The report that Cogswell had shot the man spread throughout the city, but this was erroneous, the officer shooting to scare and not to hit.

When Chief McCoy landed at the depot with his three prisoners, Smith and Bainter were handcuffed together, and when Bainter threw the fit he pulled Smith to the floor with him. It was while Chief McCoy was releasing Smith from the painful grip of bracelets that Denner took the sprinting fever and bolted for liberty. He was out of sight in a moment, going at break-neck speed.

Bainter was taken to the home of Jack Bainter, who lives just across from the B. & O. and placed on a bed, where he remained for a long time in a semi-conscious condition.

Denner's bolt for liberty probably saves the county the expense of maintaining him in the workhouse, for if he ever returns the old fine will be enforced.

O. E. S.

Regular meeting of Royal Chapter No. 29, O. E. S., Monday evening, June 24, at 7:30. All members are requested to be present. Initiation and social hour.

VERA V. VEAIL, W. M.
MAE RODGERS, Secy.

NOTICE TO KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

On Wednesday evening, June 26th, members of Confidence lodge will entertain their families, sojourning Knights and their families and the families of deceased members, with a social session. The attendance of all included in this notice is desired. Program will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

COMMITTEE.

Aged Conductor Makes Last Trip

John Green, for 25 years a conductor on the D. T. & I. railroad, died at his home in Springfield Friday night after a short illness.

No man on the road is better known than Conductor Green, and the road has always found him efficient and always "on the job".

During the past few years he has been running between Ironton and Jackson, being a passenger conductor.

Sues for $263 Promissory Note

John Harbine has brought suit for the recovery of $263 with interest from February 8th, 1912, making Elmer Allen the defendant in the suit.

A copy of the note is attached and the plaintiff claims that it was issued to the Live Stock Remedy Company and endorsed by them to the plaintiff, who now seeks judgment in full.

Trusted Public Servant Probably $11,000 Short

Charles E. Stocklen, owner of a grocery in Circleville, a highly respected citizen and treasurer of Circleville township, has disappeared, and his whereabouts is unknown, and according to the latest information from Circleville, several thousand dollars of the township's money has disappeared with him.

Stocklen, who had always held the confidence of the people and was widely known, numbering quite a few Washington and Fayette citizens among his friends, left about one week ago, and nothing has since been heard from him. The following article in Saturday's Enquirer probably sheds some light on the reason for his sudden leave-taking:

"Charles E. Stocklin, Treasurer of Circleville township, left his home in this city Thursday, the 13th, and no tidings have been received from him since. He said he would be back early, and left ostensibly for Columbus.

His accounts as Township Treasurer had just been checked by Inspector C. E. Godfrey, of the Auditor of State's office, and apparently were in a satisfactory condition. Since his departure two certificates of deposit on the Second National bank of this city for $5,000 each, which he exhibited to the inspector as a part of the township funds, are missing, and have been declared to be forgeries by the bank officials, who say Stocklin never had any funds of any kind on deposit there.

These, it is charged, were used as a blind to tide him over the inspection examination, and were immediately afterward destroyed. It is said he lost $16,000 in a mine, and in his efforts to recoup used the township funds. His alleged shortage is said to be approximately $11,000. The prosecuting attorney says a warrant will be issued today."

Fire Traps Plentiful Due To Carelessness

In a great many basement rooms in the city can be found an accumulation of boxes, boards, paper, excelsior and other highly inflammable material which only requires a spark to kindle a dangerous blaze in the heart of city blocks.

The average citizen in placing the inflammable material in the basement becomes so accustomed to seeing the accumulation that he does not pause to think that he is virtually building a heap of fagots under his place of business, but trusts to luck to take care of the dangerous material and prevent it from catching on fire.

One man who recently had occasion to visit a number of basement rooms states that he was greatly surprised at the ease with which a fire of very disastrous kind could be started—only a spark accidentally dropped being all that is required to kindle the pile of material.

"When one knows the condition of the average basement", said the man, "he is really surprised that there are not ten times more fires than there are, for the average basement is used as a catch-all for everything imaginable."

In the average city where lax observation of ordinances relating to the piling of inflammable material in or near buildings, is the custom, fire dangers are fifty per cent. greater than where a careful watch is maintained for material which is liable to start a disastrous fire.

A little care on the part of those who allow boxes, barrels, excelsior and other material to be piled in a heap in the basement or even a part of the business room itself, will greatly lessen fire dangers in any city, and especially in Washington.

Off For the Campaign With a Fast String

Wert Mallow, With Three Fast Campaigners and Two Green Trotters, Left This Morning.

GETS AWAY IN ELEGANT STYLE

The Tried and True Old Veteran, Major Mallow, Is the "Dean" of the Bunch.

After spending the winter or off-season at the local track, Wert Mallow shipped by Pennsylvania railroad in a special car, his string of speeders, consisting of three side-wheelers, Major Mallow, 2:03 1-4; Irish Lad, 2:12 1-4; C. O. R., a campaigner of two years' experience, and two green trotters, Bonnie Dotte and Georgia Fly.

Going with this aristocratic bunch of horse flesh are five care-takers, one blacksmith and a cook.

The horses and attendants will, leaving here Saturday morning, stop first at Coshocton for the spring races which open there next week.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to follow by train Sunday morning, arriving in Coshocton late Sunday evening ready for the work bright and early Monday morning.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to try out his string on the half mile tracks in less pretentious company before tackling the bigger game on the mile tracks.

Later on it is likely that the three pacers will campaign on the Grand Circuit speedways. It was in this blue ribbon society that Major Mallow made his great reputation and his fastest time.

Irish Lad has not yet joined in a contest with the fastest horses in the country, but may do so this year.

Owner and driver Mallow feels confident that a good season awaits him. His horses have had good training and are in tip-top condition.

From the youngsters in the string he expects great things.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

NAT. BANK OF COMMERCE,
Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

WOMEN SAVE MONEY.

Women are natural money-savers, no matter how much is said about what they spend for dresses and hats. They always know how to make a dollar go the farthest. That's why thoughtful women discover that by using Easy Task soap in their laundry work they save fuel and time and trouble and health and more than that, they save the clothes that are washed. Easy Task has no rosin in it to stay in the clothes and hold the dirt with it and rot the fabric.

Two Killed and Two Fatally Hurt

Special to Herald.

Conneaut, O., June 22.—Conductor Lyttle and Brakeman Ransen killed. Engineer Curtis and Brakeman Lamb fatally injured in rear end collision on Nickle Plate railroad.

OBITUARY.

Sarah E. Coonrod, whose maiden name was Davey, wife of Oliver Coonrod, daughter of John and Mary J. Davey, was born July the 18th, 1839, in Hampshire county, W. Va. At about 2 years of age she came with her parents and settled near Zanesville, O., where she grew up to womanhood. At about 21 years of age she was united to W. B. Crooks in the holy bonds of matrimony, May the 8th, 1860.

Mr. Crooks was a Union soldier and died in Andersonville prison, September, 1864.

Feb. 28th, 1866, she became the faithful wife of Morgan T. Smith, who died Oct. 28th, 1893. To these unions were born 8 children, 6 sons and 2 daughters.

June the 19th, 1902, she took the solemn vow of holy matrimony with Oliver Coonrod, of Washington C. H., O., and faithfully lived up to her promise until death, May the 30th, 1912, aged 72 years, 10 months and 12 days.

After appropriate services were held at the residence in Washington C. H., O., her remains were put on the train and conveyed to the cemetery of her choice near Purgitsville, W. Va. Four sons, many relatives and friends, listened to a fine talk by Rev. Brunk of the U. B. church. She leaves a husband, 4 sons and one daughter to mourn the great loss.

Norman J. and Col. W. E. Crooks, of Keyser, W. Va., Frank C. and E. L. Smith, respectively, of Purgitsville and Piedmont, W. Va., and Mrs. Carrie Gault, of Washington C. H., O. She also leaves 3 brothers and 3 sisters to remember the good example of her life, W. E. Davey, of Lebanon, Mo.; James and Frank Davey, Mrs. Rebecca Gault, Mrs. Lena Backenstoe, of Washington C. H., O., and Mrs. Phebe Smith, of Iowa. Mrs. Coonrod died as she had lived, a friend to everybody. From girlhood until death she was a strong believer in the Christian religion and lived out more than she professed. When the hour of death came, she was ready and willing to go at the Master's call, and with a smiling face fell asleep in Jesus.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep
From which none ever wake to weep."

When Jesus shall rule over all the earth, King of kings and Lord of lords thou wilt be one of His loving subjects to rejoice and praise him for so great salvation. When all voices in heaven, earth and sea are praising God, thy voice will help to swell the great song of praise unto the Lamb that was slain, but liveth again, forever and ever, Amen.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly tendered their services during the sickness of our loved one.

O. COONROD AND FAMILY.

DELICIOUS FRIED SPRING CHICKEN DINNER 25c, AT SOUTHERN CAFE, SUNDAY.

SECRET OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR.

"Grace, do you remember what luxuriant hair Mme. Melba had, when we heard her in Grand Opera?"

"Yes, Mary, and I also know her secret for it; I have seen two different letters in her own handwriting, which she gave to Kate Seaton Mason, the noted English Hair Specialist, stating she owes it all to her treatment.

"Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream—made from her private formula—may now be obtained at Blackmer & Tanquary's Drug Store right here in Washington C. H., and it is so easy for one to shampoo one's own hair with it, and such a satisfaction to know, when rubbing it into the scalp that it not only cleanses the hair and scalp beautifully, but it has tonic properties which will make the hair grow."

"It is only 25c a tube, enough for several shampoos, and Blackmer & Tanquary will return your money if you do not like it."

NOTICE TO JR. O. U. A. M.

Regular meeting Monday evening, June 24. Degree work and refreshments. Let all members be present.

W. G. EVANS, Sec.

THE PALACE

Automobile Road Race

Held at Santa Monica, California, May 4th. The World's records smashed. A thrilling picture.

Cupid Through Padlocks

Charming Western Comedy with Pauline Bush Warren Kerrigan and the all star American Com'y

Coming Thursday, June 27th

JESS Thanhouser 3 Reel Special, Ride Haggard's Great Boer War Story

10c COLONIAL 10c

Vaudeville Tonight

WE-CHOK-BE The half-breed Sioux Indian girl, scored a big hit last evening. The act is decidedly out of the ordinary. She makes an entire change tonight.

Selig presents—The Redemption of "Greek Joe"

His Little Sister—Lubin Comedy

5c WONDERLAND 5c

Becky Gets a Husband Lubin Comedy

Under Mexican Skies A powerful drama of Old Mexico.

LOCAL CHURCHES.

Grace M. E. Church.
Rev. T. W. Locke, Pastor

Sabbath school at 9:15 a. m. C. E Lloyd, superintendent.

Morning preaching services 10:30. Subject of sermon: "True Service and Its Reward."

General class meeting, 2:30.

Epworth League devotional meeting 6:45. Topic: "How Persecution Has Extended the Knowledge of God."

Evening preaching service 7:30. Sermon by the pastor.

Mid-week church service Thursday night at 7:30.

Wesley Chapel.
E. S. Norris, superintendent.

Sunday school at 2:30.

The Sunday school will observe Children's Day by rendering a special program at 2:30 o'clock.

Presbyterian Church.
Rev. Wm. Irwin Campbell, Pastor.

Sabbath school at 9:15 a. m. Superintendent, Ray F. Zaner.

Brotherhood Bible class, 9:00 a. m. Taught by pastor.

Morning worship at 10:30 a. m. Subject of sermon: "Lead in Triumph."

Evening services at 7:30 p. m. Subject of sermon: "Things New and Old."

East End Chapel.
Sunday school at 2 p. m.
Superintendent, E. T. Evans.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Mission.
Services held on third floor of Memorial Hall, conducted by Lay Reader, Calvin Thompson.

Morning prayer, 10:30 a. m.
Evening prayer, 3:45 p. m.

First Baptist Church.
Rev. A. W. West, Pastor.

Bible school 9:30 a. m. Albert Snyder, superintendent.

Morning preaching service 10:45. Subject of sermon: "Worshiping God in His Sanctuary."

B. Y. P. U. 6:45.

Evening service, 7:30 p. m.

Prayer meeting, Thursday, 7:15.

Church of Christ.
Rev. Bowman Hostetler, Pastor.

Bible school 9:15 a. m. L. Etta Rannels, Supt.

Communion and preaching 10:30 a. m. The minister will preach on "Golden Treasure in Earthen Vessels."

Jr. C. E. 2 p. m. P. F. Goodwin, Supt.

C. E. Prayer meeting, 6:30 p. m. Topic: "Reading That Is Worth While." Led by Melwood Hostetler and Mrs. Gwen Stolzenberg.

Preaching, 7:30 p. m. Subject: "Beating Against the Current."

Mid-week prayer meeting Thursday, 7:30 p. m.

Oak Grove.
Bible school, 2 p. m.
Preaching, 3 p. m.

Vacuum Cleaners for rent—hand or electric—delivered and called for. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Want ads are profitable.

PARRETT'S GROCERY

"The Yellow Front"

THE HOME OF QUALITY FOR 24 YEARS

Special Price on New Texas Tomatos Today of 10c Per Pound, or 40c Per Basket

A full barrel fancy red Radishes to sell at 1c per bunch.

Fine fat Plymouth Rock fry chickens, about 2-pound average, 30c per pound.

Alaska Peas, 8c per lb, 2 lbs for 15c, 4 lbs for 25c.

Fresh Green Beans, 12½c per pound.

We expect another shipment of fancy Black Raspberries this afternoon. Price will be 15c per quart.

Valencia Summer Oranges, the finest Oranges grown, sell at 25c, 30c, 35c and 40c per doz.

Try us for Boiled Ham, Sliced Beef, Breakfast Bacon—all sliced to suit you on our new slicing machine.

IN SOCIETY

One of the prettiest and most recherche of afternoon teas was given from four to six o'clock Friday afternoon by Mrs. Bertha S. Miller, in honor of her guest, Mrs. John Bixler, of Lafayette, Ind., and Mrs. Byron Gifford, of Chicago.

The artistic home formed the background for sixty women in lovely summer toilets and in its exquisite decorations flaunted June the month of roses.

The rooms were radiant with a profusion of crimson ramblers, their brilliant bloom filling jardiners and vases in graceful clusters, and a tall vase of blue larkspur won the admiration of the guests.

The dining room was a picture, the pretty table having for its centerpiece a beautiful basket of white carnations and crimson ramblers, and the ramblers banking sideboard and serving table.

Mrs. Miller, always the most charming of hostesses, was wearing black chiffon, embroidered in lavender, over white taffeta.

Mrs. Bixler, who is a pretty brunette with very attractive manner, wore a becoming white lingerie gown of lace and mull.

Mrs. Gifford, nee Anna Louise Rothrock, was as glad to see all her old friends as they were to see her, and was looking lovely in a hand-embroidered white batiste over pink.

Assisting in the afternoon's cordial hospitalities were Mrs. Frank L. Stutson, Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, Mrs. Fuller Hess, Mrs. Albert Glascock, Mrs. Gerrie Spragg and Miss Florence Ustick.

Receiving at the door were two handsome little pages in white, Mrs. Miller's son, Oliver, and Mrs. Bixler's son, Jack.

Mrs. Carl Baer, of Hope, Ark., was also an out-of-town guest.

Miss Dorothy Bush, the talented young pianist who won the silver medal at the W. C. T. U. musical contest last week, gave a pleasing piano recital Friday afternoon at the Stinson Conservatory.

Miss Bush played six numbers with exceptional expression and accuracy for so young a pupil. She was assisted by Miss Virginia Sites in a duet and pretty solo.

After the recital Mrs. Stinson took thirty-five of the younger students of the Conservatory for an automobile ride and then to Willis park, where they spent a merry hour with swings, games and refreshments.

Upon their return Miss Bush treated the crowd to ices and cream.

Miss Marie Melvin gave a beautiful party for Miss Bertha Briggs, a bride of next week, Friday evening.

Thirty girl friends of Miss Briggs were in attendance and the affair resulted in a "Kitchen Shower," with a number of useful gifts for culinary use, largely aluminum ware.

A white and crimson color scheme was artistically carried out in quantities of crimson ramblers, white lilies and elder blossoms and crimson hearts.

The red and white was also employed in the delicious refreshments served.

Miss Briggs was wearing a very pretty gown of white batiste embroidered in blue, and Miss Melvin white dimity, lace trimmed.

During the evening Miss Margaret McClure added to the pleasure of the occasion with brilliant piano renditions.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. George Melvin, Misses Margaret Briggs and Ann Lawrence.

The wedding of Miss Ann Kirby Quinn, whose engagement to Mr. Herbert Allan Ottewill, of London, England, was recently announced, will not be solemnized at the bride's home here as was originally intended, but will take place in London on July 2d, the bride's mother, Mrs. L. S. Quinn, and her uncle, Mr. Kirby Smith, being in that city. Mr. Smith expects to come home early in July and Mrs. Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will come over in August. After a visit here Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will go to China where the groom is in the British Consular service.—Hillsboro Gazette, June 21.

Mr. Albert Glascock is spending the day in Cincinnati.

• • •

Prof. D. A. Ferree is in Columbus taking his M. A. degree.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, are spending Sunday here.

• • •

Mr. A. L. Cherry, of Ghormley's Station, is a business visitor here today.

• • •

Mrs. W. A. Patton, of Leesburg, was the guest of Mrs. Al Martin, Friday.

• • •

Mr. George Adams and son, Wilbur, went to Cincinnati to attend the races today.

• • •

Mrs. Harry Colwell is the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Colwell in Lancaster.

• • •

Mrs. A. Dewey and daughter, Corrine, of Leesburg, were the guests of Mrs. Hibben Ervin Friday.

• • •

Miss Helen Harper left this morning on a ten days' visit with Miss Sarah Holmes in Augusta, Ky.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cave returned today from a pleasant outing in Springfield and at Russel's Point.

• • •

Miss Sybel Hoover, who has been the guest of Miss Helen Willis, left this morning for her home in Gibson, Ill.

• • •

Miss Charlotte Dahl returned this morning from a visit of several weeks with a school friend at Nashville, Tenn.

• • •

Mrs. Isaac Cook returns to St. Louis, Mo., Sunday, after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCrea.

• • •

Mr. H. A. Thissel, of Philadelphia, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. G. M. Ustick and daughter, Miss Florence, for a couple of days.

• • •

Mrs. A. E. Baum, Mrs. Kate Latham and Fred Bradfute, spent Wednesday in Springfield, attending the G. A. R. encampment.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cissna, Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford and Ruth and Nell Cissna, made a motoring trip to Dayton yesterday.

• • •

Mrs. Walter McLean and children, Richard and Lucile, are visiting Mrs. McLean's mother, Mrs. Ada Fortune in Pittsburg, Pa., and will also visit in Albion, Pa.

• • •

Master Billy Merriweather is visiting his uncle, Mr. William Merriweather at Reeseville. Mr. Nicholas Merriweather accompanied his nephew, returning tonight.

• • •

Mrs. Chas. Reid returned last evening from Chicago where she accompanied her husband to attend the Convention. Hon. C. A. Reid expected to remain until tonight.

• • •

Mr. F. B. Creamer returned Friday from a business trip to Texas, Mrs. Creamer also returning from Hillsboro, where she visited her mother, Mrs. Hickle, during his absence.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Van Winkle and son, Ervin, are spending the week end in Cincinnati and Mrs. Van Winkle will remain next week to be the guest of Mrs. Geo. Fabb

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. George Hays and Delbert, Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. N. S. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snider and daughter, Sylvia, and Miss Fern Sunkle, were among the week's visitors at the Springfield encampment.

• • •

Mrs. Thomas Cheesman, of Mt. Auburn, Cincinnati, visited Mrs. Lelia Counts the past two days, enroute from the encampment at Springfield, which she attended as a Cincinnati delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dale and daughters, made a motoring trip to Princetown to visit relatives this week. Miss Pauline Dale remained for an indefinite stay.

• • •

Mr. L. W. Buckmaster is down from Columbus for the day. Washington friends regret to learn that Mrs. Buckmaster has been dangerously ill during the past few weeks. Her present condition is more hopeful.

• • •

Mr. R. C. Hunt has returned from a ten days' business trip to Adairville and Bowling Green, Ky., accompanied by his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. W. Hunt and son, Edward, who will be Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's guests.

• • •

Miss Josephine Porter and little niece, Martha Porter, have returned from a visit in Cincinnati, Norwood and Lebanon. At Lebanon they visited Miss Porter's niece, Miss Lida Posey, who is attending the university.

• • •

Mrs. Ellis Ramsey and two children, arrived from Saginaw, Mich., Friday evening and will reside with Capt. Ramsey, who has opened his beautiful home on Washington avenue, after having it closed during the winter season. Mr. Ramsey expects to join his wife shortly.

• • •

Mrs. French Wilson, of Williamsp[illegible]; Mrs. O. C. Wilson, of Zanesville, spent Thursday and Friday the guests of Miss Ruth Smithers. Miss Smithers has for her guest at present, Mrs. A. H. Tinker and granddaughter, Ruth, and Miss Madge Putman, of Frankfort.

• • •

Miss Louise Weaver has returned from Wilson college, Chambersburg, Pa., to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver. Since the college closed, Miss Weaver visited school friends in New York and Trenton, N. J.

• • •

Dr. Robert Thornton returned today from Columbus, where he has been taking the state medical examinations, subsequent to his graduation from the Ohio Starling Medical college. After a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Thornton, Dr. Thornton returns to the capital city to take the position of interne in the Protestant hospital.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rodecker and children, and Mrs. Anna Hicks motored to Springfield to attend the encampment this week and brought back with them Mr. Rodecker's mother, Mrs. Ellen Rodecker, who was W. R. C. delegate from Lancaster to the encampment. Mrs. Rodecker returned to Lancaster today.

Screen Doors and Windows rewired—called for and delivered. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

WHEN SERVANTS WERE SLAVES.

It hasn't been so many years since servants were practically slaves; they were bound out for a term of years and never could hope to better their conditions. The world is advancing, however, and now servants, especially those who do washing and housecleaning, are better treated. Easy Task laundry soap, that does half the work itself, and which cleans pots and pans and painted work like magic, is responsible for much of this emancipation. Only 5 cents a cake, too.

Pumps repaired. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Tri-County Chautauqua, Greenfield, Aug. 1 to 11 Inclusive

The Seventh Assembly of the Tri-County Chautauqua Association at Greenfield, has been set for August 1 to 11, inclusive. The association owns beautiful Chautauqua park with a magnificent steel auditorium and other extensive improvements. Every year has witnessed a notable advance and this year will be no exception to the general rule. The recreative side of Chautauqua life will be especially emphasized, and tennis courts, croquet grounds, quoits, base ball and other games provided.

The program is one of unusual strength. From nine o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night, every hour is filled with lectures, music and entertainment. A special feature is the engagement of Price's Premier band for three open-air concerts daily.

Four other splendid musical organizations have been engaged, the Hearon sister, the Mendelssohn Male Quartette, The Ernest Gamble Concert party and the Kaffir Boy Choir.

The lecturers include Richmond Pearson Robson, Ernest Thompson Seaton, Governor Hoch, of Kansas, "Mother" Lake, the foremost woman orator on the Chautauqua platform, Frank Dixon, Adam Bede, Prof. Gilbert, Chas. E. Thorn, Geo. W. Phillips and others equally well known.

The readers and impersonators include Lulu Tyler Gates, Maude Willis, Miss Edna Haas, and the Pierces in short plays and sketches A program of interest is the "Songs and Stories of the Red Men" by the Gales.

The morning programs have been made especially strong in the interest of the large number of campers who remain permanently on the grounds. Prof. Gilbert will conduct a class in Nature Study and Rev. Geo. Phillips will deliver a remarkable series of Bible lectures.

Another Strong Lecture Course

The purchasing committee of the Jeffersonville Lecture Course, consisting of H. L. Hire, S. M. Taggart, M. F. Hudson, J. A. McKillip and G. W. Blessing, met at the Farmers' bank rooms recently and selected the following talent for 1912-13: Opening number, White's Musical Review, the date will be announced later. The other numbers, whose dates will also be announced later, are Dr. Newell D. Hillis, Geo. R. Stewart, The Opollo Concert Co., and Leland T. Powers, entertainer.

The committee believe they have a strong attraction and if the price indicates anything it will be the best ever given in the history of the Jeffersonville Lecture course.

When the Lecture Course was first started, some twelve or fifteen years ago, the expense was guaranteed by a large number of business men. The price of the talent at that time was from $175 to $250 and the price for a season ticket was, as it is now, $1.00. From the very start it paid its way, with a small profit, which was set aside, it not being the intention of the promoters to make it a profit-sharing institution, until the profits amounted to something like $500. The committee and officers deemed it prudent to secure better talent, which they have done for the past three or four years. This met with the approval of the lecture going class, for the attendance has increased so that the receipts are meeting the talent at a cost of $575 to $650, leaving the original surplus in the hands of the treasurer.

The influence of this lecture course has had its effect upon Jeffersonville and the community at large for good both from an intellectual and moral standpoint.

PILES CURED AT HOME BY NEW ABSORPTION METHOD.

If you suffer from bleeding, itching, blind or protuding Piles, send me your address, and I will tell you how to cure yourself at home by the new absorption treatment; and will also send some of this home treatment free for trial, with references from your own locality if requested. Immediate relief and permanent cure assured. Send no money, but tell others of this offer. Write today to Mrs. M. Summers, Box P, Notre Dame, Ind.

Awaiting Plans For New Building

Mr. R. C. Hunt, who will soon commence the erection of a modern three-story apartment hotel on the site of the Imperial Hotel, is now awaiting the plans for the new building, and when he once decides upon the plans will soon have work on the building under way.

The site of the Imperial has long since been cleared of the ruins, and by the middle of the summer it is expected that the new structure will be well under way, and finished at the earliest possible moment.

FALLS DOWN STAIRS.

Mrs. Fred Swartz, North North street, fell down stairs last night, breaking her left arm and suffering very painful bruises. She is quite badly injured and suffering greatly.

Odd Fellows Adopt Plans

The Milledgeville lodge of Odd Fellows adopted plans for their new building at a recent meeting, deciding to erect a two-story brick structure instead of a three-story building as at first contemplated.

The structure will be erected upon the site of the building destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, and will contain two business rooms on the first floor, and splendid lodge rooms on the second floor.

The basement will also be enlarged and large storage quarters arranged, so that fruit, vegetables and other goods of similar nature can be stored in large quantities.

The building will cost approximately $7,000 and the contract will be let and the work commenced within the coming month.

Owing to some little delay Milledgeville will not be lighted with electricity for a week or ten days.

DEATHS

WINGARD.

Paul S. Wingard, aged 5 months, son of Sidney S. and Mattie Wingert, died Saturday morning, June 22, at 4:30 o'clock, at the residence on Oakland avenue. Burial will take place in Springfield Sunday.

OSWALD.

John Oswald died Friday evening at his home in Muncie, Ind. The remains will be brought here on the 9:38 C. H. & D. train Sunday morning, and will be taken by Undertaker Klever to Bloomingburg, where the burial will take place at 2 p. m.

Plumbing. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

STUTSON'S
Special Bargain Giving Tonight

Extra Special Tonignt IN Lingerie Waists

98c BEAUTIFULLY MADE AND TRIMMED Sold $1.50. Tonight, 98c

We Are Showing a Selection of

Muslin Underwear

At Unequalled Values

Beautiful sheer materials — lace and embroidery trimmed.

Special value tonight in

Corset Covers

19c, 39c, 49c

Special values tonight in

Gowns

49c, 69c, 79c, 98c

WE CARRY THE

Kayser Glove

Absolutely the best silk glove on the market. Long and short gloves — white, black and colors

50c, 75c

$1.00, $1.50

OUR LINE OF

Corsets

Includes the leading makes in the most fashionable models

Come and See Us Tonight

FRANK L. STUTSON

Order only the original well known

Neverdust

A sanitary sweeping compound. Put up in two kinds. No. 1 for floors, linoleums, etc. No. 2 for carpets and rugs.

Beware of Substitutes. Manufactured and for Sale by

The Neverdust Mfg. Co.

Or The M. C. Ortman Grocery

Washington C. H., O.

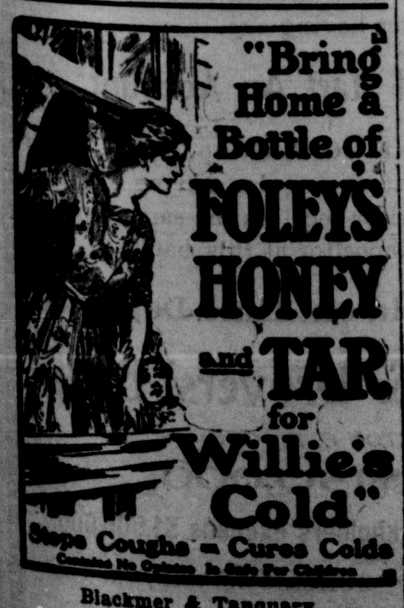
THE OLD RELIABLE

STILL IN THE LEAD

We have nice green beans, sugar peas, cucumbers, new beets, new potatoes, tomatoes, nice strawberries, pine apples, gooseberries, oranges and bananas. Swift's premium bacon, also the English cured bacon, very fine, 20c per lb., nice smoked bacon, 16c per lb. See us, we are your friends. Yours,

J. W. DUFFEE & CO.

The Old Reliable Cash Grocers, Both phones No. 77.



Blackmer & Tanquary.

IN SOCIETY

One of the prettiest and most recherche of afternoon teas was given from four to six o'clock Friday afternoon by Mrs. Bertha S. Miller, in honor of her guest, Mrs. John Bixler, of Lafayette, Ind., and Mrs. Byron Gifford, of Chicago.

The artistic home formed the background for sixty women in lovely summer toilets and in its exquisite decorations flaunted June the month of roses.

The rooms were radiant with a profusion of crimson ramblers, their brilliant bloom filling jardiners and vases in graceful clusters, and a tall vase of blue larkspur won the admiration of the guests.

The dining room was a picture, the pretty table having for its centerpiece a beautiful basket of white carnations and crimson ramblers, and the ramblers banking sideboard and serving table.

Mrs. Miller, always the most charming of hostesses, was wearing black chiffon, embroidered in lavender, over white taffeta.

Mrs. Bixler, who is a pretty brunette with very attractive manner, wore a becoming white lingerie gown of lace and mull.

Mrs. Gifford, nee Anna Louise Rothrock, was as glad to see all her old friends as they were to see her, and was looking lovely in a hand-embroidered white batiste over pink.

Assisting in the afternoon's cordial hospitalities were Mrs. Frank L. Stutson, Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, Mrs. Fuller Hess, Mrs. Albert Glascock, Mrs. Gerrie Spragg and Miss Florence Ustick.

Receiving at the door were two handsome little pages in white, Mrs. Miller's son, Oliver, and Mrs. Bixler's son, Jack.

Mrs. Carl Baer, of Hope, Ark., was also an out-of-town guest.

Miss Dorothy Bush, the talented young pianist who won the silver medal at the W. C. T. U. musical contest last week, gave a pleasing piano recital Friday afternoon at the Stinson Conservatory.

Miss Bush played six numbers with exceptional expression and accuracy for so young a pupil. She was assisted by Miss Virginia Sites in a duet and pretty solo.

After the recital Mrs. Stinson took thirty-five of the younger students of the Conservatory for an automobile ride and then to Willis park, where they spent a merry hour with swings, games and refreshments.

Upon their return Miss Bush treated the crowd to ices and cream.

Miss Marie Melvin gave a beautiful party for Miss Bertha Briggs, a bride of next week, Friday evening.

Thirty girl friends of Miss Briggs were in attendance and the affair resulted in a "Kitchen Shower," with a number of useful gifts for culinary use, largely aluminum ware.

A white and crimson color scheme was artistically carried out in quantities of crimson ramblers, white lilies and elder blossoms and crimson pearts.

The red and white was also employed in the delicious refreshments served.

Miss Briggs was wearing a very pretty gown of white batiste embroidered in blue, and Miss Melvin white dimity, lace trimmed.

During the evening Miss Margaret McClure added to the pleasure of the occasion with brilliant piano renditions.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. George Melvin, Misses Margaret Briggs and Ann Lawrence.

The wedding of Miss Ann Kirby Quinn, whose engagement to Mr. Herbert Allan Ottewill, of London, England, was recently announced, will not be solemnized at the bride's home here as was originally intended, but will take place in London on July 2d, the bride's mother, Mrs. L. S. Quinn, and her uncle, Mr. Kirby Smith, being in that city. Mr. Smith expects to come home early in July and Mrs. Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will come over in August. After a visit here Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will go to China where the groom is in the British Consular service.—Hillsboro Gazette, June 21.

Mr. Albert Glascock is spending the day in Cincinnati.

* * *

Prof. D. A. Ferree is in Columbus taking his M. A. degree.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, are spending Sunday here.

* * *

Mr. A. L. Cherry, of Ghormley's Station, is a business visitor here today.

* * *

Mrs. W. A. Patton, of Leesburg, was the guest of Mrs. Al Martin, Friday.

* * *

Mr. George Adams and son, Wilbur, went to Cincinnati to attend the races today.

* * *

Mrs. Harry Colwell is the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Colwell in Lancaster.

* * *

Mrs. A. Dewey and daughter, Corrine, of Leesburg, were the guests of Mrs. Hibben Ervin Friday.

* * *

Miss Helen Harper left this morning on a ten days' visit with Miss Sarah Holmes in Augusta, Ky.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cave returned today from a pleasant outing in Springfield and at Russel's Point.

* * *

Miss Sybel Hoover, who has been the guest of Miss Helen Willis, left this morning for her home in Gibson, Ill.

* * *

Miss Charlotte Dahl returned this morning from a visit of several weeks with a school friend at Nashville, Tenn.

* * *

Mrs. Isaac Cook returns to St. Louis, Mo., Sunday, after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCrea.

* * *

Mr. H. A. Thissel, of Philadelphia, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. G. M. Ustick and daughter, Miss Florence, for a couple of days.

* * *

Mrs. A. E. Baum, Mrs. Kate Latham and Fred Bradfute, spent Wednesday in Springfield, attending the G. A. R. encampment.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cissna, Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford and Ruth and Nell Cissna, made a motoring trip to Dayton yesterday.

* * *

Mrs. Walter McLean and children, Richard and Lucile, are visiting Mrs. McLean's mother, Mrs. Ada Fortune in Pittsburg, Pa., and will also visit in Albion, Pa.

* * *

Master Billy Merriweather is visiting his uncle, Mr. William Merriweather at Reeseville. Mr. Nicholas Merriweather accompanied his nephew, returning tonight.

* * *

Mrs. Chas. Reid returned last evening from Chicago where she accompanied her husband to attend the Convention. Hon. C. A. Reid expected to remain until tonight.

* * *

Mr. F. B. Creamer returned Friday from a business trip to Texas, Mrs. Creamer also returning from Hillsboro, where she visited her mother, Mrs. Hickle, during his absence.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Van Winkle and son, Ervin, are spending the week end in Cincinnati and Mrs. Van Winkle will remain next week to be the guest of Mrs. Geo. Fabb

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. George Hays and Delbert, Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. N. S. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snider and daughter, Sylvia, and Miss Fern Sunkle, were among the week's visitors at the Springfield encampment.

* * *

Mrs. Thomas Cheesman, of Mt. Auburn, Cincinnati, visited Mrs. Lelia Counts the past two days, enroute from the encampment at Springfield, which she attended as a Cincinnati delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dale and daughters, made a motoring trip to Princetown to visit relatives this week. Miss Pauline Dale remained for an indefinite stay.

* * *

Mr. L. W. Buckmaster is down from Columbus for the day. Washington friends regret to learn that Mrs. Buckmaster has been dangerously ill during the past few weeks. Her present condition is more hopeful.

* * *

Mr. R. C. Hunt has returned from a ten days' business trip to Adairville and Bowling Green, Ky., accompanied by his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. W. Hunt and son, Edward, who will be Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's guests.

* * *

Miss Josephine Porter and little niece, Martha Porter, have returned from a visit in Cincinnati, Norwood and Lebanon. At Lebanon they visited Miss Porter's niece, Miss Lida Posey, who is attending the university.

* * *

Mrs. Ellis Ramsey and two children, arrived from Saginaw, Mich., Friday evening and will reside with Capt. Ramsey, who has opened his beautiful home on Washington avenue, after having it closed during the winter season. Mr. Ramsey expects to join his wife shortly.

* * *

Mrs. French Wilson, of Williamsp[illegible]; Mrs. O. C. Wilson, of Zanesville, spent Thursday and Friday the guests of Miss Ruth Smithers. Miss Smithers has for her guest at present, Mrs. A. H. Tinker and granddaughter, Ruth, and Miss Madge Putman, of Frankfort.

* * *

Miss Louise Weaver has returned from Wilson college, Chambersburg, Pa., to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver. Since the college closed, Miss Weaver visited school friends in New York and Trenton, N. J.

* * *

Dr. Robert Thornton returned today from Columbus, where he has been taking the state medical examinations, subsequent to his graduation from the Ohio Starling Medical college. After a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Thornton, Dr. Thornton returns to the capital city to take the position of interne in the Protestant hospital.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rodecker and children, and Mrs. Anna Hicks motored to Springfield to attend the encampment this week and brought back with them Mr. Rodecker's mother, Mrs. Ellen Rodecker, who was W. R. C. delegate from Lancaster to the encampment. Mrs. Rodecker returned to Lancaster today.

Screen Doors and Windows rewired—called for and delivered. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

WHEN SERVANTS WERE SLAVES.

It hasn't been so many years since servants were practically slaves; they were bound out for a term of years and never could hope to better their conditions. The world is advancing, however, and now servants, especially those who do washing and housecleaning, are better treated. Easy Task laundry soap, that does half the work itself, and which cleans pots and pans and painted work like magic, is responsible for much of this emancipation. Only 5 cents a cake, too.

Pumps repaired. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Tri-County Chautauqua, Greenfield, Aug. 1 to 11 Inclusive

The Seventh Assembly of the Tri-County Chautauqua Association at Greenfield, has been set for August 1 to 11, inclusive. The association owns beautiful Chautauqua park with a magnificent steel auditorium and other extensive improvements. Every year has witnessed a notable advance and this year will be no exception to the general rule. The recreative side of Chautauqua life will be especially emphasized, and tennis courts, croquet grounds, quoits, base ball and other games provided.

The program is one of unusual strength. From nine o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night, every hour is filled with lectures, music and entertainment. A special feature is the engagement of Price's Premier band for three open-air concerts daily.

Four other splendid musical organizations have been engaged, the Hearon sister, the Mendelssohn Male Quartette, The Ernest Gamble Concert party and the Kaffir Boy Choir.

The lecturers include Richmond Pearson Robson, Ernest Thompson Seaton, Governor Hoch, of Kansas, "Mother" Lake, the foremost woman orator on the Chautauqua platform, Frank Dixon, Adam Bede, Prof. Gilbert, Chas. E. Thorn, Geo. W. Phillips and others equally well known.

The readers and impersonators include Lulu Tyler Gates, Maude Willis, Miss Edna Haas, and the Pierces in short plays and sketches A program of interest is the "Songs and Stories of the Red Men" by the Gales.

The morning programs have been made especially strong in the interest of the large number of campers who remain permanently on the grounds. Prof. Gilbert will conduct a class in Nature Study and Rev. Geo. Phillips will deliver a remarkable series of Bible lectures.

Another Strong Lecture Course

The purchasing committee of the Jeffersonville Lecture Course, consisting of H. L. Hire, S. M. Taggart, M. F. Hudson, J. A. McKillip and G. W. Blessing, met at the Farmers' bank rooms recently and selected the following talent for 1912-13: Opening number, White's Musical Review, the date will be announced later. The other numbers, whose dates will also be announced later, are Dr. Newell D. Hillis, Geo. R. Stewart, The Opollo Concert Co., and Leland T. Powers, entertainer.

The committee believe they have a strong attraction and if the price indicates anything it will be the best ever given in the history of the Jeffersonville Lecture course.

When the Lecture Course was first started, some twelve or fifteen years ago, the expense was guaranteed by a large number of business men. The price of the talent at that time was from $175 to $250 and the price for a season ticket was, as it is now, $1.00. From the very start it paid its way, with a small profit, which was set aside, it not being the intention of the promoters to make it a profit-sharing institution, until the profits amounted to something like $500. The committee and officers deemed it prudent to secure better talent, which they have done for the past three or four years. This met with the approval of the lecture going class, for the attendance has increased so that the receipts are meeting the talent at a cost of $575 to $650, leaving the original surplus in the hands of the treasurer.

The influence of this lecture course has had its effect upon Jeffersonville and the community at large for good both from an intellectual and moral standpoint.

PILES CURED AT HOME BY NEW ABSORPTION METHOD.

If you suffer from bleeding, itching, blind or protuding Piles, send me your address, and I will tell you how to cure yourself at home by the new absorption treatment; and will also send some of this home treatment free for trial, with references from your own locality if requested. Immediate relief and permanent cure assured. Send no money, but tell others of this offer. Write today to Mrs. M. Summers, Box P, Notre Dame, Ind.

Awaiting Plans For New Building

Mr. R. C. Hunt, who will soon commence the erection of a modern three-story apartment hotel on the site of the Imperial Hotel, is now awaiting the plans for the new building, and when he once decides upon the plans will soon have work on the building under way.

The site of the Imperial has long since been cleared of the ruins, and by the middle of the summer it is expected that the new structure will be well under way, and finished at the earliest possible moment.

FALLS DOWN STAIRS.

Mrs. Fred Swartz, North North street, fell down stairs last night, breaking her left arm and suffering very painful bruises. She is quite badly injured and suffering greatly.

Odd Fellows Adopt Plans

The Milledgeville lodge of Odd Fellows adopted plans for their new building at a recent meeting, deciding to erect a two-story brick structure instead of a three-story building as at first contemplated.

The structure will be erected upon the site of the building destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, and will contain two business rooms on the first floor, and splendid lodge rooms on the second floor.

The basement will also be enlarged and large storage quarters arranged, so that fruit, vegetables and other goods of similar nature can be stored in large quantities.

The building will cost approximately $7,000 and the contract will be let and the work commenced within the coming month.

Owing to some little delay Milledgeville will not be lighted with electricity for a week or ten days.

DEATHS

WINGARD

Paul S. Wingard, aged 5 months, son of Sidney S. and Mattie Wingert, died Saturday morning, June 22, at 4:30 o'clock, at the residence on Oakland avenue. Burial will take place in Springfield Sunday.

OSWALD.

John Oswald died Friday evening at his home in Muncie, Ind. The remains will be brought here on the 9:38 C. H. & D. train Sunday morning, and will be taken by Undertaker Klever to Bloomingburg, where the burial will take place at 2 p. m.

Plumbing. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

STUTSON'S

Special Bargain Giving Tonight

Extra Special Tonignt

IN

Lingerie Waists

98c BEAUTIFULLY MADE AND TRIMMED Sold $1.50. Tonight, 98c

We Are Showing a Selection of

Muslin Underwear

At Unequalled Values

Beautiful sheer materials — lace and embroidery trimmed.

Special value tonight in

Corset Covers

19c, 39c, 49c

Special values tonight in

Gowns

49c, 69c, 79c, 98c

WE CARRY THE

Kayser Glove

Absolutely the best silk glove on the market. Long and short gloves — white, black and colors

50c, 75c

$1.00, $1.50

OUR LINE OF

Corsets

Includes the leading makes in the most fashionable models

Come and See Us Tonight

FRANK L. STUTSON

Order only the original well known

Neverdust

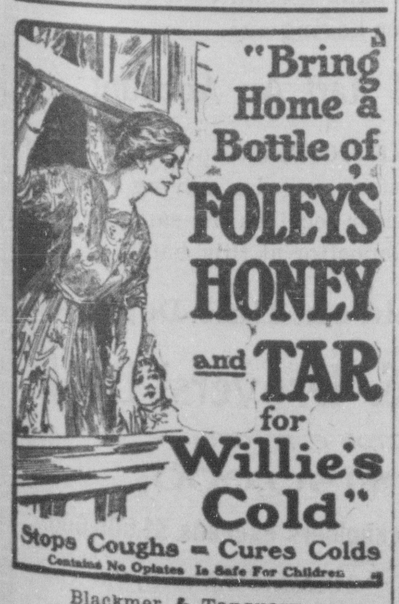
A sanitary sweeping compound. Put up in two kinds. No. 1 for floors, linoleums, etc. No. 2 for carpets and rugs.

Beware of Substitutes. Manufactured and for Sale by

The Neverdust Mfg. Co.

Or The M. C. Ortman Grocery

Washington C. H., O.



Blackmer & Tanquary.

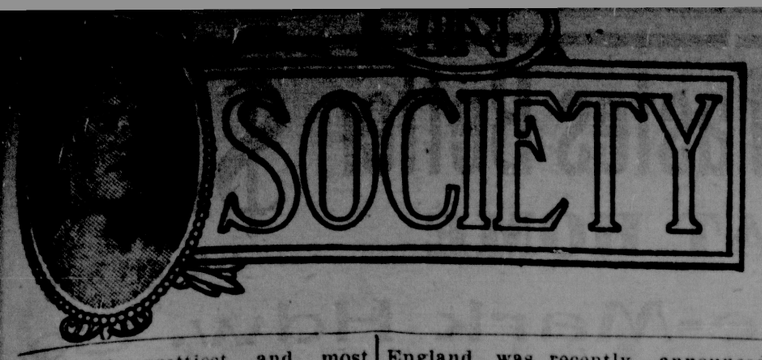
THE OLD RELIABLE

STILL IN THE LEAD

We have nice green beans, sugar peas, cucumbers, new beets, new potatoes, tomatoes, nice strawberries, pine apples, gooseberries, oranges and bananas. Swift's premium bacon, also the English cured bacon, very fine, 20c per lb., nice smoked bacon, 16c per lb. See us, we are your friends. Yours,

J. W. DUFFEE & CO.

The Old Reliable Cash Grocers, Both phones No. 77.



One of the prettiest and most recherche of afternoon teas was given from four to six o'clock Friday afternoon by Mrs. Bertha S. Miller, in honor of her guest, Mrs. John Bixler, of Lafayette, Ind., and Mrs. Byron Gifford, of Chicago.

The artistic home formed the background for sixty women in lovely summer toilets and in its exquisite decorations flaunted June the month of roses.

The rooms were radiant with a profusion of crimson ramblers, their brilliant bloom filling jardiners and vases in graceful clusters, and a tall vase of blue larkspur won the admiration of the guests.

The dining room was a picture, the pretty table having for its centerpiece a beautiful basket of white carnations and crimson ramblers, and the ramblers banking sideboard and serving table.

Mrs. Miller, always the most charming of hostesses, was wearing black chiffon, embroidered in lavender, over white taffeta.

Mrs. Bixler, who is a pretty brunette with very attractive manner, wore a becoming white lingerie gown of lace and mull.

Mrs. Gifford, nee Anna Louise Rothrock, was as glad to see all her old friends as they were to see her, and was looking lovely in a hand-embroidered white batiste over pink.

Assisting in the afternoon's cordial hospitalities were Mrs. Frank L. Stutson, Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, Mrs. Fuller Hess, Mrs. Albert Glascock, Mrs. Gerrie Spragg and Miss Florence Ustick.

Receiving at the door were two handsome little pages in white, Mrs. Miller's son, Oliver, and Mrs. Bixler's son, Jack.

Mrs. Carl Baer, of Hope, Ark., was also an out-of-town guest.

Miss Dorothy Bush, the talented young pianist who won the silver medal at the W. C. T. U. musical contest last week, gave a pleasing piano recital Friday afternoon at the Stinson Conservatory.

Miss Bush played six numbers with exceptional expression and accuracy for so young a pupil. She was assisted by Miss Virginia Sites in a duet and pretty solo.

After the recital Mrs. Stinson took thirty-five of the younger students of the Conservatory for an automobile ride and then to Willis park, where they spent a merry hour with swings, games and refreshments.

Upon their return Miss Bush treated the crowd to ices and cream.

Miss Marie Melvin gave a beautiful party for Miss Bertha Briggs, a bride of next week, Friday evening.

Thirty girl friends of Miss Briggs were in attendance and the affair resulted in a "Kitchen Shower," with a number of useful gifts for culinary use, largely aluminum ware.

A white and crimson color scheme was artistically carried out in quantities of crimson ramblers, white lilies and elder blossoms and crimson pearts.

The red and white was also employed in the delicious refreshments served.

Miss Briggs was wearing a very pretty gown of white batiste embroidered in blue, and Miss Melvin white dimity, lace trimmed.

During the evening Miss Margaret McClure added to the pleasure of the occasion with brilliant piano renditions.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. George Melvin, Misses Margaret Briggs and Ann Lawrence.

The wedding of Miss Ann Kirby Quinn, whose engagement to Mr. Herbert Allan Ottewill, of London, England, was recently announced, will not be solemnized at the bride's home here as was originally intended, but will take place in London on July 2d, the bride's mother, Mrs. L. S. Quinn, and her uncle, Mr. Kirby Smith, being in that city. Mr. Smith expects to come home early in July and Mrs. Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will come over in August. After a visit here Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will go to China where the groom is in the British Consular service.—Hillsboro Gazette, June 21.

Mr. Albert Glascock is spending the day in Cincinnati.

• • •

Prof. D. A. Ferree is in Columbus taking his M. A. degree.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, are spending Sunday here.

• • •

Mr. A. L. Cherry, of Ghormley's Station, is a business visitor here today.

• • •

Mrs. W. A. Patton, of Leesburg, was the guest of Mrs. Al Martin, Friday.

• • •

Mr. George Adams and son, Wilbur, went to Cincinnati to attend the races today.

• • •

Mrs. Harry Colwell is the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Colwell in Lancaster.

• • •

Mrs. A. Dewey and daughter, Corrine, of Leesburg, were the guests of Mrs. Hibben Ervin Friday.

• • •

Miss Helen Harper left this morning on a ten days' visit with Miss Sarah Holmes in Augusta, Ky.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cave returned today from a pleasant outing in Springfield and at Russel's Point.

• • •

Miss Sybel Hoover, who has been the guest of Miss Helen Willis, left this morning for her home in Gibson, Ill.

• • •

Miss Charlotte Dahl returned this morning from a visit of several weeks with a school friend at Nashville, Tenn.

• • •

Mrs. Isaac Cook returns to St. Louis, Mo., Sunday, after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCrea.

• • •

Mr. H. A. Thissel, of Philadelphia, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. G. M. Ustick and daughter, Miss Florence, for a couple of days.

• • •

Mrs. A. E. Baum, Mrs. Kate Latham and Fred Bradfute, spent Wednesday in Springfield, attending the G. A. R. encampment.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cissna, Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford and Ruth and Nell Cissna, made a motoring trip to Dayton yesterday.

• • •

Mrs. Walter McLean and children, Richard and Lucile, are visiting Mrs. McLean's mother, Mrs. Ada Fortune in Pittsburg, Pa., and will also visit in Albion, Pa.

• • •

Master Billy Merriweather is visiting his uncle, Mr. William Merriweather at Reeseville. Mr. Nicholas Merriweather accompanied his nephew, returning tonight.

• • •

Mrs. Chas. Reid returned last evening from Chicago where she accompanied her husband to attend the Convention. Hon. C. A. Reid expected to remain until tonight.

• • •

Mr. F. B. Creamer returned Friday from a business trip to Texas, Mrs. Creamer also returning from Hillsboro, where she visited her mother, Mrs. Hickle, during his absence.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Van Winkle and son, Ervin, are spending the week end in Cincinnati and Mrs. Van Winkle will remain next week to be the guest of Mrs. Geo. Fabb

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. George Hays and Delbert, Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. N. S. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snider and daughter, Sylvia, and Miss Fern Sunkle, were among the week's visitors at the Springfield encampment.

• • •

Mrs. Thomas Cheesman, of Mt. Auburn, Cincinnati, visited Mrs. Lelia Counts the past two days, enroute from the encampment at Springfield, which she attended as a Cincinnati delegate.

Mrs. Cheesman was formerly Miss Lelia Counts, and was a resident of Washington C. H. for many years.

• • •

Miss Pauline Dale, who has been the guest of Miss Ruth Smithers, accompanied Miss Smithers and her daughters, Misses Ruth and Mary Smithers, made a motoring trip to Princetown to visit relatives this week. Miss Pauline Dale remained for an indefinite stay.

• • •

Mr. L. W. Buckmaster is down from Columbus for the day. Washington friends regret to learn that Mrs. Buckmaster has been dangerously ill during the past few weeks. Her present condition is more hopeful.

• • •

Mr. R. C. Hunt has returned from a ten days' business trip to Adairville and Bowling Green, Ky., accompanied by his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. W. Hunt and son, Edward, who will be Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's guests.

• • •

Miss Josephine Porter and little niece, Martha Porter, have returned from a visit in Cincinnati, Norwood and Lebanon. At Lebanon they visited Miss Porter's niece, Miss Lida Posey, who is attending the university.

• • •

Mrs. Ellis Ramsey and two children, arrived from Saginaw, Mich., Friday evening and will reside with Capt. Ramsey, who has opened his beautiful home on Washington avenue, after having it closed during the winter season. Mr. Ramsey expects to join his wife shortly.

• • •

Mrs. French Wilson, of Williamsp[illegible]; Mrs. O. C. Wilson, of Zanesville, spent Thursday and Friday the guests of Miss Ruth Smithers. Miss Smithers has for her guest at present, Mrs. A. H. Tinker and granddaughter, Ruth, and Miss Madge Putman, of Frankfort.

• • •

Miss Louise Weaver has returned from Wilson college, Chambersburg, Pa., to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver. Since the college closed, Miss Weaver visited school friends in New York and Trenton, N. J.

• • •

Dr. Robert Thornton returned today from Columbus, where he has been taking the state medical examinations, subsequent to his graduation from the Ohio Starling Medical college. After a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Thornton, Dr. Thornton returns to the capital city to take the position of interne in the Protestant hospital.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rodecker and children, and Mrs. Anna Hicks motored to Springfield to attend the encampment this week and brought back with them Mr. Rodecker's mother, Mrs. Ellen Rodecker, who was W. R. C. delegate from Lancaster to the encampment. Mrs. Rodecker returned to Lancaster today.

Screen Doors and Windows rewired—called for and delivered. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

WHEN SERVANTS WERE SLAVES.

It hasn't been so many years since servants were practically slaves; they were bound out for a term of years and never could hope to better their conditions. The world is advancing, however, and now servants, especially those who do washing and housecleaning, are better treated. Easy Task laundry soap, that does half the work itself, and which cleans pots and pans and painted work like magic, is responsible for much of this emancipation. Only 5 cents a cake, too.

Pumps repaired. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Tri-County Chautauqua, Greenfield, Aug. 1 to 11 Inclusive

The Seventh Assembly of the Tri-County Chautauqua Association at Greenfield, has been set for August 1 to 11, inclusive. The association owns beautiful Chautauqua park with a magnificent steel auditorium and other extensive improvements. Every year has witnessed a notable advance and this year will be no exception to the general rule. The recreative side of Chautauqua life will be especially emphasized, and tennis courts, croquet grounds, quoits, base ball and other games provided.

The program is one of unusual strength. From nine o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night, every hour is filled with lectures, music and entertainment. A special feature is the engagement of Price's Premier band for three open-air concerts daily.

Four other splendid musical organizations have been engaged, the Hearon sister, the Mendelssohn Male Quartette, The Ernest Gamble Concert party and the Kaffir Boy Choir.

The lecturers include Richmond Pearson Robson, Ernest Thompson Seaton, Governor Hoch, of Kansas, "Mother" Lake, the foremost woman orator on the Chautauqua platform, Frank Dixon, Adam Bede, Prof. Gilbert, Chas. E. Thorn, Geo. W. Phillips and others equally well known.

The readers and impersonators include Lulu Tyler Gates, Maude Willis, Miss Edna Haas, and the Pierces in short plays and sketches A program of interest is the "Songs and Stories of the Red Men" by the Gales.

The morning programs have been made especially strong in the interest of the large number of campers who remain permanently on the grounds. Prof. Gilbert will conduct a class in Nature Study and Rev. Geo. Phillips will deliver a remarkable series of Bible lectures.

Another Strong Lecture Course

The purchasing committee of the Jeffersonville Lecture Course, consisting of H. L. Hire, S. M. Taggart, M. F. Hudson, J. A. McKillip and G. W. Blessing, met at the Farmers' bank rooms recently and selected the following talent for 1912-13: Opening number, White's Musical Review, the date will be announced later. The other numbers, whose dates will also be announced later, are Dr. Newell D. Hillis, Geo. R. Stewart, The Opollo Concert Co., and Leland T. Powers, entertainer.

The committee believe they have a strong attraction and if the price indicates anything it will be the best ever given in the history of the Jeffersonville Lecture course.

When the Lecture Course was first started, some twelve or fifteen years ago, the expense was guaranteed by a large number of business men. The price of the talent at that time was from $175 to $250 and the price for a season ticket was, as it is now, $1.00. From the very start it paid its way, with a small profit, which was set aside, it not being the intention of the promoters to make it a profit-sharing institution, until the profits amounted to something like $500. The committee and officers deemed it prudent to secure better talent, which they have done for the past three or four years. This met with the approval of the lecture going class, for the attendance has increased so that the receipts are meeting the talent at a cost of $575 to $650, leaving the original surplus in the hands of the treasurer.

The influence of this lecture course has had its effect upon Jeffersonville and the community at large for good both from an intellectual and moral standpoint.

PILES CURED AT HOME BY NEW ABSORPTION METHOD.

If you suffer from bleeding, itching, blind or protuding Piles, send me your address, and I will tell you how to cure yourself at home by the new absorption treatment; and will also send some of this home treatment free for trial, with references from your own locality if requested. Immediate relief and permanent cure assured. Send no money, but tell others of this offer. Write today to Mrs. M. Summers, Box P, Notre Dame, Ind.

Awaiting Plans For New Building

Mr. R. C. Hunt, who will soon commence the erection of a modern three-story apartment hotel on the site of the Imperial Hotel, is now awaiting the plans for the new building, and when he once decides upon the plans will soon have work on the building under way.

The site of the Imperial has long since been cleared of the ruins, and by the middle of the summer it is expected that the new structure will be well under way, and finished at the earliest possible moment.

FALLS DOWN STAIRS.

Mrs. Fred Swartz, North North street, fell down stairs last night, breaking her left arm and suffering very painful bruises. She is quite badly injured and suffering greatly.

Odd Fellows Adopt Plans

The Milledgeville lodge of Odd Fellows adopted plans for their new building at a recent meeting, deciding to erect a two-story brick structure instead of a three-story building as at first contemplated.

The structure will be erected upon the site of the building destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, and will contain two business rooms on the first floor, and splendid lodge rooms on the second floor.

The basement will also be enlarged and large storage quarters arranged, so that fruit, vegetables and other goods of similar nature can be stored in large quantities.

The building will cost approximately $7,000 and the contract will be let and the work commenced within the coming month.

Owing to some little delay Milledgeville will not be lighted with electricity for a week or ten days.

DEATHS

WINGARD

Paul S. Wingard, aged 5 months, son of Sidney S. and Mattie Wingert, died Saturday morning, June 22, at 4:30 o'clock, at the residence on Oakland avenue. Burial will take place in Springfield Sunday.

OSWALD

John Oswald died Friday evening at his home in Muncie, Ind. The remains will be brought here on the 9:38 C. H. & D. train Sunday morning, and will be taken by Undertaker Klever to Bloomingburg, where the burial will take place at 2 p. m.

Plumbing. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

STUTSON'S

Special Bargain Giving Tonight

Extra Special Tonignt IN Lingerie Waists

98c BEAUTIFULLY MADE AND TRIMMED Sold $1.50. Tonight, 98c

We Are Showing a Selection of

Muslin Underwear

At Unequalled Values

Beautiful sheer materials — lace and embroidery trimmed.

Special value tonight in

Corset Covers

19c, 39c, 49c

Special values tonight in

Gowns

49c, 69c, 79c, 98c

WE CARRY THE

Kayser Glove

Absolutely the best silk glove on the market. Long and short gloves — white, black and colors

50c, 75c

$1.00, $1.50

OUR LINE OF

Corsets

Includes the leading makes in the most fashionable models

Come and See Us Tonight

FRANK L. STUTSON

Order only the original well known

Neverdust

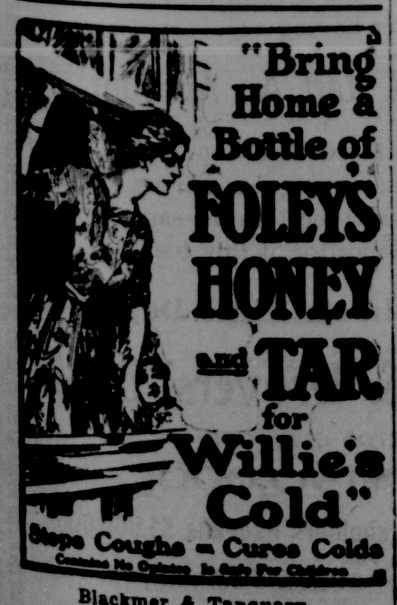
A sanitary sweeping compound. Put up in two kinds. No. 1 for floors, linoleums, etc. No. 2 for carpets and rugs.

Beware of Substitutes. Manufactured and for Sale by

The Neverdust Mfg. Co.

Or The M. C. Ortman Grocery

Washington C. H., O.



Blackmer & Tanquary.

THE OLD RELIABLE

STILL IN THE LEAD

We have nice green beans, sugar peas, cucumbers, new beets, new potatoes, tomatoes, nice strawberries, pine apples, gooseberries, oranges and bananas. Swift's premium bacon, also the English cured bacon, very fine, 20c per lb., nice smoked bacon, 16c per lb. See us, we are your friends. Yours,

J. W. DUFFEE & CO.

The Old Reliable Cash Grocers, Both phones No. 77.

History of Speech Made Under Famous Logan Elm

Why the Logan Elm in Pickaway County Is to Be Preservod by Pickaway County Historical Society---Speech of "Friend of the White Man."

The famous speech made under the Logan Elm in Pickaway county is a matter of United States history, but full details are lacking in the histories. The following excerpt from an article in a recent issue of the Chillicothe Advertiser is of absorbing interest.

The story of Logan comes down to us from the period of the Dunmore war. He had a cabin at old Chillicothe, on the Scioto. Though not a native of this region he was a moving spirit in its early history. His Indian name was Tah-gah-jute. He was a Mingo, a son of Skikellimus, chief of the Cayugas. The latter was a man of great force of character, of a noble mind and dignified and pleasing personality. These qualities he bequeathed to his son, who was said by Judge William Brown, of Mifflin county, Pennsylvania, to be the finest specimen of humanity he ever knew, whether red or white. John Logan, secretary of Pennsylvania, was a personal friend of Tah-gah-jute's father, and it was this friendship which caused Skikallimus to change his son's name to the nomenclature of the white man. Logan was born on the Susquehanna river, but he came to Ohio, with a few followers, in 1770, and settled among the Shawnees, and became in a manner, allied with them. His natural gentleness and conciliatory manner in treating with the alien race, as well as with his own, soon won for him the title "The Friend of the White Man." But for the everlasting reproach of our race be in said that it remained for some of the whites, by treachery, violence, and cruelty, to transform this noble and generous nature to one of sullen bitterness and hatred, and to change "The Friend of the White Man" into an implacable enemy.

On April 30, 1774, Danial Greathouse, treacherously and in cold blood, murdered and scalped a number of Indians at Baker's Station, at the mouth of Yellow creek, forty miles above Wheeling, W. Va. Among them were a number of Logan's relatives. About this time, it is said, Colonel Cresap led several unprovoked attacks upon peaceful parties of Indians, including women and children. Conflicting views are held as to Cresap's responsibility for all these outrages, and few authorities are found who exonerate him. Among these latter is George Rogers Clark, who, however, adds that the circumstances were such that it was impossible that Logan could think anything else than that Cresap was fully to blame.

Up to this time, a ten-years' peace had been maintained with the Indians, but the whites foresaw that these unprovoked murders would be avenged by the red men, and those who could not flee to a place of safety prepared for an attack. This came six weeks later. By the middle of July, the Shawnees and Mingoes and a small number of Cherokees and Delawares were on the war path, This led up to the Dunmore war, upon which, in the space at command, it is impossible even to touch, except in reference to the single point of Logan and his speech, under the branches of the American elm, which has since grown to be a veritable monarch of the forest, with a girth of more than twenty feet, its magnificent foliage sweeping out over a space of one hundred and fifty feet.

After the battle of Point Pleasant when Cornstalk returned to his village, in the Pickaway Plains, he called a council. He had, from the beginning, disapproved of war with the whites, but he now saw that they had gone too far to withdraw, unless immediate and absolute peace be made. At this meeting he urged his followers to accede to peace, if peace could be secured without loss of honor.

A council was also held at Camp Charlotte, Lord Dunmore's headquarters on the bank of the Scioto. The red warriers had been bidden to this council, and five hundred were present. Their faces were painted one-half red and one-half black, to indicate that they had no choice as to the outcome of the conference, although it is generally thought that they all really desired peace. All the chiefs came except Logan. Dunmore sent Colonel John Gibson to command the chief to come or to send a reason for his refusal.

Gibson says that when he arrived he found Logan present with the Shawnees. After the messenger had talked for a while with the other chiefs, the Mingo arose and motioned for him to follow. They advanced quite a distance in the forest, Logan silent and thoughtful. At length, seating himself on a log (and according to Williamson, one of Dunmore's soldiers, beneath an elm tree) the Indian with profound emotion spoke:

"I appeal to any white man to say, if ever he entered Logan's cabin hungry and I gave him not meat; if ever he came cold or naked and I gave him not clothing.

"During the course of the last long and bloody war, Logan remained in his tent an advocate for peace. Nay, such was my love for the whites that those of my own country pointed at me as they passed by and said, 'Logan is the friend of white men.' I had even thought to live with you, but for the injuries of one man. Colonel Creasap the last spring, in cold blood and unprovoked, cut off all the relatives of Logan, not sparing even my women and children. There runs not a drop of my blood in the veins of any human creature. This called on me for revenge. I have sought it. I have killed many. I have fully glutted my vengeance. For my country, I rejoice at the beams of peace. Yet, do not harbor the thought that mine is the joy of fear. Logan never felt fear. He will not turn on his heel to save his life. Who is there to mourn for Logan? Not one."

Upon his return to Camp Charlotte Gibson wrote out the Mingo chief's message and read it to Dunmore and his assembled officers, and when the last royal Governor of Virginia returned to that state, he repeated it to his friends. It created an immediate and profound sensation, both in this country and in Europe, being widely circulated in the newspapers of the day. The learned Thomas Jefferson was charmed with it. He said that it could not be surpassed by any single passage of either Demosthenes or Cicero, and, as an example of the high order of ability possessed by the Indians, he transcribed it in his notes on Virginia.

The Battle Is Now Opened

(Continued from Page One.)

the turning of Bryan from the Clark boom and the throwing of the commoner's support to Woodrow Wilson.

Eighty Seats Contested.

The Harmon and the Underwood boomers went around smiling. Mr. Taggart was plainly irritated over the turn the fight against Bryan had taken. "There was not the slightest disposition by anybody on the committee on arrangements," said Mr. Taggart, "to offend Mr. Bryan or anybody else. We selected Judge Parker because he had been at one time the party's nominee for president and because he always has been a good Democrat." Mr. Taggart further said he did not consider Judge Parker a reactionary.

"Mr. Bryan himself," continued Mr. Taggart, pounding one fist on top of the other, "could have been temporary chairman of this convention, but he wrote to Norman E. Mack saying that he did not want the place."

The seats of 82 delegates to the Baltimore convention are to be contested. The most important contests are in Illinois and South Dakota. In Illinois, contests will be waged against the eight delegates-at-large and district delegates from 11 congressional districts. The fight there is between the Roger Sullivan wing of the Democracy and the Hearst-Harrison wing, the latter being the contestants. In South Dakota, the contests involve 10 delegates and are between the Wilson men, who were elected on the face of the primary election returns, and Champ Clark's delegates, who lost by a few votes.

GAYNOR AND CLARK

Divide Public Attention at Baltimore. Drys After Latter.

Baltimore, June 22. — The familiar features of Mayor Gaynor were everywhere in evidence around the Emerson hotel. Attractive looking lithographs bearing the inscription "For President, William J. Gaynor of New York," divided attention with the lithographs portraying Wilson, Harmon and Clark.

A neatly printed pamphlet which purported to be issued by "The Democratic Association of New York, Jacob A. Cantor, Chairman," booming Gaynor, was also in evidence in large numbers, and those who called at the Gaynor headquarters were invited to take one. The book sketched the mayor's career from the time when he worked as a boy on a farm.

The Anti-Saloon league has declared war on Speaker Clark. From time to time the charge has been made that the brewing interests were contributing efforts and money to advance the speaker's candidacy.

The most noticeable manifestation of the war on Clark on account of his alleged backers was a statement put out attacking Clark by William M. Anderson of Baltimore, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league of Maryland. In it he asserted that the report that the liquor interests, especially the dealers, were backing Mr. Clark, had been confirmed.

Mr. Anderson charges that legislation backed by the Anti-Saloon league and the temperance people generally, intended to regulate and prevent the shipping of intoxicants by interstate commerce into prohibition territory, now pending in the house and senate, has been held up in the committee on the judiciary in spite of the most earnest efforts backed by temperance people everywhere.

PHOTO SUPPLIES

Of Every Description

Films, Plates, Papers and Chemicals

Ask For What You Want

Cameras $2.00 and up

Delbert W. Hays

MAN COUGHS AND BREAKS RIBS.

After a frightful coughing spell a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs had been broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonfuls ends a late cough, while persistent use routs obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or heals weak, sore lungs. "I feel sure its a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo., "for I believe I would have consumption today, if I had not used this great remedy." Its guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50-cent or $1.00 size at Blackmer & Tanquary.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE IN "ROUND ABOUT OHIO."

The "Round About Ohio" column in this morning's State Journal contains a highly entertaining cartoon of a moving picture film at which a man and woman in the audience are pointing, accompanying it with the following:

"An interesting coincidence is reported by The Fayette County Advertiser, which relates that Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murray, the prominent weekenders from Los Angeles, Cal., dropped in at the popular moving picture show in Washington C. H., shortly after their arrival the other evening and were surprised and, you may be sure, delighted to see, put right up there on the screen before their very eyes and just as plain as the nose on your face, a life-like counterfeit presentment of their own handsome residence in connection with a moving pictorial exhibition of scenic Los Angeles. Although Mr. and Mrs. Murray remained to see that particular roll of films a second time, they agreed that the old place hadn't changed a bit."

ENDS HUNT FOR RICH GIRL.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach-bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing try them. 50c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

Ice Cream Tastes Better $2.75

MADE AT HOME

4-Quart Size

The Dice-Mark Hdw. Co.

ABSOLUTE QUALITY

French Thrift Example of Saving

French thrift is proverbial and the wide distribution of wealth among the people is one of the marvels of the age. The small French investor confines himself pretty close to home securities and the custom of issuing all sorts of bonds in small demonations helps him greatly. But this is a mere detail. It is the way he saves, that is the marvel.

Money does not burn in the pocket of the average man or woman of France. The people have learned not to waste. This applies to food and clothing as well as to money itself. It is not hard to save something out of even a small weekly or monthly wage by applying the French principles.

When a young man in receipt of a fixed sum each week finds himself in possession of a small surplus just before payday, he should put it away and count himself so much ahead. Every week he should keep his expenses strictly within that week's income. If he refrains from spending a small sum for something he does not need he will soon get ahead. It is the spending of money, even a few cents just because it is in his pocket, that keeps him poor. He may have planned a Sunday excursion and laid by the money for it. If the weather keeps him home, he should refrain from spending that money on Monday just because he has it. If he gets the habit of saving such "found" money he will soon have something.

It is not the clothes they buy, the rents they pay or the food they eat that keeps most Americans poor. It is thoughtlessness, the drinks they buy when not thirsty, the cigars which they can do without, that leave them without bank accounts.

American women go shopping as a diversion. They buy things they do not need because they are "bargains." No matter how cheap a thing may be, the money paid for it is thrown away if it is not useful. That is where the French women saves, and why a bargain sale is not a feature of French shopkeeping outside of Paris, where it is sometimes introduced for the purpose of abstracting dollars from American purses. Bargains are all right if the goods are needed at the time, but ready money is a better asset than a lot of junk. Were that not so, there would be no real bargain sales. The merchants know.

DRAW OUT POISON.

Marvelous Antiseptic that Draws Glass, Wood and Needles from the Flesh.

There never was known such a powerful drawing ointment as San Cura. Wherever it has been used it has created astonishment. It drew a needle out of the foot of the daughter of Mrs. James Hitchcock, of Centerville, Pa., after the doctor had used his lance and failed.

Notning so healing or antiseptic can be purchased today. It possesses so much healing virtue that it is guaranteed by Brown's Drug Store to quickly cure any kind of piles, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, boils, carbuncles, ulcers, all kinds of chronic sores chilblains, and chapped hands, or money back.

It's a mighty handy remedy to have in the house in emergencies such as bruises, burns, cuts or scalds, because it kills the pain instantly. It's a medicine chest in itself—a little family physician that is ever in demand. 25c and 50c a jar at Brown's Drug Store.

BEST SKIN SOAP.

Is San Cura Soap, because of its great antiseptic and healing virtues. Use it regularly, and it will make the skin soft and velvety; will remove pimples and blackheads. It's the real soap for babies' tender skin, which mothers of infants should remember. 25 cents a large cake at Brown's Drug store.

Mail orders for San Cura Ointment and Soap filled by Thompson Medical Co., Titusville, Pa.

CHICHESTER S PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND. Ladies! Ask your Druggist for Chi-ches-ter's Diamond Brand Pills in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with Blue Ribbon. Take no other. Buy of your Druggist. Ask for CHI-CHES-TER'S DIAMOND BRAND PILLS, for 25 years known as Best, Safest, Always Reliable

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

SUMMER TOURS

PENNSYLVANIA LINES

30-DAY ROUND TRIP TICKETS TO

New York

Atlantic City Cape May

AND OTHER SEASHORE RESORTS

Direct Route or via Washington

ALSO VARIABLE ROUTE 60-DAY TICKETS TO

Boston and New York

Choice of Routes—All Rail Direct, or via Baltimore, Washington, Norfolk, Rail and Steamer

Go One Route—Return Another

LIBERAL STOP-OVERS

For particulars consult Pennsylvania Lines Ticket Agent

TRAVEL PENNSYLVANIA LINES COMFORT

D-876

Need For More Negro Doctors

Among the 9,000,000 Negroes of the South only one in 4,000 is a physician. That can mean only one thing—that the bulk of the colored population has not enough medical attention to keep well; for most Negroes do not employ white doctors when they are ill. And it means also that for lack of teachers, this race is lagging behind their neighbors in sanitation and in the simpler defense of modern hygiene. For this horde of unserved and untaught people only seven medical schools are provided, of which five are worthless, according to the recent report of the Carnegie Foundation on Medical Education in the United States. The remaining two schools, however—Howard at Washington and Meharry at Nashville—are commended as "worth developing." They offer instruction that equips graduates for useful and competent service. Meharry is open to graduates of high schools. Howard sets considerably higher entrance requirements—higher, indeed, than the requirements of many medical schools for white students—and maintains a standard of work that has called forth the praise even of Dr. William H. Welch and Dr. Henry S. Pritchett.

The students of these schools are in deadly earnest. Some of them make astonishing sacrifices to enable them to continue at their work. One of them, for example, has said: "For many months I have lived on a can of pork and beans a day. I would have pork and beans for breakfast, beans and pork for dinner, and at night I would wash out the can and have bean soup." Another student, who is now a successful physician in a Northern city, said: "I lived on $3 a month for some time before I graduated. I got pretty thin, but I stuck it out."

The colored physicians who have come out of these schools have been centers of light and service to their race. The need is for opportunity greatly to increase their number; and it is a crying and important need.—The World's Work.

Stability

Characterizes the Buckeye State Building and Loan Company, Rankin building, 22 West Gay Street, Columbus, Ohio. Its mortgages cover over twenty-five million dollars' worth of farms and Columbus homes. Home owners cling to their homes and pay the mortgages. So carefully has this company loaned its money it owns no real estate. Five per cent. paid on time deposits. Assets $5,700,000. Write or call for booklets.

We Welcome Small Depositors.

Because it is from the SMALL ACCOUNTS that the Large Accounts grow. If you wait until you have $100.00 or $200.00 before starting a bank account, the chances are about one in ten of your ever having one.

One Dollar Will Start An Account

Weaccept deposits from ONE DOLLAR up. The secret of success lies in the persistent regular saving of small amounts. The small depositor receives the same courtesy and attention as the large depositor at this bank.

Four Per Cent. Paid on Time Deposits

The People's & Drovers' Bank

OF WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO

Capital $150,000.

Unlimited Liability of Stockholders Exceeds $1,000,000.

HUMPHREY JONES, Prest. DUNCAN McLEAN, Vice-Prest

ROY T. McCLURE, Cashier.

History of Speech Made Under Famous Logan Elm

Why the Logan Elm in Pickaway County Is to Be Preservod by Pickaway County Historical Society---Speech of "Friend of the White Man."

The famous speech made under the Logan Elm in Pickaway county is a matter of United States history, but full details are lacking in the histories. The following excerpt from an article in a recent issue of the Chillicothe Advertiser is of absorbing interest.

The story of Logan comes down to us from the period of the Dunmore war. He had a cabin at old Chillicothe, on the Scioto. Though not a native of this region he was a moving spirit in its early history. His Indian name was Tah-gah-jute. He was a Mingo, a son of Skikellimus, chief of the Cayugas. The latter was a man of great force of character, of a noble mind and dignified and pleasing personality. These qualities he bequeathed to his son, who was said by Judge William Brown, of Mifflin county, Pennsylvania, to be the finest specimen of humanity he ever knew, whether red or white. John Logan, secretary of Pennsylvania, was a personal friend of Tah-gah-jute's father, and it was this friendship which caused Skikallimus to change his son's name to the nomenclature of the white man. Logan was born on the Susquehanna river, but he came to Ohio, with a few followers, in 1770, and settled among the Shawnees, and became in a manner, allied with them. His natural gentleness and conciliatory manner in treating with the alien race, as well as with his own, soon won for him the title "The Friend of the White Man." But for the everlasting reproach of our race be in said that it remained for some of the whites, by treachery, violence, and cruelty, to transform this noble and generous nature to one of sullen bitterness and hatred, and to change "The Friend of the White Man" into an implacable enemy.

On April 30, 1774, Danial Greathouse, treacherously and in cold blood, murdered and scalped a number of Indians at Baker's Station, at the mouth of Yellow creek, forty miles above Wheeling, W. Va. Among them were a number of Logan's relatives. About this time, it is said, Colonel Cresap led several unprovoked attacks upon peaceful parties of Indians, including women and children. Conflicting views are held as to Cresap's responsibility for all these outrages, and few authorities are found who exonerate him. Among these latter is George Rogers Clark, who, however, adds that the circumstances were such that it was impossible that Logan could think anything else than that Cresap was fully to blame.

Up to this time, a ten-years' peace had been maintained with the Indians, but the whites foresaw that these unprovoked murders would be avenged by the red men, and those who could not flee to a place of safety prepared for an attack. This came six weeks later. By the middle of July, the Shawnees and Mingoes and a small number of Cherokees and Delawares were on the war path, This led up to the Dunmore war, upon which, in the space at command, it is impossible even to touch, except in reference to the single point of Logan and his speech, under the branches of the American elm, which has since grown to be a veritable monarch of the forest, with a girth of more than twenty feet, its magnificent foliage sweeping out over a space of one hundred and fifty feet.

After the battle of Point Pleasant when Cornstalk returned to his village, in the Pickaway Plains, he called a council. He had, from the beginning, disapproved of war with the whites, but he now saw that they had gone too far to withdraw, unless immediate and absolute peace be made. At this meeting he urged his followers to accede to peace, if peace could be secured without loss of honor.

A council was also held at Camp Charlotte, Lord Dunmore's headquarters on the bank of the Scioto. The red warriers had been bidden to this council, and five hundred were present. Their faces were painted one-half red and one-half black, to indicate that they had no choice as to the outcome of the conference, although it is generally thought that they all really desired peace. All the chiefs came except Logan. Dunmore sent Colonel John Gibson to command the chief to come or to send a reason for his refusal.

Gibson says that when he arrived he found Logan present with the Shawnees. After the messenger had talked for a while with the other chiefs, the Mingo arose and motioned for him to follow. They advanced quite a distance in the forest, Logan silent and thoughtful. At length, seating himself on a log (and according to Williamson, one of Dunmore's soldiers, beneath an elm tree) the Indian with profound emotion spoke:

"I appeal to any white man to say, if ever he entered Logan's cabin hungry and I gave him not meat; if ever he came cold or naked and I gave him not clothing.

"During the course of the last long and bloody war, Logan remained in his tent an advocate for peace. Nay, such was my love for the whites that those of my own country pointed at me as they passed by and said, 'Logan is the friend of white men.' I had even thought to live with you, but for the injuries of one man. Colonel Creasap the last spring, in cold blood and unprovoked, cut off all the relatives of Logan, not sparing even my women and children. There runs not a drop of my blood in the veins of any human creature. This called on me for revenge. I have sought it. I have killed many. I have fully glutted my vengeance. For my country, I rejoice at the beams of peace. Yet, do not harbor the thought that mine is the joy of fear. Logan never felt fear. He will not turn on his heel to save his life. Who is there to mourn for Logan? Not one."

Upon his return to Camp Charlotte Gibson wrote out the Mingo chief's message and read it to Dunmore and his assembled officers, and when the last royal Governor of Virginia returned to that state, he repeated it to his friends. It created an immediate and profound sensation, both in this country and in Europe, being widely circulated in the newspapers of the day. The learned Thomas Jefferson was charmed with it. He said that it could not be surpassed by any single passage of either Demosthenes or Cicero, and, as an example of the high order of ability possessed by the Indians, he transcribed it in his notes on Virginia.

The Battle Is Now Opened

(Continued from Page One.)

the turning of Bryan from the Clark boom and the throwing of the commoner's support to Woodrow Wilson.

Eighty Seats Contested.

The Harmon and the Underwood boomers went around smiling. Mr. Taggart was plainly irritated over the turn the fight against Bryan had taken. "There was not the slightest disposition by anybody on the committee on arrangements," said Mr. Taggart, "to offend Mr. Bryan or anybody else. We selected Judge Parker because he had been at one time the party's nominee for president and because he always has been a good Democrat." Mr. Taggart further said he did not consider Judge Parker a reactionary.

"Mr. Bryan himself," continued Mr. Taggart, pounding one fist on top of the other, "could have been temporary chairman of this convention, but he wrote to Norman E. Mack saying that he did not want the place."

The seats of 82 delegates to the Baltimore convention are to be contested. The most important contests are in Illinois and South Dakota. In Illinois, contests will be waged against the eight delegates-at-large and district delegates from 11 congressional districts. The fight there is between the Roger Sullivan wing of the Democracy and the Hearst-Harrison wing, the latter being the contestants. In South Dakota, the contests involve 10 delegates and are between the Wilson men, who were elected on the face of the primary election returns, and Champ Clark's delegates, who lost by a few votes.

GAYNOR AND CLARK

Divide Public Attention at Baltimore. Drys After Latter.

Baltimore, June 22. — The familiar features of Mayor Gaynor were everywhere in evidence around the Emerson hotel. Attractive looking lithographs bearing the inscription "For President, William J. Gaynor of New York," divided attention with the lithographs portraying Wilson, Harmon and Clark.

A neatly printed pamphlet which purported to be issued by "The Democratic Association of New York, Jacob A. Cantor, Chairman," booming Gaynor, was also in evidence in large numbers, and those who called at the Gaynor headquarters were invited to take one. The book sketched the mayor's career from the time when he worked as a boy on a farm.

The Anti-Saloon league has declared war on Speaker Clark. From time to time the charge has been made that the brewing interests were contributing efforts and money to advance the speaker's candidacy.

The most noticeable manifestation of the war on Clark on account of his alleged backers was a statement put out attacking Clark by William M. Anderson of Baltimore, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league of Maryland. In it he asserted that the report that the liquor interests, especially the dealers, were backing Mr. Clark, had been confirmed.

Mr. Anderson charges that legislation backed by the Anti-Saloon league and the temperance people generally, intended to regulate and prevent the shipping of intoxicants by interstate commerce into prohibition territory, now pending in the house and senate, has been held up in the committee on the judiciary in spite of the most earnest efforts backed by temperance people everywhere.

PHOTO SUPPLIES

Of Every Description

Films, Plates, Papers and Chemicals

Ask For What You Want

Cameras $2.00 and up

Delbert W. Hays

MAN COUGHS AND BREAKS RIBS.

After a frightful coughing spell a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs had been broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonfuls ends a late cough, while persistent use routs obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or heals weak, sore lungs. "I feel sure its a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo., "for I believe I would have consumption today, if I had not used this great remedy." Its guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50-cent or $1.00 size at Blackmer & Tanquary.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE IN "ROUND ABOUT OHIO."

The "Round About Ohio" column in this morning's State Journal contains a highly entertaining cartoon of a moving picture film at which a man and woman in the audience are pointing, accompanying it with the following:

"An interesting coincidence is reported by The Fayette County Advertiser, which relates that Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murray, the prominent weekenders from Los Angeles, Cal., dropped in at the popular moving picture show in Washington C. H., shortly after their arrival the other evening and were surprised and, you may be sure, delighted to see, put right up there on the screen before their very eyes and just as plain as the nose on your face, a life-like counterfeit presentment of their own handsome residence in connection with a moving pictorial exhibition of scenic Los Angeles. Although Mr. and Mrs. Murray remained to see that particular roll of films a second time, they agreed that the old place hadn't changed a bit."

ENDS HUNT FOR RICH GIRL.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach-bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing try them. 50c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

French Thrift Example of Saving

French thrift is proverbial and the wide distribution of wealth among the people is one of the marvels of the age. The small French investor confines himself pretty close to home securities and the custom of issuing all sorts of bonds in small demonations helps him greatly. But this is a mere detail. It is the way he saves, that is the marvel.

Money does not burn in the pocket of the average man or woman of France. The people have learned not to waste. This applies to food and clothing as well as to money itself. It is not hard to save something out of even a small weekly or monthly wage by applying the French principles.

When a young man in receipt of a fixed sum each week finds himself in possession of a small surplus just before payday, he should put it away and count himself so much ahead. Every week he should keep his expenses strictly within that week's income. If he refrains from spending a small sum for something he does not need he will soon get ahead. It is the spending of money, even a few cents just because it is in his pocket, that keeps him poor. He may have planned a Sunday excursion and laid by the money for it. If the weather keeps him home, he should refrain from spending that money on Monday just because he has it. If he gets the habit of saving such "found" money he will soon have something.

It is not the clothes they buy, the rents they pay or the food they eat that keeps most Americans poor. It is thoughtlessness, the drinks they buy when not thirsty, the cigars which they can do without, that leave them without bank accounts.

American women go shopping as a diversion. They buy things they do not need because they are "bargains." No matter how cheap a thing may be, the money paid for it is thrown away if it is not useful. That is where the French women saves, and why a bargain sale is not a feature of French shopkeeping outside of Paris, where it is sometimes introduced for the purpose of abstracting dollars from American purses. Bargains are all right if the goods are needed at the time, but ready money is a better asset than a lot of junk. Were that not so, there would be no real bargain sales. The merchants know.

DRAW OUT POISON.

Marvelous Antiseptic that Draws Glass, Wood and Needles from the Flesh.

There never was known such a powerful drawing ointment as San Cura. Wherever it has been used it has created astonishment. It drew a needle out of the foot of the daughter of Mrs. James Hitchcock, of Centerville, Pa., after the doctor had used his lance and failed.

Notning so healing or antiseptic can be purchased today. It possesses so much healing virtue that it is guaranteed by Brown's Drug Store to quickly cure any kind of piles, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, boils, carbuncles, ulcers, all kinds of chronic sores chilblains, and chapped hands, or money back.

It's a mighty handy remedy to have in the house in emergencies such as bruises, burns, cuts or scalds, because it kills the pain instantly. It's a medicine chest in itself—a little family physician that is ever in demand. 25c and 50c a jar at Brown's Drug Store.

BEST SKIN SOAP.

Is San Cura Soap, because of its great antiseptic and healing virtues. Use it regularly, and it will make the skin soft and velvety; will remove pimples and blackheads. It's the real soap for babies' tender skin, which mothers of infants should remember. 25 cents a large cake at Brown's Drug store.

Mail orders for San Cura Ointment and Soap filled by Thompson Medical Co., Titusville, Pa.

CHICHESTER S PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND.
Ladies! Ask your Druggist for Chi-ches-ter's Diamond Brand Pills in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with Blue Ribbon. Take no other. Buy of your Druggist. Ask for CHI-CHES-TER S DIAMOND BRAND PILLS, for 25 years known as Best, Safest, Always Reliable

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

WHITE MOUNTAIN FREEZER

Ice Cream Tastes Better

MADE AT HOME

$2.75

4-Quart Size

The Dice-Mark Hdw. Co.

ABSOLUTE QUALITY

SUMMER TOURS

PENNSYLVANIA LINES

30-DAY ROUND TRIP TICKETS TO

New York

Atlantic City Cape May

AND OTHER SEASHORE RESORTS

Direct Route or via Washington

ALSO VARIABLE ROUTE 60-DAY TICKETS TO

Boston and New York

Choice of Routes—All Rail Direct, or via Baltimore, Washington, Norfolk, Rail and Steamer

Go One Route—Return Another

LIBERAL STOP-OVERS

For particulars consult Pennsylvania Lines Ticket Agent

TRAVEL PENNSYLVANIA LINES COMFORT

D-876

Need For More Negro Doctors

Among the 9,000,000 Negroes of the South only one in 4,000 is a physician. That can mean only one thing—that the bulk of the colored population has not enough medical attention to keep well; for most Negroes do not employ white doctors when they are ill. And it means also that for lack of teachers, this race is lagging behind their neighbors in sanitation and in the simpler defense of modern hygiene. For this horde of unserved and untaught people only seven medical schools are provided, of which five are worthless, according to the recent report of the Carnegie Foundation on Medical Education in the United States. The remaining two schools, however—Howard at Washington and Meharry at Nashville—are commended as "worth developing." They offer instruction that equips graduates for useful and competent service. Meharry is open to graduates of high schools. Howard sets considerably higher entrance requirements—higher, indeed, than the requirements of many medical schools for white students—and maintains a standard of work that has called forth the praise even of Dr. William H. Welch and Dr. Henry S. Pritchett.

The students of these schools are in deadly earnest. Some of them make astonishing sacrifices to enable them to continue at their work. One of them, for example, has said: "For many months I have lived on a can of pork and beans a day. I would have pork and beans for breakfast, beans and pork for dinner, and at night I would wash out the can and have bean soup." Another student, who is now a successful physician in a Northern city, said: "I lived on $3 a month for some time before I graduated. I got pretty thin, but I stuck it out."

The colored physicians who have come out of these schools have been centers of light and service to their race. The need is for opportunity greatly to increase their number; and it is a crying and important need.—The World's Work.

Stability

Characterizes the Buckeye State Building and Loan Company, Rankin building, 22 West Gay Street, Columbus, Ohio. Its mortgages cover over twenty-five million dollars' worth of farms and Columbus homes. Home owners cling to their homes and pay the mortgages. So carefully has this company loaned its money it owns no real estate. Five per cent. paid on time deposits. Assets $5,700,000. Write or call for booklets.

We Welcome Small Depositors.

Because it is from the SMALL ACCOUNTS that the Large Accounts grow. If you wait until you have $100.00 or $200.00 before starting a bank account, the chances are about one in ten of your ever having one.

One Dollar Will Start An Account

Weaccept deposits from ONE DOLLAR up. The secret of success lies in the persistent regular saving of small amounts. The small depositor receives the same courtesy and attention as the large depositor at this bank.

Four Per Cent. Paid on Time Deposits

The People's & Drovers' Bank

OF WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO

Capital $150,000.

Unlimited Liability of Stockholders Exceeds $1,000,000.

HUMPHREY JONES, Prest. DUNCAN McLEAN, Vice-Prest

ROY T. McCLURE, Cashier.

History of Speech Made Under Famous Logan Elm

Why the Logan Elm in Pickaway County is to Be Preserved by Pickaway County Historical Society---Speech of "Friend of the White Man."

The famous speech made under the Logan Elm in Pickaway county is a matter of United States history, but full details are lacking in the histories. The following excerpt from an article in a recent issue of the Chillicothe Advertiser is of absorbing interest.

The story of Logan comes down to us from the period of the Dunmore war. He had a cabin at old Chillicothe, on the Scioto. Though not a native of this region he was a moving spirit in its early history. His Indian name was Tah-gah-jute. He was a Mingo, a son of Skikellimus, chief of the Cayugas. The latter was a man of great force of character, of a noble mind and dignified and pleasing personality. These qualities he bequeathed to his son, who was said by Judge William Brown, of Mifflin county, Pennsylvania, to be the finest specimen of humanity he ever knew, whether red or white. John Logan, secretary of Pennsylvania, was a personal friend of Tah-gah-jute's father, and it was this friendship which caused Skikallimus to change his son's name to the nomenclature of the white man. Logan was born on the Susquehanna river, but he came to Ohio, with a few followers, in 1770, and settled among the Shawnees, and became in a manner, allied with them. His natural gentleness and conciliatory manner in treating with the alien race, as well as with his own, soon won for him the title "The Friend of the White Man." But for the everlasting reproach of our race be in said that it remained for some of the whites, by treachery, violence, and cruelty, to transform this noble and generous nature to one of sullen bitterness and hatred, and to change "The Friend of the White Man" into an implacable enemy.

On April 30, 1774, Danial Greathouse, treacherously and in cold blood, murdered and scalped a number of Indians at Baker's Station, at the mouth of Yellow creek, forty miles above Wheeling, W. Va. Among them were a number of Logan's relatives. About this time, it is said, Colonel Cresap led several unprovoked attacks upon peaceful parties of Indians, including women and children. Conflicting views are held as to Cresap's responsibility for all these outrages, and few authorities are found who exonerate him. Among these latter is George Rogers Clark, who, however, adds that the circumstances were such that it was impossible that Logan could think anything else than that Cresap was fully to blame.

Up to this time, a ten-years' peace had been maintained with the Indians, but the whites foresaw that these unprovoked murders would be avenged by the red men, and those who could not flee to a place of safety prepared for an attack. This came six weeks later. By the middle of July, the Shawnees and Mingoes and a small number of Cherokees and Delawares were on the war path. This led up to the Dunmore war, upon which, in the space at command, it is impossible even to touch, except in reference to the single point of Logan and his speech, under the branches of the American elm, which has since grown to be a veritable monarch of the forest, with a girth of more than twenty feet, its magnificent foliage sweeping out over a space of one hundred and fifty feet.

After the battle of Point Pleasant when Cornstalk returned to his village, in the Pickaway Plains, he called a council. He had, from the beginning, disapproved of war with the whites, but he now saw that they had gone too far to withdraw, unless immediate and absolute peace be made. At this meeting he urged his followers to accede to peace, if peace could be secured without loss of honor.

A council was also held at Camp Charlotte, Lord Dunmore's headquarters on the bank of the Scioto. The red warriers had been bidden to this council, and five hundred were present. Their faces were painted one-half red and one-half black, to indicate that they had no choice as to the outcome of the conference, although it is generally thought that they all really desired peace. All the chiefs came except Logan. Dunmore sent Colonel John Gibson to command the chief to come or to send a reason for his refusal.

Gibson says that when he arrived he found Logan present with the Shawnees. After the messenger had talked for a while with the other chiefs, the Mingo arose and motioned for him to follow. They advanced quite a distance in the forest, Logan silent and thoughtful. At length, seating himself on a log (and according to Williamson, one of Dunmore's soldiers, beneath an elm tree) the Indian with profound emotion spoke:

"I appeal to any white man to say, if ever he entered Logan's cabin hungry and I gave him not meat; if ever he came cold or naked and I gave him not clothing.

"During the course of the last long and bloody war, Logan remained in his tent an advocate for peace. Nay, such was my love for the whites that those of my own country pointed at me as they passed by and said, 'Logan is the friend of white men.' I had even thought to live with you, but for the injuries of one man. Colonel Creasap the last spring, in cold blood and unprovoked, cut off all the relatives of Logan, not sparing even my women and children. There runs not a drop of my blood in the veins of any human creature. This called on me for revenge. I have sought it. I have killed many. I have fully glutted my vengeance. For my country, I rejoice at the beams of peace. Yet, do not harbor the thought that mine is the joy of fear. Logan never felt fear. He will not turn on his heel to save his life. Who is there to mourn for Logan? Not one."

Upon his return to Camp Charlotte Gibson wrote out the Mingo chief's message and read it to Dunmore and his assembled officers, and when the last royal Governor of Virginia returned to that state, he repeated it to his friends. It created an immediate and profound sensation, both in this country and in Europe, being widely circulated in the newspapers of the day. The learned Thomas Jefferson was charmed with it. He said that it could not be surpassed by any single passage of either Demosthenes or Cicero, and, as an example of the high order of ability possessed by the Indians, he transcribed it in his notes on Virginia.

Ice Cream Tastes Better

MADE AT HOME

$2.75
4-Quart Size

The Dice-Mark Hdw. Co.

ABSOLUTE QUALITY

French Thrift Example of Saving

French thrift is proverbial and the wide distribution of wealth among the people is one of the marvels of the age. The small French investor confines himself pretty close to home securities and the custom of issuing all sorts of bonds in small demonations helps him greatly. But this is a mere detail. It is the way he saves, that is the marvel.

Money does not burn in the pocket of the average man or woman of France. The people have learned not to waste. This applies to food and clothing as well as to money itself. It is not hard to save something out of even a small weekly or monthly wage by applying the French principles.

When a young man in receipt of a fixed sum each week finds himself in possession of a small surplus just before payday, he should put it away and count himself so much ahead. Every week he should keep his expenses strictly within that week's income. If he refrains from spending a small sum for something he does not need he will soon get ahead. It is the spending of money, even a few cents just because it is in his pocket, that keeps him poor. He may have planned a Sunday excursion and laid by the money for it. If the weather keeps him home, he should refrain from spending that money on Monday just because he has it. If he gets the habit of saving such "found" money he will soon have something.

It is not the clothes they buy, the rents they pay or the food they eat that keeps most Americans poor. It is thoughtlessness, the drinks they buy when not thirsty, the cigars which they can do without, that leave them without bank accounts.

American women go shopping as a diversion. They buy things they do not need because they are "bargains." No matter how cheap a thing may be, the money paid for it is thrown away if it is not useful. That is where the French women saves, and why a bargain sale is not a feature of French shopkeeping outside of Paris, where it is sometimes introduced for the purpose of abstracting dollars from American purses. Bargains are all right if the goods are needed at the time, but ready money is a better asset than a lot of junk. Were that not so, there would be no real bargain sales. The merchants know.

SUMMER TOURS

PENNSYLVANIA LINES

30-DAY ROUND TRIP TICKETS TO

New York

Atlantic City Cape May

AND OTHER SEASHORE RESORTS

Direct Route or via Washington

ALSO VARIABLE ROUTE 60-DAY TICKETS TO

Boston and New York

Choice of Routes—All Rail Direct, or via Baltimore, Washington, Norfolk, Rail and Steamer

Go One Route—Return Another

LIBERAL STOP-OVERS

For particulars consult Pennsylvania Lines Ticket Agent

TRAVEL PENNSYLVANIA LINES COMFORT

D-876

Need For More Negro Doctors

Among the 9,000,000 Negroes of the South only one in 4,000 is a physician. That can mean only one thing—that the bulk of the colored population has not enough medical attention to keep well; for most Negroes do not employ white doctors when they are ill. And it means also that for lack of teachers, this race is lagging behind their neighbors in sanitation and in the simpler defense of modern hygiene. For this horde of unserved and untaught people only seven medical schools are provided, of which five are worthless, according to the recent report of the Carnegie Foundation on Medical Education in the United States. The remaining two schools, however—Howard at Washington and Meharry at Nashville—are commended as "worth developing." They offer instruction that equips graduates for useful and competent service. Meharry is open to graduates of high schools. Howard sets considerably higher entrance requirements—higher, indeed, than the requirements of many medical schools for white students—and maintains a standard of work that has called forth the praise even of Dr. William H. Welch and Dr. Henry S. Pritchett.

The students of these schools are in deadly earnest. Some of them make astonishing sacrifices to enable them to continue at their work. One of them, for example, has said: "For many months I have lived on a can of pork and beans a day. I would have pork and beans for breakfast, beans and pork for dinner, and at night I would wash out the can and have bean soup." Another student, who is now a successful physician in a Northern city, said: "I lived on $3 a month for some time before I graduated. I got pretty thin, but I stuck it out."

The colored physicians who have come out of these schools have been centers of light and service to their race. The need is for opportunity greatly to increase their number; and it is a crying and important need.—The World's Work.

The Battle Is Now Opened

(Continued from Page One.)

the turning of Bryan from the Clark boom and the throwing of the commoner's support to Woodrow Wilson.

Eighty Seats Contested.

The Harmon and the Underwood boomers went around smiling. Mr. Taggart was plainly irritated over the turn the fight against Bryan had taken. "There was not the slightest disposition by anybody on the committee on arrangements," said Mr. Taggart, "to offend Mr. Bryan or anybody else. We selected Judge Parker because he had been at one time the party's nominee for president and because he always has been a good Democrat." Mr. Taggart further said he did not consider Judge Parker a reactionary.

"Mr. Bryan himself," continued Mr. Taggart, pounding one fist on top of the other, "could have been temporary chairman of this convention, but he wrote to Norman E. Mack saying that he did not want the place."

The seats of 82 delegates to the Baltimore convention are to be contested. The most important contests are in Illinois and South Dakota. In Illinois, contests will be waged against the eight delegates-at-large and district delegates from 11 congressional districts. The fight there is between the Roger Sullivan wing of the Democracy and the Hearst-Harrison wing, the latter being the contestants. In South Dakota, the contests involve 10 delegates and are between the Wilson men, who were elected on the face of the primary election returns, and Champ Clark's delegates, who lost by a few votes.

GAYNOR AND CLARK

Divide Public Attention at Baltimore. Drys After Latter.

Baltimore, June 22. — The familiar features of Mayor Gaynor were everywhere in evidence around the Emerson hotel. Attractive looking lithographs bearing the inscription "For President, William J. Gaynor of New York," divided attention with the litographs portraying Wilson, Harmon and Clark.

A neatly printed pamphlet which purported to be issued by "The Democratic Association of New York, Jacob A. Cantor, Chairman," booming Gaynor, was also in evidence in large numbers, and those who called at the Gaynor headquarters were invited to take one. The book sketched the mayor's career from the time when he worked as a boy on a farm.

The Anti-Saloon league has declared war on Speaker Clark. From time to time the charge has been made that the brewing interests were contributing efforts and money to advance the speaker's candidacy.

The most noticeable manifestation of the war on Clark on account of his alleged backers was a statement put out attacking Clark by William M. Anderson of Baltimore, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league of Maryland. In it he asserted that the report that the liquor interests, especially the dealers, were backing Mr. Clark, had been confirmed.

Mr. Anderson charges that legislation backed by the Anti-Saloon league and the temperance people generally, intended to regulate and prevent the shipping of intoxicants by interstate commerce into prohibition territory, now pending in the house and senate, has been held up in the committee on the judiciary in spite of the most earnest efforts backed by temperance people everywhere.

PHOTO SUPPLIES

Of Every Description

Films, Plates, Papers and Chemicals

Ask For What You Want

Cameras $2.00 and up

Delbert W. Hays

MAN COUGHS AND BREAKS RIBS

After a frightful coughing spell a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs had been broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonfuls ends a late cough, while persistent use routs obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or heals weak, sore lungs. "I feel sure its a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo., "for I believe I would have consumption today, if I had not used this great remedy." Its guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50-cent or $1.00 size at Blackmer & Tanquary.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE IN "ROUND ABOUT OHIO."

The "Round About Ohio" column in this morning's State Journal contains a highly entertaining cartoon of a moving picture film at which a man and woman in the audience are pointing, accompanying it with the following:

"An interesting coincidence is reported by The Fayette County Advertiser, which relates that Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murray, the prominent weekenders from Los Angeles, Cal., dropped in at the popular moving picture show in Washington C. H., shortly after their arrival the other evening and were surprised and, you may be sure, delighted to see, put right up there on the screen before their very eyes and just as plain as the nose on your face, a life-like counterfeit presentment of their own handsome residence in connection with a moving pictorial exhibition of scenic Los Angeles. Although Mr. and Mrs. Murray remained to see that particular roll of films a second time, they agreed that the old place hadn't changed a bit."

ENDS HUNT FOR RICH GIRL.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach-bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing try them. 50c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

DRAW OUT POISON.

Marvelous Antiseptic that Draws Glass, Wood and Needles from the Flesh.

There never was known such a powerful drawing ointment as San Cura. Wherever it has been used it has created astonishment. It drew a needle out of the foot of the daughter of Mrs. James Hitchcock, of Centerville, Pa., after the doctor had used his lance and failed.

Nothing so healing or antiseptic can be purchased today. It possesses so much healing virtue that it is guaranteed by Brown's Drug Store to quickly cure any kind of piles, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, boils, carbuncles, ulcers, all kinds of chronic sores chilblains, and chapped hands, or money back.

It's a mighty handy remedy to have in the house in emergencies such as bruises, burns, cuts or scalds, because it kills the pain instantly. It's a medicine chest in itself—a little family physician that is ever in demand. 25c and 50c a jar at Brown's Drug Store.

BEST SKIN SOAP.

Is San Cura Soap, because of its great antiseptic and healing virtues. Use it regularly, and it will make the skin soft and velvety; will remove pimples and blackheads. It's the real soap for babies' tender skin, which mothers of infants should remember. 25 cents a large cake at Brown's Drug store.

Mail orders for San Cura Ointment and Soap filled by Thompson Medical Co., Titusville, Pa.

CHICHESTER S PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND.

Ladies! Ask your Druggist for Chi-ches-ter's Diamond Brand Pills in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with Blue Ribbon. Take no other. Buy of your Druggist. Ask for CHI-CHES-TER S DIAMOND BRAND PILLS, for 25 years known as Best, Safest, Always Reliable

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

Stability

Characterizes the Buckeye State Building and Loan Company, Rankin building, 22 West Gay Street, Columbus, Ohio. Its mortgages cover over twenty-five million dollars' worth of farms and Columbus homes. Home owners cling to their homes and pay the mortgages. So carefully has this company loaned its money it owns no real estate. Five per cent. paid on time deposits. Assets $5,700,000. Write or call for booklets.

We Welcome Small Depositors.

Because it is from the SMALL ACCOUNTS that the Large Accounts grow. If you wait until you have $100.00 or $200.00 before starting a bank account, the chances are about one in ten of your ever having one.

One Dollar Will Start An Account

Weaccept deposits from ONE DOLLAR up. The secret of success lies in the persistent regular saving of small amounts. The small depositor receives the same courtesy and attention as the large depositor at this bank.

Four Per Cent. Paid on Time Deposits

The People's & Drovers' Bank

OF WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO

Capital $150,000.

Unlimited Liability of Stockholders Exceeds $1,000,000.

HUMPHREY JONES, Prest. DUNCAN McLEAN, Vice-Prest

ROY T. McCLURE, Cashier.

SPORTING PAGE

News and Comment Worth While

Weekly Sport Letter

By C. H. Zuber

Cincinnati, June 22, 1912.

With the New Yorks holding first place in the National League by a large margin, the interest in the race in Tom Lynch's circuit now centers in second position, which is being hotly contested for by the Chicago, Pittsburg and Cincinnati teams. These aggregations are so closely bunched that a switch in places takes place almost daily, and this condition of affairs promises to continue for some time to come, as none of the three teams seems to have a noticeable advantage of its rivals. A pleasing feature of the Reds' work has been the improved form shown by the pitching department in recent games. Fromme, Benton, Humphreys and Suggs all developing good form in their recent battles, a condition that augurs well for the series of games which the team will play at home, beginning this week. These games also will have a decided bearing on the standing of the team in that a majority of those to be played early in the team's campaign on the local lot will be with the Pittsburgs, who, among other dates, will be here on Sunday, June 23—the first Sunday game the Reds have played on the home lot since the New Yorks were here, five weeks ago. The following Sunday Roger Bresnahan and his reorganized St. Louis Cardinals, will be the Reds' opponents.

Manager O'Day expects to show several new twirlers during the time the Reds are on the home grounds. The big man, Fletcher, looks more promising every time he is worked out, and he is likely to get several trials in the box in the near future. Cornwell, the left-hander from Huntington, W. Va., has made a good impression in his practice work, and is to have ample opportunity in regular games to demonstrate his ability. Cramer who was secured from the Frankfort team of the Blue Grass League, and who hails from Bedford, Ind., also is with the team and may be worked at any time. While none of these new men are touted as Mathewsons or Walter Johnsons, they have shown enough class to entitle them to serious consideration.

The fact that three or four clubs in the American League are giving the world's champions the dust at this time does not seem to be worrying Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics. Mack recalls the fact that his team worked to the top last season after a start no better than that which the team enjoyed this year, and he fully expects his gang to work the same system this season. None of his men have gone back; none are injured, and the team is practically the same as that which won the big honor last season, so that there seems to be no great reason to discount his optimism. Meanwhile the big sensation in the American is Clarke Griffith's Washington team, which, with a record of sixteen consecutive victories on the road, has established a record that will have to be shot at a long time before it is equalled.

Now comes a physician of New Mexico who declares that Jack Johnson's powers of endurance in the ring are limited, owing to the fact that he lacks chest expansion, and consequently is likely to be shy on steam if the fighting becomes at all boisterous. Flynn, on the contrary, is declared to be as near perfect as possible—perfectly healthy, sound in every respect, and with a chest expansion that will add greatly to his efficacy in a strenuous mix-up. At last accounts Johnson weighed 218 pounds and Flynn 196 pounds. According to Tommy Ryan, who has been working with Flynn, the Pueblo fireman will surprise the ring followers with his cleverness and strength when he meets the black champion on the morning of July 4 at Las Vegas, New Mexico.

With mermaids, sea gulls, lobsters and sharks as spectators, the 108 athletes now crossing the Atlantic on their way to uphold Uncle Sam's prowess in the Olympic games at Stockholm, Sweden, the latter part of this month and early in July, are giving daily exhibitions of their skill as stars of the track and field. A running track has been built on the Steamship Finland, while deck room also has been set off for the field events. Several days of unsettled weather have made this floating athletic field rather wobbly, but the men work out just the same, and promise to be in fine form to do their finishing training when they arrive in Sweden.

A new record for odds on a horse race was established at Latonia on Monday when the pari-mutual machines paid $942.75 for every dollar wagered on Wishing Ring in the sixth race. Only four bets were received on the horse at the track, each being for $2, so that the lucky ones carried away $1,885.50 as a reward for their confidence in the ability of the filly to beat her more prominent opponents. One of the lucky four was a woman. Four dollars were bet for place, netting each bettor $644.60 while 10 place bets netted $172.00. There was a total of $7,939 in the pool. The highest previous odds recorded on a winner were made at Chicago nearly twenty years ago on a horse called Peytonia.

C. H. ZUBER.

Had to Rename His Villa.

The residents of a certain suburb of Chicago were for a time governed by a passion for giving sweet, poetical names to their "estates." There was one such man who built a handsome villa, calling it "The Nutshell." Thus was the home introduced to his friends, and it became widely known. To the surprise of all, therefore, the name was one day suddenly changed to "Sylvan Nook," and a flood of inquiries soon began to pour in.

"Why have you given your home a new name?" a friend asked. "What was the matter with 'The Nutshell?'"

"I sickened of being joshed about it," said the owner, with a sigh. "There isn't a boy within two miles hereabouts who hasn't stopped and rung the doorbell to ask if the colonel was in."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Friday's Games The Reds Are Idle

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

AT NEW YORK—										R.	H.	E.
Boston	0	5	1	0	0	0	3	2	0	11	13	2
New York	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	1	3	7	4

Batteries—Wood and Cady; Quinn and Sweeney.

AT DETROIT—										R.	H.	E.
Cleveland	5	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	6	9	1
Detroit	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	2	4	2

Batteries—Blanding and O'Neill; Summers, Covington, Dubuc and Stanage.

AT PHILADELPHIA—										R.	H.	E.
Washington	5	1	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	8	12	5
Philadelphia	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	2	5	1

Batteries—Groome and Henry; Morgan, H. Barry, Parrell and Thomas.

AT CHICAGO—										R.	H.	E.
St. Louis	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	1	5	5
Chicago	0	1	3	0	0	0	2	2	*	8	8	2

Batteries—Allison, C. Brown and Stephens and Alexander; Walsh and Kuhn.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.
Boston	38	19	.667	Detroit	28	32	.467
Chicago	35	24	.593	Cleveland	25	30	.455
Washt'n	35	25	.583	N. York	17	34	.309
Phila	32	23	.582	St. Louis	16	39	.291

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

AT BROOKLYN—										R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	3	0
Brooklyn	4	0	1	0	0	1	1	0	*	7	11	1

Batteries—Seaton, Rexey and Killifer and Dooin; Rucker and Miller.

AT ST. LOUIS—										R.	H.	E.
Chicago	0	1	1	0	0	3	1	0	1	7	11	0
St. Louis	1	2	0	0	0	1	2	0	0	6	10	3

Batteries—Lavender, Cheney and Archer; Willis, Geyer and Wingo.

AT BOSTON—										R.	H.	E.
New York	0	2	0	0	2	0	1	0	0	5	9	2
Boston	0	1	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	10	2

Batteries—Marquard and Meyers; Perdue and Raridan.

AT CINCINNATI—Rain.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.
N. York	41	11	.788	Phila	21	27	.438
Pittsburg	30	22	.577	St. Louis	24	35	.407
Chicago	28	22	.560	Brooklyn	20	31	.392
Cin'ti	31	26	.544	Boston	18	39	.316

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

AT TOLEDO 5, Columbus 14.
AT KANSAS CITY 7, S. Paul 0.
AT MILWAUKEE 1, Minneapolis 2.
AT INDIANAPOLIS—Rain.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.
Toledo	43	23	.652	St. Paul	27	40	.403
Columbus	45	24	.652	Milw'kee	27	40	.403
Minne	39	26	.600	Ind'lis	26	40	.394
K. City	34	32	.515	Louisville	23	39	.371

OHIO STATE LEAGUE.

AT LIMA 4, Marion 9.
AT MANSFIELD 8, Newark 1.

HARRY M'INTIRE IS A BREWER

Sidearm Spitball Twirler Is Purchased From Chicago Cubs by Milwaukee Club.

Harry McIntire, who was a National league sensation a couple of years ago, was purchased from the Chicago Cubs. McIntire, who went to the Cubs from Brooklyn, was one of the star flingers of baseball until last season, when he failed to get in proper shape. He failed to regain his major league stride this spring so Chance decided to let him out.

Harry McIntire.

While McIntire may not be good enough for the major arena, Hugh Duffy thinks he will come back and fling fine ball in the association. He is a heady flinger and has a sidearm spitball, which is practically unhittable when working correctly.

The Dice-Mark Hardware Co., Awnings—Hammocks.

BASE BALL

Athletic Park

SUNDAY, JUNE 23.

CITY CHAMPIONS Of Springfield

WASHINGTON ATHLETICS

Game Called at 3:00 P. M.

Admission . . 15c

Ohio State League Scouts Come Here

Will Watch Work of Local Twirler Heironemus In Tomorrow's Game.

The baseball game tomorrow at the Athletic park between the local lads and Springfield's City Champions will be doubly interesting in that trained scouts from the strong Ohio State League will be here and watch critically the work of Washington's crack twirler, Heironemus.

This lad has been mowing down the batsmen of the opposing teams with that regularity and ease which has caused his reputation to spread beyond the limits of the county.

A corking good game of baseball is promised too, and the fans with ideal weather conditions, will have a fast game staged for their benefit, as well as an opportunity to enjoy the sensation of seeing a local hurler in action under the critical eye of experts, whose business is to see if he is ready for faster company.

By IRWIN M. HOWE, Official Statistician of the American League

GREATEST PITCHING TRIUMPH IN BASEBALL HISTORY

WHEN Adrian Joss, the tall school teacher who for years shared popular honors with Lajoie in Cleveland, shut out the Chicago White Sox, October 2, 1908, he scaled a height (all things considered) never reached by a pitcher in the history of major league ball. In the thirty-six years that have elapsed since the first big league game was played, three other men twirled games in which no opponent reached first base, but not under the same conditions.

Adrian Joss.

Back in the days when skillful batsmen were few and far between—in 1880 to be exact—Lee Richmond of Worcester pitched the first no hit, no man to reach first base game in organized baseball. The Cleveland team, to be avenged by Joss twenty-eight years later, was the victim. Five days later John Montgomery Ward, then the star twirler of Providence, in a game against Buffalo, linked his name with Richmond's, to remain undisturbed for twenty-four years. May 5, 1904, "Cy" Young defeated the Athletics, no man reaching the initial sack; the first feat of the kind in modern baseball.

In the generation that had passed since a like miracle had occurred the pitching distance had been increased one-third, the number of "balls" decreased from eight to three, while "scientific" hitting had become an art. Therefore it seemed that these three exhibitions were the acme of pitching skill and to that of Young in particular there was nothing to add.

It remained for Joss to surpass this record. Like his three great predecessors, he pitched a game in which all the batsmen did was to "walk right up and turn around and walk right back again." When Richmond, Ward and Young made their records there was nothing at stake except the game; Joss staged his all but impossible performance when the winning of a pennant hung on every pitched ball.

On the morning of October 2, 1908, the Chicago White Sox arrived in Cleveland for a two-game series. At that time the four western teams were in a fight that has had no parallel in the history of the American league. The proverbial blanket would have covered Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago and St. Louis, so closely were they bunched. Each team had only five games to play and the league flag was at stake on every play.

Ed. Walsh ascended the mound for the visitors and the greatest pitching duel in the history of the league began. A hit, a double-barreled error and a passed ball gave Cleveland a run in the third inning. That was all, but it was enough. The gyrating specter of nerve, courage and brains out on the slab was setting a new mark for rivals to shoot at, was holding back a team famed for its courage and run-getting ability, a team made desperate by the thought of victory almost within its grasp. In that situation Addie Joss was shutting out his most dangerous opponents without a hit, without a base on balls and, excepting the catcher, without any but the simplest aid from his fellow players.

Inning after inning was reeled off and the visitors were set down in order. When the immense crowd realized that the accidental run scored in the third round would bring victory if Joss could only last, the cheering became a steady roar. When the ninth opened and no single white-hosed athlete had yet reached first, the packed stands became a Bedlam.

White went to bat for the catcher and was thrown out at first. Donahue, another left-hand hitter, was sent up in place of Tannehill and struck out. John Anderson was the final hope of the White Sox. The big fellow tried desperately to break the spell. This was one of the two crises in the game in which the cool and smiling Addie needed a little help and Dame Fortune was his aid. Two fierce smashes went down the left field lines—both foul. Then Bradley picked up a gentle grounder, tossed it to first and ended the heart-breaking suspense.

Joss had won his greatest battle, had completed a feat never since equaled, and achieved a fame which will last when his other deeds have been forgotten.

(Copyright, 1912, by Joseph B. Bowles.)

My Worst Blunder

FAMOUS "BONEHEAD" PLAYS ON MAJOR LEAGUE DIAMONDS

Explained by Leading Baseball Players to

HUGH S. FULLERTON

By JIMMIE ARCHER.

Premier Catcher Chicago Cubs, Who Is Regarded as One of the Greatest Catchers the Game Ever Has Developed.

You know the funniest thing about the mistake I have in mind was that I didn't make it. I was saved by an accident from making the blunder. I won't say it was the worst mistake I ever made in my life, because you know these fans have long memories and they may recall one twice as bad that I've forgotten. Anyhow, they never would have forgotten that one if I had succeeded in making it as I planned to do.

It was in one of the world's series games between Detroit and the Cubs, when I was a member of the Detroit team. If you remember those games you will recall that everyone said the catchers were way off in their work. There always was an argument as to who was to blame, but I guess it doesn't make any difference now, and probably we all were more or less in the wrong. Schmidt was doing the bulk of the catching for us, and the crowd was sore on him, blaming him for mistakes, no matter who made them. I was on the bench, wild to get into some of the games, but of course not saying a word until called upon.

Jimmy Archer.

I would have given a leg to get in. You know the fellow on the bench, like the fellow in the grandstand, always can make any play better than the man on the field can. I felt that way. Finally my chance came. I guess I was anxious to pull off about nine plays an inning and get good. I had been watching the Cubs closely, and I knew they didn't know much about me, which would give me a better chance to pull off some play. I don't remember what inning it was, but the score was very close and both teams were fighting for the lead, realizing that a lead of even one run would give a tremendous advantage. Evers reached second base with one man out, and as I looked down I saw he was going way up on every pitch and threatening to steal third if I gave him half an opening or if the pitcher failed to watch him closely. I decided that on the next ball I would take a snap throw to second and try to grab him off the base before he could get back. I signaled for a fast ball, high and out, so as to make the throw quickly. I saw that Evers got a little better lead than usual. The ball came perfectly true, just where I wanted it. I probably was hurrying too much, for the ball struck in my mitt—and fell to the ground! I grabbed it and saw Evers flying toward third, and I shot down there, catching him easily. Evers had figured that I would try to catch him off second, so was going to third on the throw. If the ball had stuck in my hands instead of dropping out I would have thrown without looking at all, and Evers would have been sitting on third before the ball got to second. The muff of the ball had kept me from pulling one of the worst bonehead plays possible. Even now I can't see that it would have been as bad as it would have looked, but the crowd never would have given Evers the credit he deserved, and would have blamed me.

(Copyright, 1912, by W. G. Chapman.)

Want ads are profitable.

SPORTING PAGE

News and Comment Worth While

Weekly Sport Letter

By C. H. Zuber

Cincinnati, June 22, 1912.

With the New Yorks holding first place in the National League by a large margin, the interest in the race in Tom Lynch's circuit now centers in second position, which is being hotly contested for by the Chicago, Pittsburg and Cincinnati teams. These aggregations are so closely bunched that a switch in places takes place almost daily, and this condition of affairs promises to continue for some time to come, as none of the three teams seems to have a noticeable advantage of its rivals. A pleasing feature of the Reds' work has been the improved form shown by the pitching department in recent games. Fromme, Benton, Humphreys and Suggs all developing good form in their recent battles, a condition that augurs well for the series of games which the team will play at home, beginning this week. These games also will have a decided bearing on the standing of the team in that a majority of those to be played early in the team's campaign on the local lot will be with the Pittsburgs, who, among other dates, will be here on Sunday, June 23—the first Sunday game the Reds have played on the home lot since the New Yorks were here, five weeks ago. The following Sunday Roger Bresnahan and his reorganized St. Louis Cardinals, will be the Reds' opponents.

Manager O'Day expects to show several new twirlers during the time the Reds are on the home grounds. The big man, Fletcher, looks more promising every time he is worked out, and he is likely to get several trials in the box in the near future. Cornwell, the left-hander from Huntington, W. Va., has made a good impression in his practice work, and is to have ample opportunity in regular games to demonstrate his ability. Cramer who was secured from the Frankfort team of the Blue Grass League, and who hails from Bedford, Ind., also is with the team and may be worked at any time. While none of these new men are touted as Mathewsons or Walter Johnsons, they have shown enough class to entitle them to serious consideration.

The fact that three or four clubs in the American League are giving the world's champions the dust at this time does not seem to be worrying Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics. Mack recalls the fact that his team worked to the top last season after a start no better than that which the team enjoyed this year, and he fully expects his gang to work the same system this season. None of his men have gone back; none are injured, and the team is practically the same as that which won the big honor last season, so that there seems to be no great reason to discount his optimism. Meanwhile the big sensation in the American is Clarke Griffith's Washington team, which, with a record of sixteen consecutive victories on the road, has established a record that will have to be shot at a long time before it is equalled.

Now comes a physician of New Mexico who declares that Jack Johnson's powers of endurance in the ring are limited, owing to the fact that he lacks chest expansion, and consequently is likely to be shy on steam if the fighting becomes at all boisterous. Flynn, on the contrary, is declared to be as near perfect as possible—perfectly healthy, sound in every respect, and with a chest expansion that will add greatly to his efficacy in a strenuous mix-up. At last accounts Johnson weighed 218 pounds and Flynn 196 pounds. According to Tommy Ryan, who has been working with Flynn, the Pueblo fireman will surprise the ring followers with his cleverness and strength when he meets the black champion on the morning of July 4 at Las Vegas, New Mexico.

With mermaids, sea gulls, lobsters and sharks as spectators, the 108 athletes now crossing the Atlantic on their way to uphold Uncle Sam's prowess in the Olympic games at Stockholm, Sweden, the latter part of this month and early in July, are giving daily exhibitions of their skill as stars of the track and field. A running track has been built on the Steamship Finland, while deck room also has been set off for the field events. Several days of unsettled weather have made this floating athletic field rather wobbly, but the men work out just the same, and promise to be in fine form to do their finishing training when they arrive in Sweden.

A new record for odds on a horse race was established at Latonia on Monday when the pari-mutual machines paid $942.75 for every dollar wagered on Wishing Ring in the sixth race. Only four bets were received on the horse at the track, each being for $2, so that the lucky ones carried away $1,885.50 as a reward for their confidence in the ability of the filly to beat her more prominent opponents. One of the lucky four was a woman. Four dollars were bet for place, netting each bettor $644.60 while 10 place bets netted $172.00. There was a total of $7,939 in the pool. The highest previous odds recorded on a winner were made at Chicago nearly twenty years ago on a horse called Peytonia.

C. H. ZUBER.

Had to Rename His Villa.

The residents of a certain suburb of Chicago were for a time governed by a passion for giving sweet, poetical names to their "estates." There was one such man who built a handsome villa, calling it "The Nutshell." Thus was the home introduced to his friends, and it became widely known. To the surprise of all, therefore, the name was one day suddenly changed to "Sylvan Nook," and a flood of inquiries soon began to pour in.

"Why have you given your home a new name?" a friend asked. "What was the matter with 'The Nutshell?'"

"I sickened of being joshed about it," said the owner, with a sigh. "There isn't a boy within two miles hereabouts who hasn't stopped and rung the doorbell to ask if the colonel was in."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Friday's Games The Reds Are Idle

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

AT NEW YORK—										R.	H.	E.
Boston	0	5	1	0	6	0	3	2	0	11	13	2
New York	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	1	1	3	7	4

Batteries—Wood and Cady; Quinn and Sweeney.

AT DETROIT—										R.	H.	E.
Cleveland	5	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	6	9	1
Detroit	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	2	4	2

Batteries—Blanding and O'Neill; Summers, Covington, Dubuc and Stanage.

AT PHILADELPHIA—										R.	H.	E.
Washington	5	1	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	8	12	5
Philadelphia	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	2	5	1

Batteries—Groome and Henry; Morgan, H. Barry, Parrell and Thomas.

AT CHICAGO—										R.	H.	E.
St. Louis	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	1	5	5
Chicago	0	1	3	0	0	0	2	2	*	8	8	2

Batteries—Allison, C. Brown and Stephens and Alexander; Walsh and Kuhn.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.
Boston	38	19	.667	Detroit	28	32	.467
Chicago	35	24	.593	Cleveland	25	30	.455
Wash't'n	35	25	.583	N. York	17	34	.309
Phila	32	23	.582	St. Louis	16	39	.291

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

AT BROOKLYN—										R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	3	0
Brooklyn	4	0	1	0	0	1	1	0	*	7	11	1

Batteries—Seaton, Rexey and Killifer and Dooin; Rucker and Miller.

AT ST. LOUIS—										R.	H.	E.
Chicago	0	1	1	0	0	3	1	0	1	7	11	0
St. Louis	1	2	0	0	0	1	2	0	0	6	10	3

Batteries—Lavender, Cheney and Archer; Willis, Geyer and Wingo.

AT BOSTON—										R.	H.	E.
New York	0	2	0	0	2	0	1	0	0	5	9	2
Boston	0	1	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	10	2

Batteries—Marquard and Meyers; Perdue and Raridan.

AT CINCINNATI—Rain.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.
N. York	41	15	.788	Phila	21	27	.438
Pittsburg	30	22	.577	St. Louis	24	35	.407
Chicago	28	22	.560	Brooklyn	20	31	.392
Cin'ti	31	26	.544	Boston	18	39	.316

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

AT TOLEDO 5, Columbus 14.
AT KANSAS CITY 7, S. Paul 0.
AT MILWAUKEE 1, Minneapolis 2.
AT INDIANAPOLIS—Rain.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.
Toledo	43	23	.652	St. Paul	27	40	.403
Columbus	45	24	.652	Milw'kee	27	40	.403
Minne	39	26	.600	Ind'lis	26	40	.394
K. City	34	32	.515	Louisville	23	39	.371

OHIO STATE LEAGUE.

AT LIMA 4, Marion 9.
AT MANSFIELD 8, Newark 1.

HARRY M'INTIRE IS A BREWER

Sidearm Spitball Twirler Is Purchased From Chicago Cubs by Milwaukee Club.

Harry McIntire, who was a National league sensation a couple of years ago, was purchased from the Chicago Cubs. McIntire, who went to the Cubs from Brooklyn, was one of the star flingers of baseball until last season, when he failed to get in proper shape. He failed to regain his major league stride this spring so Chance decided to let him out.

Harry McIntire.

While McIntire may not be good enough for the major arena, Hugh Duffy thinks he will come back and fling fine ball in the association. He is a heady flinger and has a sidearm spitball, which is practically unhittable when working correctly.

The Dice-Mark Hardware Co., Awnings—Hammocks.

Ohio State League Scouts Come Here

Will Watch Work of Local Twirler Heironemus In Tomorrow's Game.

The baseball game tomorrow at the Athletic park between the local lads and Springfield's City Champions will be doubly interesting in that trained scouts from the strong Ohio State League will be here and watch critically the work of Washington's crack twirler, Heironemus.

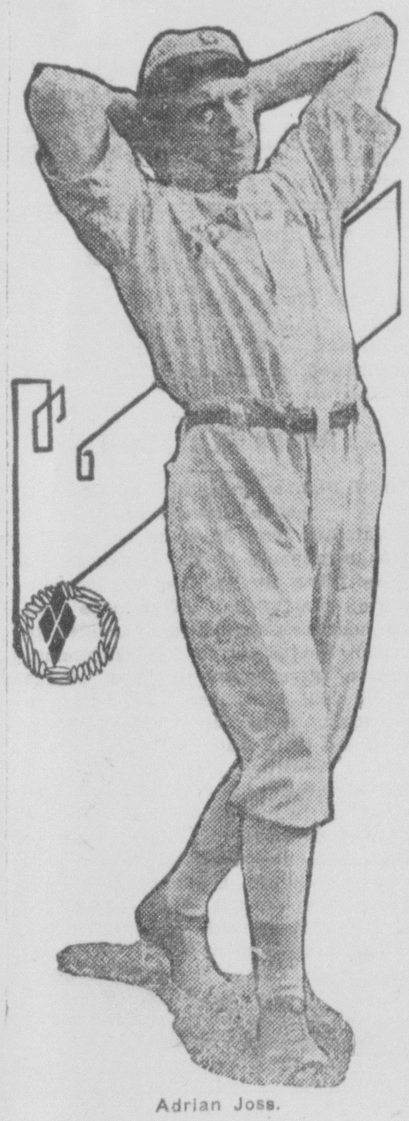
This lad has been mowing down the batsmen of the opposing teams with that regularity and ease which has caused his reputation to spread beyond the limits of the county.

A corking good game of baseball is promised too, and the fans with ideal weather conditions, will have a fast game staged for their benefit, as well as an opportunity to enjoy the sensation of seeing a local hurler in action under the critical eye of experts, whose business is to see if he is ready for faster company.

By IRWIN M. HOWE, Official Statistician of the American League

GREATEST PITCHING TRIUMPH IN BASEBALL HISTORY

WHEN Adrian Joss, the tall school teacher who for years shared popular honors with Lajoie in Cleveland, shut out the Chicago White Sox, October 2, 1908, he scaled a height (all things considered) never reached by a pitcher in the history of major league ball. In the thirty-six years that have elapsed since the first big league game was played, three other men twirled games in which no opponent reached first base, but not under the same conditions.



Adrian Joss.

Back in the days when skillful batsmen were few and far between—in 1880 to be exact—Lee Richmond of Worcester pitched the first no hit, no man to reach first base game in organized baseball. The Cleveland team, to be avenged by Joss twenty-eight years later, was the victim. Five days later John Montgomery Ward, then the star twirler of Providence, in a game against Buffalo, linked his name with Richmond's, to remain undisturbed for twenty-four years. May 5, 1904, "Cy" Young defeated the Athletics, no man reaching the initial sack; the first feat of the kind in modern baseball.

In the generation that had passed since a like miracle had occurred the pitching distance had been increased one-third, the number of "balls" decreased from eight to three, while "scientific" hitting had become an art. Therefore it seemed that these three exhibitions were the acme of pitching skill and to that of Young in particular there was nothing to add.

It remained for Joss to surpass this record. Like his three great predecessors, he pitched a game in which all the batsmen did was to "walk right up and turn around and walk right back again." When Richmond, Ward and Young made their records there was nothing at stake except the game; Joss staged his all but impossible performance when the winning of a pennant hung on every pitched ball.

On the morning of October 2, 1908, the Chicago White Sox arrived in Cleveland for a two-game series. At that time the four western teams were in a fight that has had no parallel in the history of the American league. The proverbial blanket would have covered Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago and St. Louis, so closely were they bunched. Each team had only five games to play and the league flag was at stake on every play.

Ed. Walsh ascended the mound for the visitors and the greatest pitching duel in the history of the league began. A hit, a double-barreled error and a passed ball gave Cleveland a run in the third inning. That was all, but it was enough. The gyrating specter of nerve, courage and brains out on the slab was setting a new mark for rivals to shoot at, was holding back a team famed for its courage and run-getting ability, a team made desperate by the thought of victory almost within its grasp. In that situation Addie Joss was shutting out his most dangerous opponents without a hit, without a base on balls and, excepting the catcher, without any but the simplest aid from his fellow players.

Inning after inning was reeled off and the visitors were set down in order. When the immense crowd realized that the accidental run scored in the third round would bring victory if Joss could only last, the cheering became a steady roar. When the ninth opened and no single white-hosed athlete had yet reached first, the packed stands became a Bedlam.

White went to bat for the catcher and was thrown out at first. Donahue, another left-hand hitter, was sent up in place of Tannehill and struck out. John Anderson was the final hope of the White Sox. The big fellow tried desperately to break the spell. This was one of the two crises in the game in which the cool and smiling Addie needed a little help and Dame Fortune was his aid. Two fierce smashes went down the left field lines—both foul. Then Bradley picked up a gentle grounder, tossed it to first and ended the heart-breaking suspense.

Joss had won his greatest battle, had completed a feat never since equaled, and achieved a fame which will last when his other deeds have been forgotten.

(Copyright, 1912, by Joseph B. Bowles.)

My Worst Blunder

FAMOUS "BONEHEAD" PLAYS ON MAJOR LEAGUE DIAMONDS

Explained by Leading Baseball Players to

HUGH S. FULLERTON

By JIMMIE ARCHER.

Premier Catcher Chicago Cubs, Who Is Regarded as One of the Greatest Catchers the Game Ever Has Developed.

You know the funniest thing about the mistake I have in mind was that I didn't make it. I was saved by an accident from making the blunder. I won't say it was the worst mistake I ever made in my life, because you know these fans have long memories and they may recall one twice as bad that I've forgotten. Anyhow, they never would have forgotten that one if I had succeeded in making it as I planned to do.

It was in one of the world's series games between Detroit and the Cubs, when I was a member of the Detroit team. If you remember those games you will recall that everyone said the catchers were way off in their work. There always was an argument as to who was to blame, but I guess it doesn't make any difference now, and probably we all were more or less in the wrong. Schmidt was doing the bulk of the catching for us, and the crowd was sore on him, blaming him for mistakes, no matter who made them. I was on the bench, wild to get into some of the games, but of course not saying a word until called upon.

Jimmy Archer.

I would have given a leg to get in. You know the fellow on the bench, like the fellow in the grandstand, always can make any play better than the man on the field can. I felt that way. Finally my chance came. I guess I was anxious to pull off about nine plays an inning and get good. I had been watching the Cubs closely, and I knew they didn't know much about me, which would give me a better chance to pull off some play. I don't remember what inning it was, but the score was very close and both teams were fighting for the lead, realizing that a lead of even one run would give a tremendous advantage. Evers reached second base with one man out, and as I looked down I saw he was going way up on every pitch and threatening to steal third if I gave him half an opening or if the pitcher failed to watch him closely. I decided that on the next ball I would take a snap throw to second and try to grab him off the base before he could get back. I signaled for a fast ball, high and out, so as to make the throw quickly. I saw that Evers got a little better lead than usual. The ball came perfectly true, just where I wanted it. I probably was hurrying too much, for the ball struck in my mitt—and fell to the ground! I grabbed it and saw Evers flying toward third, and I shot down there, catching him easily. Evers had figured that I would try to catch him off second, so was going to third on the throw. If the ball had stuck in my hands instead of dropping out I would have thrown without looking at all, and Evers would have been sitting on third before the ball got to second. The muff of the ball had kept me from pulling one of the worst bonehead plays possible. Even now I can't see that it would have been as bad as it would have looked, but the crowd never would have given Evers the credit he deserved, and would have blamed me.

(Copyright, 1912, by W. G. Chapman.)

Want ads are profitable.

BASE BALL
Athletic Park
SUNDAY, JUNE 23.
CITY CHAMPIONS Of Springfield
WASHINGTON ATHLETICS
Game Called at 3:00 P. M.
Admission . . 15c

SPORTING PAGE

News and Comment Worth While

Weekly Sport Letter

By C. H. Zuber

Cincinnati, June 22, 1912.

With the New Yorks holding first place in the National League by a large margin, the interest in the race in Tom Lynch's circuit now centers in second position, which is being hotly contested for by the Chicago, Pittsburg and Cincinnati teams. These aggregations are so closely bunched that a switch in places takes place almost daily, and this condition of affairs promises to continue for some time to come, as none of the three teams seems to have a noticeable advantage of its rivals. A pleasing feature of the Reds' work has been the improved form shown by the pitching department in recent games. Fromme, Benton, Humphreys and Suggs all developing good form in their recent battles, a condition that augurs well for the series of games which the team will play at home, beginning this week. These games also will have a decided bearing on the standing of the team in that a majority of those to be played early in the team's campaign on the local lot will be with the Pittsburgs, who, among other dates, will be here on Sunday, June 23—the first Sunday game the Reds have played on the home lot since the New Yorks were here, five weeks ago. The following Sunday Roger Bresnahan and his reorganized St. Louis Cardinals, will be the Reds' opponents.

Manager O'Day expects to show several new twirlers during the time the Reds are on the home grounds. The big man, Fletcher, looks more promising every time he is worked out, and he is likely to get several trials in the box in the near future. Cornwell, the left-hander from Huntington, W. Va., has made a good impression in his practice work, and is to have ample opportunity in regular games to demonstrate his ability. Cramer who was secured from the Frankfort team of the Blue Grass League, and who hails from Bedford, Ind., also is with the team and may be worked at any time. While none of these new men are touted as Mathewsons or Walter Johnsons, they have shown enough class to entitle them to serious consideration.

The fact that three or four clubs in the American League are giving the world's champions the dust at this time does not seem to be worrying Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics. Mack recalls the fact that his team worked to the top last season after a start no better than that which the team enjoyed this year, and he fully expects his gang to work the same system this season. None of his men have gone back; none are injured, and the team is practically the same as that which won the big honor last season, so that there seems to be no great reason to discount his optimism. Meanwhile the big sensation in the American is Clarke Griffith's Washington team, which, with a record of sixteen consecutive victories on the road, has established a record that will have to be shot at a long time before it is equalled.

Now comes a physician of New Mexico who declares that Jack Johnson's powers of endurance in the ring are limited, owing to the fact that he lacks chest expansion, and consequently is likely to be shy on steam if the fighting becomes at all boisterous. Flynn, on the contrary, is declared to be as near perfect as possible—perfectly healthy, sound in every respect, and with a chest expansion that will add greatly to his efficacy in a strenuous mix-up. At last accounts Johnson weighed 218 pounds and Flynn 196 pounds. According to Tommy Ryan, who has been working with Flynn, the Pueblo fireman will surprise the ring followers with his cleverness and strength when he meets the black champion on the morning of July 4 at Las Vegas, New Mexico.

With mermaids, sea gulls, lobsters and sharks as spectators, the 108 athletes now crossing the Atlantic on their way to uphold Uncle Sam's prowess in the Olympic games at Stockholm, Sweden, the latter part of this month and early in July, are giving daily exhibitions of their skill as stars of the track and field. A running track has been built on the Steamship Finland, while deck room also has been set off for the field events. Several days of unsettled weather have made this floating athletic field rather wobbly, but the men work out just the same, and promise to be in fine form to do their finishing training when they arrive in Sweden.

A new record for odds on a horse race was established at Latonia on Monday when the pari-mutual machines paid $942.75 for every dollar wagered on Wishing Ring in the sixth race. Only four bets were received on the horse at the track, each being for $2, so that the lucky ones carried away $1,885.50 as a reward for their confidence in the ability of the filly to beat her more prominent opponents. One of the lucky four was a woman. Four dollars were bet for place, netting each bettor $644.60 while 10 place bets netted $172.00. There was a total of $7,939 in the pool. The highest previous odds recorded on a winner were made at Chicago nearly twenty years ago on a horse called Peytonia.

C. H. ZUBER.

Had to Rename His Villa.

The residents of a certain suburb of Chicago were for a time governed by a passion for giving sweet, poetical names to their "estates." There was one such man who built a handsome villa, calling it "The Nutshell." Thus was the home introduced to his friends, and it became widely known. To the surprise of all, therefore, the name was one day suddenly changed to "Sylvan Nook," and a flood of inquiries soon began to pour in.

"Why have you given your home a new name?" a friend asked. "What was the matter with 'The Nutshell?'"

"I sickened of being joshed about it," said the owner, with a sigh. "There isn't a boy within two miles hereabouts who hasn't stopped and rung the doorbell to ask if the colonel was in."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Friday's Games The Reds Are Idle

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

AT NEW YORK—				R.	H.	E.
Boston	0 5 1 0 0 0 3 2 0			11	13	2
New York	0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 1			3	7	4

Batteries—Wood and Cady; Quinn and Sweeney.

AT DETROIT—				R.	H.	E.
Cleveland	5 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0			6	9	1
Detroit	0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0			2	4	2

Batteries—Blanding and O'Neill; Summers, Covington, Dubuc and Stanage.

AT PHILADELPHIA—				R.	H.	E.
Washington	5 1 0 0 0 2 0 0 0			8	12	5
Philadelphia	1 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0			2	5	1

Batteries—Groome and Henry; Morgan, H. Barry, Parrell and Thomas.

AT CHICAGO—				R.	H.	E.
St. Louis	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1			1	5	5
Chicago	0 1 3 0 0 0 2 2 *			8	8	2

Batteries—Allison, C. Brown and Stephens and Alexander; Walsh and Kuhn.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.
Boston	38	19	.667	Detroit	28	32	.467
Chicago	35	24	.593	Cleveland	25	30	.455
Washi'n	35	25	.583	N. York	17	34	.309
Phila	32	23	.582	St. Louis	16	39	.291

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

AT BROOKLYN—				R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0			0	3	0
Brooklyn	4 0 1 0 0 1 1 0 *			7	11	1

Batteries—Seaton, Rexey and Killifer and Doolin; Rucker and Miller.

AT ST. LOUIS—				R.	H.	E.
Chicago	0 1 1 0 0 3 1 0 1			7	11	0
St. Louis	1 2 0 0 0 1 2 0 0			6	10	3

Batteries—Lavender, Cheney and Archer; Willis, Geyer and Wingo.

AT BOSTON—				R.	H.	E.
New York	0 2 0 0 2 0 1 0 0			5	9	2
Boston	0 1 1 0 0 0 0 0 0			2	10	2

Batteries—Marquard and Meyers; Perdue and Raridan.

AT CINCINNATI—Rain.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.
N. York	41	15	.788	Phila	21	27	.438
Pittsburg	30	22	.577	St. Louis	24	35	.407
Chicago	28	22	.560	Brooklyn	20	31	.392
Cin'ti	31	26	.544	Boston	18	39	.316

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

AT TOLEDO 5, Columbus 14.
AT KANSAS CITY 7, S. Paul 0.
AT MILWAUKEE 1, Minneapolis 2.
AT INDIANAPOLIS—Rain.

CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.	CLUBS.	W.	L.	PC.
Toledo	43	23	.652	St. Paul	27	40	.403
Columbus	45	24	.652	Milw'kee	27	40	.403
Minne	39	26	.600	Ind'lis	26	40	.394
K. City	34	32	.515	Louisville	23	39	.371

OHIO STATE LEAGUE.

AT LIMA 4, Marion 9.
AT MANSFIELD 8, Newark 1.

HARRY M'INTIRE IS A BREWER

Sidearm Spitball Twirler Is Purchased From Chicago Cubs by Milwaukee Club.

Harry McIntire, who was a National league sensation a couple of years ago, was purchased from the Chicago Cubs. McIntire, who went to the Cubs from Brooklyn, was one of the star flingers of baseball until last season, when he failed to get in proper shape. He failed to regain his major league stride this spring so Chance decided to let him out.

Harry McIntire.

While McIntire may not be good enough for the major arena, Hugh Duffy thinks he will come back and fling fine ball in the association. He is a heady flinger and has a sidearm spitball, which is practically unhittable when working correctly.

The Dice-Mark Hardware Co., Awnings—Hammocks.

BASE BALL

Athletic Park

SUNDAY, JUNE 23.

CITY CHAMPIONS Of Springfield

WASHINGTON ATHLETICS

Game Called at 3:00 P. M.

Admission . . 15c

Ohio State League Scouts Come Here

Will Watch Work of Local Twirler Heironemus In Tomorrow's Game.

The baseball game tomorrow at the Athletic park between the local lads and Springfield's City Champions will be doubly interesting in that trained scouts from the strong Ohio State League will be here and watch critically the work of Washington's crack twirler, Heironemus.

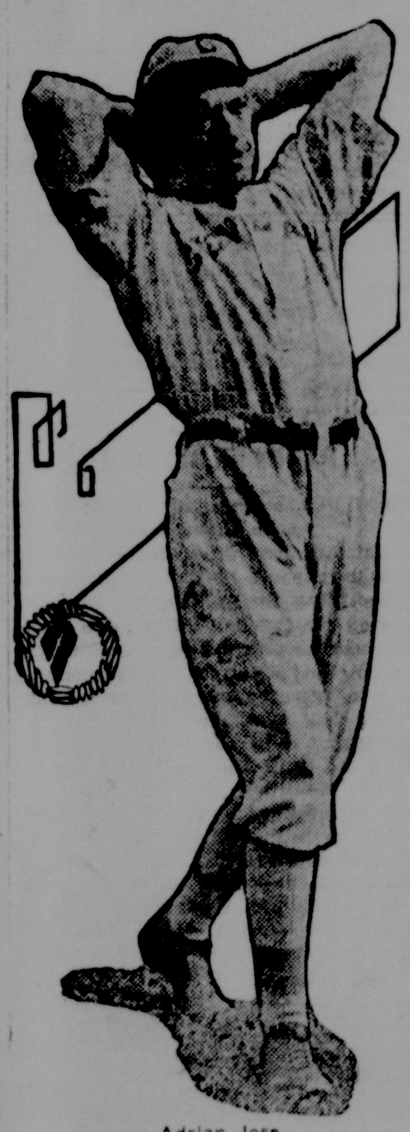
This lad has been mowing down the batsmen of the opposing teams with that regularity and ease which has caused his reputation to spread beyond the limits of the county.

A corking good game of baseball is promised too, and the fans with ideal weather conditions, will have a fast game staged for their benefit, as well as an opportunity to enjoy the sensation of seeing a local hurler in action under the critical eye of experts, whose business is to see if he is ready for faster company.

By IRWIN M. HOWE, Official Statistician of the American League

GREATEST PITCHING TRIUMPH IN BASEBALL HISTORY

WHEN Adrian Joss, the tall school teacher who for years shared popular honors with Lajoie in Cleveland, shut out the Chicago White Sox, October 2, 1908, he scaled a height (all things considered) never reached by a pitcher in the history of major league ball. In the thirty-six years that have elapsed since the first big league game was played, three other men twirled games in which no opponent reached first base, but not under the same conditions.



Adrian Joss.

Back in the days when skillful batsmen were few and far between—in 1880 to be exact—Lee Richmond of Worcester pitched the first no hit, no man to reach first base game in organized baseball. The Cleveland team, to be avenged by Joss twenty-eight years later, was the victim. Five days later John Montgomery Ward, then the star twirler of Providence, in a game against Buffalo, linked his name with Richmond's, to remain undisturbed for twenty-four years. May 5, 1904, "Cy" Young defeated the Athletics, no man reaching the initial sack; the first feat of the kind in modern baseball.

In the generation that had passed since a like miracle had occurred the pitching distance had been increased one-third, the number of "balls" decreased from eight to three, while "scientific" hitting had become an art. Therefore it seemed that these three exhibitions were the acme of pitching skill and to that of Young in particular there was nothing to add.

It remained for Joss to surpass this record. Like his three great predecessors, he pitched a game in which all the batsmen did was to "walk right up and turn around and walk right back again." When Richmond, Ward and Young made their records there was nothing at stake except the game; Joss staged his all but impossible performance when the winning of a pennant hung on every pitched ball.

On the morning of October 2, 1908, the Chicago White Sox arrived in Cleveland for a two-game series. At that time the four western teams were in a fight that has had no parallel in the history of the American league. The proverbial blanket would have covered Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago and St. Louis, so closely were they bunched. Each team had only five games to play and the league flag was at stake on every play.

Ed. Walsh ascended the mound for the visitors and the greatest pitching duel in the history of the league began. A hit, a double-barreled error and a passed ball gave Cleveland a run in the third inning. That was all, but it was enough. The gyrating specter of nerve, courage and brains out on the slab was setting a new mark for rivals to shoot at, was holding back a team famed for its courage and run-getting ability, a team made desperate by the thought of victory almost within its grasp. In that situation Addie Joss was shutting out his most dangerous opponents without a hit, without a base on balls and, excepting the catcher, without any but the simplest aid from his fellow players.

Inning after inning was reeled off and the visitors were set down in order. When the immense crowd realized that the accidental run scored in the third round would bring victory if Joss could only last, the cheering became a steady roar. When the ninth opened and no single white-hosed athlete had yet reached first, the packed stands became a Bedlam.

White went to bat for the catcher and was thrown out at first. Donahue, another left-hand hitter, was sent up in place of Tannehill and struck out. John Anderson was the final hope of the White Sox. The big fellow tried desperately to break the spell. This was one of the two crises in the game in which the cool and smiling Addie needed a little help and Dame Fortune was his aid. Two fierce smashes went down the left field lines—both foul. Then Bradley picked up a gentle grounder, tossed it to first and ended the heart-breaking suspense.

Joss had won his greatest battle, had completed a feat never since equaled, and achieved a fame which will last when his other deeds have been forgotten.

(Copyright, 1912, by Joseph B. Bowles.)

My Worst Blunder

FAMOUS "BONEHEAD" PLAYS ON MAJOR LEAGUE DIAMONDS

Explained by Leading Baseball Players to

HUGH S. FULLERTON

By JIMMIE ARCHER.

Premier Catcher Chicago Cubs, Who Is Regarded as One of the Greatest Catchers the Game Ever Has Developed.

You know the funniest thing about the mistake I have in mind was that I didn't make it. I was saved by an accident from making the blunder. I won't say it was the worst mistake I ever made in my life, because you know these fans have long memories and they may recall one twice as bad that I've forgotten. Anyhow, they never would have forgotten that one if I had succeeded in making it as I planned to do.

It was in one of the world's series games between Detroit and the Cubs, when I was a member of the Detroit team. If you remember those games you will recall that everyone said the catchers were way off in their work. There always was an argument as to who was to blame, but I guess it doesn't make any difference now, and probably we all were more or less in the wrong. Schmidt was doing the bulk of the catching for us, and the crowd was sore on him, blaming him for mistakes, no matter who made them. I was on the bench, wild to get into some of the games, but of course not saying a word until called upon.

Jimmy Archer.

I would have given a leg to get in. You know the fellow on the bench, like the fellow in the grandstand, always can make any play better than the man on the field can. I felt that way. Finally my chance came. I guess I was anxious to pull off about nine plays an inning and get good. I had been watching the Cubs closely, and I knew they didn't know much about me, which would give me a better chance to pull off some play. I don't remember what inning it was, but the score was very close and both teams were fighting for the lead, realizing that a lead of even one run would give a tremendous advantage. Evers reached second base with one man out, and as I looked down I saw he was going way up on every pitch and threatening to steal third if I gave him half an opening or if the pitcher failed to watch him closely. I decided that on the next ball I would take a snap throw to second and try to grab him off the base before he could get back. I signaled for a fast ball, high and out, so as to make the throw quickly. I saw that Evers got a little better lead than usual. The ball came perfectly true, just where I wanted it. I probably was hurrying too much, for the ball struck in my mitt—and fell to the ground! I grabbed it and saw Evers flying toward third, and I shot down there, catching him easily. Evers had figured that I would try to catch him off second, so was going to third on the throw. If the ball had stuck in my hands instead of dropping out I would have thrown without looking at all, and Evers would have been sitting on third before the ball got to second. The muff of the ball had kept me from pulling one of the worst bonehead plays possible. Even now I can't see that it would have been as bad as it would have looked, but the crowd never would have given Evers the credit he deserved, and would have blamed me.

(Copyright, 1912, by W. G. Chapman.)

Want ads are profitable.

Classified

RATES PER WORD.

1 time in Daily Herald 1c
6t in Herald & 1t in Register... 3c
12t in Herald & 2t in Register... 4c
26t in Herald & 4t in Register... 6c
52t in Herald & 8t in Register...10c
Proportionate rates for longer time

Minimum charges: 1t 15c; 6t 30c.

SITUATIONS WANTED.

WANTED—A position with good family to do housework. Address E., care of Herald office.

WANTED—Job as chauffeur in garage or private family. Address "A", 518 E. Market street. 146 6t

WANTED.

WANTED—By Monday morning, three or four lady solicitors, to sell a high-class product. Straight salary paid. Call opposite K. of P. hall, 217 North Fayette street, city. P. T. Dagy, Manager.

WANTED—Boy for Sunday newspaper route. B. F. Leland. 148 2t

WANTED—Girls at the Mitten factory. Inskeep Mfg Co. 144 12t

WANTED—A good trustworthy man to work on farm. Address "M", care Herald office. 144 6t

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Modern furnished room, suitable for light house-keeping, if wanted. Apply at Stinson Conservatory. 148 6t

FOR RENT—Apartment of four rooms; furnished or unfurnished. All conveniences. Apply to D. H. Van Winkle. 147 6t

FOR RENT—Furnished room in modern home. Mrs. H. H. Sanderson 361 E. Court St. 146 6t

FOR RENT—By July 3rd, house of 5 rooms, pantry and gas, in fine condition. On Sycamore street. Mrs. C. E. McKee, East street. 145 6t

FOR RENT—3-room house. O. K. Barber shop. Citizens phone 768. 137 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A sample wagon, extra sound and in good condition; a bargain. See L. Eggleston, Dennis Bldg. 149 6t

FOR SALE—7-room house, corner Main and Elm; also two 4-room houses on same lot. Will sell one or all. Inquire Mrs. Margaret Donnelly in property. 149 30t

FOR SALE—750 concrete blocks, 7 1-2 and 8 1-2 cents. Citz. 2654, if sold at once. Daniel Baker. 148 6t

FOR SALE—7-room house with bath, on Washington avenue, lot 55 by 165 feet. Price right if sold at once. Inquire of B. A. Schadel, at Dahl-Millikan office. 144 6t

FOR SALE—Plumbing material at better prices than ever before. E. T. Evans & Co. Citz. 1128; Bell 86R. 132 tf

FOR SALE—One square piano. 228 N. Fayette St. 82 tf

FOR SALE—Columbus Buggy Co. runabout, in good condition. Call at Geo. Cox & Sons livery barn. 95 tf

LOST.

LOST—Brass automobile cup Finder leave at Swope's garage. O. J. Mobley. 125 tf

MEAT MARKET.

We want your trade. Call and see us. Nelson, Craft & Co., phones, Bell 326-W; Citz. 508; corner Court and North streets. 144 6t

FOR SALE—Small stock of groceries and meats, doing nice business; well located in Columbus. Will sell right on account of health. Gertrude Eberhard, 690 St. Clair avenue, Milo, Ohio. 149 3t

MAKES THE NATION GASP.

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. Its the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

Now Rounding The Last Lap

(Continued from Page One.)

Chicago, June 22.—Coliseum.—That the Republican national convention will enter its permanent stage as an organization this afternoon was the announcement made by the Taft leaders when the delegates assembled for business this morning.

It has been decided to dispense with the permanent chairman's speech, Senator Root, who has been selected for that position, having decided that he covered the ground thoroughly in his address to the convention as its temporary chairman.

After the adoption of the new rules to be submited by the rules committee, over which there is expected to be considerable friction, the platform committee will make its report. After the adoption of the platform will come the nominations for president and vice president.

Comptroller Prendergast announced that he was not to present Colonel Roosevelt's name formally to the convention; that he had been requested by the colonel himself not to do so. The plan of the Roosevelt people, it appears, is to sit silent in the convention after the credentials report has been completed and adopted.

Chicago, June 22.—For president, William H. Taft; for vice president, Herbert S. Hadley. This at the present time is tipped off as the Republican national ticket to be nominated this afternoon.

After the events in the Republican national convention, during which all the Taft delegates were seated and during which the Taft delegates and every single chieftain in Chicago of President Taft's forces announced that the president would be renominated in the convention this afternoon or evening.

On one opinion the Taft forces and the Roosevelt forces coincide, and it is to the effect that Governor Herbert S. Hadley of Missouri will become the choice of the delegates of the convention for vice president.

The Taft managers, it was learned, have been deluged with telegrams from all over the country urging them that, now he had beaten Colonel Roosevelt for the nomination, they should unite in selecting a third candidate or a compromise candidate. They have also received hundreds of dispatches begging them and imploring them to stand by President Taft and to insist upon his nomination.

The Taft chieftains never for a moment have been lacking in fidelity to the cause of President Taft. They believe that from the hour of the president's renomination he will grow in strength and favor with the Republicans of the nation and be independent.

The narrow margin on the test vote in the convention on the California contests frightened President Taft's chieftains within an inch of their lives. On that ballot the total was 542 for the Taft contestants and 529 for the Roosevelt contestants. And there were only seven absentees. The Taft delegates on this main question of presidential nomination can be relied upon to stick to the president as long as he is a candidate for the nomination, in the judgment of the Taft leaders here, but what many of these Taft delegates state is, that inasmuch as Colonel Roosevelt has been beaten and the purpose of the Taft chieftains accomplished, the president should be magnanimous and remember that there are to be elections in most of the states this fall for governors, legislatures which are to elect United States senators, and elections for members of the house of representatives. Other delegates do not entertain these views and will not tolerate the hearing of them from their fellows.

An amazing climax to many came when Governor Stubbs of Kansas was leaving Colonel Roosevelt, and said:

"There will be no bolt. This talk of a bolt is foolish. Colonel Roosevelt never talked about a bolt. Our delegation and all other Roosevelt delegations will remain in the convention until the nomination is made, I believe. There can be no compromise candidate as far as we are concerned."

Convention Sustains Committee.

With the committee on credentials progressing in their work of determining the contests and with the convention acting upon the decisions of the committee, two test votes taken in the convention demonstrate that with the LaFollette and Cummins men voting against the Taft men, the latter on one test vote won by 569 to 499. On a second test vote with the LaFollette delegates and the Cummins delegates voting with the Taft men, the latter won by a vote of 605 to 469. The first test vote whereby the Taft men were victorious by 569 to 499 is the best evidence of the present strength of the president in the convention, in the estimation of influential Taft representatives.

JAMES E. WATSON

President Taft's Mainstay in Fight on Convention Floor.

© 1912, by American Press Association.

Mr. Watson is a former representative from Indiana and was chief parliamentarian for the Taft forces in the battle over the roll.

PARTY PLATFORM

Tariff Planks Engaging the Committee on Resolutions.

Chicago, June 22.—One by one the planks prepared by the subcommittee were taken up by the full committee on resolutions. After more than an hour's session it was decided to return the report to the subcommittee to redraft some of the planks which had been discussed. Two in particular were those having to do with the tariff and the inland waterways. A strong plea was made by the southern members for a stronger plank on inland waterways. Senator Burton appealed to the committee not to go too far in calling for government aid in this direction, however. The decision of the committee was not announced.

The full committee adjourned and in the meantime the subcommittee is to continue its work. Governor Hadley, when asked if the Roosevelt platform would be presented as a minority report to the convention, said: 'We will be guided by what happens today when the convention is permanently organized."

William Draper Lewis, the Pennsylvania member who bolted the subcommittee, turned up at the full committee and so did most of the other Roosevelt members. Mr. Lewis said that it had not been decided whether to present the Roosevelt platform to the convention as a minority report or to adopt the attitude of taking part in the proceedings after the credential committee's full report had been acted upon. The LaFollette member, Senator Owen, said that the Wisconsin platform would certainly be presented to the convention.

The Roosevelt members, it was learned, have not gone so far as to offer their platform to the full committee yet. The matter of the single presidential term of six years has not been passed upon, according to a member of the committee.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Harry Robinson, 24, cement worker, and Mattie Elder, 19. Both colored.

TEDDY'S DOUBLE

Convention Visitor Has Fun at Expense of the Colonel.

© 1912, by American Press Association.

JOHN M. KEYES.

No, this is not Colonel Roosevelt, but Mr. Keyes is T. R.'s double in the convention. He was snapped here in one of his Rooseveltian poses.

HAT STILL IN RING.

Chicago, June 22.—While Colonel Roosevelt was in conference with his advisers a crowd of several thousand persons gathered in Michigan avenue and cheered until he raised a window and addressed them. "My friends," he said, "my hat is in the ring and will be in stronger than ever."

QUAKE, LEVELS VILLAGES

Many Lives Reported Lost In Republic of Costa Rica.

Port Limon, Costa Rica, June 22.—Quakes, followed by a snowstorm during a tropical midsummer, by destructive waves from rivers swished from their banks and by escaping fumes of sulphur which all but asphyxiated the inhabitants, have just swept over a section of the interior of this republic. None of the large cities were damaged, as they lay out of the track of the disturbance, which originated in the Poas volcano. The rural districts and several small towns were so shaken that scarcely a building stands. Many were killed when their homes crashed about them. Sarchi, a town of 300 persons in the department of Alajuela, was one of the places destroyed. The death list will run close to 20.

Carelessness Proves Fatal.

Crestline, O., June 22.—Through the carelessnes of trainman in leaving a switch open, J. M. Hall, 47, was killed and Samuel W. Sainer, 35, was fatally injured. Both men, Pennsylvania line conductors from Pittsburg, were sleeping in a caboose when a switch engine ran into it.

Gard Named For Congress.

Dayton, O., June 22.—Judge Warren Gard of Hamilton was nominated as the Democratic candidate for congress in the Third district to succeed James M. Cox, who was nominated as Democratic candidate for governor.

Bonner Announces Candidacy.

Toledo, O., June 22.—J. Bonner said his hat was in the ring for the nomination of congressman-at-large by the Republican state convention to be held July 2 in Columbus.

Two Young Men Drowned.

Marietta, O., June 22.—Police are searching for the bodies of William T. Harmgard, 28, and Raymond Weirich, 26, who were drowned here in the Muskingum river.

LIVE STOCK AND GRAIN

CHICAGO, JUNE 22.

Cattle—Receipts, 13,000 head; beeves, $6 10@9 50; Texas steers, $6 40@8 00; western steers, $6 50@8 10; stockers and feeders, $4 20@6 75; cows and heifers, $2 70@8 00; calves, $5 50@8 00.

Hogs—Receipts, 13,000 head; light, $7 25@7 65; mixed, $7 30@7 75; heavy, $7 25@7 75; rough, $7 25@7 45; pigs, $5 25@7 00.

Sheep and Lambs — Receipts, 12,000 head; native sheep, $3 50@5 60; western, $3 50@5 65; native lambs, $4 25@8 10; western, $4 50@8 10; spring lambs, $5 50@9 60; yearlings, $4 75@7 10.

Wheat—No. 2 red, $1 08¼@1 09¼. Corn—No. 2, 73½@74½c. Oats—No. 2, 52c.

EAST BUFFALO, JUNE 22.

Cattle—Receipts, 6 cars; export cattle, $8 25@9 00; shipping steers, $7 60@8 00; butcher steers, $7 40@8 00; heifers, $5 00@7 00; fat cows, $3 75@6 00; bulls, $4 00@6 00; milkers and springers, $25 00@60 00; calves, $9 75@10 50.

Hogs—Receipts, 30 cars; heavies, $8 05@8 10; mediums, $8 00@8 05; Yorkers, $7 85@7 90; pigs, $7 25@7 50; roughs, $7 80@7 90; stags, $5 25@6 25.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 10 cars; yearlings, $3 50@8 25; wethers, $5 25@5 75; mixed sheep, $5 00@5 25; ewes, $4 50@5 00; spring lambs, $5 50@9 50.

PITTSBURG, PA., JUNE 22.

Cattle — Supply light; choice, $8 75@9 25; prime, $8 25@8 65; tidy butchers, $7 25@7 65; heifers, $4 50@7 50; fat cows, $3 00@6 50; bulls, $4 00@7 00; calves, $6 00@8 50.

Hogs—Receipts light; heavy hogs and mediums, $7 85@7 90; heavy Yorkers, $7 80@7 85; light Yorkers, $7 50@7 65; pigs, $7 25@7 35.

Sheep and Lambs—Supply fair; prime wethers, $5 00@5 25; good mixed, $4 50@4 90; fair mixed, $4 00@4 40; yearlings, $3 00@6 75; lambs, $5 00@8 75.

TOLEDO, O., JUNE 22.

Wheat, $1 11½; corn, 75½c; oats, 54½c; cloverseed, October $10 62.

Receiver Busy

D. T. & I. Receiver, George P. Johnson, passed through the city on No. 105 Saturday, looking after some affairs on the road. He has been over the line a number of times since his appointment, and gives everything his careful attention.

DELICIOUS FRIED SPRING CHICKEN DINNER 25c, AT SOUTHERN CAFE, SUNDAY.

Red Cross Ball Blue, all blue, best bluing value in the whole world, makes the laundress smile.

SOCIAL.

There will be a grand social at the Second Baptist church Saturday evening, given by Mrs. Jerry Lee and Mrs. Charles Blaney, for the special purpose of securing means to help rebuild the church. Refreshments and lunch. Come one, come all. 147 3t

Red Cross Ball Blue will wash double as many clothes as any other blue. Don't put your money into any other.

OLDEST SOLDIER IN BRITAIN

Recently Celebrated the Fifty-Second Anniversary of His Appointment as Royal Gunner.

The oldest soldier in the British army is said to be Samuel Parsons, the king's gunner at Windsor castle, who lately celebrated the fifty-second anniversary of his appointment as the royal gunner in the round tower of Windsor castle. Although nearly 87 years of age, he is still on the active list, and has drawn full military pay for sixty-five years. Parsons still retains all his faculties, his sight being very good, and enjoys good health. He was born at Morval, East Loo, Cornwall, in 1825, and at the age of 19 years joined the Royal artillery at Devonport. He was at Quebec with his regiment for six years, and after three years' home service was dispatched to the Crimea. After being laid up for a time with fever Parsons returned to the seat of war the day before the charge of Balaklava, although he did not take part in that memorable charge, but was present at the battle of Inkermann. After the Crimea he went to Woolwich and was appointed royal gunner at Windsor castle Oct. 17, 1859.

Parsons possesses six medals, including the Crimean medal, with bars for Sebastopol, Inkermann and Balaklava; the Turkish medal, the long service medal, Queen Victoria's jubilee medal, with a bar for the diamond jubilee; King Edward's coronation medal and King George's coronation medal. During the fifty-two years Parsons has been at the round tower there has never been an accident, relates the London Standard.

First Thimble.

There is a tradition that a Dutch silversmith pondered over a certain notion which he had cherished long and silently in the slow working senses which he deemed his brain—a notion for a trinket, a fallal, for a dignified lady of Holland. It must be a useful trinket, albeit a costly one, meet for so good a sempstress as Dame Alize Van Rensselaer. When the notion took definite shape the thing was quickly wrought in precious metal by fingers as deft as the brain was slow, and the industrious housewife proudly wore not only her first thimble, but the first thimble possessed by any Dutch frau.—Century Magazine.

The Oriental Dancer.

Charles Frohman, at a dinner at the Metropolitan club in New York, condemned a certain outrageously immodest Oriental dancer.

"She must have a nasty mind," Mr. Frohman said, "to dance like that."

"Oh, don't be too hard on her," said a playwright. "She may not understand, you know. Consider how young she is."

"I deny," said Mr. Frohman, "that she's as young as you imply; but I'm bound to admit that, even though not young, she's certainly a stripling."

The Cactus Woman.

They stood on Penn avenue and watched the girls go by, an endless procession.

"They say the clinging type of girl is disappearing."

"I believe it is. Modern woman, with the sharp-pointed buckles and her numerous hatpins, is more like a cactus than a vine."—Pittsburg Post.

Piles! Piles! Piles!

Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles. It absorbs the tumors, allays itching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for Piles and itching of the private parts. Druggists, mail 50c and $1.00. WILLIAMS MFG. CO., Props., Cleveland, Ohio

Sold at Brown's Drug Store.

MONEY
Our Money Is Good. Our Rates Are Reason. Why Pay More?
CAPITAL LOAN CO.
Passmore Bldg., S. Fayette St
Bell Phone 316W.

The Kentucky Oil Fields

The United States Geological Survey has published a second edition of its report on the geology of the Campton oil field, Wolfe county, Ky., and the oil and natural gas field in Knox county, Ky. The report is the result of field investigation by M. J. Munn, a geologist of the Survey. The principal subject of the work in the Campton oil field was to ascertain if possible, the value of such work in locating favorable places for testing before drilling.

Mr. Munn made the statement that "good geologic work in advance of drilling could easily reduce the cost of thoroughly testing this region by at least 50 per cent." Since the publication of the first edition of the report prospecting in Wolfe County has resulted in the finding of an extension of the oil-bearing area northward from the old developments at Campton, which may result in the opening of a new pool on the northern limb of the anticline, on whose southern limb the Campton pool occurs. The altitude of the oil "sand" ("Corniferous" limestone) in these two areas appear to be practically the same. Prospecting in Wolfe County has also resulted in the discovery of a new oil pool south of Stillwater post office, 6 or 8 miles from the Campton field and within the belt previously pointed out in Mr. Munn's report as being worthy of careful geologic study. At this time it is not possible to say whether or not this new pool will prove to be of much value, as all the wells completed have been small producers. However, the additional data furnished by this prospecting have been strong corroborative evidence as to the value of geologic work in locating pools.

In the report on oil and gas in Knox county, Ky., attention is called to the fact that the finding of considerable flows of oil in a few very shallow wells in this county near Barboursville resulted in an oil excitement, during which an immense amount of valueless oil stock was sold to the public. This was followed by the collapse of the oil boom and the subsequent blacklisting of this district by oil men, without anything like a thorough testing of the deeper "sands," in which oil and gas pools of great value have been found farther north.

Want ads are profitable.

Professional Column

Funeral Directors

ALBERT R. McCOY
Funeral Director and Embalmer.
Office 222 E. Court St. Bell Tel., office 27; residence 9 R; Citizen, office, 27; residence 541.

ELMER A. KLEVER, Funeral Director.
Bell Phones: Res. 294-2; Office 294.
Citz. Phones: Res. 151; Office 180.

C. H. MURRAY UNDERTAKING COMPANY,
323 E. Court St., Washington C. H.
Office—Both Phones 65.
Residence Phones, Bell 66; Home 8 on 55.

MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY TO LOAN
At all times, in any amount.
Frank M. Fullerton.

MONEY TO LOAN
on real estate, chattels and personal security.
Frank M. Allen.

CASH LOANS Arranged on Pianos, Household Goods and Live Stock. $10 to $100 mail weekly or monthly payments.
Capitol Loan Company
Bell 316 w. So. Fayette St

OPTICIANS

JAMES T. TUTTLE,
Optician,
Washington C. H., Ohio,
128 E. Court St.

THE LEAKS IN A PURSE

can be stopped if you have been paying too much for your living expenses by buying your meats and poultry from this shop. Our meats are choice and cut from the primest beef, mutton, lamb, pork. You can't find better meats or lower prices at any place.

BARCHET'S MARKET.
Wholesale and Retail.

Classified

RATES PER WORD.

1 time in Daily Herald 1c
6t in Herald & 1t in Register... 3c
12t in Herald & 2t in Register... 4c
26t in Herald & 4t in Register... 6c
52t in Herald & 8t in Register... 10c
Proportionate rates for longer time

Minimum charges: 1t 15c; 6t 30c.

SITUATIONS WANTED.

WANTED—A position with good family to do housework. Address E., care of Herald office.

WANTED—Job as chauffeur in garage or private family. Address "A", 518 E. Market street. 146 6t

WANTED.

WANTED—By Monday morning, three or four lady solicitors, to sell a high-class product. Straight salary paid. Call opposite K. of P. hall, 217 North Fayette street, city. P. T. Dagy, Manager.

WANTED—Boy for Sunday newspaper route. B. F. Leland. 148 2t

WANTED—Girls at the Mitten factory. Inskeep Mfg Co. 144 12t

WANTED—A good trustworthy man to work on farm. Address "M", care Herald office. 144 6t

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Modern furnished room, suitable for light house-keeping, if wanted. Apply at Stinson Conservatory. 148 6t

FOR RENT—Apartment of four rooms; furnished or unfurnished. All conveniences. Apply to D. H. Van Winkle. 147 6t

FOR RENT—Furnished room in modern home. Mrs. H. H. Sanderson 361 E. Court St. 146 6t

FOR RENT—By July 3rd, house of 5 rooms, pantry and gas, in fine condition. On Sycamore street. Mrs. C. E. McKee, East street. 145 6t

FOR RENT—3-room house. O. K. Barber shop. Citizens phone 768. 137 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A sample wagon, extra sound and in good condition; a bargain. See L. Eggleston, Dennis Bldg. 149 6t

FOR SALE—7-room house, corner Main and Elm; also two 4-room houses on same lot. Will sell one or all. Inquire Mrs. Margaret Donnelly in property. 149 30t

FOR SALE—750 concrete blocks, 7 1-2 and 8 1-2 cents. Citz. 2654, if sold at once. Daniel Baker. 148 6t

FOR SALE—7-room house with bath, on Washington avenue, lot 55 by 165 feet. Price right if sold at once. Inquire of B. A. Schadel, at Dahl-Millikan office. 144 6t

FOR SALE—Plumbing material at better prices than ever before. E. T. Evans & Co. Citz. 1128; Bell 86R. 132 tf

FOR SALE—One square piano. 228 N. Fayette St. 82 tf

FOR SALE—Columbus Buggy Co. runabout, in good condition. Call at Geo. Cox & Sons livery barn. 95 tf

LOST.

LOST—Brass automobile cup Finder leave at Swope's garage. O. J. Mobley. 125 tf

MEAT MARKET.

We want your trade. Call and see us. Nelson, Craft & Co., phones, Bell 326 W; Citz. 508; corner Court and North streets. 144 6t

FOR SALE—Small stock of groceries and meats, doing nice business; well located in Columbus. Will sell right on account of health. Gertrude Eberhard, 690 St. Clair avenue, Milo, Ohio. 149 3t

MAKES THE NATION GASP.

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. Its the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

Now Rounding The Last Lap

(Continued from Page One.)

Chicago, June 22.—Coliseum.—That the Republican national convention will enter its permanent stage as an organization this afternoon was the announcement made by the Taft leaders when the delegates assembled for business this morning.

It has been decided to dispense with the permanent chairman's speech, Senator Root, who has been selected for that position, having decided that he covered the ground thoroughly in his address to the convention as its temporary chairman.

After the adoption of the new rules to be submited by the rules committee, over which there is expected to be considerable friction, the platform committee will make its report. After the adoption of the platform will come the nominations for president and vice president.

Comptroller Prendergast announced that he was not to present Colonel Roosevelt's name formally to the convention; that he had been requested by the colonel himself not to do so. The plan of the Roosevelt people, it appears, is to sit silent in the convention after the credentials report has been completed and adopted.

Chicago, June 22.—For president, William H. Taft; for vice president, Herbert S. Hadley. This at the present time is tipped off as the Republican national ticket to be nominated this afternoon.

After the events in the Republican national convention, during which all the Taft delegates were seated and during which the Taft delegates and every single chieftain in Chicago of President Taft's forces announced that the president would be renominated in the convention this afternoon or evening.

On one opinion the Taft forces and the Roosevelt forces coincide, and it is to the effect that Governor Herbert S. Hadley of Missouri will become the choice of the delegates of the convention for vice president.

The Taft managers, it was learned, have been deluged with telegrams from all over the country urging them that, now he had beaten Colonel Roosevelt for the nomination, they should unite in selecting a third candidate or a compromise candidate. They have also received hundreds of dispatches begging them and imploring them to stand by President Taft and to insist upon his nomination.

The Taft chieftains never for a moment have been lacking in fidelity to the cause of President Taft. They believe that from the hour of the president's renomination he will grow in strength and favor with the Republicans of the nation and be independent.

The narrow margin on the test vote in the convention on the California contests frightened President Taft's chieftains within an inch of their lives. On that ballot the total was 542 for the Taft contestants and 529 for the Roosevelt contestants. And there were only seven absentees. The Taft delegates on this main question of presidential nomination can be relied upon to stick to the president as long as he is a candidate for the nomination, in the judgment of the Taft leaders here, but what many of these Taft delegates state is, that inasmuch as Colonel Roosevelt has been beaten and the purpose of the Taft chieftains accomplished, the president should be magnanimous and remember that there are to be elections in most of the states this fall for governors, legislatures which are to elect United States senators, and elections for members of the house of representatives. Other delegates do not entertain these views and will not tolerate the hearing of them from their fellows.

An amazing climax to many came when Governor Stubbs of Kansas was leaving Colonel Roosevelt, and said: "There will be no bolt. This talk of a bolt is foolish. Colonel Roosevet never talked about a bolt. Our delegation and all other Roosevelt delegations will remain in the convention until the nomination is made, I believe. There can be no compromise candidate as far as we are concerned."

Convention Sustains Committee.

With the committee on credentials progressing in their work of determining the contests and with the convention acting upon the decisions of the committee, two test votes taken in the convention demonstrate that with the LaFollette and Cummins men voting against the Taft men, the latter on one test vote won by 569 to 499. On a second test vote with the LaFollette delegates and the Cummins delegates voting with the Taft men, the latter won by a vote of 605 to 469. The first test vote whereby the Taft men were victorious by 569 to 499 is the best evidence of the present strength of the president in the convention, in the estimation of influential Taft representatives.

JAMES E. WATSON

President Taft's Mainstay In Fight on Convention Floor.

© 1912, by American Press Association.

Mr. Watson is a former representative from Indiana and was chief parliamentarian for the Taft forces in the battle over the roll.

PARTY PLATFORM

Tariff Planks Engaging the Committee on Resolutions.

Chicago, June 22.—One by one the planks prepared by the subcommittee were taken up by the full committee on resolutions. After more than an hour's session it was decided to return the report to the subcommittee to redraft some of the planks which had been discussed. Two in particular were those having to do with the tariff and the inland waterways. A strong plea was made by the southern members for a stronger plank on inland waterways. Senator Burton appealed to the committee not to go too far in calling for government aid in this direction, however. The decision of the committee was not announced.

The full committee adjourned and in the meantime the subcommittee is to continue its work. Governor Hadley, when asked if the Roosevelt platform would be presented as a minority report to the convention, said: 'We will be guided by what happens today when the convention is permanently organized."

William Draper Lewis, the Pennsylvania member who bolted the subcommittee, turned up at the full committee and so did most of the other Roosevelt members. Mr. Lewis said that it had not been decided whether to present the Roosevelt platform to the convention as a minority report or to adopt the attitude of taking part in the proceedings after the credential committee's full report had been acted upon. The LaFollette member, Senator Owen, said that the Wisconsin platform would certainly be presented to the convention.

The Roosevelt members, it was learned, have not gone so far as to offer their platform to the full committee yet. The matter of the single presidential term of six years has not been passed upon, according to a member of the committee.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Harry Robinson, 24, cement worker, and Mattie Elder, 19. Both colored.

TEDDY'S DOUBLE

Convention Visitor Has Fun at Expense of the Colonel.

© 1912, by American Press Association.

JOHN M. KEYES.

No, this is not Colonel Roosevelt, but Mr. Keyes is T. R.'s double in the convention. He was snapped here in one of his Rooseveltian poses.

HAT STILL IN RING.

Chicago, June 22.—While Colonel Roosevelt was in conference with his advisers a crowd of several thousand persons gathered in Michigan avenue and cheered until he raised a window and addressed them. "My friends," he said, "my hat is in the ring and will be in stronger than ever."

QUAKE, LEVELS VILLAGES

Many Lives Reported Lost in Republic of Costa Rica.

Port Limon, Costa Rica, June 22.—Quakes, followed by a snowstorm during a tropical midsummer, by destructive waves from rivers swished from their banks and by escaping fumes of sulphur which all but asphyxiated the inhabitants, have just swept over a section of the interior of this republic. None of the large cities were damaged, as they lay out of the track of the disturbance, which originated in the Poas volcano. The rural districts and several small towns were so shaken that scarcely a building stands. Many were killed when their homes crashed about them. Sarchi, a town of 300 persons in the department of Alajuela, was one of the places destroyed. The death list will run close to 20.

Carelessness Proves Fatal.

Crestline, O., June 22.—Through the carelessnes of trainman in leaving a switch open, J. M. Hall, 47, was killed and Samuel W. Sainer, 35, was fatally injured. Both men, Pennsylvania line conductors from Pittsburg, were sleeping in a caboose when a switch engine ran into it.

Gard Named For Congress.

Dayton, O., June 22.—Judge Warren Gard of Hamilton was nominated as the Democratic candidate for congress in the Third district to succeed James M. Cox, who was nominated as Democratic candidate for governor.

Bonner Announces Candidacy.

Toledo, O., June 22.—J. Bonner said his hat was in the ring for the nomination of congressman-at-large by the Republican state convention to be held July 2 in Columbus.

Two Young Men Drowned.

Marietta, O., June 22.—Police are searching for the bodies of William T. Harmgard, 28, and Raymond Weirich, 26, who were drowned here in the Muskingum river.

LIVE STOCK AND GRAIN

CHICAGO, JUNE 22.

Cattle—Receipts, 13,000 head; beeves, $6 10@9 50; Texas steers, $6 40@8 00; western steers, $6 50@8 10; stockers and feeders, $4 20@6 75; cows and heifers, $2 70@8 00; calves, $5 50@8 00.

Hogs—Receipts, 13,000 head; light, $7 25@7 65; mixed, $7 30@7 75; heavy, $7 25@7 75; rough, $7 25@7 45; pigs, $5 25@7 00.

Sheep and Lambs — Receipts, 12,000 head; native sheep, $3 50@5 60; western, $3 50@5 65; native lambs, $4 25@8 10; western, $4 50@8 10; spring lambs, $5 50@9 60; yearlings, $4 75@7 10.

Wheat—No. 2 red, $1 08¼@1 09¼. Corn—No. 2, 73½@74½c. Oats—No. 2, 52c.

EAST BUFFALO, JUNE 22.

Cattle—Receipts, 6 cars; export cattle, $8 25@9 00; shipping steers, $7 60@8 00; butcher steers, $7 40@8 00; heifers, $5 00@7 00; fat cows, $3 75@6 00; bulls, $4 00@6 00; milkers and springers, $25 00@60 00; calves, $9 75@10 50.

Hogs—Receipts, 30 cars; heavies, $8 05@8 10; mediums, $8 00@8 05; Yorkers, $7 85@7 90; pigs, $7 25@7 50; roughs, $7 80@7 90; stags, $5 25@6 25.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 10 cars; yearlings, $3 50@8 25; wethers, $5 25@5 75; mixed sheep, $5 00@5 25; ewes, $4 50@5 00; spring lambs, $5 50@9 50.

PITTSBURG, PA., JUNE 22.

Cattle — Supply light; choice, $8 75@9 25; prime, $8 25@8 65; tidy butchers, $7 25@7 65; heifers, $4 50@7 50; fat cows, $3 00@6 50; bulls, $4 00@7 00; calves, $6 00@8 50.

Hogs—Receipts light; heavy hogs and mediums, $7 85@7 90; heavy Yorkers, $7 80@7 85; light Yorkers, $7 50@7 65; pigs, $7 25@7 35.

Sheep and Lambs—Supply fair; prime wethers, $5 00@5 25; good mixed, $4 50@4 90; fair mixed, $4 00@4 40; yearlings, $3 00@6 75; lambs, $5 00@8 75.

TOLEDO, O., JUNE 22.

Wheat, $1 11½; corn, 75½c; oats, 54½c; cloverseed, October $10 02.

Receiver Busy

D. T. & I. Receiver, George P. Johnson, passed through the city on No. 105 Saturday, looking after some affairs on the road. He has been over the line a number of times since his appointment, and gives everything his careful attention.

DELICIOUS FRIED SPRING CHICKEN DINNER 25c, AT SOUTHERN CAFE, SUNDAY.

Red Cross Ball Blue, all blue, best bluing value in the whole world, makes the laundress smile.

SOCIAL.

There will be a grand social at the Second Baptist church Saturday evening, given by Mrs. Jerry Lee and Mrs. Charles Blaney, for the special purpose of securing means to help rebuild the church. Refreshments and lunch. Come one, come all. 147 3t

Red Cross Ball Blue will wash double as many clothes as any other blue. Don't put your money into any other.

OLDEST SOLDIER IN BRITAIN

Recently Celebrated the Fifty-Second Anniversary of His Appointment as Royal Gunner.

The oldest soldier in the British army is said to be Samuel Parsons, the king's gunner at Windsor castle, who lately celebrated the fifty-second anniversary of his appointment as the royal gunner in the round tower of Windsor castle. Although nearly 87 years of age, he is still on the active list, and has drawn full military pay for sixty-five years. Parsons still retains all his faculties, his sight being very good, and enjoys good health. He was born at Morval, East Loo, Cornwall, in 1825, and at the age of 19 years joined the Royal artillery at Devonport. He was at Quebec with his regiment for six years, and after three years' home service was dispatched to the Crimea. After being laid up for a time with fever Parsons returned to the seat of war the day before the charge of Balaklava, although he did not take part in that memorable charge, but was present at the battle of Inkermann. After the Crimea he went to Woolwich and was appointed royal gunner at Windsor castle Oct. 17, 1859.

Parsons possesses six medals, including the Crimean medal, with bars for Sebastopol, Inkermann and Balaklava; the Turkish medal, the long service medal, Queen Victoria's jubilee medal, with a bar for the diamond jubilee; King Edward's coronation medal and King George's coronation medal. During the fifty-two years Parsons has been at the round tower there has never been an accident, relates the London Standard.

First Thimble.

There is a tradition that a Dutch silversmith pondered over a certain notion which he had cherished long and silently in the slow working senses which he deemed his brain—a notion for a trinket, a fallal, for a dignified lady of Holland. It must be a useful trinket, albeit a costly one, meet for so good a sempstress as Dame Alize Van Rensselaer. When the notion took definite shape the thing was quickly wrought in precious metal by fingers as deft as the brain was slow, and the industrious housewife proudly wore not only her first thimble, but the first thimble possessed by any Dutch frau.—Century Magazine.

The Oriental Dancer.

Charles Frohman, at a dinner at the Metropolitan club in New York, condemned a certain outrageously immodest Oriental dancer.

"She must have a nasty mind," Mr. Frohman said, "to dance like that."

"Oh, don't be too hard on her," said a playwright. "She may not understand, you know. Consider how young she is."

"I deny," said Mr. Frohman, "that she's as young as you imply; but I'm bound to admit that, even though not young, she's certainly a stripling."

The Cactus Woman.

They stood on Penn avenue and watched the girls go by, an endless procession.

"They say the clinging type of girl is disappearing."

"I believe it is. Modern woman, with the sharp-pointed buckles and her numerous hatpins, is more like a cactus than a vine."—Pittsburg Post.

Piles! Piles! Piles!

Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles. It absorbs the tumors, allays itching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for Piles and itching of the private parts. Druggists, mail 50c and $1.00. WILLIAMS MFG. CO., Props., Cleveland, Ohio

Sold at Brown's Drug Store.

MONEY
Our Money Is Good.
Our Rates Are Bottom.
Why Pay More?
CAPITAL LOAN CO.
Passmore Bldg., S. Fayette St
Bell Phone 316W.

The Kentucky Oil Fields

The United States Geological Survey has published a second edition of its report on the geology of the Campton oil field, Wolfe county, Ky., and the oil and natural gas field in Knox county, Ky. The report is the result of field investigation by M. J. Munn, a geologist of the Survey. The principal subject of the work in the Campton oil field was to ascertain if possible, the value of such work in locating favorable places for testing before drilling.

Mr. Munn made the statement that "good geologic work in advance of drilling could easily reduce the cost of thoroughly testing this region by at least 50 per cent." Since the publication of the first edition of the report prospecting in Wolfe County has resulted in the finding of an extension of the oil-bearing area northward from the old developments at Campton, which may result in the opening of a new pool on the northern limb of the anticline, on whose southern limb the Campton pool occurs. The altitude of the oil "sand" ("Corniferous" limestone) in these two areas appear to be practically the same. Prospecting in Wolfe County has also resulted in the discovery of a new oil pool south of Stillwater post office, 6 or 8 miles from the Campton field and within the belt previously pointed out in Mr. Munn's report as being worthy of careful geologic study. At this time it is not possible to say whether or not this new pool will prove to be of much value, as all the wells completed have been small producers. However, the additional data furnished by this prospecting have been strong corroborative evidence as to the value of geologic work in locating pools.

In the report on oil and gas in Knox county, Ky., attention is called to the fact that the finding of considerable flows of oil in a few very shallow wells in this county near Barboursville resulted in an oil excitement, during which an immense amount of valueless oil stock was sold to the public. This was followed by the collapse of the oil boom and the subsequent blacklisting of this district by oil men, without anything like a thorough testing of the deeper "sands," in which oil and gas pools of great value have been found farther north.

Want ads are profitable.

Professional Column

Funeral Directors

ALBERT R. McCOY
Funeral Director
and Embalmer.
Office 222 E. Court St. Bell Tel., office 27; residence 9 R; Citizen, office, 27; residence 541.

ELMER A. KLEVER,
Funeral Director.
Bell Phones: Res. 294-2; Office 294.
Citz. Phones: Res. 151; Office 189.

C. H. MURRAY
UNDERTAKING COMPANY,
223 E. Court St., Washington C. H.
Office—Both Phones 65.
Residence Phones, Bell 66; Home 4 on 55.

MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY TO LOAN
At all times, in any amount.
Frank M. Fullerton.

MONEY TO LOAN
on real estate, chattels and personal security.
Frank M. Allen.

CASH LOANS Arranged on Diamonds, Household Goods and Live Stock. $10 to $100 mail weekly or monthly payments.
Capitol Loan Company
Bell 316 w. So. Fayette St

OPTICIANS

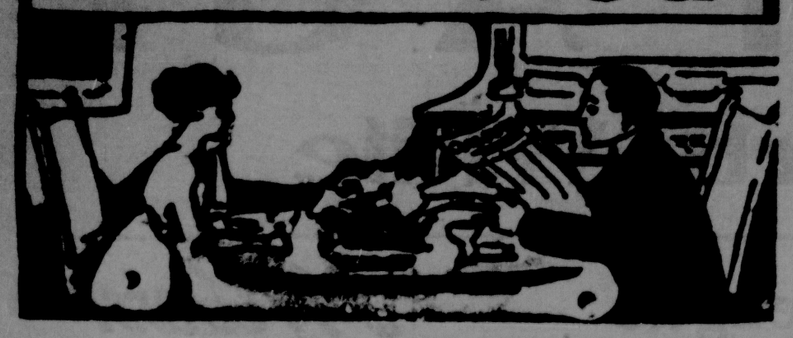
JAMES T. TUTTLE,
Optician,
Washington C. H., Ohio,
128 E. Court St.

THE LEAKS IN A PURSE

can be stopped if you have been paying too much for your living expenses by buying your meats and poultry from this shop. Our meats are choice and cut from the primest beef, mutton, lamb, pork. You can't find better meats or lower prices at any place.

BARCHET'S MARKET.
Wholesale and Retail.

Classified



RATES PER WORD.

1 time in Daily Herald	1c
6t in Herald & 1t in Register	3c
12t in Herald & 2t in Register	4c
26t in Herald & 4t in Register	6c
52t in Herald & 8t in Register	10c

Proportionate rates for longer time

Minimum charges: 1t 15c; 6t 30c.

SITUATIONS WANTED.

WANTED—A position with good family to do housework. Address E., care of Herald office.

WANTED—Job as chauffeur in garage or private family. Address "A", 518 E. Market street. 146 6t

WANTED.

WANTED—By Monday morning, three or four lady solicitors, to sell a high-class product. Straight salary paid. Call opposite K. of P. hall, 217 North Fayette street, city. P. T. Dagy, Manager.

WANTED—Boy for Sunday newspaper route. B. F. Leland. 148 2t

WANTED—Girls at the Mitten factory. Inskeep Mfg Co. 144 12t

WANTED—A good trustworthy man to work on farm. Address "M", care Herald office. 144 6t

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Modern furnished room, suitable for light house-keeping, if wanted. Apply at Stinson Conservatory. 148 6t

FOR RENT—Apartment of four rooms; furnished or unfurnished. All conveniences. Apply to D. H. Van Winkle. 147 6t

FOR RENT—Furnished room in modern home. Mrs. H. H. Sanderson 361 E. Court St. 146 6t

FOR RENT—By July 3rd, house of 8 rooms, pantry and gas, in fine condition. On Sycamore street. Mrs. C. E. McKee, East street. 145 6t

FOR RENT—3-room house. O. K. Barber shop. Citizens phone 768. 137 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A sample wagon, extra sound and in good condition; a bargain. See L. Eggleston, Dennis Bldg. 149 6t

FOR SALE—7-room house, corner Main and Elm; also two 4-room houses on same lot. Will sell one or all. Inquire Mrs. Margaret Donnelly in property. 149 30t

FOR SALE—750 concrete blocks, 7 1-2 and 8 1-2 cents. Citz. 2654, if sold at once. Daniel Baker. 148 6t

FOR SALE—7-room house with bath, on Washington avenue, lot 55 by 165 feet. Price right if sold at once. Inquire of B. A. Schadel, at Dahl-Millikan office. 144 6t

FOR SALE—Plumbing material at better prices than ever before. E. T. Evans & Co. Citz. 1128; Bell 86R. 132 tf

FOR SALE—One square piano. 228 N. Fayette St. 82 tf

FOR SALE—Columbus Buggy Co. runabout, in good condition. Call at Geo. Cox & Sons livery barn. 95 tf

LOST.

LOST—Brass automobile cup. Finder leave at Swope's garage. O. J. Mobley. 125 tf

MEAT MARKET.

We want your trade. Call and see us. Nelson, Craft & Co., phones, Bell 326-W; Citz. 508; corner Court and North streets. 144 6t

FOR SALE—Small stock of groceries and meats, doing nice business, well located in Columbus. Will sell right on account of health. Gertrude Eberhard, 690 St. Clair avenue, Milo, Ohio. 149 3t

MAKES THE NATION GASP.

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. Its the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

Now Rounding The Last Lap

(Continued from Page One.)

Chicago, June 22.—Coliseum.—That the Republican national convention will enter its permanent stage as an organization this afternoon was the announcement made by the Taft leaders when the delegates assembled for business this morning.

It has been decided to dispense with the permanent chairman's speech, Senator Root, who has been selected for that position, having decided that he covered the ground thoroughly in his address to the convention as its temporary chairman.

After the adoption of the new rules to be submited by the rules committee, over which there is expected to be considerable friction, the platform committee will make its report. After the adoption of the platform will come the nominations for president and vice president.

Comptroller Prendergast announced that he was not to present Colonel Roosevelt's name formally to the convention; that he had been requested by the colonel himself not to do so. The plan of the Roosevelt people, it appears, is to sit silent in the convention after the credentials report has been completed and adopted.

Chicago, June 22.—For president, William H. Taft; for vice president, Herbert S. Hadley. This at the present time is tipped off as the Republican national ticket to be nominated this afternoon.

After the events in the Republican national convention, during which all the Taft delegates were seated and during which the Taft delegates and every single chieftain in Chicago of President Taft's forces announced that the president would be renominated in the convention this afternoon or evening.

On one opinion the Taft forces and the Roosevelt forces coincide, and it is to the effect that Governor Herbert S. Hadley of Missouri will become the choice of the delegates of the convention for vice president.

The Taft managers, it was learned, have been deluged with telegrams from all over the country urging them that, now he had beaten Colonel Roosevelt for the nomination, they should unite in selecting a third candidate or a compromise candidate. They have also received hundreds of dispatches begging them and imploring them to stand by President Taft and to insist upon his nomination.

The Taft chieftains never for a moment have been lacking in fidelity to the cause of President Taft. They believe that from the hour of the president's renomination he will grow in strength and favor with the Republicans of the nation and be independent.

The narrow margin on the test vote in the convention on the California contests frightened President Taft's chieftains within an inch of their lives. On that ballot the total was 542 for the Taft contestants and 529 for the Roosevelt contestants. And there were only seven absentees. The Taft delegates on this main question of presidential nomination can be relied upon to stick to the president as long as he is a candidate for the nomination, in the judgment of the Taft leaders here, but what many of these Taft delegates state is, that inasmuch as Colonel Roosevelt has been beaten and the purpose of the Taft chieftains accomplished, the president should be magnanimous and remember that there are to be elections in most of the states this fall for governors, legislatures which are to elect United States senators, and elections for members of the house of representatives. Other delegates do not entertain these views and will not tolerate the hearing of them from their fellows.

An amazing climax to many came when Governor Stubbs of Kansas was eating Colonel Roosevelt, and said: "There will be no bolt. This talk of a bolt is foolish. Colonel Roosevelt never talked about a bolt. Our delegation and all other Roosevelt delegations will remain in the convention until the nomination is made. I believe. There can be no compromise candidate as far as we are concerned."

Convention Sustains Committee.

With the committee on credentials progressing in their work of determining the contests and with the convention acting upon the decisions of the committee, two test votes taken in the convention demonstrate that with the LaFollette and Cummins men voting against the Taft men, the latter on one test vote won by 569 to 499. On a second test vote with the LaFollette delegates and the Cummins delegates voting with the Taft men, the latter won by a vote of 605 to 469. The first test vote whereby the Taft men were victorious by 569 to 499 is the best evidence of the present strength of the president in the convention, in the estimation of influential Taft representatives.

JAMES E. WATSON

President Taft's Mainstay In Fight on Convention Floor.

© 1912, by American Press Association.

Mr. Watson is a former representative from Indiana and was chief parliamentarian for the Taft forces in the battle over the roll.

PARTY PLATFORM

Tariff Planks Engaging the Committee on Resolutions.

Chicago, June 22.—One by one the planks prepared by the subcommittee were taken up by the full committee on resolutions. After more than an hour's session it was decided to return the report to the subcommittee to redraft some of the planks which had been discussed. Two in particular were those having to do with the tariff and the inland waterways. A strong plea was made by the southern members for a stronger plank on inland waterways. Senator Burton appealed to the committee not to go too far in calling for government aid in this direction, however. The decision of the committee was not announced.

The full committee adjourned and in the meantime the subcommittee is to continue its work. Governor Hadley, when asked if the Roosevelt platform would be presented as a minority report to the convention, said: 'We will be guided by what happens today when the convention is permanently organized."

William Draper Lewis, the Pennsylvania member who bolted the subcommittee, turned up at the full committee and so did most of the other Roosevelt members. Mr. Lewis said that it had not been decided whether to present the Roosevelt platform to the convention as a minority report or to adopt the attitude of taking part in the proceedings after the credential committee's full report had been acted upon. The LaFollette member, Senator Owen, said that the Wisconsin platform would certainly be presented to the convention.

The Roosevelt members, it was learned, have not gone so far as to offer their platform to the full committee yet. The matter of the single presidential term of six years has not been passed upon, according to a member of the committee.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Harry Robinson, 24, cement worker, and Mattie Elder, 19. Both colored.

TEDDY'S DOUBLE

Convention Visitor Has Fun at Expense of the Colonel.

© 1912, by American Press Association.

JOHN M. KEYES.

No, this is not Colonel Roosevelt, but Mr. Keyes is T. R.'s double in the convention. He was snapped here in one of his Rooseveltian poses.

HAT STILL IN RING.

Chicago, June 22.—While Colonel Roosevelt was in conference with his advisers a crowd of several thousand persons gathered in Michigan avenue and cheered until he raised a window and addressed them. "My friends," he said, "my hat is in the ring and will be in stronger than ever."

QUAKE, LEVELS VILLAGES

Many Lives Reported Lost in Republic of Costa Rica.

Port Limon, Costa Rica, June 22.—Quakes, followed by a snowstorm during a tropical midsummer, by destructive waves from rivers swished from their banks and by escaping fumes of sulphur which all but asphyxiated the inhabitants, have just swept over a section of the interior of this republic. None of the large cities were damaged, as they lay out of the track of the disturbance, which originated in the Poas volcano. The rural districts and several small towns were so shaken that scarcely a building stands. Many were killed when their homes crashed about them. Sarchi, a town of 300 persons in the department of Alajuela, was one of the places destroyed. The death list will run close to 20.

Carelessness Proves Fatal.

Crestline, O., June 22.—Through the carelessnes of trainman in leaving a switch open, J. M. Hall, 47, was killed and Samuel W. Sainer, 35, was fatally injured. Both men, Pennsylvania line conductors from Pittsburg, were sleeping in a caboose when a switch engine ran into it.

Gard Named For Congress.

Dayton, O., June 22.—Judge Warren Gard of Hamilton was nominated as the Democratic candidate for congress in the Third district to succeed James M. Cox, who was nominated as Democratic candidate for governor.

Bonner Announces Candidacy.

Toledo, O., June 22.—J. Bonner said his hat was in the ring for the nomination of congressman-at-large by the Republican state convention to be held July 2 in Columbus.

Two Young Men Drowned.

Marietta, O., June 22.—Police are searching for the bodies of William T. Harmgard, 28, and Raymond Weirich, 26, who were drowned here in the Muskingum river.

LIVE STOCK AND GRAIN

CHICAGO, JUNE 22.

Cattle—Receipts, 13,000 head; beeves, $8 10@9 50; Texas steers, $6 40@8 00; western steers, $5 50@8 10; stockers and feeders, $4 20@6 75; cows and heifers, $2 70@8 00; calves, $5 50@8 00.

Hogs—Receipts, 13,000 head; light, $7 25@7 65; mixed, $7 30@7 75; heavy, $7 25@7 75; rough, $7 25@7 45; pigs, $5 25@7 00.

Sheep and Lambs — Receipts, 12,000 head; native sheep, $3 50@5 60; western, $3 50@5 65; native lambs, $4 25@8 10; western, $4 50@8 10; spring lambs, $5 50@9 60; yearlings, $4 75@7 10.

Wheat—No. 2 red, $1 08¼@1 09¼. Corn—No. 2, 73½@74½c. Oats—No. 2, 52c.

EAST BUFFALO, JUNE 22.

Cattle—Receipts, 6 cars; export cattle, $8 25@9 00; shipping steers, $7 60@8 00; butcher steers, $7 40@8 00; heifers, $5 00@7 00; fat cows, $3 75@6 00; bulls, $4 00@6 00; milkers and springers, $25 00@60 00; calves, $9 75@10 50.

Hogs—Receipts, 30 cars; heavies, $8 05@8 10; mediums, $8 00@8 05; Yorkers, $7 85@7 90; pigs, $7 25@7 50; roughs, $7 80@7 90; stags, $5 25@6 25.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 10 cars; yearlings, $3 50@8 25; wethers, $5 25@6 75; mixed sheep, $5 00@5 25; ewes, $4 50@5 00; spring lambs, $5 50@9 50.

PITTSBURG, PA., JUNE 22.

Cattle — Supply light; choice, $8 75@9 25; prime, $8 25@8 65; tidy butchers, $7 25@7 65; heifers, $4 50@7 50; fat cows, $3 00@6 50; bulls, $4 00@7 00; calves, $6 00@8 50.

Hogs—Receipts light; heavy hogs and mediums, $7 85@7 90; heavy Yorkers, $7 80@7 85; light Yorkers, $7 50@7 65; pigs, $7 25@7 35.

Sheep and Lambs—Supply fair; prime wethers, $5 00@5 25; good mixed, $4 50@4 90; fair mixed, $4 00@4 40; yearlings, $3 00@6 75; lambs, $5 00@8 75.

TOLEDO, O., JUNE 22.

Wheat, $1 11¼; corn, 75½c; oats, 54½c; cloverseed, October $10 02.

Receiver Busy

D. T. & I. Receiver, George E. Johnson, passed through the city on No. 105 Saturday, looking after some affairs on the road. He has been over the line a number of times since his appointment, and gives everything his careful attention.

DELICIOUS FRIED SPRING CHICKEN DINNER 25c, AT SOUTHERN CAFE, SUNDAY.

Red Cross Ball Blue, all blue, best bluing value in the whole world, makes the laundress smile.

SOCIAL.

There will be a grand social at the Second Baptist church Saturday evening, given by Mrs. Jerry Lee and Mrs. Charles Blaney, for the special purpose of securing means to help rebuild the church. Refreshments and lunch. Come one, come all. 147 3t

Red Cross Ball Blue will wash double as many clothes as any other blue. Don't put your money into any other.

OLDEST SOLDIER IN BRITAIN

Recently Celebrated the Fifty-Second Anniversary of His Appointment as Royal Gunner.

The oldest soldier in the British army is said to be Samuel Parsons, the king's gunner at Windsor castle, who lately celebrated the fifty-second anniversary of his appointment as the royal gunner in the round tower of Windsor castle. Although nearly 87 years of age, he is still on the active list, and has drawn full military pay for sixty-five years. Parsons still retains all his faculties, his sight being very good, and enjoys good health. He was born at Morval, East Loo, Cornwall, in 1825, and at the age of 19 years joined the Royal artillery at Devonport. He was at Quebec with his regiment for six years, and after three years' home service was dispatched to the Crimea. After being laid up for a time with fever Parsons returned to the seat of war the day before the charge of Balaklava, although he did not take part in that memorable charge, but was present at the battle of Inkermann. After the Crimea he went to Woolwich and was appointed royal gunner at Windsor castle Oct. 17, 1859.

Parsons possesses six medals, including the Crimean medal, with bars for Sebastopol, Inkermann and Balaklava; the Turkish medal, the long service medal, Queen Victoria's jubilee medal, with a bar for the diamond jubilee; King Edward's coronation medal and King George's coronation medal. During the fifty-two years Parsons has been at the round tower there has never been an accident, relates the London Standard.

First Thimble.

There is a tradition that a Dutch silversmith pondered over a certain notion which he had cherished long and silently in the slow working senses which he deemed his brain—a notion for a trinket, a fallal, for a dignified lady of Holland. It must be a useful trinket, albeit a costly one, meet for so good a sempstress as Dame Alize Van Rensselaer. When the notion took definite shape the thing was quickly wrought in precious metal by fingers as deft as the brain was slow, and the industrious housewife proudly wore not only her first thimble, but the first thimble possessed by any Dutch frau.—Century Magazine.

The Oriental Dancer.

Charles Frohman, at a dinner at the Metropolitan club in New York, condemned a certain outrageously immodest Oriental dancer.

"She must have a nasty mind," Mr. Frohman said, "to dance like that."

"Oh, don't be too hard on her," said a playwright. "She may not understand, you know. Consider how young she is."

"I deny," said Mr. Frohman, "that she's as young as you imply; but I'm bound to admit that, even though not young, she's certainly a stripling."

The Cactus Woman.

They stood on Penn avenue and watched the girls go by, an endless procession.

"They say the clinging type of girl is disappearing."

"I believe it is. Modern woman, with the sharp-pointed buckles and her numerous hatpins, is more like a cactus than a vine."—Pittsburg Post.

Piles! Piles! Piles!

Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles. It absorbs the tumors, allays itching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for Piles and itching of the private parts. Druggists, mail 50c and $1.00. WILLIAMS MFG. CO., Props., Cleveland, Ohio

Sold at Brown's Drug Store.

MONEY

Our Money Is Good. Our Rates Are Bottom. Why Pay More?

CAPITAL LOAN CO.

Passmore Bldg., S. Fayette St

Bell Phone 316W.

The Kentucky Oil Fields

The United States Geological Survey has published a second edition of its report on the geology of the Campton oil field, Wolfe county, Ky., and the oil and natural gas field in Knox county, Ky. The report is the result of field investigation by M. J. Munn, a geologist of the Survey. The principal subject of the work in the Campton oil field was to ascertain if possible, the value of such work in locating favorable places for testing before drilling.

Mr. Munn made the statement that "good geologic work in advance of drilling could easily reduce the cost of thoroughly testing this region by at least 50 per cent." Since the publication of the first edition of the report prospecting in Wolfe County has resulted in the finding of an extension of the oil-bearing area northward from the old developments at Campton, which may result in the opening of a new pool on the northern limb of the anticline, on whose southern limb the Campton pool occurs. The altitude of the oil "sand" ("Corniferous" limestone) in these two areas appear to be practically the same. Prospecting in Wolfe County has also resulted in the discovery of a new oil pool south of Stillwater post office, 6 or 8 miles from the Campton field and within the belt previously pointed out in Mr. Munn's report as being worthy of careful geologic study. At this time it is not possible to say whether or not this new pool will prove to be of much value, as all the wells completed have been small producers. However, the additional data furnished by this prospecting have been strong corroborative evidence as to the value of geologic work in locating pools.

In the report on oil and gas in Knox county, Ky., attention is called to the fact that the finding of considerable flows of oil in a few very shallow wells in this county near Barboursville resulted in an oil excitement, during which an immense amount of valueless oil stock was sold to the public. This was followed by the collapse of the oil boom and the subsequent blacklisting of this district by oil men, without anything like a thorough testing of the deeper "sands," in which oil and gas pools of great value have been found farther north.

Want ads are profitable.

Professional Column

Funeral Directors

ALBERT R. McCOY
Funeral Director and Embalmer.
Office 222 E. Court St. Bell Tel., office 27; residence 9 R; Citizen, office, 37; residence 541.

ELMER A. KLEVER, Funeral Director.
Bell Phones: Res. 294-2; Office 294.
Citz. Phones: Res. 151; Office 150

C. H. MURRAY UNDERTAKING COMPANY,
323 E. Court St., Washington C. H.
Office—Both Phones 65.
Residence Phones, Bell 66; Home 6 or 55.

MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY TO LOAN
At all times, in any amount
Frank M. Fullerton.

MONEY TO LOAN
on real estate, chattels and personal security.
Frank M. Allen.

CASH LOANS Arranged on Pianos, Household Goods and Live Stock. $10 to $100
Small weekly or monthly payments.
Capitol Loan Company
Bell 316 w. No. Fayette St

OPTICIANS

JAMES T. TUTTLE,
Optician,
Washington C. H., Ohio,
128 E. Court St.

THE LEAKS IN A PURSE

can be stopped if you have been paying too much for your living expenses by buying your meats and poultry from this shop. Our meats are choice and cut from the primest beef, mutton, lamb, pork. You can't find better meats or lower prices at any place.

BARCHET'S MARKET.
Wholesale and Retail.

EXTRA EDITION

WASHINGTON DAILY HERALD.

BOOST
For Washington, her merchants and for public betterments. Don't knock.

VOL. 27. NO. 149 WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO. SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1912 Ten Cents a Week

TAFT IS NOMINATED

CONVENTION CLOSING WITH BIG RUSH

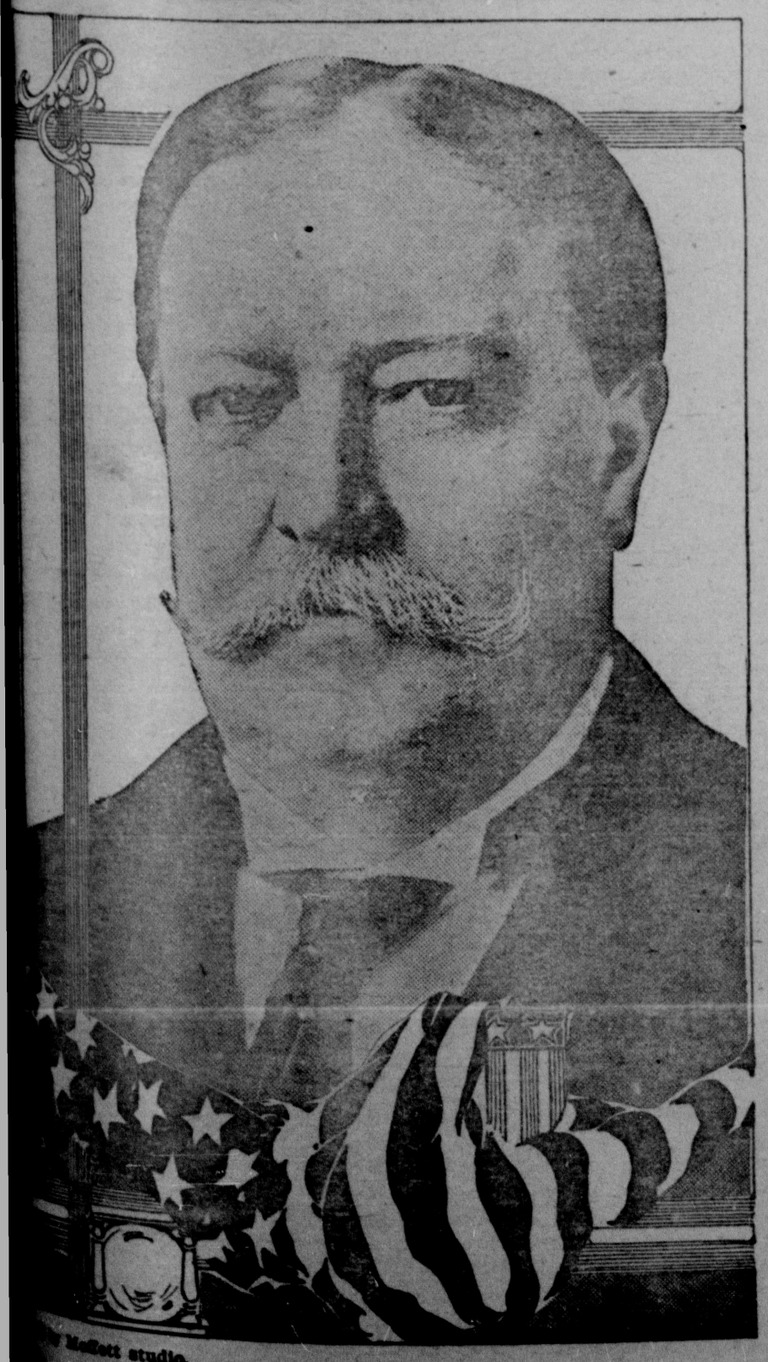
Reports Disposed of in Bunches. Speech Making Cut Short. Platform Tabled And Demands of The Tired Delegates Force Nomination.

WILD ENTHUSIASM OF VICTORIOUS TAFT DELEGATES

Chicago, Coliseum, June 22—Amid scenes of wild enthusiasm and excitement President William Howard Taft was tonight nominated for his second term as President by the Republican National Convention on the first ballot after the most tempestuous and spectacular battle in the history of theparty.

THE VICTOR

Named For President After Memorable Convention Battle.



© by Moffett studio.

PRESIDENT WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

THE LAST WILD SCENES

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Official vote on platform absent 16, present not voting 343, noes 53, ayes 666. Hauser reads message from La Follette saying cannot accept nomination on platform adopted. Roll call states for nomination candidates for president begins. Harding begins speech nominating Taft.. Looks as if La Follette might not be placed in nomination. Harding arouses good deal of cheering in direct attack on Roosevelt implies "demagogue." All Taft men standing up and cheering, waving hats and flags. Gallaries joining. Great demonstration.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Just as Harding declared Taft greates of Republican progressive Roosevelt delegate from South Dakota struck Judge McFarland, Taft delegate Florida, in face. Blood flew. Root begs delegates preserve self respect one hour more. Police parading isles. Harding cuts speech. Harding ends. Great cheering of delegates. John Wanamaker seconds nomination.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Taft banner brought in, parade falls behind. E. H. Tryon, California.. Taft delegate rushes out on platform yelling and waving arms. Senator Dixon said meeting at Orchestra Hall wauld be held 9. All Rosevelt followers to be there.

Harding has taken banner and waving it from speaker's platform.

Demonstration lasted 15 minutes. Row breaks out in rear corner of hall. Special delegates of feet.

LA FOLLETTE PLACED IN NOMINATION

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Robert M. La Follette was placed in nomination for the presidency by Robert Cullock, of South Dakota. This was followed by a big demonstration, admirers screeching "We Want Bob."

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

On the roll call of states for President the following votes were recorded, Alabama, 22 for Taft, two not voting; Arizona, 6 for Taft; Arkansas, 17 for Taft, one not voting. California, 2 for Taft, 24 not voting; Colorado 12 for Taft. Connecticut 14 for Taft; Delaware 6 for Taft; Florida 12 for Taft; Georgia, 28 for Taft; Idaho 1 for Taft and 7 for Cummins.

DELEGATES BOLT AND NOMINATE ROOSEVELT

Chicago, Coliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Olbryoh nominated La Follette. Roosevelt delegates and alternates meet in Orchestra Hall. Roosevelt nominated. He appeared, thanked them, said he recognized them as regular and would accept subject to formation and approval of New Party. Told delegates to go home, find out sentiment and meet again later. Rumor names is McCall for Vice President.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June22—Special Herald Telegram.

Friends of Justice Hughes tried last effort to effect his nomination by sending telegram asking if he would accept unanimous nomination. Hughes wired back: "Please stop any effort on my behalf, as nomination in any event would be declined."

This it is felt, settles whatever possibility there remained of a compromise on Hughes.

TEDDY WITHHOLDS CONSENT.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

"Roosevelt's name will not go before the convention with his consent," said Dixon.

After Convention is over the third party formers will meet to organize some sort of Central National Committee preparatory to holding convention of its own within next two months.

HADLEY WON'T TALK.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Governor Hadley, coming out from Roosevelt's room after a talk with the Colonel, said:. "Whether I will join any third party is a question."

SING FUNERAL HYMNS WHILE VOTE IS CAST

Chcago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

The Credentials Committee majority report on contested delegates in Florida and Mississippi. Roosevelt men stand and sing, "Nearer My God to Thee," "Lead Kindly Light" and other favorite funeral songs. Plenty of confusion at times.

NEW PARTY WORK BEGUN.

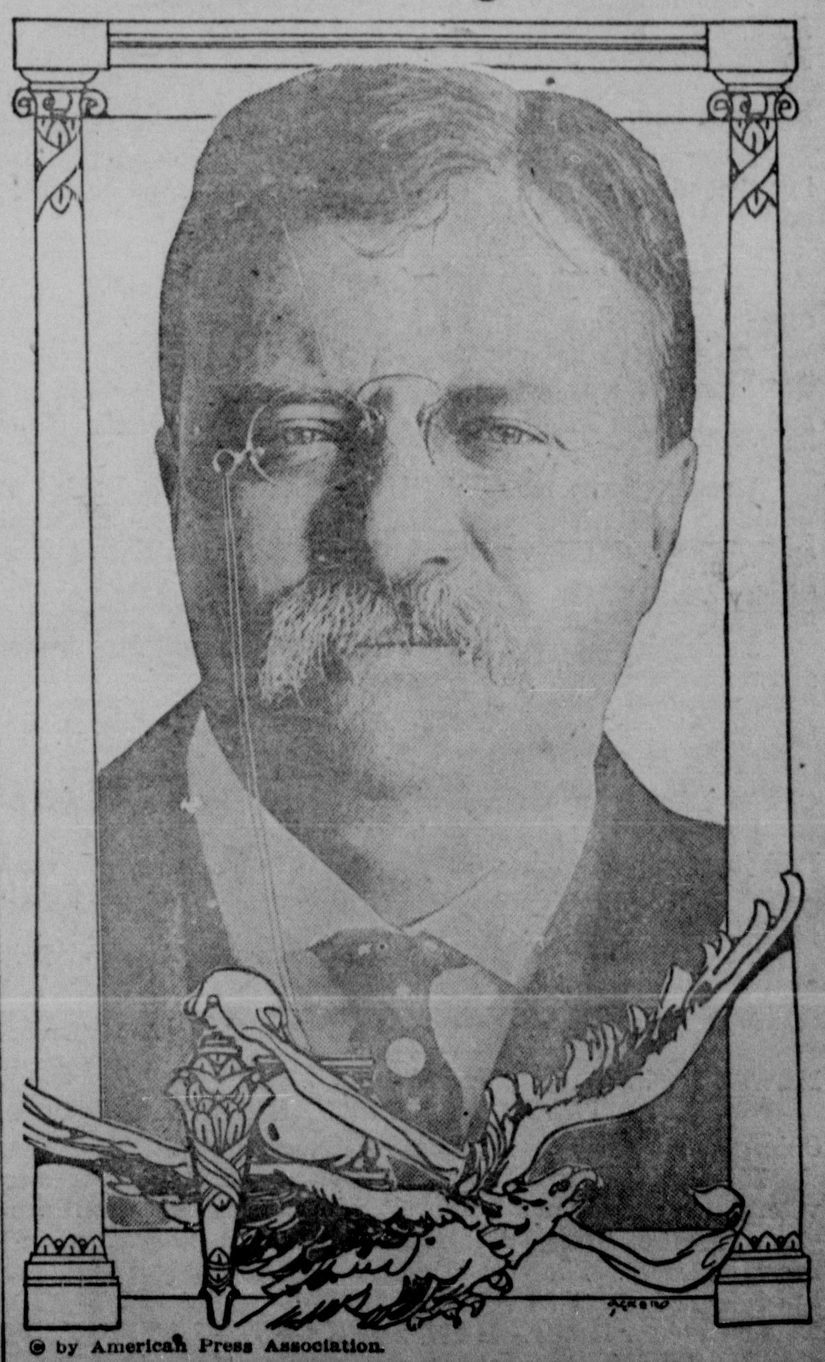
Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Informal recess, waiting further report of the Credentials Committee followed.

The ground work for new party commenced today with the circulating of the following petition, which is widely signed:

THE VANQUISHED

Fighting Ex-President Beaten After Big Contest With Organization



© by American Press Association.

EX-PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

FAIR

EXTRA EDITION

WASHINGTON DAILY HERALD.

BOOST

For Washington, her merchants and for public betterments. Don't knock.

VOL. 27. NO. 149 WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO. SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1912 Ten Cents a Week

TAFT IS NOMINATED

CONVENTION CLOSING WITH BIG RUSH

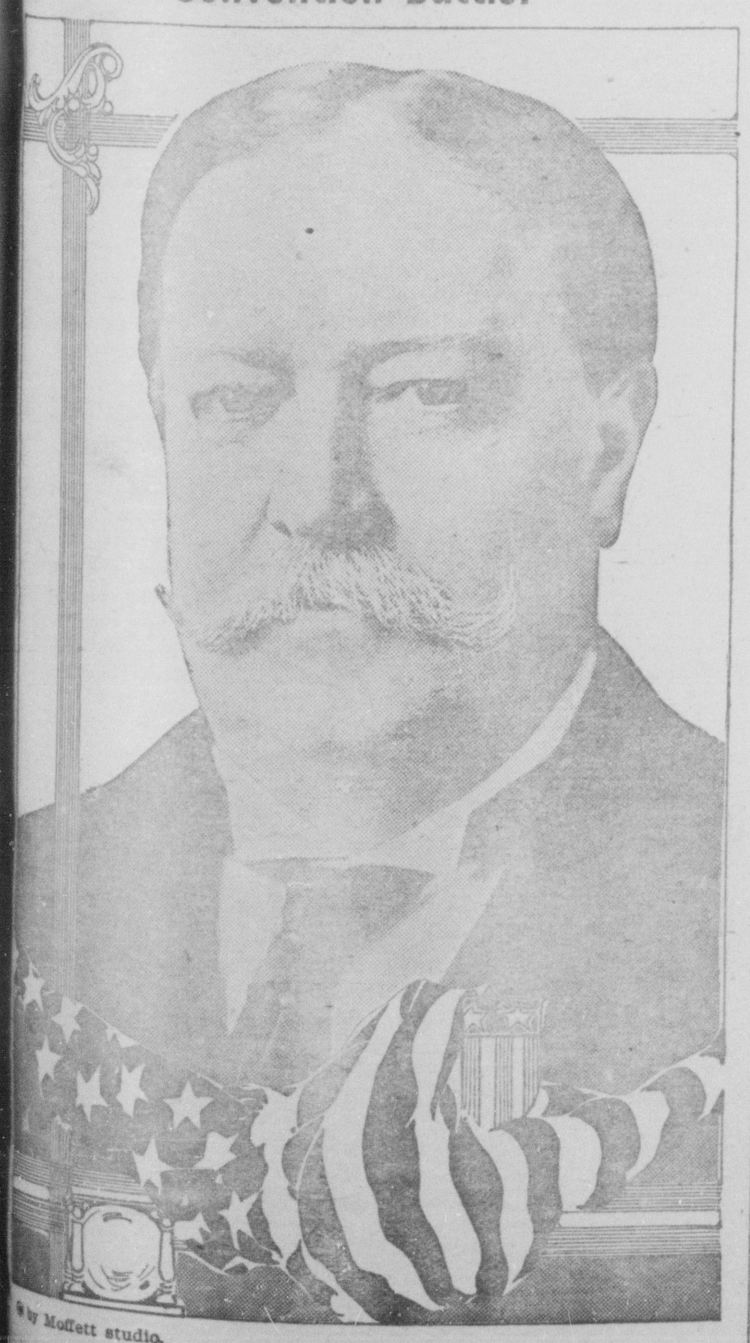
Reports Disposed of in Bunches. Speech Making Cut Short. Platform Tabled And Demands of The Tired Delegates Force Nomination.

WILD ENTHUSIASM OF VICTORIOUS TAFT DELEGATES

Chicago, Coliseum, June 22—Amid scenes of wild enthusiasm and excitement President William Howard Taft was tonight nominated for his second term as President by the Republican National Convention on the first ballot after the most tempestuous and spectacular battle in the history of theparty.

THE VICTOR

Claimed For President After Memorable Convention Battle.



© by Moffett studio.

PRESIDENT WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

THE LAST WILD SCENES

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Official vote on platform absent 16, present not voting 343, noes 53, ayes 666. Hauser reads message from La Follette saying cannot accept nomination on platform adopted. Roll call states for nomination candidates for president begins. Harding begins speech nominating Taft.. Looks as if La Follette might not be placed in nomination. Harding arouses good deal of cheering in direct attack on Roosevelt implies "demagogue." All Taft men standing up and cheering, waving hats and flags. Gallaries joining. Great demonstration.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Just as Harding declared Taft greates of Republican progressive Roosevelt delegate from South Dakota struck Judge McFarland, Taft delegate Florida, in face. Blood flew. Root begs delegates preserve self respect one hour more. Police parading isles. Harding cuts speech. Harding ends. Great cheering of delegates. John Wanamaker seconds nomination.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Taft banner brought in, parade falls behind. E. H. Tryon, California.. Taft delegate rushes out on platform yelling and waving arms. Senator Dixon said meeting at Orchestra Hall wauld be held 9. All Rosevelt followers to be there.

Harding has taken banner and waving it from speaker's platform.

Demonstration lasted 15 minutes. Row breaks out in rear corner of hall. Special delegates of feet.

LA FOLLETTE PLACED IN NOMINATION

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Robert M. La Follette was placed in nomination for the presidency by Robert Cullock, of South Dakota. This was followed by a big demonstration, admirers screeching "We Want Bob."

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

On the roll call of states for President the following votes were recorded, Alabama, 22 for Taft, two not voting; Arizona, 6 for Taft; Arkansas, 17 for Taft, one not voting. California, 2 for Taft, 24 not voting; Colorado 12 for Taft. Connecticut 14 for Taft; Delaware 6 for Taft; Florida 12 for Taft; Georgia, 28 for Taft; Idaho 1 for Taft and 7 for Cummins.

DELEGATES BOLT AND NOMINATE ROOSEVELT

Chicago, Coliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Olbryoh nominated La Follette. Roosevelt delegates and alternates meet in Orchestra Hall. Roosevelt nominated. He appeared, thanked them, said he recognized them as regular and would accept subject to formation and approval of New Party. Told delegates to go home, find out sentiment and meet again later. Rumor names is McCall for Vice President.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June22—Special Herald Telegram.

Friends of Justice Hughes tried last effort to effect his nomination by sending telegram asking if he would accept unanimous nomination. Hughes wired back: "Please stop any effort on my behalf, as nomination in any event would be declined."

This it is felt, settles whatever possibility there remained of a compromise on Hughes.

TEDDY WITHHOLDS CONSENT.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

"Roosevelt's name will not go before the convention with his consent," said Dixon.

After Convention is over the third party formers will meet to organize some sort of Central National Committee preparatory to holding convention of its own within next two months.

HADLEY WON'T TALK.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Governor Hadley, coming out from Roosevelt's room after a talk with the Colonel, said:. "Whether I will join any third party is a question."

SING FUNERAL HYMNS WHILE VOTE IS CAST

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

The Credentials Committee majority report on contested delegates in Florida and Mississippi. Roosevelt men stand and sing, "Nearer My God to Thee," "Lead Kindly Light" and other favorite funeral songs. Plenty of confusion at times.

NEW PARTY WORK BEGUN.

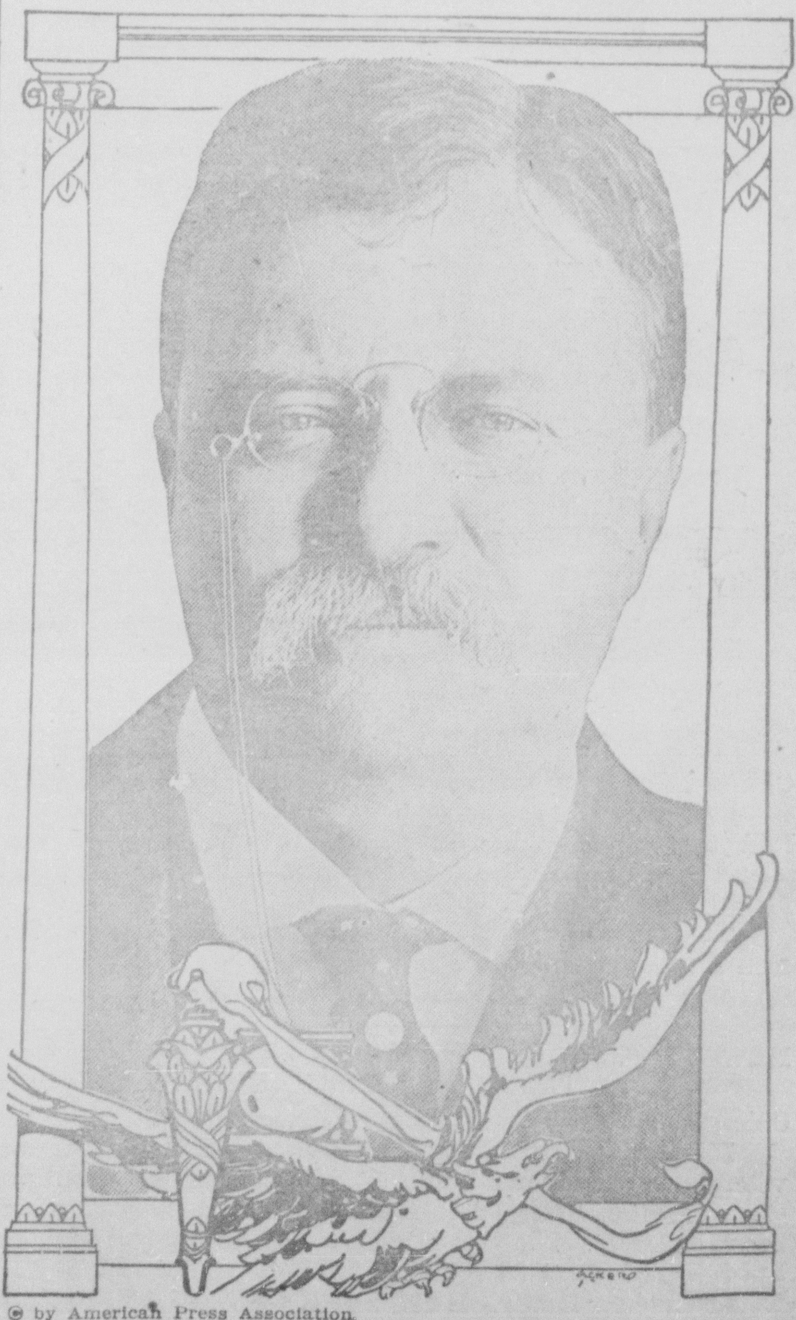
Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Informal recess, waiting further report of the Credentials Committee followed.

The ground work for new party commenced today with the circulating of the following petition, which is widely signed:

THE VANQUISHED

Fighting Ex-President Beaten After Big Contest With Organization



© by American Press Association.

EX-PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

EXTRA EDITION

WASHINGTON DAILY HERALD.

BOOST
For Washington, her merchants and for public betterments. Don't knock.

VOL. 27. NO. 149 WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO, SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1912 Ten Cents a Week

TAFT IS NOMINATED

CONVENTION CLOSING WITH BIG RUSH

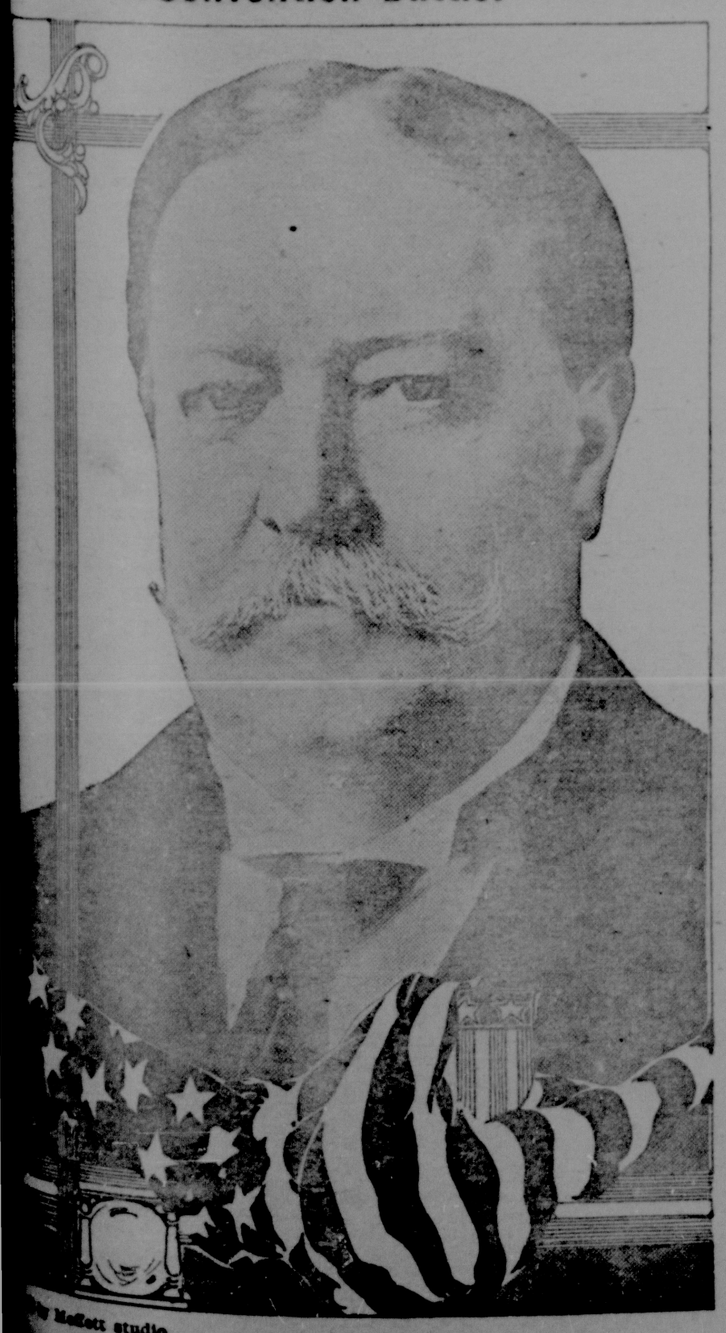
Reports Disposed of in Bunches. Speech Making Cut Short. Platform Tabled And Demands of The Tired Delegates Force Nomination.

WILD ENTHUSIASM OF VICTORIOUS TAFT DELEGATES

Chicago, Coliseum, June 22—Amid scenes of wild enthusiasm and excitement President William Howard Taft was tonight nominated for his second term as President by the Republican National Convention on the first ballot after the most tempestuous and spectacular battle in the history of theparty.

THE VICTOR

Named For President After Memorable Convention Battle.



Bain Moffett studio.

PRESIDENT WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

THE LAST WILD SCENES

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Official vote on platform absent 16, present not voting 343, noes 53, ayes 666. Hauser reads message from La Follette saying cannot accept nomination on platform adopted. Roll call states for nomination candidates for president begins. Harding begins speech nominating Taft.. Looks as if La Follette might not be placed in nomination. Harding arouses good deal of cheering in direct attack on Roosevelt implies "demagogue." All Taft men standing up and cheering, waving hats and flags. Gallaries joining. Great demonstration.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Just as Harding declared Taft greates of Republican progressive Roosevelt delegate from South Dakota struck Judge McFarland, Taft delegate Florida, in face. Blood flew. Root begs delegates preserve self respect one hour more. Police parading isles. Harding cuts speech. Harding ends. Great cheering of delegates. John Wanamaker seconds nomination.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Taft banner brought in, parade falls behind. E. H. Tryon, California.. Taft delegate rushes out on platform yelling and waving arms. Senator Dixon said meeting at Orchestra Hall wauld be held 9. All Rosevelt followers to be there.

Harding has taken banner and waving it from speaker's platform.

Demonstration lasted 15 minutes. Row breaks out in rear corner of hall. Special delegates of feet.

LA FOLLETTE PLACED IN NOMINATION

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Robert M. La Follette was placed in nomination for the presidency by Robert Cullock, of South Dakota. This was followed by a big demonstration, admirers screeching "We Want Bob."

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

On the roll call of states for President the following votes were recorded, Alabama, 22 for Taft, two not voting; Arizona, 6 for Taft; Arkansas, 17 for Taft, one not voting. California, 2 for Taft, 24 not voting; Colorado 12 for Taft. Connecticut 14 for Taft; Delaware 6 for Taft; Florida 12 for Taft; Georgia, 28 for Taft; Idaho 1 for Taft and 7 for Cummins.

DELEGATES BOLT AND NOMINATE ROOSEVELT

Chicago, Coliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Olbryoh nominated La Follette. Roosevelt delegates and alternates meet in Orchestra Hall. Roosevelt nominated. He appeared, thanked them, said he recognized them as regular and would accept subject to formation and approval of New Party. Told delegates to go home, find out sentiment and meet again later. Rumor names is McCall for Vice President.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June22—Special Herald Telegram.

Friends of Justice Hughes tried last effort to effect his nomination by sending telegram asking if he would accept unanimous nomination. Hughes wired back: "Please stop any effort on my behalf, as nomination in any event would be declined."

This it is felt, settles whatever possibility there remained of a compromise on Hughes.

TEDDY WITHHOLDS CONSENT.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

"Roosevelt's name will not go before the convention with his consent," said Dixon.

After Convention is over the third party formers will meet to organize some sort of Central National Committee preparatory to holding convention of its own within next two months.

HADLEY WON'T TALK.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Governor Hadley, coming out from Roosevelt's room after a talk with the Colonel, said:. "Whether I will join any third party is a question."

SING FUNERAL HYMNS WHILE VOTE IS CAST

Chcago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

The Credentials Committee majority report on contested delegates in Florida and Mississippi. Roosevelt men stand and sing, "Nearer My God to Thee," "Lead Kindly Light" and other favorite funeral songs. Plenty of confusion at times.

NEW PARTY WORK BEGUN.

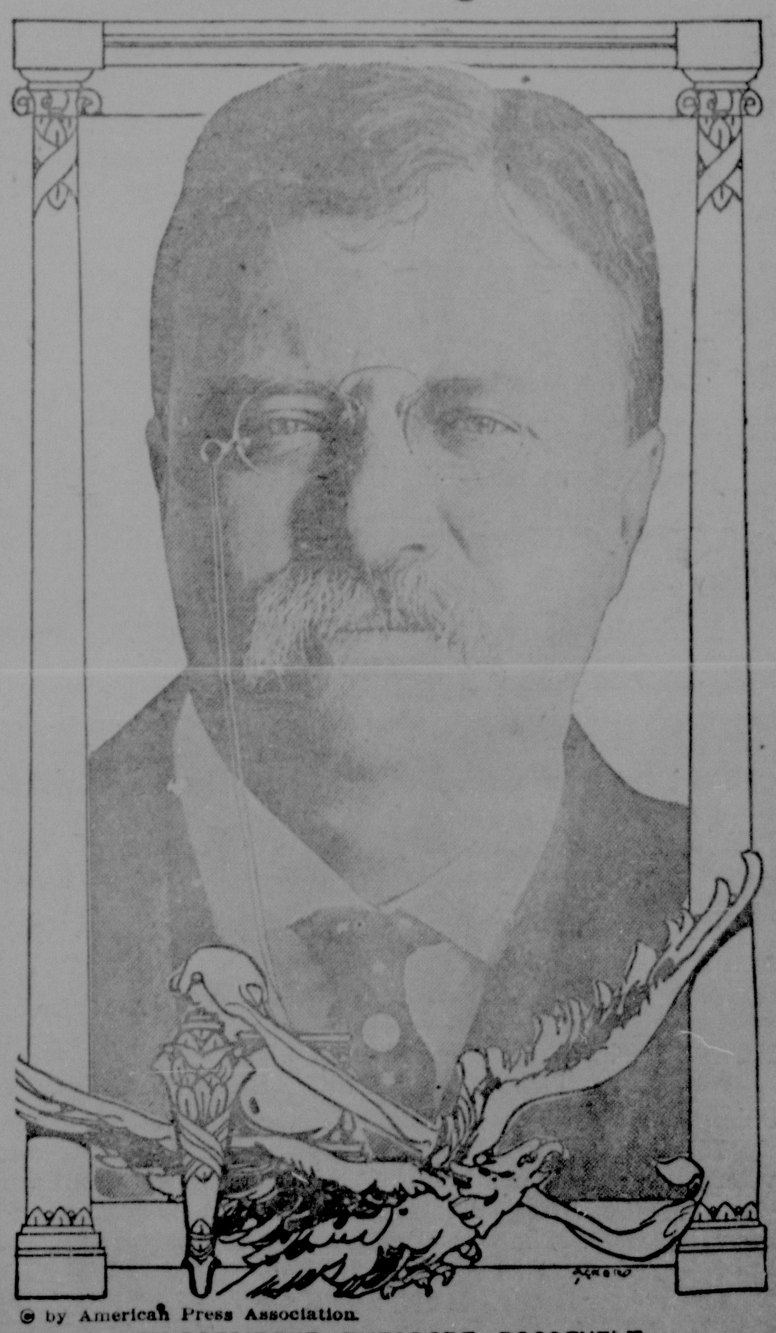
Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Informal recess, waiting further report of the Credentials Committee followed.

The ground work for new party commenced today with the circulating of the following petition, which is widely signed:

THE VANQUISHED

Fighting Ex-President Beaten After Big Contest With Organization



© by American Press Association.

EX-PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

"We, the undersigned, denouncing fraud perpetrated by the so-called National Committee of the Republican party, dedicate ourselves to the progressive principles advocated and maintained by Roosevelt, the next President of the United States."

Roosevelt held a conference with his unseated delegates this afternoon.

SAME OLD STORY.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

The Credentials Committee, majority report, on Virginia contest adopted. Rule committee split question of Southern representation. Minority members representing Progressive element wanted representation in all Sothern States based on actual Republican vote cast at the last presidential election. Majority report demanded old Representation direct election of National Committeemen was recognized but the majority cleared up the question of actual term of office, inserting the following provisions: "Term of service of members of the National Committee shall begin within ten days after adjournment of the National Convention called, and upon the organization of the new Committee and shall terminate within ten days after adjournment of convention which it calls, and open organization of new committee.

The National Committee shall have power to declare vacant seat of any member who refuses to support the nominees of convention which elected such National Republican committee and to fill such vacancy, later. This provision was aimed at those members of the committee who had been declaring they would not suport Ttaft if nominated, notably members from West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Most extraordinary convention in the history of the Republican party approaches climax. Great excitement prevails. Taft's renomination seems assured. Yet there is so much loose dynamite in the situation that anything seems possible. At noon Taft's leaders were having difficulty in getting vice presidential candidate. Hadley not at all enthusiastic according to Congressman Payne. Determined efforts made to get Cummins. He was urged by telephone, but refused point blank. Senator Kenyon also refused. Indiana delegates booming Fairbanks and Watson. Meanwhile Sherman boomers insist he should eventually be choice. According to Colonel New, Congressman McCall, Mass., would be nominated were it not that leaders did not want to go into New England for a candidate unless had to.

ROOT NAMED CHAIfRMAN.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Credentails Committee majority reports on Texas adopeted. This concludes action on the Credetials Committee's report. Temporary organigation made permanent.

ROOT GETS OVATION. MAKES ADDRESS.

Henry Allen, Kansay reads Roosevelt's delegates report.

JOHNSON WITHDRAWS.

GOVERNOR JOHNSON WITHDRAWS FROM THE CONVENTION. HE MADE STATEMENT THAT HE WOULD NOT SIT IN CONVENTION DURING NOMINATION FOR PRESIDENT.

HE CLAIHS LAW OF STATE OF CALIFORNIA NULLIFIED BY FRAUDULENT ROLL. IT WAS REQUESTED THAT CALIFORNIA DELEGATES REMAIN IN THEIR SEATS.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Later—Rules committee report presented and laid on table. Will take action later.

Also minority report tabled on Watson's motion. Platform was submitted by resolutions committee and read by FAIRBANKS.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Later—President will be nominated immediately following the adoption of a platform. Then will be adjournment until later when vice president will be named.

ROOSEVELT DEFEATED IN COMMITTEE.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Walter Cowens of Wisconsin reads La Follette platform which secured money trust declared for initiative, referendum and recall and advocated direct primaries in election from president down.

Roosevelt men on resolutions committee have decided to present no minority report. Hadley said only dissapointment on the Roosevelt side was cause of defeat in committee of presidential preference primary plank which was voted down majority of one.

Fairbanks moves table La Follette platform; 20 minutes allowed for debate.

FAIRBANKS MOTION CARRIED

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Fairbanks' motion to table La Follette's platform carried Roll on platform call begins. California refuses to vote. Wild cheers of approval from Roosevelt men. California vote challenged. Roll of delegates is called.

This is to permit Taft delegates to vote for platform. Two men from California vote aye amid cheers and hisses. The Convention in WILD STATE OF EXCITEMENT.

NEW YORK PRACTICALLY SOLID FOR TAFT; MAKES BIG GAIN IN MISSOURI

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Idaho votes with Taft side. Kansas and Maine refuse to vote, thus carrying out Roosevelt delegates as announced program. Most of Illinois delegates flopped to Taft. This caused boos and hisses. The vote is challenged and roll call begins.

Missouri votes 36 ayes; 20 TEDDY MEN FLOPPED. Taft men cheer loudly. NEW YORK CAST 85 AYES, TAFT GAINING TEN.

OHIO STANDS FOR ROOSEVELT. 34 refuse to vote.

BAINTER THROWS FIT PRISONER WALKS AWAY

Chief McCoy Starts to Workhouse With Three Prisoners, One Gets Sick and Another Escapes.

"GOPHER" SMITH IN THE WORKS

Albert Denner Seizes Opportunity and Bolts for Liberty at B. & O. Depot Early This Morning. Hoggy Bainter Taken to Home of Relative to Recover.

While Chief of Police McCoy was at the B. & O. depot awaiting the arrival of the early morning train so he could escort "Hoggy" Bainter, Albert Denner and "Gopher" Smith to the Columbus workhouse Saturday morning, Bainter suddenly threw a fit, falling to the floor and writhing in agony, and while Chief McCoy's attention was occupied with him for a moment Denner slipped quietly out of the depot and hot-footed it for parts unknown. In the end Chief McCoy was forced to board the train with only one of the men, "Gopher" Smith.

Arrangements had been made for taking Bainter and Denner to the workhouse, and late Friday evening it developed that "Gopher" Smith was in the city, and the police were ordered to arrest him and bring him in.

Smith is the man who was recently arrested on a charge of bootlegging, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $100 and costs and given 30 days in the workhouse. This was altered by most of the fine being suspended providing $25 and the costs were paid. Smith was released to secure the amount, dug up part of it and then disappeared.

When it became known that he was at home on "Flat Iron row" Cogswell and Bell went after him. Cogswell spied the man standing near the water tank at the "Point" and told him to come along. This was the signal for Smith to show his heels, which he did with surprising agaility. "Halt!" yelled Cogswell, and when Smith continued to run he pulled his gun and fired two shots, neither of which struck the fleeing man, but brought him to a standstill with his hands pointing toward the stars. He was locked up, commitment papers made out and arrangements made to take him to the workhouse with Bainter and Denner.

The report that Cogswell had shot the man spread throughout the city, but this was erroneous, the officer shooting to scare and not to hit.

When Chief McCoy landed at the depot with his three prisoners, Smith and Bainter were handcuffed together, and when Bainter threw the fit he pulled Smith to the floor with him. It was while Chief McCoy was releasing Smith from the painful grip of bracelets that Denner took the sprinting fever and bolted for liberty. He was out of sight in a moment, going at break-neck speed.

Bainter was taken to the home of Jack Bainter, who lives just across from the B. & O. and placed on a bed, where he remained for a long time in a semi-conscious condition.

Denner's bolt for liberty probably saves the county the expense of maintaining him in the workhouse, for if he ever returns the old fine will be enforced.

O. E. S.

Regular meeting of Royal Chapter No. 29, O. E. S., Monday evening, June 24, at 7:30. All members are requested to be present. Initiation and social hour.

VERA V. VEAIL, W. M.
MAE RODGERS, Secy.

NOTICE TO KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

On Wednesday evening, June 26th, members of Confidence lodge will entertain their families, sojourning Knights and their families and the families of deceased members, with a social session. The attendance of all included in this notice is desired. Program will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

COMMITTEE.

Aged Conductor Makes Last Trip

John Green, for 25 years a conductor on the D. T. & I. railroad, died at his home in Springfield Friday night after a short illness.

No man on the road is better known than Conductor Green, and the road has always found him efficient and always "on the job".

During the past few years he has been running between Ironton and Jackson, being a passenger conductor.

Sues for $263 Promissory Note

John Harbine has brought suit for the recovery of $263 with interest from February 8th, 1912, making Elmer Allen the defendant in the suit.

A copy of the note is attached and the plaintiff claims that it was issued to the Live Stock Remedy Company and endorsed by them to the plaintiff, who now seeks judgment in full.

Trusted Public Servant Probably $11,000 Short

Charles E. Stocklen, owner of a grocery in Circleville, a highly respected citizen and treasurer of Circleville township, has disappeared, and his whereabouts is unknown, and according to the latest information from Circleville, several thousand dollars of the township's money has disappeared with him.

Stocklen, who had always held the confidence of the people and was widely known, numbering quite a few Washington and Fayette citizens among his friends, left about one week ago, and nothing has since been heard from him. The following article in Saturday's Enquirer probably sheds some light on the reason for his sudden leave-taking:

"Charles E. Stocklin, Treasurer of Circleville township, left his home in this city Thursday, the 13th, and no tidings have been received from him since. He said he would be back early, and left ostensibly for Columbus.

His accounts as Township Treasurer had just been checked by Inspector C. E. Godfrey, of the Auditor of State's office, and apparently were in a satisfactory condition. Since his departure two certificates of deposit on the Second National bank of this city for $5,000 each, which he exhibited to the inspector as a part of the township funds, are missing, and have been declared to be forgeries by the bank officials, who say Stocklin never had any funds of any kind on deposit there.

These, it is charged, were used as a blind to tide him over the inspection examination, and were immediately afterward destroyed. It is said he lost $16,000 in a mine, and in his efforts to recoup used the township funds. His alleged shortage is said to be approximately $11,000. The prosecuting attorney says a warrant will be issued today."

Fire Traps Plentiful Due To Carelessness

In a great many basement rooms in the city can be found an accumulation of boxes, boards, paper, excelsior and other highly inflammable material which only requires a spark to kindle a dangerous blaze in the heart of city blocks.

The average citizen in placing the inflammable material in the basement becomes so accustomed to seeing the accumulation that he does not pause to think that he is virtually building a heap of fagots under his place of business, but trusts to luck to take care of the dangerous material and prevent it from catching on fire.

One man who recently had occasion to visit a number of basement rooms states that he was greatly surprised at the ease with which a fire of very disastrous kind could be started—only a spark accidentally dropped being all that is required to kindle the pile of material.

"When one knows the condition of the average basement", said the man, "he is really surprised that there are not ten times more fires than there are, for the average basement is used as a catch-all for everything imaginable."

In the average city where lax observation of ordinances relating to the piling of inflammable material in or near buildings, is the custom, fire dangers are fifty per cent. greater than where a careful watch is maintained for material which is liable to start a disastrous fire.

A little care on the part of those who allow boxes, barrels, excelsior and other material to be piled in a heap in the basement or even a part of the business room itself, will greatly lessen fire dangers in any city, and especially in Washington.

Off For the Campaign With a Fast String

Wert Mallow, With Three Fast Campaigners and Two Green Trotters, Left This Morning.

GETS AWAY IN ELEGANT STYLE

The Tried and True Old Veteran, Major Mallow, Is the "Dean" of the Bunch.

After spending the winter or offseason at the local track, Wert Mallow shipped by Pennsylvania railroad in a special car, his string of speeders, consisting of three sidewheelers, Major Mallow, 2:03 1-4; Irish Lad, 2:12 1-4; C. O. R., a campaigner of two years' experience, and two green trotters, Bonnie Dotte and Georgia Fly.

Going with this aristocratic bunch of horse flesh are five care-takers, one blacksmith and a cook.

The horses and attendants will, leaving here Saturday morning, stop first at Coshocton for the spring races which open there next week.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to follow by train Sunday morning, arriving in Coshocton late Sunday evening ready for the work bright and early Monday morning.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to try out his string on the half mile tracks in less pretentious company before tackling the bigger game on the mile tracks.

Later on it is likely that the three pacers will campaign on the Grand Circuit speedways. It was in this blue ribbon society that Major Mallow made his great reputation and his fastest time.

Irish Lad has not yet joined in a contest with the fastest horses in the country, but may do so this year.

Owner and driver Mallow feels confident that a good season awaits him. His horses have had good training and are in tip-top condition.

From the youngsters in the string he expects great things.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

NAT. BANK OF COMMERCE,
Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

WOMEN SAVE MONEY.

Women are natural money-savers, no matter how much is said about what they spend for dresses and hats. They always know how to make a dollar go the farthest. That's why thoughtful women discover that by using Easy Task soap in their laundry work they save fuel and time and trouble and health and more than that, they save the clothes that are washed. Easy Task has no rosin in it to stay in the clothes and hold the dirt with it and rot the fabric.

Two Killed and Two Fatally Hu

Special to Herald.

Conneaut, O., June 22.—Conductor Lyttle and Brakeman Ransen killed. Engineer Curtis and Brakeman Lamb fatally injured in rear end collision on Nickle Plate railroad.

OBITUARY.

Sarah E. Coonrod, whose maiden name was Davey, wife of Oliver Coonrod, daughter of John and Mary Davey, was born July the 18th, 18 in Hampshire county, W. Va. about 2 years of age she came with her parents and settled near Zanesville, O., where she grew up to manhood. At about 21 years of she was united to W. B. Crooks the holy bonds of matrimony, the 8th, 1860.

Mr. Crooks was a Union sol and died in Andersonville pris September, 1864.

Feb. 28th, 1866, she became faithful wife of Morgan T. Sm who died Oct. 28th, 1893. To th unions were born 8 children, 6 s and 2 daughters.

June the 19th, 1902, she took solemn vow of holy matrimony Oliver Coonrod, of Washington C. O., and faithfully lived up to promise until death, May the 3 1912, aged 72 years, 10 months 12 days.

After appropriate services held at the residence in Washing C. H., O., her remains were put the train and conveyed to the ce tery of her choice near Purgitsv W. Va. Four sons, many relati and friends, listened to a fine talk Rev. Brunk of the U. B. church. leaves a husband, 4 sons and daughter to mourn the great loss.

Norman J. and Col. W. E. Cro of Keyser, W. Va., Frank C. and L. Smith, respectively, of Purg ville and Piedmont, W. Va., and Carrie Gault, of Washington C. O. She also leaves 3 brothers a sisters to remember the good exam of her life, W. E. Davey, of Leba Mo.; James and Frank Davey, Rebecca Gault, Mrs. Lena Back stoe, of Washington C. H., O., Mrs. Phebe Smith, of Iowa. Coonrod died as she had lived friend to everybody. From girlh until death she was a strong belie in the Christian religion and li out more than she professed. W the hour of death came, she ready and willing to go at the M ter's call, and with a smiling fell asleep in Jesus.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep
From which none ever wake weep."

When Jesus shall rule over all earth, King of kings and Lord lords thou wilt be one of His lo subjects to rejoice and praise him so great salvation. When all re in heaven, earth and sea are prais God, thy voice will help to swell great song of praise unto the La that was slain, but liveth again, ever and ever, Amen.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our sinc thanks to the friends and neigh who so kindly tendered their serv during the sickness of our loved o

O. COONROD AND FAMILY.

DELICIOUS FRIED SPRING CHI EN DINNER 25c, AT SOUTH CAFE, SUNDAY.

SECRET OF BEAUTIFUL HAI

"Grace, do you member what uriant hair Melba had, we heard her Grand Opera?"

"Yes, Mary, I also know secret for it; have seen two ferent letters in her own handw ing, which she gave to Kate Se Mason, the noted English Hair S ialist, stating she owes it all to treatment.

"Mrs. Mason's Old English S poo Cream—made from her vate formula—may now be obta at Blackmer & Tanquary's Store right here in Washingto H., and it is so easy for one to s poo one's own hair with it, and a satisfaction to know, when rub it into the scalp that it not cleanses the hair and scalp beaut ly, but it has tonic properties will make the hair grow."

"It is only 25c a tube, enoug several shampoos, and Blackm Tanquary will return your mon you do not like it."

NOTICE TO JR. O. U. A.

Regular meeting Monday eve June 24. Degree work and ref ments. Let all members be pr

W. G. EVANS, S

"We, the undersigned, denouncing fraud perpetrated by the so-called National Committee of the Republican party, dedicate ourselves to the progressive principles advocated and maintained by Roosevelt, the next President of the United States."

Roosevelt held a conference with his unseated delegates this afternoon.

SAME OLD STORY.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

The Credentials Committee, majority report, on Virginia contest adopted. Rule committee split question of Southern representation. Minority members representing Progressive element wanted representation in all Sothern States based on actual Republican vote cast at the last presidential election. Majority report demanded old Representation direct election of National Committeemen was recognized but the majority cleared up the question of actual term of office, inserting the following provisions: "Term of service of members of the National Committee shall begin within ten days after adjournment of the National Convention called, and upon the organization of the new Committee and shall terminate within ten days after adjournment of convention which it calls, and open organization of new committee.

The National Committee shall have power to declare vacant seat of any member who refuses to support the nominees of convention which elected such National Republican committee and to fill such vacancy, later. This provision was aimed at those members of the committee who had been declaring they would not suport Ttaft if nominated, notably members from West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Most extraordinary convention in the history of the Republican party approaches climax. Great excitement prevails. Taft's renomination seems assured. Yet there is so much loose dynamite in the situation that anything seems possible. At noon Taft's leaders were having difficulty in getting vice presidential candidate. Hadley not at all enthusiastic according to Congressman Payne. Determined efforts made to get Cummins. He was urged by telephone, but refused point blank. Senator Kenyon also refused. Indiana delegates booming Fairbanks and Watson. Meanwhile Sherman boomers insist he should eventually be choice. According to Colonel New, Congressman McCall, Mass., would be nominated were it not that leaders did not want to go into New England for a candidate unless had to.

ROOT NAMED CHAIfiRMAN.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Credentails Committee majority reports on Texas adopeted. This concludes action on the Credetials Committee's report. Temporary organigation made permanent.

ROOT GETS OVATION. MAKES ADDRESS.

Henry Allen, Kansay reads Roosevelt's delegates report.

JOHNSON WITHDRAWS.

GOVERNOR JOHNSON WITHDRAWS FROM THE CONVENTION. HE MADE STATEMENT THAT HE WOULD NOT SIT IN CONVENTION DURING NOMINATION FOR PRESIDENT.

HE CLAIHS LAW OF STATE OF CALIFORNIA NULLIFIED BY FRAUDULENT ROLL. IT WAS REQUESTED THAT CALIFORNIA DELEGATES REMAIN IN THEIR SEATS.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Later—Rules committee report presented and laid on table. Will take action later.

Also minority report tabled on Watson's motion. Platform was submitted by resolutions committee and read by FAIRBANKS.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Later—President will be nominated immediately following the adoption of a platform. Then will be adjournment until later when vice president will be named.

ROOSEVELT DEFEATED IN COMMITTEE.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Walter Cowens of Wisconsin reads La Follette platform which secured money trust declared for initiative, referendum and recall and advocated direct primaries in election from president down.

Roosevelt men on resolutions committee have decided to present no minority report. Hadley said only dissapointment on the Roosevelt side was cause of defeat in committee of presidential preference primary plank which was voted down majority of one.

Fairbanks moves table La Follette platform; 20 minutes allowed for debate.

FAIRBANKS MOTION CARRIED

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Fairbanks' motion to table La Follette's platform carried Roll on platform call begins. California refuses to vote. Wild cheers of approval from Roosevelt men. California vote challenged. Roll of delegates is called.

This is to permit Taft delegates to vote for platform. Two men from California vote aye amid cheers and hisses. The Convention in WILD STATE OF EXCITEMENT.

NEW YORK PRACTICALLY SOLID FOR TAFT; MAKES BIG GAIN IN MISSOURI

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Idaho votes with Taft side. Kansas and Maine refuse to vote, thus carrying out Roosevelt delegates as announced program. Most of Illinois delegates flopped to Taft. This caused boos and hisses. The vote is challenged and roll call begins.

Missouri votes 36 ayes; 20 TEDDY MEN FLOPPED. Taft men cheer loudly. NEW YORK CAST 85 AYES, TAFT GAINING TEN.

OHIO STANDS FOR ROOSEVELT. 34 refuse to vote.

BAINTER THROWS FIT PRISONER WALKS AWAY

Chief McCoy Starts to Workhouse With Three Prisoners, One Gets Sick and Another Escapes.

"GOPHER" SMITH IN THE WORKS

Albert Denner Seizes Opportunity and Bolts for Liberty at B. & O. Depot Early This Morning. Hoggy Bainter Taken to Home of Relative to Recover.

While Chief of Police McCoy was at the B. & O. depot awaiting the arrival of the early morning train so he could escort "Hoggy" Bainter, Albert Denner and "Gopher" Smith to the Columbus workhouse Saturday morning, Bainter suddenly threw a fit, falling to the floor and writhing in agony, and while Chief McCoy's attention was occupied with him for a moment Denner slipped quietly out of the depot and hot-footed it for parts unknown. In the end Chief McCoy was forced to board the train with only one of the men, "Gopher" Smith.

Arrangements had been made for taking Bainter and Denner to the workhouse, and late Friday evening it developed that "Gopher" Smith was in the city, and the police were ordered to arrest him and bring him in.

Smith is the man who was recently arrested on a charge of bootlegging, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $100 and costs and given 30 days in the workhouse. This was altered by most of the fine being suspended providing $25 and the costs were paid. Smith was released to secure the amount, dug up part of it and then disappeared.

When it became known that he was at home on "Flat Iron row" Cogswell and Bell went after him. Cogswell spied the man standing near the water tank at the "Point" and told him to come along. This was the signal for Smith to show his heels, which he did with surprising agaility. "Halt!" yelled Cogswell, and when Smith continued to run he pulled his gun and fired two shots, neither of which struck the fleeing man, but brought him to a standstill with his hands pointing toward the stars. He was locked up, commitment papers made out and arrangements made to take him to the workhouse with Bainter and Denner.

The report that Cogswell had shot the man spread throughout the city, but this was erroneous, the officer shooting to scare and not to hit.

When Chief McCoy landed at the depot with his three prisoners, Smith and Bainter were handcuffed together, and when Bainter threw the fit he pulled Smith to the floor with him. It was while Chief McCoy was releasing Smith from the painful grip of bracelets that Denner took the sprinting fever and bolted for liberty. He was out of sight in a moment, going at break-neck speed.

Bainter was taken to the home of Jack Bainter, who lives just across from the B. & O. and placed on a bed, where he remained for a long time in a semi-conscious condition.

Denner's bolt for liberty probably saves the county the expense of maintaining him in the workhouse, for if he ever returns the old fine will be enforced.

O. E. S.

Regular meeting of Royal Chapter No. 29, O. E. S., Monday evening, June 24, at 7:30. All members are requested to be present. Initiation and social hour.

VERA V. VEAIL, W. M.
MAE RODGERS, Secy.

NOTICE TO KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

On Wednesday evening, June 26th, members of Confidence lodge will entertain their families, sojourning Knights and their families and the families of deceased members, with a social session. The attendance of all included in this notice is desired. Program will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

COMMITTEE.

Aged Conductor Makes Last Trip

John Green, for 25 years a conductor on the D. T. & I. railroad, died at his home in Springfield Friday night after a short illness.

No man on the road is better known than Conductor Green, and the road has always found him efficient and always "on the job".

During the past few years he has been running between Ironton and Jackson, being a passenger conductor.

Sues for $263 Promissory Note

John Harbine has brought suit for the recovery of $263 with interest from February 8th, 1912, making Elmer Allen the defendant in the suit.

A copy of the note is attached and the plaintiff claims that it was issued to the Live Stock Remedy Company and endorsed by them to the plaintiff, who now seeks judgment in full.

Trusted Public Servant Probably $11,000 Short

Charles E. Stocklen, owner of a grocery in Circleville, a highly respected citizen and treasurer of Circleville township, has disappeared, and his whereabouts is unknown, and according to the latest information from Circleville, several thousand dollars of the township's money has disappeared with him.

Stocklen, who had always held the confidence of the people and was widely known, numbering quite a few Washington and Fayette citizens among his friends, left about one week ago, and nothing has since been heard from him. The following article in Saturday's Enquirer probably sheds some light on the reason for his sudden leave-taking:

"Charles E. Stocklin, Treasurer of Circleville township, left his home in this city Thursday, the 13th, and no tidings have been received from him since. He said he would be back early, and left ostensibly for Columbus.

His accounts as Township Treasurer had just been checked by Inspector C. E. Godfrey, of the Auditor of State's office, and apparently were in a satisfactory condition. Since his departure two certificates of deposit on the Second National bank of this city for $5,000 each, which he exhibited to the inspector as a part of the township funds, are missing, and have been declared to be forgeries by the bank officials, who say Stocklin never had any funds of any kind on deposit there.

These, it is charged, were used as a blind to tide him over the inspection examination, and were immediately afterward destroyed. It is said he lost $16,000 in a mine, and in his efforts to recoup used the township funds. His alleged shortage is said to be approximately $11,000. The prosecuting attorney says a warrant will be issued today."

Fire Traps Plentiful Due To Carelessness

In a great many basement rooms in the city can be found an accumulation of boxes, boards, paper, excelsior and other highly inflammable material which only requires a spark to kindle a dangerous blaze in the heart of city blocks.

The average citizen in placing the inflammable material in the basement becomes so accustomed to seeing the accumulation that he does not pause to think that he is virtually building a heap of fagots under his place of business, but trusts to luck to take care of the dangerous material and prevent it from catching on fire.

One man who recently had occasion to visit a number of basement rooms states that he was greatly surprised at the ease with which a fire of very disastrous kind could be started—only a spark accidentally dropped being all that is required to kindle the pile of material.

"When one knows the condition of the average basement", said the man, "he is really surprised that there are not ten times more fires than there are, for the average basement is used as a catch-all for everything imaginable."

In the average city where lax observation of ordinances relating to the piling of inflammable material in or near buildings, is the custom, fire dangers are fifty per cent. greater than where a careful watch is maintained for material which is liable to start a disastrous fire.

A little care on the part of those who allow boxes, barrels, excelsior and other material to be piled in a heap in the basement or even a part of the business room itself, will greatly lessen fire dangers in any city, and especially in Washington.

Off For the Campaign With a Fast String

Wert Mallow, With Three Fast Campaigners and Two Green Trotters, Left This Morning.

GETS AWAY IN ELEGANT STYLE

The Tried and True Old Veteran, Major Mallow, Is the "Dean" of the Bunch.

After spending the winter or offseason at the local track, Wert Mallow shipped by Pennsylvania railroad in a special car, his string of speeders, consisting of three sidewheelers, Major Mallow, 2:03 1-4; Irish Lad, 2:12 1-4; C. O. R., a campaigner of two years' experience, and two green trotters, Bonnie Dotte and Georgia Fly.

Going with this aristocratic bunch of horse flesh are five care-takers, one blacksmith and a cook.

The horses and attendants will, leaving here Saturday morning, stop first at Coshocton for the spring races which open there next week.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to follow by train Sunday morning, arriving in Coshocton late Sunday evening ready for the work bright and early Monday morning.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to try out his string on the half mile tracks in less pretentious company before tackling the bigger game on the mile tracks.

Later on it is likely that the three pacers will campaign on the Grand Circuit speedways. It was in this blue ribbon society that Major Mallow made his great reputation and his fastest time.

Irish Lad has not yet joined in a contest with the fastest horses in the country, but may do so this year.

Owner and driver Mallow feels confident that a good season awaits him. His horses have had good training and are in tip-top condition.

From the youngsters in the string he expects great things.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

NAT. BANK OF COMMERCE.
Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

WOMEN SAVE MONEY.

Women are natural money-savers, no matter how much is said about what they spend for dresses and hats. They always know how to make a dollar go the farthest. That's why thoughtful women discover that by using Easy Task soap in their laundry work they save fuel and time and trouble and health and more than that, they save the clothes that are washed. Easy Task has no rosin in it to stay in the clothes and hold the dirt with it and rot the fabric.

Two Killed and Two Fatally Hurt

Special to Herald.

Conneaut, O., June 22.—Conductor Lyttle and Brakeman Ransen killed. Engineer Curtis and Brakeman Lamb fatally injured in rear end collision on Nickle Plate railroad.

OBITUARY.

Sarah E. Coonrod, whose maiden name was Davey, wife of Oliver Coonrod, daughter of John and Mary Davey, was born July the 18th, 18[illegible] in Hampshire county, W. Va. about 2 years of age she came with her parents and settled near Zanesville, O., where she grew up to womanhood. At about 21 years of age she was united to W. B. Crooks by the holy bonds of matrimony, March the 8th, 1860.

Mr. Crooks was a Union soldier and died in Andersonville prison September, 1864.

Feb. 28th, 1866, she became the faithful wife of Morgan T. Smith who died Oct. 28th, 1893. To these unions were born 8 children, 6 sons and 2 daughters.

June the 19th, 1902, she took the solemn vow of holy matrimony with Oliver Coonrod, of Washington C. H., O., and faithfully lived up to this promise until death, May the 20th, 1912, aged 72 years, 10 months and 12 days.

After appropriate services were held at the residence in Washington C. H., O., her remains were put on the train and conveyed to the cemetery of her choice near Purgitsville, W. Va. Four sons, many relatives and friends, listened to a fine talk by Rev. Brunk of the U. B. church. She leaves a husband, 4 sons and one daughter to mourn the great loss.

Norman J. and Col. W. E. Crooks of Keyser, W. Va., Frank C. and L. L. Smith, respectively, of Purgitsville and Piedmont, W. Va., and Mrs. Carrie Gault, of Washington C. H., O. She also leaves 3 brothers and sisters to remember the good example of her life, W. E. Davey, of Lebanon, Mo.; James and Frank Davey, Mrs. Rebecca Gault, Mrs. Lena Backstoe, of Washington C. H., O., and Mrs. Phebe Smith, of Iowa. Mrs. Coonrod died as she had lived, a friend to everybody. From girlhood until death she was a strong believer in the Christian religion and lived out more than she professed. When the hour of death came, she was ready and willing to go at the Master's call, and with a smiling face fell asleep in Jesus.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep
From which none ever wake to weep."

When Jesus shall rule over all the earth, King of kings and Lord of lords thou wilt be one of His loyal subjects to rejoice and praise him for so great salvation. When all voices in heaven, earth and sea are praising God, thy voice will help to swell the great song of praise unto the Lamb that was slain, but liveth again, for ever and ever, Amen.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly tendered their services during the sickness of our loved one.

O. COONROD AND FAMILY.

DELICIOUS FRIED SPRING CHICKEN DINNER 25c, AT SOUTHERN CAFE, SUNDAY.

SECRET OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

"Grace, do you remember what luxuriant hair Melba had, when we heard her in Grand Opera?"

"Yes, Mary, I also know the secret for it, I have seen two different letters in her own handwriting, which she gave to Kate Seaman Mason, the noted English Hair Specialist, stating she owes it all to the treatment.

"Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream—made from her private formula—may now be obtained at Blackmer & Tanquary's Drug Store right here in Washington C. H., and it is so easy for one to shampoo one's own hair with it, and such a satisfaction to know, when rubbing it into the scalp that it not only cleanses the hair and scalp beautifully, but it has tonic properties which will make the hair grow."

"It is only 25c a tube, enough for several shampoos, and Blackmer & Tanquary will return your money if you do not like it."

NOTICE TO JR. O. U. A. M.

Regular meeting Monday evening, June 24. Degree work and refreshments. Let all members be present.

W. G. EVANS, Sec.

"We, the undersigned, denouncing fraud perpetrated by the so-called National Committee of the Republican party, dedicate ourselves to the progressive principles advocated and maintained by Roosevelt, the next President of the United States."

Roosevelt held a conference with his unseated delegates this afternoon.

SAME OLD STORY.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

The Credentials Committee, majority report, on Virginia contest adopted. Rule committee split question of Southern representation. Minority members representing Progressive element wanted representation in all Sothern States based on actual Republican vote cast at the last presidential election. Majority report demanded old Representation direct election of National Committeemen was recognized but the majority cleared up the question of actual term of office, inserting the following provisions: "Term of service of members of the National Committee shall begin within ten days after adjournment of the National Convention called, and upon the organization of the new Committee and shall terminate within ten days after adjournment of convention which it calls, and open organization of new committee.

The National Committee shall have power to declare vacant seat of any member who refuses to support the nominees of convention which elected such National Republican committee and to fill such vacancy, later. This provision was aimed at those members of the committee who had been declaring they would not suport Ttaft if nominated, notably members from West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Most extraordinary convention in the history of the Republican party approaches climax. Great excitement prevails. Taft's renomination seems assured. Yet there is so much loose dynamite in the situation that anything seems possible. At noon Taft's leaders were having difficulty in getting vice presidential candidate. Hadley not at all enthusiastic according to Congressman Payne. Determined efforts made to get Cummins. He was urged by telephone, but refused point blank. Senator Kenyon also refused. Indiana delegates booming Fairbanks and Watson. Meanwhile Sherman boomers insist he should eventually be choice. According to Colonel New, Congressman McCall, Mass., would be nominated were it not that leaders did not want to go into New England for a candidate unless had to.

ROOT NAMED CHAIRMAN.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Credentails Committee majority reports on Texas adopeted. This concludes action on the Credetials Committee's report. Temporary organigation made permanent.

ROOT GETS OVATION. MAKES ADDRESS.

Henry Allen, Kansay reads Roosevelt's delegates report.

JOHNSON WITHDRAWS.

GOVERNOR JOHNSON WITHDRAWS FROM THE CONVENTION. HE MADE STATEMENT THAT HE WOULD NOT SIT IN CONVENTION DURING NOMINATION FOR PRESIDENT.

HE CLAIHS LAW OF STATE OF CALIFORNIA NULLIFIED BY FRAUDULENT ROLL. IT WAS REQUESTED THAT CALIFORNIA DELEGATES REMAIN IN THEIR SEATS.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Later—Rules committee report presented and laid on table. Will take action later.

Also minority report tabled on Watson's motion. Platform was submitted by resolutions committee and read by FAIRBANKS.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Later—President will be nominated immediately following the adoption of a platform. Then will be adjournment until later when vice president will be named.

ROOSEVELT DEFEATED IN COMMITTEE.

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Walter Cowens of Wisconsin reads La Follette platform which secured money trust declared for initiative, referendum and recall and advocated direct primaries in election from president down.

Roosevelt men on resolutions committee have decided to present no minority report. Hadley said only dissapointment on the Roosevelt side was cause of defeat in committee of presidential preference primary plank which was voted down majority of one.

Fairbanks moves table La Follette platform; 20 minutes allowed for debate.

FAIRBANKS MOTION CARRIED

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Fairbanks' motion to table La Follette's platform carried Roll on platform call begins. California refuses to vote. Wild cheers of approval from Roosevelt men. California vote challenged. Roll of delegates is called.

This is to permit Taft delegates to vote for platform. Two men from California vote aye amid cheers and hisses. The Convention in WILD STATE OF EXCITEMENT.

NEW YORK PRACTICALLY SOLID FOR TAFT; MAKES BIG GAIN IN MISSOURI

Chicago, Colliseum Hall, June 22—Special Herald Telegram.

Idaho votes with Taft side. Kansas and Maine refuse to vote, thus carrying out Roosevelt delegates as announced program. Most of Illinois delegates flopped to Taft. This caused boos and hisses. The vote is challenged and roll call begins.

Missouri votes 36 ayes; 20 TEDDY MEN FLOPPED. Taft men cheer loudly. NEW YORK CAST 85 AYES, TAFT GAINING TEN.

OHIO STANDS FOR ROOSEVELT. 34 refuse to vote.

BAINTER THROWS FIT PRISONER WALKS AWAY

Chief McCoy Starts to Workhouse With Three Prisoners, One Gets Sick and Another Escapes.

"GOPHER" SMITH IN THE WORKS

Albert Denner Seizes Opportunity and Bolts for Liberty at B. & O. Depot Early This Morning. Hoggy Bainter Taken to Home of Relative to Recover.

While Chief of Police McCoy was at the B. & O. depot awaiting the arrival of the early morning train so he could escort "Hoggy" Bainter, Albert Denner and "Gopher" Smith to the Columbus workhouse Saturday morning, Bainter suddenly threw a fit, falling to the floor and writhing in agony, and while Chief McCoy's attention was occupied with him for a moment Denner slipped quietly out of the depot and hot-footed it for parts unknown. In the end Chief McCoy was forced to board the train with only one of the men, "Gopher" Smith.

Arrangements had been made for taking Bainter and Denner to the workhouse, and late Friday evening it developed that "Gopher" Smith was in the city, and the police were ordered to arrest him and bring him in.

Smith is the man who was recently arrested on a charge of bootlegging, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $100 and costs and given 30 days in the workhouse. This was altered by most of the fine being suspended providing $25 and the costs were paid. Smith was released to secure the amount, dug up part of it and then disappeared.

When it became known that he was at home on "Flat Iron row" Cogswell and Bell went after him. Cogswell spied the man standing near the water tank at the "Point" and told him to come along. This was the signal for Smith to show his heels, which he did with surprising agaility. "Halt!" yelled Cogswell, and when Smith continued to run he pulled his gun and fired two shots, neither of which struck the fleeing man, but brought him to a standstill with his hands pointing toward the stars. He was locked up, commitment papers made out and arrangements made to take him to the workhouse with Bainter and Denner.

The report that Cogswell had shot the man spread throughout the city, but this was erroneous, the officer shooting to scare and not to hit.

When Chief McCoy landed at the depot with his three prisoners, Smith and Bainter were handcuffed together, and when Bainter threw the fit he pulled Smith to the floor with him. It was while Chief McCoy was releasing Smith from the painful grip of bracelets that Denner took the sprinting fever and bolted for liberty. He was out of sight in a moment, going at break-neck speed.

Bainter was taken to the home of Jack Bainter, who lives just across from the B. & O. and placed on a bed, where he remained for a long time in a semi-conscious condition.

Denner's bolt for liberty probably saves the county the expense of maintaining him in the workhouse, for if he ever returns the old fine will be enforced.

O. E. S.

Regular meeting of Royal Chapter No. 29, O. E. S., Monday evening, June 24, at 7:30. All members are requested to be present. Initiation and social hour.

VERA V. VEAIL, W. M.
MAE RODGERS, Secy.

NOTICE TO KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

On Wednesday evening, June 26th, members of Confidence lodge will entertain their families, sojourning Knights and their families and the families of deceased members, with a social session. The attendance of all included in this notice is desired. Program will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

COMMITTEE.

Aged Conductor Makes Last Trip

John Green, for 25 years a conductor on the D. T. & I. railroad, died at his home in Springfield Friday night after a short illness.

No man on the road is better known than Conductor Green, and the road has always found him efficient and always "on the job".

During the past few years he has been running between Ironton and Jackson, being a passenger conductor.

Sues for $263 Promissory Note

John Harbine has brought suit for the recovery of $263 with interest from February 8th, 1912, making Elmer Allen the defendant in the suit.

A copy of the note is attached and the plaintiff claims that it was issued to the Live Stock Remedy Company and endorsed by them to the plaintiff, who now seeks judgment in full.

Trusted Public Servant Probably $11,000 Short

Charles E. Stocklen, owner of a grocery in Circleville, a highly respected citizen and treasurer of Circleville township, has disappeared, and his whereabouts is unknown, and according to the latest information from Circleville, several thousand dollars of the township's money has disappeared with him.

Stocklen, who had always held the confidence of the people and was widely known, numbering quite a few Washington and Fayette citizens among his friends, left about one week ago, and nothing has since been heard from him. The following article in Saturday's Enquirer probably sheds some light on the reason for his sudden leave-taking:

"Charles E. Stocklin, Treasurer of Circleville township, left his home in this city Thursday, the 13th, and no tidings have been received from him since. He said he would be back early, and left ostensibly for Columbus.

His accounts as Township Treasurer had just been checked by Inspector C. E. Godfrey, of the Auditor of State's office, and apparently were in a satisfactory condition. Since his departure two certificates of deposit on the Second National bank of this city for $5,000 each, which he exhibited to the inspector as a part of the township funds, are missing, and have been declared to be forgeries by the bank officials, who say Stocklin never had any funds of any kind on deposit there.

These, it is charged, were used as a blind to tide him over the inspection examination, and were immediately afterward destroyed. It is said he lost $16,000 in a mine, and in his efforts to recoup used the township funds. His alleged shortage is said to be approximately $11,000. The prosecuting attorney says a warrant will be issued today."

Fire Traps Plentiful Due To Carelessness

In a great many basement rooms in the city can be found an accumulation of boxes, boards, paper, excelsior and other highly inflammable material which only requires a spark to kindle a dangerous blaze in the heart of city blocks.

The average citizen in placing the inflammable material in the basement becomes so accustomed to seeing the accumulation that he does not pause to think that he is virtually building a heap of fagots under his place of business, but trusts to luck to take care of the dangerous material and prevent it from catching on fire.

One man who recently had occasion to visit a number of basement rooms states that he was greatly surprised at the ease with which a fire of very disastrous kind could be started—only a spark accidentally dropped being all that is required to kindle the pile of material.

"When one knows the condition of the average 'basement'", said the man, "he is really surprised that there are not ten times more fires than there are, for the average basement is used as a catch-all for everything imaginable."

In the average city where lax observation of ordinances relating to the piling of inflammable material in or near buildings, is the custom, fire dangers are fifty per cent. greater than where a careful watch is maintained for material which is liable to start a disastrous fire.

A little care on the part of those who allow boxes, barrels, excelsior and other material to be piled in a heap in the basement or even a part of the business room itself, will greatly lessen fire dangers in any city, and especially in Washington.

Off For the Campaign With a Fast String

Wert Mallow, With Three Fast Campaigners and Two Green Trotters, Left This Morning.

GETS AWAY IN ELEGANT STYLE

The Tried and True Old Veteran, Major Mallow, Is the "Dean" of the Bunch.

After spending the winter or off-season at the local track, Wert Mallow shipped by Pennsylvania railroad in a special car, his string of speeders, consisting of three side-wheelers, Major Mallow, 2:03 1-4; Irish Lad, 2:12 1-4; C. O. R., a campaigner of two years' experience, and two green trotters, Bonnie Dotte and Georgia Fly.

Going with this aristocratic bunch of horse flesh are five care-takers, one blacksmith and a cook.

The horses and attendants will, leaving here Saturday morning, stop first at Coshocton for the spring races which open there next week.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to follow by train Sunday morning, arriving in Coshocton late Sunday evening ready for the work bright and early Monday morning.

It is Mr. Mallow's intention to try out his string on the half mile tracks in less pretentious company before tackling the bigger game on the mile tracks.

Later on it is likely that the three pacers will campaign on the Grand Circuit speedways. It was in this blue ribbon society that Major Mallow made his great reputation and his fastest time.

Irish Lad has not yet joined in a contest with the fastest horses in the country, but may do so this year.

Owner and driver Mallow feels confident that a good season awaits him. His horses have had good training and are in tip-top condition.

From the youngsters in the string he expects great things.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

NAT. BANK OF COMMERCE,
Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

WOMEN SAVE MONEY.

Women are natural money-savers, no matter how much is said about what they spend for dresses and hats. They always know how to make a dollar go the farthest. That's why thoughtful women discover that by using Easy Task soap in their laundry work they save fuel and time and trouble and health and more than that, they save the clothes that are washed. Easy Task has no rosin in it to stay in the clothes and hold the dirt with it and rot the fabric.

Two Killed and Two Fatally Hu

Special to Herald.

Conneaut, O., June 22.—Co ductor Lyttle and Brakema Ransen killed. Engineer Curt and Brakeman Lamb fatally i jured in rear end collision Nickle Plate railroad.

OBITUARY.

Sarah E. Coonrod, whose ma name was Davey, wife of Oliver C rod, daughter of John and Mar Davey, was born July the 18th, 1 in Hampshire county, W. Va. about 2 years of age she came her parents and settled near Z ville, O., where she grew up to manhood. At about 21 years o she was united to W. B. Crook the holy bonds of matrimony, the 8th, 1860.

Mr. Crooks was a Union s and died in Andersonville p September, 1864.

Feb. 28th, 1866, she became faithful wife of Morgan T. S who died Oct. 28th, 1893. To unions were born 8 children, 6 and 2 daughters.

June the 19th, 1902, she too solemn vow of holy matrimony Oliver Coonrod, of Washington O., and faithfully lived up to promise until death, May the 1912, aged 72 years, 10 month 12 days.

After appropriate services held at the residence in Washi C. H., O., her remains were p the train and conveyed to the tery of her choice near Purgit W. Va. Four sons, many rela and friends, listened to a fine ta Rev. Brunk of the U. B. church leaves a husband, 4 sons and daughter to mourn the great lo

Norman J. and Col. W. E. Cr of Keyser, W. Va., Frank C. a L. Smith, respectively, of Pu ville and Piedmont, W. Va., and Carrie Gault, of Washington C. O. She also leaves 3 brothers a sisters to remember the good exa of her life, W. E. Davey, of Leb Mo.; James and Frank Davey, Rebecca Gault, Mrs. Lena Ba stoe, of Washington C. H., O., Mrs. Phebe Smith, of Iowa. Coonrod died as she had liv friend to everybody. From gir until death she was a strong be in the Christian religion and out more than she professed. the hour of death came, she ready and willing to go at the ter's call, and with a smiling fell asleep in Jesus.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep From which none ever wak weep."

When Jesus shall rule over a earth, King of kings and Lo lords thou wilt be one of His l subjects to rejoice and praise hi so great salvation. When all in heaven, earth and sea are pra God, thy voice will help to swel great song of praise unto the that was slain, but liveth again ever and ever, Amen.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our si thanks to the friends and neig who so kindly tendered their se during the sickness of our loved

O. COONROD AND FAMI

DELICIOUS FRIED SPRING CH EN DINNER 25c, AT SOUTI CAFE, SUNDAY.

SECRET OF BEAUTIFUL HA

"Grace, do y member wha uriant hair Melba had, we heard h Grand Opera

"Yes, Mary I also know secret for have seen tw ferent letters in her own han ing, which she gave to Kate S Mason, the noted English Hair ialist, stating she owes it all t treatment.

"Mrs. Mason's Old English poo Cream—made from he vate formula—may now be obt at Blackmer & Tanquary's Store right here in Washingt H., and it is so easy for one to poo one's own hair with it, and a satisfaction to know, when ru it into the scalp that it not cleanses the hair and scalp beau ly, but it has tonic properties will make the hair grow."

"It is only 25c a tube, enou several shampoos, and Blackm Tanquary will return your mo you do not like it."

NOTICE TO JR. O. U. A.

Regular meeting Monday ev June 24. Degree work and re ments. Let all members be pr

W. G. EVANS,

IN SOCIETY

One of the prettiest and most recherche of afternoon teas was given from four to six o'clock Friday afternoon by Mrs. Bertha S. Miller, in honor of her guest, Mrs. John Bixler, of Lafayette, Ind., and Mrs. Byron Gifford, of Chicago.

The artistic home formed the background for sixty women in lovely summer toilets and in its exquisite decorations flaunted June the month of roses.

The rooms were radiant with a profusion of crimson ramblers, their brilliant bloom filling jardiners and vases in graceful clusters, and a tall vase of blue larkspur won the admiration of the guests.

The dining room was a picture, the pretty table having for its centerpiece a beautiful basket of white carnations and crimson ramblers, and the ramblers banking sideboard and serving table.

Mrs. Miller, always the most charming of hostesses, was wearing black chiffon, embroidered in lavender, over white taffeta.

Mrs. Bixler, who is a pretty brunette with very attractive manner, wore a becoming white lingerie gown of lace and mull.

Mrs. Gifford, nee Anna Louise Rothrock, was as glad to see all her old friends as they were to see her, and was looking lovely in a hand-embroidered white batiste over pink.

Assisting in the afternoon's cordial hospitalities were Mrs. Frank L. Stutson, Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, Mrs. Fuller Hess, Mrs. Albert Glascock, Mrs. Gerrie Spragg and Miss Florence Ustick.

Receiving at the door were two handsome little pages in white, Mrs. Miller's son, Oliver, and Mrs. Bixler's son, Jack.

Mrs. Carl Baer, of Hope, Ark., was also an out-of-town guest.

Miss Dorothy Bush, the talented young pianist who won the silver medal at the W. C. T. U. musical contest last week, gave a pleasing piano recital Friday afternoon at the Stinson Conservatory.

Miss Bush played six numbers with exceptional expression and accuracy for so young a pupil. She was assisted by Miss Virginia Sites in a duet and pretty solo.

After the recital Mrs. Stinson took thirty-five of the younger students of the Conservatory for an automobile ride and then to Willis park, where they spent a merry hour with swings, games and refreshments.

Upon their return Miss Bush treated the crowd to ices and cream.

Miss Marie Melvin gave a beautiful party for Miss Bertha Briggs, a bride of next week, Friday evening.

Thirty girl friends of Miss Briggs were in attendance and the affair resulted in a "Kitchen Shower," with a number of useful gifts for culinary use, largely aluminum ware.

A white and crimson color scheme was artistically carried out in quantities of crimson ramblers, white lilies and elder blossoms and crimson hearts.

The red and white was also employed in the delicious refreshments served.

Miss Briggs was wearing a very pretty gown of white batiste embroidered in blue, and Miss Melvin white dimity, lace trimmed.

During the evening Miss Margaret McClure added to the pleasure of the occasion with brilliant piano renditions.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. George Melvin, Misses Margaret Briggs and Ann Lawrence.

The wedding of Miss Ann Kirby Quinn, whose engagement to Mr. Herbert Allan Ottewill, of London, England, was recently announced, will not be solemnized at the bride's home here as was originally intended, but will take place in London on July 2d, the bride's mother, Mrs. L. S. Quinn, and her uncle, Mr. Kirby Smith, being in that city. Mr. Smith expects to come home early in July and Mrs. Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will come over in August. After a visit here Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will go to China where the groom is in the British Consular service.—Hillsboro Gazette, June 21.

Mr. Albert Glascock is spending the day in Cincinnati.

• • •

Prof. D. A. Ferree is in Columbus taking his M. A. degree.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, are spending Sunday here.

• • •

Mr. A. L. Cherry, of Ghormley's Station, is a business visitor here today.

• • •

Mrs. W. A. Patton, of Leesburg, was the guest of Mrs. Al Martin, Friday.

• • •

Mr. George Adams and son, Wilbur, went to Cincinnati to attend the races today.

• • •

Mrs. Harry Colwell is the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Colwell in Lancaster.

• • •

Mrs. A. Dewey and daughter, Corrine, of Leesburg, were the guests of Mrs. Hibben Ervin Friday.

• • •

Miss Helen Harper left this morning on a ten days' visit with Miss Sarah Holmes in Augusta, Ky.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cave returned today from a pleasant outing in Springfield and at Russel's Point.

• • •

Miss Sybel Hoover, who has been the guest of Miss Helen Willis, left this morning for her home in Gibson, Ill.

• • •

Miss Charlotte Dahl returned this morning from a visit of several weeks with a school friend at Nashville, Tenn.

• • •

Mrs. Isaac Cook returns to St. Louis, Mo., Sunday, after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCrea.

• • •

Mr. H. A. Thissel, of Philadelphia, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. G. M. Ustick and daughter, Miss Florence, for a couple of days.

• • •

Mrs. A. E. Baum, Mrs. Kate Latham and Fred Bradfute, spent Wednesday in Springfield, attending the G. A. R. encampment.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cissna, Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford and Ruth and Nell Cissna, made a motoring trip to Dayton yesterday.

• • •

Mrs. Walter McLean and children, Richard and Lucile, are visiting Mrs. McLean's mother, Mrs. Ada Fortune in Pittsburg, Pa., and will also visit in Albion, Pa.

• • •

Master Billy Merriweather is visiting his uncle, Mr. William Merriweather at Reeseville. Mr. Nicholas Merriweather accompanied his nephew, returning tonight.

• • •

Mrs. Chas. Reid returned last evening from Chicago where she accompanied her husband to attend the Convention. Hon. C. A. Reid expected to remain until tonight.

• • •

Mr. F. B. Creamer returned Friday from a business trip to Texas, Mrs. Creamer also returning from Hillsboro, where she visited her mother, Mrs. Hickle, during his absence.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Van Winkle and son, Ervin, are spending the week end in Cincinnati and Mrs. Van Winkle will remain next week to be the guest of Mrs. Geo. Fabb

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. George Hays and Delbert, Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. N. S. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snider and daughter, Sylvia, and Miss Fern Sunkle, were among the week's visitors at the Springfield encampment.

• • •

Mrs. Thomas Cheesman, of Mt. Auburn, Cincinnati, visited Mrs. Lelia Counts the past two days, enroute from the encampment at Springfield, which she attended as a Cincinnati delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dale and daughters, made a motoring trip to Princetown to visit relatives this week. Miss Pauline Dale remained for an indefinite stay.

• • •

Mr. L. W. Buckmaster is down from Columbus for the day. Washington friends regret to learn that Mrs. Buckmaster has been dangerously ill during the past few weeks. Her present condition is more hopeful.

• • •

Mr. R. C. Hunt has returned from a ten days' business trip to Adairville and Bowling Green, Ky., accompanied by his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. W. Hunt and son, Edward, who will be Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's guests.

• • •

Miss Josephine Porter and little niece, Martha Porter, have returned from a visit in Cincinnati, Norwood and Lebanon. At Lebanon they visited Miss Porter's niece, Miss Lida Posey, who is attending the university.

• • •

Mrs. Ellis Ramsey and two children, arrived from Saginaw, Mich., Friday evening and will reside with Capt. Ramsey, who has opened his beautiful home on Washington avenue, after having it closed during the winter season. Mr. Ramsey expects to join his wife shortly.

• • •

Mrs. French Wilson, of Williamsp[illegible]; Mrs. O. C. Wilson, of Zanesville, spent Thursday and Friday the guests of Miss Ruth Smithers. Miss Smithers has for her guest at present, Mrs. A. H. Tinker and granddaughter, Ruth, and Miss Madge Putman, of Frankfort.

• • •

Miss Louise Weaver has returned from Wilson college, Chambersburg, Pa., to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver. Since the college closed, Miss Weaver visited school friends in New York and Trenton, N. J.

• • •

Dr. Robert Thornton returned today from Columbus, where he has been taking the state medical examinations, subsequent to his graduation from the Ohio Starling Medical college. After a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Thornton, Dr. Thornton returns to the capital city to take the position of interne in the Protestant hospital.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rodecker and children, and Mrs. Anna Hicks motored to Springfield to attend the encampment this week and brought back with them Mr. Rodecker's mother, Mrs. Ellen Rodecker, who was W. R. C. delegate from Lancaster to the encampment. Mrs. Rodecker returned to Lancaster today.

Screen Doors and Windows rewired—called for and delivered. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

WHEN SERVANTS WERE SLAVES.

It hasn't been so many years since servants were practically slaves; they were bound out for a term of years and never could hope to better their conditions. The world is advancing, however, and now servants, especially those who do washing and housecleaning, are better treated. Easy Task laundry soap, that does half the work itself, and which cleans pots and pans and painted work like magic, is responsible for much of this emancipation. Only 5 cents a cake, too.

Pumps repaired. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Tri-County Chautauqua, Greenfield, Aug. 1 to 11 Inclusive

The Seventh Assembly of the Tri-County Chautauqua Association at Greenfield, has been set for August 1 to 11, inclusive. The association owns beautiful Chautauqua park with a magnificent steel auditorium and other extensive improvements. Every year has witnessed a notable advance and this year will be no exception to the general rule. The recreative side of Chautauqua life will be especially emphasized, and tennis courts, croquet grounds, quoits, base ball and other games provided.

The program is one of unusual strength. From nine o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night, every hour is filled with lectures, music and entertainment. A special feature is the engagement of Price's Premier band for three open-air concerts daily.

Four other splendid musical organizations have been engaged, the Hearon sister, the Mendelssohn Male Quartette, The Ernest Gamble Concert party and the Kaffir Boy Choir.

The lecturers include Richmond Pearson Robson, Ernest Thompson Seaton, Governor Hoch, of Kansas, "Mother" Lake, the foremost woman orator on the Chautauqua platform, Frank Dixon, Adam Bede, Prof. Gilbert, Chas. E. Thorn, Geo. W. Phillips and others equally well known.

The readers and impersonators include Lulu Tyler Gates, Maude Willis, Miss Edna Haas, and the Pierces in short plays and sketches A program of interest is the "Songs and Stories of the Red Men" by the Gales.

The morning programs have been made especially strong in the interest of the large number of campers who remain permanently on the grounds. Prof. Gilbert will conduct a class in Nature Study and Rev. Geo. Phillips will deliver a remarkable series of Bible lectures.

Another Strong Lecture Course

The purchasing committee of the Jeffersonville Lecture Course, consisting of H. L. Hire, S. M. Taggart, M. F. Hudson, J. A. McKillip and G. W. Blessing, met at the Farmers' bank rooms recently and selected the following talent for 1912-13: Opening number, White's Musical Review, the date will be announced later. The other numbers, whose dates will also be announced later, are Dr. Newell D. Hillis, Geo. R. Stewart, The Opollo Concert Co., and Leland T. Powers, entertainer.

The committee believe they have a strong attraction and if the price indicates anything it will be the best ever given in the history of the Jeffersonville Lecture course.

When the Lecture Course was first started, some twelve or fifteen years ago, the expense was guaranteed by a large number of business men. The price of the talent at that time was from $175 to $250 and the price for a season ticket was, as it is now, $1.00. From the very start it paid its way, with a small profit, which was set aside, it not being the intention of the promoters to make it a profit-sharing institution, until the profits amounted to something like $500. The committee and officers deemed it prudent to secure better talent, which they have done for the past three or four years. This met with the approval of the lecture going class, for the attendance has increased so that the receipts are meeting the talent at a cost of $575 to $650, leaving the original surplus in the hands of the treasurer.

The influence of this lecture course has had its effect upon Jeffersonville and the community at large for good both from an intellectual and moral standpoint.

PILES CURED AT HOME BY NEW ABSORPTION METHOD.

If you suffer from bleeding, itching, blind or protuding Piles, send me your address, and I will tell you how to cure yourself at home by the new absorption treatment; and will also send some of this home treatment free for trial, with references from your own locality if requested. Immediate relief and permanent cure assured. Send no money, but tell others of this offer. Write today to Mrs. M. Summers, Box P, Notre Dame, Ind.

Awaiting Plans For New Building

Mr. R. C. Hunt, who will soon commence the erection of a modern three-story apartment hotel on the site of the Imperial Hotel, is now awaiting the plans for the new building, and when he once decides upon the plans will soon have work on the building under way.

The site of the Imperial has long since been cleared of the ruins, and by the middle of the summer it is expected that the new structure will be well under way, and finished at the earliest possible moment.

FALLS DOWN STAIRS.

Mrs. Fred Swartz, North North street, fell down stairs last night, breaking her left arm and suffering very painful bruises. She is quite badly injured and suffering greatly.

Odd Fellows Adopt Plans

The Milledgeville lodge of Odd Fellows adopted plans for their new building at a recent meeting, deciding to erect a two-story brick structure instead of a three-story building as at first contemplated.

The structure will be erected upon the site of the building destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, and will contain two business rooms on the first floor, and splendid lodge rooms on the second floor.

The basement will also be enlarged and large storage quarters arranged, so that fruit, vegetables and other goods of similar nature can be stored in large quantities.

The building will cost approximately $7,000 and the contract will be let and the work commenced within the coming month.

Owing to some little delay Milledgeville will not be lighted with electricity for a week or ten days.

DEATHS

WINGARD.

Paul S. Wingard, aged 5 months, son of Sidney S. and Mattie Wingert, died Saturday morning, June 22, at 4:30 o'clock, at the residence on Oakland avenue. Burial will take place in Springfield Sunday.

OSWALD.

John Oswald died Friday evening at his home in Muncie, Ind. The remains will be brought here on the 9:38 C. H. & D. train Sunday morning, and will be taken by Undertaker Klever to Bloomingburg, where the burial will take place at 2 p. m.

Plumbing. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

STUTSON'S

Special Bargain Giving Tonight

Extra Special Tonignt IN Lingerie Waists

98c BEAUTIFULLY MADE AND TRIMMED Sold $1.50. Tonight, 98c

We Are Showing a Selection of

Muslin Underwear

At Unequalled Values

Beautiful sheer materials — lace and embroidery trimmed.

Special value tonight in

Corset Covers

19c, 39c, 49c

Special values tonight in

Gowns

49c, 69c, 79c, 98c

WE CARRY THE

Kayser Glove

Absolutely the best silk glove on the market. Long and short gloves — white, black and colors

50c, 75c

$1.00, $1.50

OUR LINE OF

Corsets

Includes the leading makes in the most fashionable models

Come and See Us Tonight

FRANK L. STUTSON

Order only the original well known

Neverdust

A sanitary sweeping compound. Put up in two kinds. No. 1 for floors, linoleums, etc. No. 2 for carpets and rugs.

Beware of Substitutes. Manufactured and for Sale by

The Neverdust Mfg. Co.

Or The M. C. Ortman Grocery

Washington C. H., O.

Blackmer & Tanquary.

THE OLD RELIABLE

STILL IN THE LEAD

We have nice green beans, sugar peas, cucumbers, new beets, new potatoes, tomatoes, nice strawberries, pine apples, gooseberries, oranges and bananas. Swift's premium bacon, also the English cured bacon, very fine, 20c per lb., nice smoked bacon, 16c per lb. See us, we are your friends. Yours,

J. W. DUFFEE & CO.

The Old Reliable Cash Grocers, Both phones No. 77.

IN SOCIETY

One of the prettiest and most recherche of afternoon teas was given from four to six o'clock Friday afternoon by Mrs. Bertha S. Miller, in honor of her guest, Mrs. John Bixler, of Lafayette, Ind., and Mrs. Byron Gifford, of Chicago.

The artistic home formed the background for sixty women in lovely summer toilets and in its exquisite decorations flaunted June the month of roses.

The rooms were radiant with a profusion of crimson ramblers, their brilliant bloom filling jardiners and vases in graceful clusters, and a tall vase of blue larkspur won the admiration of the guests.

The dining room was a picture, the pretty table having for its centerpiece a beautiful basket of white carnations and crimson ramblers, and the ramblers banking sideboard and serving table.

Mrs. Miller, always the most charming of hostesses, was wearing black chiffon, embroidered in lavender, over white taffeta.

Mrs. Bixler, who is a pretty brunette with very attractive manner, wore a becoming white lingerie gown of lace and mull.

Mrs. Gifford, nee Anna Louise Rothrock, was as glad to see all her old friends as they were to see her, and was looking lovely in a hand-embroidered white batiste over pink.

Assisting in the afternoon's cordial hospitalities were Mrs. Frank L. Stutson, Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, Mrs. Fuller Hess, Mrs. Albert Glascock, Mrs. Gerrie Spragg and Miss Florence Ustick.

Receiving at the door were two handsome little pages in white, Mrs. Miller's son, Oliver, and Mrs. Bixler's son, Jack.

Mrs. Carl Baer, of Hope, Ark., was also an out-of-town guest.

Miss Dorothy Bush, the talented young pianist who won the silver medal at the W. C. T. U. musical contest last week, gave a pleasing piano recital Friday afternoon at the Stinson Conservatory.

Miss Bush played six numbers with exceptional expression and accuracy for so young a pupil. She was assisted by Miss Virginia Sites in a duet and pretty solo.

After the recital Mrs. Stinson took thirty-five of the younger students of the Conservatory for an automobile ride and then to Willis park, where they spent a merry hour with swings, games and refreshments.

Upon their return Miss Bush treated the crowd to ices and cream.

Miss Marie Melvin gave a beautiful party for Miss Bertha Briggs, a bride of next week, Friday evening.

Thirty girl friends of Miss Briggs were in attendance and the affair resulted in a "Kitchen Shower," with a number of useful gifts for culinary use, largely aluminum ware.

A white and crimson color scheme was artistically carried out in quantities of crimson ramblers, white lilies and elder blossoms and crimson hearts.

The red and white was also employed in the delicious refreshments served.

Miss Briggs was wearing a very pretty gown of white batiste embroidered in blue, and Miss Melvin white dimity, lace trimmed.

During the evening Miss Margaret McClure added to the pleasure of the occasion with brilliant piano renditions.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. George Melvin, Misses Margaret Briggs and Ann Lawrence.

The wedding of Miss Ann Kirby Quinn, whose engagement to Mr. Herbert Allan Ottewill, of London, England, was recently announced, will not be solemnized at the bride's home here as was originally intended, but will take place in London on July 2d, the bride's mother, Mrs. L. S. Quinn, and her uncle, Mr. Kirby Smith, being in that city. Mr. Smith expects to come home early in July and Mrs. Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will come over in August. After a visit here Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will go to China where the groom is in the British Consular service.—Hillsboro Gazette, June 21.

Mr. Albert Glascock is spending the day in Cincinnati.

* * *

Prof. D. A. Ferree is in Columbus taking his M. A. degree.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, are spending Sunday here.

* * *

Mr. A. L. Cherry, of Ghormley's Station, is a business visitor here today.

* * *

Mrs. W. A. Patton, of Leesburg, was the guest of Mrs. Al Martin, Friday.

* * *

Mr. George Adams and son, Wilbur, went to Cincinnati to attend the races today.

* * *

Mrs. Harry Colwell is the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Colwell in Lancaster.

* * *

Mrs. A. Dewey and daughter, Corrine, of Leesburg, were the guests of Mrs. Hibben Ervin Friday.

* * *

Miss Helen Harper left this morning on a ten days' visit with Miss Sarah Holmes in Augusta, Ky.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cave returned today from a pleasant outing in Springfield and at Russel's Point.

* * *

Miss Sybel Hoover, who has been the guest of Miss Helen Willis, left this morning for her home in Gibson, Ill.

* * *

Miss Charlotte Dahl returned this morning from a visit of several weeks with a school friend at Nashville, Tenn.

* * *

Mrs. Isaac Cook returns to St. Louis, Mo., Sunday, after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCrea.

* * *

Mr. H. A. Thissel, of Philadelphia, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. G. M. Ustick and daughter, Miss Florence, for a couple of days.

* * *

Mrs. A. E. Baum, Mrs. Kate Latham and Fred Bradfute, spent Wednesday in Springfield, attending the G. A. R. encampment.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cissna, Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford and Ruth and Nell Cissna, made a motoring trip to Dayton yesterday.

* * *

Mrs. Walter McLean and children, Richard and Lucile, are visiting Mrs. McLean's mother, Mrs. Ada Fortune in Pittsburg, Pa., and will also visit in Albion, Pa.

* * *

Master Billy Merriweather is visiting his uncle, Mr. William Merriweather at Reeseville. Mr. Nicholas Merriweather accompanied his nephew, returning tonight.

* * *

Mrs. Chas. Reid returned last evening from Chicago where she accompanied her husband to attend the Convention. Hon. C. A. Reid expected to remain until tonight.

* * *

Mr. F. B. Creamer returned Friday from a business trip to Texas, Mrs. Creamer also returning from Hillsboro, where she visited her mother, Mrs. Hickle, during his absence.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Van Winkle and son, Ervin, are spending the week end in Cincinnati and Mrs. Van Winkle will remain next week to be the guest of Mrs. Geo. Fabb

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. George Hays and Delbert, Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. N. S. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snider and daughter, Sylvia, and Miss Fern Sunkle, were among the week's visitors at the Springfield encampment.

* * *

Mrs. Thomas Cheesman, of Mt. Auburn, Cincinnati, visited Mrs. Lelia Counts the past two days, enroute from the encampment at Springfield, which she attended as a Cincinnati delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dale and daughters, made a motoring trip to Princetown to visit relatives this week. Miss Pauline Dale remained for an indefinite stay.

* * *

Mr. L. W. Buckmaster is down from Columbus for the day. Washington friends regret to learn that Mrs. Buckmaster has been dangerously ill during the past few weeks. Her present condition is more hopeful.

* * *

Mr. R. C. Hunt has returned from a ten days' business trip to Adairville and Bowling Green, Ky., accompanied by his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. W. Hunt and son, Edward, who will be Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's guests.

* * *

Miss Josephine Porter and little niece, Martha Porter, have returned from a visit in Cincinnati, Norwood and Lebanon. At Lebanon they visited Miss Porter's niece, Miss Lida Posey, who is attending the university.

* * *

Mrs. Ellis Ramsey and two children, arrived from Saginaw, Mich., Friday evening and will reside with Capt. Ramsey, who has opened his beautiful home on Washington avenue, after having it closed during the winter season. Mr. Ramsey expects to join his wife shortly.

* * *

Mrs. French Wilson, of Williamsp- ; Mrs. O. C. Wilson, of Zanesville, spent Thursday and Friday the guests of Miss Ruth Smithers. Miss Smithers has for her guest at present, Mrs. A. H. Tinker and granddaughter, Ruth, and Miss Madge Putman, of Frankfort.

* * *

Miss Louise Weaver has returned from Wilson college, Chambersburg, Pa., to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver. Since the college closed, Miss Weaver visited school friends in New York and Trenton, N. J.

* * *

Dr. Robert Thornton returned today from Columbus, where he has been taking the state medical examinations, subsequent to his graduation from the Ohio Starling Medical college. After a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Thornton, Dr. Thornton returns to the capital city to take the position of interne in the Protestant hospital.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rodecker and children, and Mrs. Anna Hicks motored to Springfield to attend the encampment this week and brought back with them Mr. Rodecker's mother, Mrs. Ellen Rodecker, who was W. R. C. delegate from Lancaster to the encampment. Mrs. Rodecker returned to Lancaster today.

Screen Doors and Windows rewired—called for and delivered. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

WHEN SERVANTS WERE SLAVES.

It hasn't been so many years since servants were practically slaves; they were bound out for a term of years and never could hope to better their conditions. The world is advancing, however, and now servants, especially those who do washing and housecleaning, are better treated. Easy Task laundry soap, that does half the work itself, and which cleans pots and pans and painted work like magic, is responsible for much of this emancipation. Only 5 cents a cake, too.

Pumps repaired. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Tri-County Chautauqua, Greenfield, Aug. 1 to 11 Inclusive

The Seventh Assembly of the Tri-County Chautauqua Association at Greenfield, has been set for August 1 to 11, inclusive. The association owns beautiful Chautauqua park with a magnificent steel auditorium and other extensive improvements. Every year has witnessed a notable advance and this year will be no exception to the general rule. The recreative side of Chautauqua life will be especially emphasized, and tennis courts, croquet grounds, quoits, base ball and other games provided.

The program is one of unusual strength. From nine o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night, every hour is filled with lectures, music and entertainment. A special feature is the engagement of Price's Premier band for three open-air concerts daily.

Four other splendid musical organizations have been engaged, the Hearon sister, the Mendelssohn Male Quartette, The Ernest Gamble Concert party and the Kaffir Boy Choir.

The lecturers include Richmond Pearson Robson, Ernest Thompson Seaton, Governor Hoch, of Kansas, "Mother" Lake, the foremost woman orator on the Chautauqua platform, Frank Dixon, Adam Bede, Prof. Gilbert, Chas. E. Thorn, Geo. W. Phillips and others equally well known.

The readers and impersonators include Lulu Tyler Gates, Maude Willis, Miss Edna Haas, and the Pierces in short plays and sketches A program of interest is the "Songs and Stories of the Red Men" by the Gales.

The morning programs have been made especially strong in the interest of the large number of campers who remain permanently on the grounds. Prof. Gilbert will conduct a class in Nature Study and Rev. Geo. Phillips will deliver a remarkable series of Bible lectures.

Another Strong Lecture Course

The purchasing committee of the Jeffersonville Lecture Course, consisting of H. L. Hire, S. M. Taggart, M. F. Hudson, J. A. McKillip and G. W. Blessing, met at the Farmers' bank rooms recently and selected the following talent for 1912-13: Opening number, White's Musical Review, the date will be announced later. The other numbers, whose dates will also be announced later, are Dr. Newell D. Hillis, Geo. R. Stewart, The Opollo Concert Co., and Leland T. Powers, entertainer.

The committee believe they have a strong attraction and if the price indicates anything it will be the best ever given in the history of the Jeffersonville Lecture course.

When the Lecture Course was first started, some twelve or fifteen years ago, the expense was guaranteed by a large number of business men. The price of the talent at that time was from $175 to $250 and the price for a season ticket was, as it is now, $1.00. From the very start it paid its way, with a small profit, which was set aside, it not being the intention of the promoters to make it a profit-sharing institution, until the profits amounted to something like $500. The committee and officers deemed it prudent to secure better talent, which they have done for the past three or four years. This met with the approval of the lecture going class, for the attendance has increased so that the receipts are meeting the talent at a cost of $575 to $650, leaving the original surplus in the hands of the treasurer.

The influence of this lecture course has had its effect upon Jeffersonville and the community at large for good both from an intellectual and moral standpoint.

PILES CURED AT HOME BY NEW ABSORPTION METHOD.

If you suffer from bleeding, itching, blind or protuding Piles, send me your address, and I will tell you how to cure yourself at home by the new absorption treatment; and will also send some of this home treatment free for trial, with references from your own locality if requested. Immediate relief and permanent cure assured. Send no money, but tell others of this offer. Write today to Mrs. M. Summers, Box P, Notre Dame, Ind.

Awaiting Plans For New Building

Mr. R. C. Hunt, who will soon commence the erection of a modern three-story apartment hotel on the site of the Imperial Hotel, is now awaiting the plans for the new building, and when he once decides upon the plans will soon have work on the building under way.

The site of the Imperial has long since been cleared of the ruins, and by the middle of the summer it is expected that the new structure will be well under way, and finished at the earliest possible moment.

FALLS DOWN STAIRS.

Mrs. Fred Swartz, North North street, fell down stairs last night, breaking her left arm and suffering very painful bruises. She is quite badly injured and suffering greatly.

Odd Fellows Adopt Plans

The Milledgeville lodge of Odd Fellows adopted plans for their new building at a recent meeting, deciding to erect a two-story brick structure instead of a three-story building as at first contemplated.

The structure will be erected upon the site of the building destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, and will contain two business rooms on the first floor, and splendid lodge rooms on the second floor.

The basement will also be enlarged and large storage quarters arranged, so that fruit, vegetables and other goods of similar nature can be stored in large quantities.

The building will cost approximately $7,000 and the contract will be let and the work commenced within the coming month.

Owing to some little delay Milledgeville will not be lighted with electricity for a week or ten days.

DEATHS

WINGARD.

Paul S. Wingard, aged 5 months, son of Sidney S. and Mattie Wingert, died Saturday morning, June 22, at 4:30 o'clock, at the residence on Oakland avenue. Burial will take place in Springfield Sunday.

OSWALD.

John Oswald died Friday evening at his home in Muncie, Ind. The remains will be brought here on the 9:38 C. H. & D. train Sunday morning, and will be taken by Undertaker Klever to Bloomingburg, where the burial will take place at 2 p. m.

Plumbing. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

STUTSON'S

Special Bargain Giving Tonight

Extra Special Tonignt

IN

Lingerie Waists

98c BEAUTIFULLY MADE AND TRIMMED Sold $1.50. Tonight, 98c

We Are Showing a Selection of

Muslin Underwear

At Unequalled Values

Beautiful sheer materials — lace and embroidery trimmed.

Special value tonight in

Corset Covers

19c, 39c, 49c

Special values tonight in

Gowns

49c, 69c, 79c, 98c

WE CARRY THE

Kayser Glove

Absolutely the best silk glove on the market. Long and short gloves — white, black and colors

50c, 75c

$1.00, $1.50

OUR LINE OF

Corsets

Includes the leading makes in the most fashionable models

Come and See Us Tonight

FRANK L. STUTSON

Order only the original well known

Neverdust

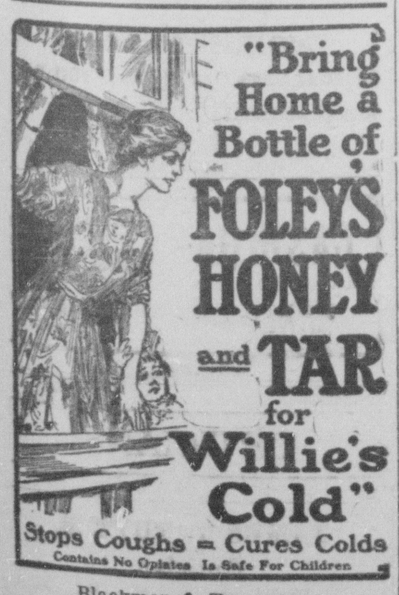
A sanitary sweeping compound. Put up in two kinds. No. 1 for floors, linoleums, etc. No. 2 for carpets and rugs.

Beware of Substitutes. Manufactured and for Sale by

The Neverdust Mfg. Co.

Or The M. C. Ortman Grocery

Washington C. H., O.



Blackmer & Tanquary.

THE OLD RELIABLE

STILL IN THE LEAD

We have nice green beans, sugar peas, cucumbers, new beets, new potatoes, tomatoes, nice strawberries, pine apples, gooseberries, oranges and bananas. Swift's premium bacon, also the English cured bacon, very fine, 20c per lb., nice smoked bacon, 16c per lb. See us, we are your friends. Yours,

J. W. DUFFEE & CO.

The Old Reliable Cash Grocers, Both phones No. 77.

IN SOCIETY

One of the prettiest and most recherche of afternoon teas was given from four to six o'clock Friday afternoon by Mrs. Bertha S. Miller, in honor of her guest, Mrs. John Bixler, of Lafayette, Ind., and Mrs. Byron Gifford, of Chicago.

The artistic home formed the background for sixty women in lovely summer toilets and in its exquisite decorations flaunted June the month of roses.

The rooms were radiant with a profusion of crimson ramblers, their brilliant bloom filling jardiners and vases in graceful clusters, and a tall vase of blue larkspur won the admiration of the guests.

The dining room was a picture, the pretty table having for its centerpiece a beautiful basket of white carnations and crimson ramblers, and the ramblers banking sideboard and serving table.

Mrs. Miller, always the most charming of hostesses, was wearing black chiffon, embroidered in lavender, over white taffeta.

Mrs. Bixler, who is a pretty brunette with very attractive manner, wore a becoming white lingerie gown of lace and mull.

Mrs. Gifford, nee Anna Louise Rothrock, was as glad to see all her old friends as they were to see her, and was looking lovely in a hand-embroidered white batiste over pink.

Assisting in the afternoon's cordial hospitalities were Mrs. Frank L. Stutson, Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, Mrs. Fuller Hess, Mrs. Albert Glascock, Mrs. Gerrie Spragg and Miss Florence Ustick.

Receiving at the door were two handsome little pages in white, Mrs. Miller's son, Oliver, and Mrs. Bixler's son, Jack.

Mrs. Carl Baer, of Hope, Ark., was also an out-of-town guest.

Miss Dorothy Bush, the talented young pianist who won the silver medal at the W. C. T. U. musical contest last week, gave a pleasing piano recital Friday afternoon at the Stinson Conservatory.

Miss Bush played six numbers with exceptional expression and accuracy for so young a pupil. She was assisted by Miss Virginia Sites in a duet and pretty solo.

After the recital Mrs. Stinson took thirty-five of the younger students of the Conservatory for an automobile ride and then to Willis park, where they spent a merry hour with swings, games and refreshments.

Upon their return Miss Bush treated the crowd to ices and cream.

Miss Marie Melvin gave a beautiful party for Miss Bertha Briggs, a bride of next week, Friday evening.

Thirty girl friends of Miss Briggs were in attendance and the affair resulted in a "Kitchen Shower," with a number of useful gifts for culinary use, largely aluminum ware.

A white and crimson color scheme was artistically carried out in quantities of crimson ramblers, white lilies and elder blossoms and crimson hearts.

The red and white was also employed in the delicious refreshments served.

Miss Briggs was wearing a very pretty gown of white batiste embroidered in blue, and Miss Melvin white dimity, lace trimmed.

During the evening Miss Margaret McClure added to the pleasure of the occasion with brilliant piano renditions.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. George Melvin, Misses Margaret Briggs and Ann Lawrence.

The wedding of Miss Ann Kirby Quinn, whose engagement to Mr. Herbert Allan Ottewill, of London, England, was recently announced, will not be solemnized at the bride's home here as was originally intended, but will take place in London on July 2d, the bride's mother, Mrs. L. S. Quinn, and her uncle, Mr. Kirby Smith, being in that city. Mr. Smith expects to come home early in July and Mrs. Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will come over in August. After a visit here Mr. and Mrs. Ottewill will go to China where the groom is in the British Consular service.—Hillsboro Gazette, June 21.

Mr. Albert Glascock is spending the day in Cincinnati.

• • •

Prof. D. A. Ferree is in Columbus taking his M. A. degree.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves, of Columbus, are spending Sunday here.

• • •

Mr. A. L. Cherry, of Ghormley's Station, is a business visitor here today.

• • •

Mrs. W. A. Patton, of Leesburg, was the guest of Mrs. Al Martin, Friday.

• • •

Mr. George Adams and son, Wilbur, went to Cincinnati to attend the races today.

• • •

Mrs. Harry Colwell is the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Colwell in Lancaster.

• • •

Mrs. A. Dewey and daughter, Corrine, of Leesburg, were the guests of Mrs. Hibben Ervin Friday.

• • •

Miss Helen Harper left this morning on a ten days' visit with Miss Sarah Holmes in Augusta, Ky.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cave returned today from a pleasant outing in Springfield and at Russel's Point.

• • •

Miss Sybel Hoover, who has been the guest of Miss Helen Willis, left this morning for her home in Gibson, Ill.

• • •

Miss Charlotte Dahl returned this morning from a visit of several weeks with a school friend at Nashville, Tenn.

• • •

Mrs. Isaac Cook returns to St. Louis, Mo., Sunday, after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCrea.

• • •

Mr. H. A. Thissel, of Philadelphia, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. G. M. Ustick and daughter, Miss Florence, for a couple of days.

• • •

Mrs. A. E. Baum, Mrs. Kate Latham and Fred Bradfute, spent Wednesday in Springfield, attending the G. A. R. encampment.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cissna, Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford and Ruth and Nell Cissna, made a motoring trip to Dayton yesterday.

• • •

Mrs. Walter McLean and children, Richard and Lucile, are visiting Mrs. McLean's mother, Mrs. Ada Fortune in Pittsburg, Pa., and will also visit in Albion, Pa.

• • •

Master Billy Merriweather is visiting his uncle, Mr. William Merriweather at Reeseville. Mr. Nicholas Merriweather accompanied his nephew, returning tonight.

• • •

Mrs. Chas. Reid returned last evening from Chicago where she accompanied her husband to attend the Convention. Hon. C. A. Reid expected to remain until tonight.

• • •

Mr. F. B. Creamer returned Friday from a business trip to Texas, Mrs. Creamer also returning from Hillsboro, where she visited her mother, Mrs. Hickle, during his absence.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Van Winkle and son, Ervin, are spending the week end in Cincinnati and Mrs. Van Winkle will remain next week to be the guest of Mrs. Geo. Fabb

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. George Hays and Delbert, Mrs. Ella Taylor, Mrs. N. S. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snider and daughter, Sylvia, and Miss Fern Sunkle, were among the week's visitors at the Springfield encampment.

• • •

Mrs. Thomas Cheesman, of Mt. Auburn, Cincinnati, visited Mrs. Lelia Counts the past two days, en-route from the encampment at Springfield, which she attended as a Cincinnati delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dale and daughters, made a motoring trip to Princetown to visit relatives this week. Miss Pauline Dale remained for an indefinite stay.

• • •

Mr. L. W. Buckmaster is down from Columbus for the day. Washington friends regret to learn that Mrs. Buckmaster has been dangerously ill during the past few weeks. Her present condition is more hopeful.

• • •

Mr. R. C. Hunt has returned from a ten days' business trip to Adairville and Bowling Green, Ky., accompanied by his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. W. Hunt and son, Edward, who will be Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's guests.

• • •

Miss Josephine Porter and little niece, Martha Porter, have returned from a visit in Cincinnati, Norwood and Lebanon. At Lebanon they visited Miss Porter's niece, Miss Lida Posey, who is attending the university.

• • •

Mrs. Ellis Ramsey and two children, arrived from Saginaw, Mich., Friday evening and will reside with Capt. Ramsey, who has opened his beautiful home on Washington avenue, after having it closed during the winter season. Mr. Ramsey expects to join his wife shortly.

• • •

Mrs. French Wilson, of Williamsp[illegible]; Mrs. O. C. Wilson, of Zanesville, spent Thursday and Friday the guests of Miss Ruth Smithers. Miss Smithers has for her guest at present, Mrs. A. H. Tinker and granddaughter, Ruth, and Miss Madge Putman, of Frankfort.

• • •

Miss Louise Weaver has returned from Wilson college, Chambersburg, Pa., to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver. Since the college closed, Miss Weaver visited school friends in New York and Trenton, N. J.

• • •

Dr. Robert Thornton returned today from Columbus, where he has been taking the state medical examinations, subsequent to his graduation from the Ohio Starling Medical college. After a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Thornton, Dr. Thornton returns to the capital city to take the position of interne in the Protestant hospital.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rodecker and children, and Mrs. Anna Hicks motored to Springfield to attend the encampment this week and brought back with them Mr. Rodecker's mother, Mrs. Ellen Rodecker, who was W. R. C. delegate from Lancaster to the encampment. Mrs. Rodecker returned to Lancaster today.

Screen Doors and Windows rewired—called for and delivered. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

WHEN SERVANTS WERE SLAVES.

It hasn't been so many years since servants were practically slaves; they were bound out for a term of years and never could hope to better their conditions. The world is advancing, however, and now servants, especially those who do washing and housecleaning, are better treated. Easy Task laundry soap, that does half the work itself, and which cleans pots and pans and painted work like magic, is responsible for much of this emancipation. Only 5 cents a cake, too.

Pumps repaired. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

Tri-County Chautauqua, Greenfield, Aug. 1 to 11 Inclusive

The Seventh Assembly of the Tri-County Chautauqua Association at Greenfield, has been set for August 1 to 11, inclusive. The association owns beautiful Chautauqua park with a magnificent steel auditorium and other extensive improvements. Every year has witnessed a notable advance and this year will be no exception to the general rule. The recreative side of Chautauqua life will be especially emphasized, and tennis courts, croquet grounds, quoits, base ball and other games provided.

The program is one of unusual strength. From nine o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night, every hour is filled with lectures, music and entertainment. A special feature is the engagement of Price's Premier band for three open-air concerts daily.

Four other splendid musical organizations have been engaged, the Hearon sister, the Mendelssohn Male Quartette, The Ernest Gamble Concert party and the Kaffir Boy Choir.

The lecturers include Richmond Pearson Robson, Ernest Thompson Seaton, Governor Hoch, of Kansas, "Mother" Lake, the foremost woman orator on the Chautauqua platform, Frank Dixon, Adam Bede, Prof. Gilbert, Chas. E. Thorn, Geo. W. Phillips and others equally well known.

The readers and impersonators include Lulu Tyler Gates, Maude Willis, Miss Edna Haas, and the Pierces in short plays and sketches A program of interest is the "Songs and Stories of the Red Men" by the Gales.

The morning programs have been made especially strong in the interest of the large number of campers who remain permanently on the grounds. Prof. Gilbert will conduct a class in Nature Study and Rev. Geo. Phillips will deliver a remarkable series of Bible lectures.

Another Strong Lecture Course

The purchasing committee of the Jeffersonville Lecture Course, consisting of H. L. Hire, S. M. Taggart, M. F. Hudson, J. A. McKillip and G. W. Blessing, met at the Farmers' bank rooms recently and selected the following talent for 1912-13: Opening number, White's Musical Review, the date will be announced later. The other numbers, whose dates will also be announced later, are Dr. Newell D. Hillis, Geo. R. Stewart, The Opollo Concert Co., and Leland T. Powers, entertainer.

The committee believe they have a strong attraction and if the price indicates anything it will be the best ever given in the history of the Jeffersonville Lecture course.

When the Lecture Course was first started, some twelve or fifteen years ago, the expense was guaranteed by a large number of business men. The price of the talent at that time was from $175 to $250 and the price for a season ticket was, as it is now, $1.00. From the very start it paid its way, with a small profit, which was set aside, it not being the intention of the promoters to make it a profit-sharing institution, until the profits amounted to something like $500. The committee and officers deemed it prudent to secure better talent, which they have done for the past three or four years. This met with the approval of the lecture going class, for the attendance has increased so that the receipts are meeting the talent at a cost of $575 to $650, leaving the original surplus in the hands of the treasurer.

The influence of this lecture course has had its effect upon Jeffersonville and the community at large for good both from an intellectual and moral standpoint.

PILES CURED AT HOME BY NEW ABSORPTION METHOD.

If you suffer from bleeding, itching, blind or protuding Piles, send me your address, and I will tell you how to cure yourself at home by the new absorption treatment; and will also send some of this home treatment free for trial, with references from your own locality if requested. Immediate relief and permanent cure assured. Send no money, but tell others of this offer. Write today to Mrs. M. Summers, Box P, Notre Dame, Ind.

Awaiting Plans For New Building

Mr. R. C. Hunt, who will soon commence the erection of a modern three-story apartment hotel on the site of the Imperial Hotel, is now awaiting the plans for the new building, and when he once decides upon the plans will soon have work on the building under way.

The site of the Imperial has long since been cleared of the ruins, and by the middle of the summer it is expected that the new structure will be well under way, and finished at the earliest possible moment.

FALLS DOWN STAIRS.

Mrs. Fred Swartz, North North street, fell down stairs last night, breaking her left arm and suffering very painful bruises. She is quite badly injured and suffering greatly.

Odd Fellows Adopt Plans

The Milledgeville lodge of Odd Fellows adopted plans for their new building at a recent meeting, deciding to erect a two-story brick structure instead of a three-story building as at first contemplated.

The structure will be erected upon the site of the building destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, and will contain two business rooms on the first floor, and splendid lodge rooms on the second floor.

The basement will also be enlarged and large storage quarters arranged, so that fruit, vegetables and other goods of similar nature can be stored in large quantities.

The building will cost approximately $7,000 and the contract will be let and the work commenced within the coming month.

Owing to some little delay Milledgeville will not be lighted with electricity for a week or ten days.

DEATHS

WINGARD.

Paul S. Wingard, aged 5 months, son of Sidney S. and Mattie Wingert, died Saturday morning, June 22, at 4:30 o'clock, at the residence on Oakland avenue. Burial will take place in Springfield Sunday.

OSWALD.

John Oswald died Friday evening at his home in Muncie, Ind. The remains will be brought here on the 9:38 C. H. & D. train Sunday morning, and will be taken by Undertaker Klever to Bloomingburg, where the burial will take place at 2 p. m.

Plumbing. The Dice-Mark Hardware Co.

STUTSON'S

Special Bargain Giving Tonight

Extra Special Tonignt

IN

Lingerie Waists

98c BEAUTIFULLY MADE AND TRIMMED Sold $1.50. Tonight, 98c

We Are Showing a Selection of

Muslin Underwear

At Unequalled Values

Beautiful sheer materials — lace and embroidery trimmed.

Special value tonight in

Corset Covers

19c, 39c, 49c

Special values tonight in

Gowns

49c, 69c, 79c, 98c

WE CARRY THE

Kayser Glove

Absolutely the best silk glove on the market. Long and short gloves — white, black and colors

50c, 75c

$1.00, $1.50

OUR LINE OF

Corsets

Includes the leading makes in the most fashionable models

Come and See Us Tonight

FRANK L. STUTSON

Order only the original well known

Neverdust

A sanitary sweeping compound. Put up in two kinds. No. 1 for floors, linoleums, etc. No. 2 for carpets and rugs.

Beware of Substitutes. Manufactured and for Sale by

The Neverdust Mfg. Co.

Or The M. C. Ortman Grocery

Washington C. H., O.

Blackmer & Tanquary.

THE OLD RELIABLE

STILL IN THE LEAD

We have nice green beans, sugar peas, cucumbers, new beets, new potatoes, tomatoes, nice strawberries, pine apples, gooseberries, oranges and bananas. Swift's premium bacon, also the English cured bacon, very fine, 20c per lb., nice smoked bacon, 16c per lb. See us, we are your friends. Yours,

J. W. DUFFEE & CO.

The Old Reliable Cash Grocers.

Both phones No. 77.

Classified

RATES PER WORD.

1 time in Daily Herald 1c
6t in Herald & 1t in Register... 3c
12t in Herald & 2t in Register... 4c
26t in Herald & 4t in Register... 6c
52t in Herald & 8t in Register...10c
Proportionate rates for longer time

Minimum charges: 1t 15c; 6t 30c.

SITUATIONS WANTED.

WANTED—A position with good family to do housework. Address E., care of Herald office.

WANTED—Job as chauffeur in garage or private family. Address "A", 518 E. Market street. 146 6t

WANTED.

WANTED—By Monday morning, three or four lady solicitors, to sell a high-class product. Straight salary paid. Call opposite K. of P. hall, 217 North Fayette street, city. P. T. Dagy, Manager.

WANTED—Boy for Sunday newspaper route. B. F. Leland. 148 2t

WANTED—Girls at the Mitten factory. Inskeep Mfg Co. 144 12t

WANTED—A good trustworthy man to work on farm. Address "M", care Herald office. 144 6t

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Modern furnished room, suitable for light house-keeping, if wanted. Apply at Stinson Conservatory. 148 6t

FOR RENT—Apartment of four rooms; furnished or unfurnished. All conveniences. Apply to D. H. Van Winkle. 147 6t

FOR RENT—Furnished room in modern home. Mrs. H. H. Sanderson 361 E. Court St. 146 6t

FOR RENT—By July 3rd, house of 5 rooms, pantry and gas, in fine condition. On Sycamore street. Mrs. C. E. McKee, East street. 145 6t

FOR RENT—3-room house. O. K. Barber shop. Citizens phone 768. 137 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A sample wagon, extra sound and in good condition; a bargain. See L. Eggleston, Dennis Bldg. 149 6t

FOR SALE—7-room house, corner Main and Elm; also two 4-room houses on same lot. Will sell one or all. Inquire Mrs. Margaret Donnelly in property. 149 30t

FOR SALE—750 concrete blocks, 7 1-2 and 8 1-2 cents. Citz. 2654, if sold at once. Daniel Baker. 148 6t

FOR SALE—7-room house with bath, on Washington avenue, lot 55 by 165 feet. Price right if sold at once. Inquire of B. A. Schadel, at Dahl-Millikan office. 144 6t

FOR SALE—Plumbing material at better prices than ever before. E. T. Evans & Co. Citz. 1128; Bell 86R. 132 tf

FOR SALE—One square piano. 228 N. Fayette St. 82 tf

FOR SALE—Columbus Buggy Co. runabout, in good condition. Call at Geo. Cox & Sons livery barn. 95 tf

LOST.

LOST—Brass automobile cup Finder leave at Swope's garage. O. J. Mobley. 125 tf

MEAT MARKET.

We want your trade. Call and see us. Nelson, Craft & Co., phones, Bell 326 W; Citz. 508; corner Court and North streets. 144 6t

FOR SALE—Small stock of groceries and meats, doing nice business; well located in Columbus. Will sell right on account of health. Gertrude Eberhard, 690 St. Clair avenue; Milo, Ohio. 149 3t

MAKES THE NATION GASP.

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. Its the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

Hadley Mentioned For Second Place

Chicago, June 22.—Coliseum.—That the Republican national convention will enter its permanent stage as an organization this afternoon was the announcement made by the Taft leaders when the delegates assembled for business this morning.

It has been decided to dispense with the permanent chairman's speech, Senator Root, who has been selected for that position, having decided that he covered the ground thoroughly in his address to the convention as its temporary chairman.

After the adoption of the new rules to be submited by the rules committee, over which there is expected to be considerable friction, the platform committee will make its report. After the adoption of the platform will come the nominations for president and vice president.

Comptroller Prendergast announced that he was not to present Colonel Roosevelt's name formally to the convention; that he had been requested by the colonel himself not to do so. The plan of the Roosevelt people, it appears, is to sit silent in the convention after the credentials report has been completed and adopted.

Chicago, June 22.—For president, William H. Taft; for vice president, Herbert S. Hadley. This at the present time is tipped off as the Republican national ticket to be nominated this afternoon.

After the events in the Republican national convention, during which all the Taft delegates were seated and during which the Taft delegates and every single chieftain in Chicago of President Taft's forces announced that the president would be renominated in the convention this afternoon or evening.

On one opinion the Taft forces and the Roosevelt forces coincide, and it is to the effect that Governor Herbert S. Hadley of Missouri will become the choice of the delegates of the convention for vice president.

The Taft managers, it was learned, have been deluged with telegrams from all over the country urging them that, now he had beaten Colonel Roosevelt for the nomination, they should unite in selecting a third candidate or a compromise candidate. They have also received hundreds of dispatches begging them and imploring them to stand by President Taft and to insist upon his nomination.

The Taft chieftains never for a moment have been lacking in fidelity to the cause of President Taft. They believe that from the hour of the president's renomination he will grow in strength and favor with the Republicans of the nation and be independent.

The narrow margin on the test vote in the convention on the California contests frightened President Taft's chieftains within an inch of their lives. On that ballot the total was 542 for the Taft contestants and 529 for the Roosevelt contestants. And there were only seven absentees. The Taft delegates on this main question of presidential nomination can be relied upon to stick to the president as long as he is a candidate for the nomination, in the judgment of the Taft leaders here, but what many of these Taft delegates state is, that inasmuch as Colonel Roosevelt has been beaten and the purpose of the Taft chieftains accomplished, the president should be magnanimous and remember that there are to be elections in most of the states this fall for governors, legislatures which are to elect United States senators, and elections for members of the house of representatives. Other delegates do not entertain these views and will not tolerate the hearing of them from their fellows.

An amazing climax to many came when Governor Stubbs of Kansas was leaving Colonel Roosevelt, and said: "There will be no bolt. This talk of a bolt is foolish. Colonel Roosevelt never talked about a bolt. Our delegation and all other Roosevelt delegations will remain in the convention until the nomination is made, I believe. There can be no compromise candidate as far as we are concerned."

Convention Sustains Committee.

With the committee on credentials progressing in their work of determining the contests and with the convention acting upon the decisions of the committee, two test votes taken in the convention demonstrate that with the LaFollette and Cummins men voting against the Taft men, the latter on one test vote won by 569 to 499. On a second test vote with the LaFollette delegates and the Cummins delegates voting with the Taft men, the latter won by a vote of 605 to 469. The first test vote whereby the Taft men were victorious by 569 to 499 is the best evidence of the present strength of the president in the convention, in the estimation of influential Taft representatives.

PARTY PLATFORM

Tariff Planks Engaging the Committee on Resolutions.

Chicago, June 22.—One by one the planks prepared by the subcommittee were taken up by the full committee on resolutions. After more than an hour's session it was decided to return the report to the subcommittee to redraft some of the planks which had been discussed. Two in particular were those having to do with the tariff and the inland waterways. A strong plea was made by the southern members for a stronger plank on inland waterways. Senator Burton appealed to the committee not to go too far in calling for government aid in this direction, however. The decision of the committee was not announced.

The full committee adjourned and in the meantime the subcommittee is to continue its work. Governor Hadley, when asked if the Roosevelt platform would be presented as a minority report to the convention, said: 'We will be guided by what happens today when the convention is permanently organized."

William Draper Lewis, the Pennsylvania member who bolted the subcommittee, turned up at the full committee and so did most of the other Roosevelt members. Mr. Lewis said that it had not been decided whether to present the Roosevelt platform to the convention as a minority report or to adopt the attitude of taking part in the proceedings after the credential committee's full report had been acted upon. The LaFollette member, Senator Owen, said that the Wisconsin platform would certainly be presented to the convention.

The Roosevelt members, it was learned, have not gone so far as to offer their platform to the full committee yet. The matter of the single presidential term of six years has not been passed upon, according to a member of the committee.

JAMES E. WATSON

President Taft's Mainstay In Fight on Convention Floor.

© 1912, by American Press Association.

Mr. Watson is a former representative from Indiana and was chief parliamentarian for the Taft forces in the battle over the roll.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Harry Robinson, 24, cement worker, and Mattie Elder, 19. Both colored.

OLBRICH'S SPEECH NAMING LA FOLLETTE

In nominating Senator La Follette for the presidency M. B. Olbrich spoke as follows:

Mr. Chairman and Delegates to the Fifteenth National Republican Convention—The Republican party is face to face with the gravest crisis in its history. There is more at stake in this convention than the rise or fall of individual ambition. We are confronted with no mere matter of temporary party success or defeat—no question of winning or losing a single election. The life of the party is in the balance.

Raised up by God to work the freedom of the black man in America, a nation asks today shall that God given instrument be used to further rivet or burst another bondage that threatens all men, black and white. African slavery was open, obvious, brutally crude, shocking to the moral sense. Now we are threatened with an industrial despotism, insidious, intangible, but infinitely menacing, beside which the banished slavery was small and sectional in scope.

Up the trunk of legitimate industry in America like some noisome parasitic tropic growth the tightening coil of privilege has wound its way, extending itself into every branch of human endeavor, strangling industrial and commercial freedom, shutting out the light of hope from the sons of men, poisoning the very air of liberty. From small beginnings it has grown and grown until it is so interlaced with lawful enterprise that the clearest eye alone can detect the bastard growth, so interwoven into the delicate structure of our business life that it cannot be jerked out by one momentary spasm. Tariff favoritism, control of natural resources, monopoly in transportation, manufacturing, money and credit are all but tentacles of its stifling power. This monstrous growth will succumb to the tilting of no quixotic lance. The lightning of invective will not wither it nor the thunder of denunciation lay it low. No brandishing of battleaxes in Chinese warfare will hasten its decay, no mere attack on symptoms work a cure. The snipping of a tendril here and a tendril there will not retard its growth. It can be reached alone by the keen blade of well directed law scientifically laid to its root.

MICHAEL B. OLBRICH.

For, not content with its control of industry, hand in hand, as a necessary part of its development, has gone a like intrusion into our political and governmental life. Its representatives sit upon the bench and in our legislative halls. They are in possession of seats on this convention floor. Congresses and cabinets and courts have hearkened to its command. It has "corrupted governments, defied constitutions and, in collusion with faithless representatives of the people, has sought to impair the legal foundation of civilization itself."

The challenge which monopoly, thus intrenched, throws down and the acceptance of the gage of battle by the American people make up the issue of the coming campaign. Shall the men and women of this nation in the aggregate actually and effectively control their government? Shall they "who bear the coarse drudgery of the world" as well as the "eminent few" who sit in its high places have a proportionate voice in determining their condition of life and the destiny of this nation? This is no strange, wild doctrine that has caught the momentary gust of a rabble's favor. It is but the Declaration of Independence revivified—born anew.

Above the clash of contending personal ambition, above the rumble of the steam roller, the clamor of the band wagon, the bustle of the political huckster, there comes to this convention the voice of an awakened people that will not be denied demanding that further encroachment by the few upon the rights of the many be stopped. Asking of this convention, under penalty of death for failure, a heroic leadership with vision clear enough to see the menace to free institutions, brave enough and strong enough to check the onsweeping march of corporate aggression, they will be content with no sham profession of loyalty. No chanting of a time worn creed will still their cry. Their wishes scorned and scorned, they are in deadly earnest now.

The Republicans of the sanely conservative commonwealth of Wisconsin, unique in the sisterhood of states, united and unanimous in support of a distinguished son, bid me present to this convention the name La Follette. That name and that alone supplies the guarantee without which the American people will accept no party's promise to perform. Twice before you set the man in the pillory and sought to crucify his ideas. But the fiery words of prophecy spoken from this platform four years ago have been fulfilled, and what you then derided as socialistic and populistic you recognize as true conservatism today, and the candidacy of the man you told to take his Democratic "dope" and go to Denver furnishes your one salvation from defeat in dishonor and disgrace.

For his professions have received the priceless consecration of actual performance. From a feudatory of special privilege he recreated Wisconsin into a free state. Through a jungle of morass and marsh that gave no surety of footing and seemed to give no hope of passage, where rose the foul miasma of corruption for ten long, black and purgatorial years, set upon by slinking beasts, ambushed and beaten and battered down, he kept a course that knew but a single compass. Out of the agony and travail of that dark and awful pilgrimage was born the progressive movement in America. Primary elections, equal taxation of railroads and other corporate wealth, effective regulation of the rates and service of transportation and public utilities, civil service reform, insurance against industrial accident, forever monument his line of march. In Wisconsin the "goal of freedom's race, baffled oft, but ever won," has been achieved. Upon her statute books were written for the first time in America laws that insured a fairer apportionment of the "race heritage of civilization" that embodied the best thought of the best brains in the world.

Six years ago, hazed and belittled and lampooned, he stood in the American senate the lone champion of the invested citadel of public right. Single handed he maintained its defense against open assault and covert subterfuge. Again and again he met the charge of the black cavalry of privilege, and they recoiled before the stroke of his unconquered sword. One by one fair seeming measures introduced under the specious guise of dealing with Indian coal lands, reforming the currency, revising the tariff, regulating railway rates, establishing a commerce court or enacting reciprocity with Canada, by the touch of his Ithuriel spear, stood revealed in all their hideous nakedness, poised and potent with menace, hissing with a thousand forked serpents' tongues.

They who scoffed have come to listen when he speaks. He is no mere jingler of euphonious words, no conjurer of fantastic phrases. In an orderly progression his speeches move to the conclusions of an inexorable logic. Devoid of poetry or classical allusion, they are crammed with facts and statistics. But they are facts—vitalized statistics dramatized into soul moving significance, ordered into an irresistible phalanx along whose lines there glisten everywhere the bayonets of truth that march to the inspiring music of hope for all mankind.

Step by step, no inch uncontested, undeterred by slander, ridicule, abuse, he fought along the way of dauntless self reliance till there came first one recruit and then another, and then they came by scores, and today a mighty army is assembled whose camp is filled with sounds of preparation for offensive warfare, with all in readiness to march forth upon the morrow to retake the land of our inheritance, too long the spoilers' prey.

Now, think you that the man who cut the way through the jungle and the wilderness can be taken up on a high mountain and bidden "look upon the promised land and die?" Think you that he who volunteered as leader of a forlorn hope and by the force of his genius transformed a political awkward squad into a conquering army can be cast aside? Think you that we will strike our colors, sound a retreat all along the line and march back with abject and servile tread into the thralldom of the pharaohs of monopoly?

Humanity, calling for leadership in this, a new crusade, thunders back the answer, NO!

She asks that this convention name as its candidate a representative of the state that gave the grand old Republican party birth and where, praise God, has been born a grander NEW Republican party. In him the spirit of democracy has been nurtured until it has become fiber of his fiber, brain of his brain, soul of his soul. He comes into this convention the representative of no class, the agent of no interest, the deputy of no principal. He is no man's man. He has no combination with any candidate, no back stairs alliance with the treasury of privilege. He voices the hope, the aspiration, the unconquerable determination of the common people of America to repossess their government.

Name him as our candidate and no flaming interrogation point will blaze athwart our path by night, no cloud of doubt envelop our line of march by day. But with countenances alight, with confidence in his leadership, we shall march along the great highway of truth into that new republic where, in "are justice and happiness and joy in widest commonalty spread," wherein each man is the "full heir of all the ages, in full enjoyment of the long results of time." His inspired eye, unobscured by the mist of personal ambition, first caught the vision of that glorious realm, and his thought and influence, whether in public office or out, whether this convention vote him up or down, will remake this nation in the light of that vision, will rededicate her government to humanity.

Name him your candidate and in November next the American people will acclaim him theirs by the mightiest majority in history, and the twenty-eighth president of the United States will be Robert Marion La Follette of Wisconsin.

The Kentucky Oil Fields

The United States Geological Survey has published a second edition of its report on the geology of the Campton oil field, Wolfe county, Ky., and the oil and natural gas field in Knox county, Ky. The report is the result of field investigation by M. J. Munn, a geologist of the Survey. The principal subject of the work in the Campton oil field was to ascertain if possible, the value of such work in locating favorable places for testing before drilling.

Mr. Munn made the statement that "good geologic work in advance of drilling could easily reduce the cost of thoroughly testing this region by at least 50 per cent." Since the publication of the first edition of the report prospecting in Wolfe County has resulted in the finding of an extension of the oil-bearing area northward from the old developments at Campton, which may result in the opening of a new pool on the northern limb of the anticline, on whose southern limb the Campton pool occurs. The altitude of the oil "sand" ("Corniferous" limestone) in these two areas appear to be practically the same. Prospecting in Wolfe County has also resulted in the discovery of a new oil pool south of Stillwater post office, 6 or 8 miles from the Campton field and within the belt previously pointed out in Mr. Munn's report as being worthy of careful geologic study. At this time it is not possible to say whether or not this new pool will prove to be of much value, as all the wells completed have been small producers. However, the additional data furnished by this prospecting have been strong corroborative evidence as to the value of geologic work in locating pools.

In the report on oil and gas in Knox county, Ky., attention is called to the fact that the finding of considerable flows of oil in a few very shallow wells in this county near Barboursville resulted in an oil excitement, during which an immense amount of valueless oil stock was sold to the public. This was followed by the collapse of the oil boom and the subsequent blacklisting of this district by oil men, without anything like a thorough testing of the deeper "sands," in which oil and gas pools of great value have been found farther north.

Want ads are profitable.

Professional Column

Funeral Directors

ALBERT R. McCOY
Funeral Director
and Embalmer.
Office 222 E. Court St. Bell Tel., office 27; residence 9 R; Citizen, office, 27; residence 541.

ELMER A. KLEVER,
Funeral Director.
Bell Phones: Res. 294-2; Office 294.
Citz. Phones: Res. 151; Office 180.

C. H. MURRAY
UNDERTAKING COMPANY,
223 E. Court St., Washington C. H.
Office—Both Phones 65.
Residence Phones, Bell 66; Home 1 on 55.

MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY TO LOAN
At all times, in any amount.
Frank M. Fullerton.

MONEY TO LOAN
on real estate, chattels and personal security.
Frank M. Allen.

CASHLOANS Arranged on Pianos, Household Goods and Live Stock. $10 to $100 mail weekly or monthly payments.
Capitol Loan Company
Bell 316 w. So. Fayette St

OPTICIANS

JAMES T. TUTTLE,
Optician,
Washington C. H., Ohio,
128 E. Court St.

THE LEAKS IN A PURSE

can be stopped if you have been paying too much for your living expenses by buying your meats and poultry from this shop. Our meats are choice and cut from the primest beef, mutton, lamb, pork. You can't find better meats or lower prices at any place.

BARCHET'S MARKET.
Wholesale and Retail.

Classified

RATES PER WORD.

1 time in Daily Herald 1c
6t in Herald & 1t in Register... 3c
12t in Herald & 2t in Register... 4c
26t in Herald & 4t in Register... 6c
52t in Herald & 8t in Register...10c
Proportionate rates for longer time

Minimum charges: 1t 15c; 6t 30c.

SITUATIONS WANTED.

WANTED—A position with good family to do housework. Address E., care of Herald office.

WANTED—Job as chauffeur in garage or private family. Address "A", 518 E. Market street. 146 6t

WANTED.

WANTED—By Monday morning, three or four lady solicitors, to sell a high-class product. Straight salary paid. Call opposite K. of P. hall, 217 North Fayette street, city. P. T. Dagy, Manager.

WANTED—Boy for Sunday newspaper route. B. F. Leland. 148 2t

WANTED—Girls at the Mitten factory. Inskeep Mfg Co. 144 12t

WANTED—A good trustworthy man to work on farm. Address "M", care Herald office. 144 6t

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Modern furnished room, suitable for light house-keeping, if wanted. Apply at Stinson Conservatory. 148 6t

FOR RENT—Apartment of four rooms; furnished or unfurnished. All conveniences. Apply to D. H. Van Winkle. 147 6t

FOR RENT—Furnished room in modern home. Mrs. H. H. Sanderson 361 E. Court St. 146 6t

FOR RENT—By July 3rd, house of 5 rooms, pantry and gas, in fine condition. On Sycamore street. Mrs. C. E. McKee, East street. 145 6t

FOR RENT—3-room house. O. K. Barber shop. Citizens phone 768. 137 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A sample wagon, extra sound and in good condition; a bargain. See L. Eggleston, Dennis Bldg. 149 6t

FOR SALE—7-room house, corner Main and Elm; also two 4-room houses on same lot. Will sell one or all. Inquire Mrs. Margaret Donnelly in property. 149 30t

FOR SALE—750 concrete blocks, 7 1-2 and 8 1-2 cents. Citz. 2654, if sold at once. Daniel Baker. 148 6t

FOR SALE—7-room house with bath, on Washington avenue, lot 55 by 165 feet. Price right if sold at once. Inquire of B. A. Schädel, at Dahl-Millikan office. 144 6t

FOR SALE—Plumbing material at better prices than ever before. E. T. Evans & Co. Citz. 1128; Bell 86R. 132 tf

FOR SALE—One square piano, 228 N. Fayette St. 82 tf

FOR SALE—Columbus Buggy Co. runabout, in good condition. Call at Geo. Cox & Sons livery barn. 95 tf

LOST.

LOST—Brass automobile cup Finder leave at Swope's garage. O. J. Mobley. 125 tf

MEAT MARKET.

We want your trade. Call and see us. Nelson, Craft & Co., phones, Bell 326 W; Citz. 508; corner Court and North streets. 144 6t

FOR SALE—Small stock of groceries and meats, doing nice business; well located in Columbus. Will sell right on account of health. Gertrude Eberhard, 690 St. Clair avenue, Milo, Ohio. 149 3t

MAKES THE NATION GASP.

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. Its the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

Hadley Mantioned For Second Place

Chicago, June 22.—Coliseum.—That the Republican national convention will enter its permanent stage as an organization this afternoon was the announcement made by the Taft leaders when the delegates assembled for business this morning.

It has been decided to dispense with the permanent chairman's speech, Senator Root, who has been selected for that position, having decided that he covered the ground thoroughly in his address to the convention as its temporary chairman.

After the adoption of the new rules to be submited by the rules committee, over which there is expected to be considerable friction, the platform committee will make its report. After the adoption of the platform will come the nominations for president and vice president.

Comptroller Prendergast announced that he was not to present Colonel Roosevelt's name formally to the convention; that he had been requested by the colonel himself not to do so. The plan of the Roosevelt people, it appears, is to sit silent in the convention after the credentials report has been completed and adopted.

Chicago, June 22.—For president, William H. Taft; for vice president, Herbert S. Hadley. This at the present time is tipped off as the Republican national ticket to be nominated this afternoon.

After the events in the Republican national convention, during which all the Taft delegates were seated and during which the Taft delegates and every single chieftain in Chicago of President Taft's forces announced that the president would be renominated in the convention this afternoon or evening.

On one opinion the Taft forces and the Roosevelt forces coincide, and it is to the effect that Governor Herbert S. Hadley of Missouri will become the choice of the delegates of the convention for vice president.

The Taft managers, it was learned, have been deluged with telegrams from all over the country urging them that, now he had beaten Colonel Roosevelt for the nomination, they should unite in selecting a third candidate or a compromise candidate. They have also received hundreds of dispatches begging them and imploring them to stand by President Taft and to insist upon his nomination.

The Taft chieftains never for a moment have been lacking in fidelity to the cause of President Taft. They believe that from the hour of the president's renomination he will grow in strength and favor with the Republicans of the nation and be independent.

The narrow margin on the test vote in the convention on the California contests frightened President Taft's chieftains within an inch of their lives. On that ballot the total was 542 for the Taft contestants and 529 for the Roosevelt contestants. And there were only seven absentees. The Taft delegates on this main question of presidential nomination can be relied upon to stick to the president as long as he is a candidate for the nomination, in the judgment of the Taft leaders here, but what many of these Taft delegates state is, that inasmuch as Colonel Roosevelt has been beaten and the purpose of the Taft chieftains accomplished, the president should be magnanimous and remember that there are to be elections in most of the states this fall for governors, legislatures which are to elect United States senators, and elections for members of the house of representatives. Other delegates do not entertain these views and will not tolerate the hearing of them from their fellows.

An amazing climax to many came when Governor Stubbs of Kansas was leaving Colonel Roosevelt, and said: "There will be no bolt. This talk of a bolt is foolish. Colonel Roosevelt never talked about a bolt. Our delegation and all other Roosevelt delegations will remain in the convention until the nomination is made, I believe. There can be no compromise candidate as far as we are concerned."

Convention Sustains Committee.

With the committee on credentials progressing in their work of determining the contests and with the convention acting upon the decisions of the committee, two test votes taken in the convention demonstrate that with the LaFollette and Cummins men voting against the Taft men, the latter on one test vote won by 569 to 499. On a second test vote with the LaFollette delegates and the Cummins delegates voting with the Taft men, the latter won by a vote of 605 to 469. The first test vote whereby the Taft men were victorious by 569 to 499 is the best evidence of the present strength of the president in the convention, in the estimation of influential Taft representatives.

PARTY PLATFORM

Tariff Planks Engaging the Committee on Resolutions.

Chicago, June 22.—One by one the planks prepared by the subcommittee were taken up by the full committee on resolutions. After more than an hour's session it was decided to return the report to the subcommittee to redraft some of the planks which had been discussed. Two in particular were those having to do with the tariff and the inland waterways. A strong plea was made by the southern members for a stronger plank on inland waterways. Senator Burton appealed to the committee not to go too far in calling for government aid in this direction, however. The decision of the committee was not announced.

The full committee adjourned and in the meantime the subcommittee is to continue its work. Governor Hadley, when asked if the Roosevelt platform would be presented as a minority report to the convention, said: "We will be guided by what happens today when the convention is permanently organized."

William Draper Lewis, the Pennsylvania member who bolted the subcommittee, turned up at the full committee and so did most of the other Roosevelt members. Mr. Lewis said that it had not been decided whether to present the Roosevelt platform to the convention as a minority report or to adopt the attitude of taking part in the proceedings after the credential committee's full report had been acted upon. The LaFollette member, Senator Owen, said that the Wisconsin platform would certainly be presented to the convention.

The Roosevelt members, it was learned, have not gone so far as to offer their platform to the full committee yet. The matter of the single presidential term of six years has not been passed upon, according to a member of the committee.

JAMES E. WATSON

President Taft's Mainstay in Fight on Convention Floor.

© 1912, by American Press Association.

Mr. Watson is a former representative from Indiana and was chief parliamentarian for the Taft forces in the battle over the roll.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Harry Robinson, 24, cement worker, and Mattie Elder, 19. Both colored.

OLBRICH'S SPEECH NAMING LA FOLLETTE

In nominating Senator La Follette for the presidency M. B. Olbrich spoke as follows:

Mr. Chairman and Delegates to the Fifteenth National Republican Convention—The Republican party is face to face with the gravest crisis in its history. There is more at stake in this convention than the rise or fall of individual ambition. We are confronted with no mere matter of temporary party success or defeat—no question of winning or losing a single election. The life of the party is in the balance.

Raised up by God to work the freedom of the black man in America, a nation asks today shall that God given instrument be used to further rivet or burst another bondage that threatens all men, black and white. African slavery was open, obvious, brutally crude, shocking to the moral sense. Now we are threatened with an industrial despotism, insidious, intangible, but infinitely menacing, beside which the banished slavery was small and sectional in scope.

Up the trunk of legitimate industry in America like some noisome parasitic tropic growth the tightening coil of privilege has wound its way, extending itself into every branch of human endeavor, strangling industrial and commercial freedom, shutting out the light of hope from the sons of men, poisoning the very air of liberty. From small beginnings it has grown and grown until it is so interlaced with lawful enterprise that the clearest eye alone can detect the bastard growth so interwoven into the delicate structure of our business life that it cannot be jerked out by one momentary spasm. Tariff favoritism, control of natural resources, monopoly in transportation, manufacturing, money and credit are all but tentacles of its stifling power. This monstrous growth will succumb to the tilting of no quixotic lance. The lightning of invective will not wither it nor the thunder of denunciation lay it low. No brandishing of battleaxes in Chinese warfare will hasten its decay, no mere attack on symptoms work a cure. The snipping of a tendril here and a tendril there will not retard its growth. It can be reached alone by the keen blade of well directed law scientifically laid to its root.

MICHAEL B. OLBRICH.

For, not content with its control of industry, hand in hand, as a necessary part of its development, has gone a like intrusion into our political and governmental life. Its representatives sit upon the bench and in our legislative halls. They are in possession of seats on this convention floor. Congresses and cabinets and courts have hearkened to its command. It has "corrupted governments, defied constitutions and, in collusion with faithless representatives of the people, has sought to impair the legal foundation of civilization itself."

The challenge which monopoly, thus intrenched, throws down and the acceptance of the gage of battle by the American people make up the issue of the coming campaign. Shall the men and women of this nation in the aggregate actually and effectively control their government? Shall they "who bear the coarse drudgery of the world" as well as the "eminent few" who sit in its high places have a proportionate voice in determining their condition of life and the destiny of this nation? This is no strange, wild doctrine that has caught the momentary gust of a rabble's favor. It is but the Declaration of Independence revivified—born anew.

Above the clash of contending personal ambition, above the rumble of the steam roller, the clamor of the band wagon, the bustle of the political huckster, there comes to this convention the voice of an awakened people that will not be denied demanding that further encroachment by the few upon the rights of the many be stopped. Asking of this convention, under penalty of death for failure, a heroic leadership with vision clear enough to see the menace to free institutions, brave enough and strong enough to check the onsweeping march of corporate aggression, they will be content with no sham profession of loyalty. No chanting of a time worn creed will still their cry. Their wishes scorned and scorned, they are in deadly earnest now.

The Republicans of the sanely conservative commonwealth of Wisconsin, unique in the sisterhood of states, united and unanimous in support of a distinguished son, bid me present to this convention the name La Follette. That name and that alone supplies the guarantee without which the American people will accept no party's promise to perform. Twice before you set the man in the pillory and sought to crucify his ideas. But the fiery words of prophecy spoken from this platform four years ago have been fulfilled, and what you then derided as socialistic and populistic you recognize as true conservatism today, and the candidacy of the man you told to take his Democratic "dope" and go to Denver furnishes your one salvation from defeat in dishonor and disgrace.

For his professions have received the priceless consecration of actual performance. From a feudatory of special privilege he recreated Wisconsin into a free state. Through a jungle of morass and marsh that gave no surety of footing and seemed to give no hope of passage, where rose the foul miasma of corruption for ten long, black and purgatorial years, set upon by slinking beasts, ambushed and beaten and battered down, he kept a course that knew but a single compass. Out of the agony and travail of that dark and awful pilgrimage was born the progressive movement in America. Primary elections, equal taxation of railroads and other corporate wealth, effective regulation of the rates and service of transportation and public utilities, civil service reform, insurance against industrial accident, forever monument his line of march. In Wisconsin the "goal of freedom's race, baffled oft, but ever won," has been achieved. Upon her statute books were written for the first time in America laws that insured a fairer apportionment of the "race heritage of civilization" that embodied the best thought of the best brains in the world.

Six years ago, hazed and belittled and lampooned, he stood in the American senate the lone champion of the invested citadel of public right. Single handed he maintained its defense against open assault and covert subterfuge. Again and again he met the charge of the black cavalry of privilege, and they recoiled before the stroke of his unconquered sword. One by one fair seeming measures introduced under the specious guise of dealing with Indian coal lands, reforming the currency, revising the tariff, regulating railway rates, establishing a commerce court or enacting reciprocity with Canada, by the touch of his Ithuriel spear, stood revealed in all their hideous nakedness, poised and potent with menace, hissing with a thousand forked serpents' tongues.

They who scoffed have come to listen when he speaks. He is no mere jingler of euphonious words, no conjurer of fantastic phrases. In an orderly progression his speeches move to the conclusions of an inexorable logic. Devoid of poetry or classical allusion, they are crammed with facts and statistics. But they are facts—vitalized statistics dramatized into soul moving significance, ordered into an irresistible phalanx along whose lines there glisten everywhere the bayonets of truth that march to the inspiring music of hope for all mankind.

Step by step, no inch uncontested, undeterred by slander, ridicule, abuse, he fought along the way of dauntless self reliance till there came first one recruit and then another, and then they came by scores, and today a mighty army is assembled whose camp is filled with sounds of preparation for offensive warfare, with all in readiness to march forth upon the morrow to retake the land of our inheritance, too long the spoilers' prey.

Now, think you that the man who cut the way through the jungle and the wilderness can be taken up on a high mountain and bidden "look upon the promised land and die?" Think you that he who volunteered as leader of a forlorn hope and by the force of his genius transformed a political awkward squad into a conquering army can be cast aside? Think you that we will strike our colors, sound a retreat all along the line and march back with abject and servile tread into the thralldom of the pharaohs of monopoly?

Humanity, calling for leadership in this, a new crusade, thunders back the answer, NO!

She asks that this convention name as its candidate a representative of the state that gave the grand old Republican party birth and where, praise God, has been born a grander NEW Republican party. In him the spirit of democracy has been nurtured until it has become fiber of his fiber, brain of his brain, soul of his soul. He comes into this convention the representative of no class, the agent of no interest, the deputy of no principal. He is no man's man. He has no combination with any candidate, no back stairs alliance with the treasury of privilege. He voices the hope, the aspiration, the unconquerable determination of the common people of America to repossess their government.

Name him as our candidate and no flaming interrogation point will blaze athwart our path by night, no cloud of doubt envelop our line of march by day. But with countenances alight, with confidence in his leadership, we shall march along the great highway of truth into that new republic where in "are justice and happiness and joy in widest commonalty spread," wherein each man is the "full heir of all the ages, in full enjoyment of the long results of time." His inspired eye, unobscured by the mist of personal ambition, first caught the vision of that glorious realm, and his thought and influence, whether in public office or out, whether this convention vote him up or down, will remake this nation in the light of that vision, will rededicate her government to humanity.

Name him your candidate and in November next the American people will acclaim him theirs by the mightiest majority in history, and the twenty-eighth president of the United States will be Robert Marion La Follette of Wisconsin.

The Kentucky Oil Fields

The United States Geological Survey has published a second edition of its report on the geology of the Campton oil field, Wolfe county, Ky., and the oil and natural gas field in Knox county, Ky. The report is the result of field investigation by M. J. Munn, a geologist of the Survey. The principal subject of the work in the Campton oil field was to ascertain, if possible, the value of such work in locating favorable places for testing before drilling.

Mr. Munn made the statement that "good geologic work in advance of drilling could easily reduce the cost of thoroughly testing this region by at least 50 per cent." Since the publication of the first edition of the report prospecting in Wolfe County has resulted in the finding of an extension of the oil-bearing area northward from the old developments at Campton, which may result in the opening of a new pool on the northern limb of the anticline, on whose southern limb the Campton pool occurs. The altitude of the oil "sand" ("Corniferous" limestone) in these two areas appear to be practically the same. Prospecting in Wolfe County has also resulted in the discovery of a new oil pool south of Stillwater post office, 6 or 8 miles from the Campton field and within the belt previously pointed out in Mr. Munn's report as being worthy of careful geologic study. At this time it is not possible to say whether or not this new pool will prove to be of much value, as all the wells completed have been small producers. However, the additional data furnished by this prospecting have been strong corroborative evidence as to the value of geologic work in locating pools.

In the report on oil and gas in Knox county, Ky., attention is called to the fact that the finding of considerable flows of oil in a few very shallow wells in this county near Barboursville resulted in an oil excitement, during which an immense amount of valueless oil stock was sold to the public. This was followed by the collapse of the oil boom and the subsequent blacklisting of this district by oil men, without anything like a thorough testing of the deeper "sands," in which oil and gas pools of great value have been found farther north.

Want ads are profitable.

Professional Column

Funeral Directors

ALBERT R. McCOY
Funeral Director
and Embalmer.
Office 222 E. Court St. Bell Tel., office 27; residence 9 R; Citizen, office, 27; residence 541.

ELMER A. KLEVER,
Funeral Director.
Bell Phones: Res. 294-2; Office 294.
Citz. Phones: Res. 151; Office 180.

C. H. MURRAY
UNDERTAKING COMPANY,
223 E. Court St., Washington C. H.
Office—Both Phones 65.
Residence Phones, Bell 66; Home 4 on 55.

MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY TO LOAN
At all times, in any amount.
Frank M. Fullerton.

MONEY TO LOAN
on real estate, chattels and personal security.
Frank M. Allen.

CASHLOANS Arranged on Pianos, Household Goods and Live Stock. $10 to $100 mall weekly or monthly payments.
Capitol Loan Company
ell 316 w. So. Fayette St

OPTICIANS

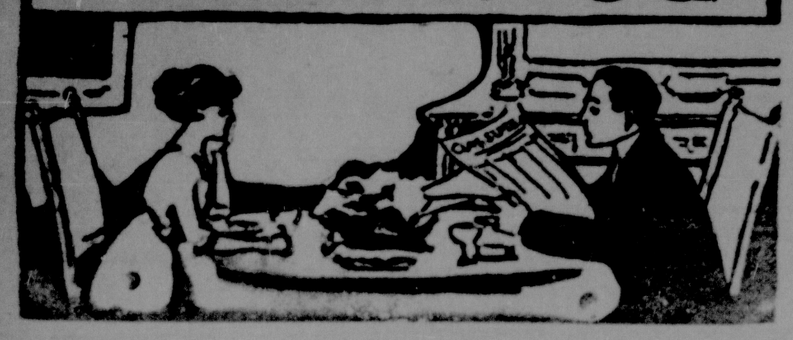
JAMES T. TUTTLE,
Optician,
Washington C. H., Ohio,
133 E. Court St.

THE LEAKS IN A PURSE

can be stopped if you have been paying too much for your living expenses by buying your meats and poultry from this shop. Our meats are choice and cut from the primest beef, mutton, lamb, pork. You can't find better meats or lower prices at any place.

BARCHET'S MARKET.
Wholesale and Retail.

Classified



RATES PER WORD

1 time in Daily Herald 1c
6t in Herald & 1t in Register... 3c
12t in Herald & 2t in Register... 4c
26t in Herald & 4t in Register... 6c
52t in Herald & 8t in Register... 10c
Proportionate rates for longer time

Minimum charges: 1t 15c; 6t 30c.

SITUATIONS WANTED.

WANTED—A position with good family to do housework. Address E., care of Herald office.

WANTED—Job as chauffeur in garage or private family. Address "A", 518 E. Market street. 146 6t

WANTED.

WANTED—By Monday morning, three or four lady solicitors, to sell a high-class product. Straight salary paid. Call opposite K. of P. hall, 217 North Fayette street, city. P. T. Dagy, Manager.

WANTED—Boy for Sunday newspaper route. B. F. Leland. 148 2t

WANTED—Girls at the Mitten factory? Inskeep Mfg Co. 144 12t

WANTED—A good trustworthy man to work on farm. Address "M", care Herald office. 144 6t

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Modern furnished room, suitable for light house-keeping, if wanted. Apply at Stinson Conservatory. 148 6t

FOR RENT—Apartment of four rooms; furnished or unfurnished. All conveniences. Apply to D. H. Van Winkle. 147 6t

FOR RENT—Furnished room in modern home. Mrs. H. H. Sanderson 361 E. Court St. 146 6t

FOR RENT—By July 3rd, house of 5 rooms, pantry and gas, in fine condition. On Sycamore street. Mrs. C. E. McKee, East street. 145 6t

FOR RENT—3-room house. O. K. Barber shop. Citizens phone 768. 137 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A sample wagon, extra sound and in good condition; a bargain. See L. Eggleston, Dennis Bldg. 149 6t

FOR SALE—7-room house, corner Main and Elm; also two 4-room houses on same lot. Will sell one or all. Inquire Mrs. Margaret Donnelly in property. 149 30t

FOR SALE—750 concrete blocks, 7 1-2 and 8 1-2 cents. Citz. 2654, if sold at once. Daniel Baker. 148 6t

FOR SALE—7-room house with bath, on Washington avenue, lot 55 by 165 feet. Price right if sold at once. Inquire of B. A. Schadel, at Dahl-Millikan office. 144 6t

FOR SALE—Plumbing material at better prices than ever before. E. T. Evans & Co. Citz. 1128; Bell 86R. 132 tf

FOR SALE—One square piano, 228 N. Fayette St. 82 tf

FOR SALE—Columbus Buggy Co. runabout, in good condition. Call at Geo. Cox & Sons livery barn. 95 tf

LOST.

LOST—Brass automobile cup Finder leave at Swope's garage. O. J. Mobley. 125 tf

MEAT MARKET.

We want your trade. Call and see us. Nelson, Craft & Co., phones, Bell 326 W; Citz. 508; corner Court and North streets. 144 6t

FOR SALE—Small stock of groceries and meats, doing nice business; well located in Columbus. Will sell right on account of health. Gertrude Eberhard, 690 St. Clair avenue; Milo, Ohio. 149 3t

MAKES THE NATION GASP.

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. Its the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

Hadley Mantioned For Second Place

Chicago, June 22.—Coliseum.—That the Republican national convention will enter its permanent stage as an organization this afternoon was the announcement made by the Taft leaders when the delegates assembled for business this morning.

It has been decided to dispense with the permanent chairman's speech, Senator Root, who has been selected for that position, having decided that he covered the ground thoroughly in his address to the convention as its temporary chairman.

After the adoption of the new rules to be submited by the rules committee, over which there is expected to be considerable friction, the platform committee will make its report. After the adoption of the platform will come the nominations for president and vice president.

Comptroller Prendergast announced that he was not to present Colonel Roosevelt's name formally to the convention; that he had been requested by the colonel himself not to do so. The plan of the Roosevelt people, it appears, is to sit silent in the convention after the credentials report has been completed and adopted.

Chicago, June 22.—For president, William H. Taft; for vice president, Herbert S. Hadley. This at the present time is tipped off as the Republican national ticket to be nominated this afternoon.

After the events in the Republican national convention, during which all the Taft delegates were seated and during which the Taft delegates and every single chieftain in Chicago of President Taft's forces announced that the president would be renominated in the convention this afternoon or evening.

On one opinion the Taft forces and the Roosevelt forces coincide, and it is to the effect that Governor Herbert S. Hadley of Missouri will become the choice of the delegates of the convention for vice president.

The Taft managers, it was learned, have been deluged with telegrams from all over the country urging them that, now he had beaten Colonel Roosevelt for the nomination, they should unite in selecting a third candidate or a compromise candidate. They have also received hundreds of dispatches begging them and imploring them to stand by President Taft and to insist upon his nomination.

The Taft chieftains never for a moment have been lacking in fidelity to the cause of President Taft. They believe that from the hour of the president's renomination he will grow in strength and favor with the Republicans of the nation and be independent.

The narrow margin on the test vote in the convention on the California contests frightened President Taft's chieftains within an inch of their lives. On that ballot the total was 542 for the Taft contestants and 529 for the Roosevelt contestants. And there were only seven absentees. The Taft delegates on this main question of presidential nomination can be relied upon to stick to the president as long as he is a candidate for the nomination, in the judgment of the Taft leaders here, but what many of these Taft delegates state is, that inasmuch as Colonel Roosevelt has been beaten and the purpose of the Taft chieftains accomplished, the president should be magnanimous and remember that there are to be elections in most of the states this fall for governors, legislatures which are to elect United States senators, and elections for members of the house of representatives. Other delegates do not entertain these views and will not tolerate the hearing of them from their fellows.

An amazing climax to many came when Governor Stubbs of Kansas was leaving Colonel Roosevelt, and said: "There will be no bolt. This talk of a bolt is foolish. Colonel Roosevelt never talked about a bolt. Our delegation and all other Roosevelt delegations will remain in the convention until the nomination is made, I believe. There can be no compromise candidate as far as we are concerned."

Convention Sustains Committee.

With the committee on credentials progressing in their work of determining the contests and with the convention acting upon the decisions of the committee, two test votes taken in the convention demonstrate that with the LaFollette and Cummins men voting against the Taft men, the latter on one test vote won by 569 to 499. On a second test vote with the LaFollette delegates and the Cummins delegates voting with the Taft men, the latter won by a vote of 605 to 469. The first test vote whereby the Taft men were victorious by 569 to 499 is the best evidence of the present strength of the president in the convention, in the estimation of influential Taft representatives.

PARTY PLATFORM

Tariff Planks Engaging the Committee on Resolutions.

Chicago, June 22.—One by one the planks prepared by the subcommittee were taken up by the full committee on resolutions. After more than an hour's session it was decided to return the report to the subcommittee to redraft some of the planks which had been discussed. Two in particular were those having to do with the tariff and the inland waterways. A strong plea was made by the southern members for a stronger plank on inland waterways. Senator Burton appealed to the committee not to go too far in calling for government aid in this direction, however. The decision of the committee was not announced.

The full committee adjourned and in the meantime the subcommittee is to continue its work. Governor Hadley, when asked if the Roosevelt platform would be presented as a minority report to the convention, said: "We will be guided by what happens today when the convention is permanently organized."

William Draper Lewis, the Pennsylvania member who bolted the subcommittee, turned up at the full committee and so did most of the other Roosevelt members. Mr. Lewis said that it had not been decided whether to present the Roosevelt platform to the convention as a minority report or to adopt the attitude of taking part in the proceedings after the credential committee's full report had been acted upon. The LaFollette member, Senator Owen, said that the Wisconsin platform would certainly be presented to the convention.

The Roosevelt members, it was learned, have not gone so far as to offer their platform to the full committee yet. The matter of the single presidential term of six years has not been passed upon, according to a member of the committee.

JAMES E. WATSON

President Taft's Mainstay in Fight on Convention Floor.

© 1912, by American Press Association.

Mr. Watson is a former representative from Indiana and was chief parliamentarian for the Taft forces in the battle over the roll.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Harry Robinson, 24, cement worker, and Mattie Elder, 19. Both colored.

OLBRICH'S SPEECH NAMING LA FOLLETTE

In nominating Senator La Follette for the presidency M. B. Olbrich spoke as follows:

Mr. Chairman and Delegates to the Fifteenth National Republican Convention—The Republican party is face to face with the gravest crisis in its history. There is more at stake in this convention than the rise or fall of individual ambition. We are confronted with no mere matter of temporary party success or defeat—no question of winning or losing a single election. The life of the party is in the balance.

Raised up by God to work the freedom of the black man in America, a nation asks today shall that God given instrument be used to further rivet or burst another bondage that threatens all men, black and white. African slavery was open, obvious, brutally crude, shocking to the moral sense. Now we are threatened with an industrial despotism, insidious, intangible, but infinitely menacing, beside which the banished slavery was small and sectional in scope.

Up the trunk of legitimate industry in America like some noisome parasitic tropic growth the tightening coil of privilege has wound its way, extending itself into every branch of human endeavor, strangling industrial and commercial freedom, shutting out the light of hope from the sons of men, poisoning the very air of liberty. From small beginnings it has grown and grown until it is so interlaced with lawful enterprise that the clearest eye alone can detect the bastard growth, so interwoven into the delicate structure of our business life that it cannot be jerked out by one momentary spasm. Tariff favoritism, control of natural resources, monopoly in transportation, manufacturing, money and credit are all but tentacles of its stifling power. This monstrous growth will succumb to the tilting of no quixotic lance. The lightning of invective will not wither it nor the thunder of denunciation lay it low. No brandishing of battleaxes in Chinese warfare will hasten its decay, no mere attack on symptoms work a cure. The snipping of a tendril here and a tendril there will not retard its growth. It can be reached alone by the keen blade of well directed law scientifically laid to its root.

MICHAEL B. OLBRICH.

For, not content with its control of industry, hand in hand, as a necessary part of its development, has gone a like intrusion into our political and governmental life. Its representatives sit upon the bench and in our legislative halls. They are in possession of seats on this convention floor. Congresses and cabinets and courts have hearkened to its command. It has "corrupted governments, defied constitutions and, in collusion with faithless representatives of the people, has sought to impair the legal foundation of civilization itself."

The challenge which monopoly, thus intrenched, throws down and the acceptance of the gage of battle by the American people make up the issue of the coming campaign. Shall the men and women of this nation in the aggregate actually and effectively control their government? Shall they "who bear the coarse drudgery of the world" as well as the "eminent few" who sit in its high places have a proportionate voice in determining their condition of life and the destiny of this nation? This is no strange, wild doctrine that has caught the momentary gust of a rabble's favor. It is but the Declaration of Independence revivified—born anew.

Above the clash of contending personal ambition, above the rumble of the steam roller, the clamor of the band wagon, the bustle of the political huckster, there comes to this convention the voice of an awakened people that will not be denied demanding that further encroachment by the few upon the rights of the many be stopped. Asking of this convention, under penalty of death for failure, a heroic leadership with vision clear enough to see the menace to free institutions, brave enough and strong enough to check the onsweeping march of corporate aggression, they will be content with no sham profession of loyalty. No chanting of a time worn creed will still their cry. Their wishes scorned and scorned, they are in deadly earnest now.

The Republicans of the sanely conservative commonwealth of Wisconsin, unique in the sisterhood of states, united and unanimous in support of a distinguished son, bid me present to this convention the name La Follette. That name and that alone supplies the guarantee without which the American people will accept no party's promise to perform. Twice before you set the man in the pillory and sought to crucify his ideas. But the fiery words of prophecy spoken from this platform four years ago have been fulfilled, and what you then derided as socialistic and populistic you recognize as true conservatism today, and the candidacy of the man you told to take his Democratic "dope" and go to Denver furnishes your one salvation from defeat in dishonor and disgrace.

For his professions have received the priceless consecration of actual performance. From a feudatory of special privilege he recreated Wisconsin into a free state. Through a jungle of morass and marsh that gave no surety of footing and seemed to give no hope of passage, where rose the foul miasma of corruption for ten long, black and purgatorial years, set upon by slinking beasts, ambushed and beaten and battered down, he kept a course that knew but a single compass. Out of the agony and travail of that dark and awful pilgrimage was born the progressive movement in America. Primary elections, equal taxation of railroads and other corporate wealth, effective regulation of the rates and service of transportation and public utilities, civil service reform, insurance against industrial accident, forever monument his line of march. In Wisconsin the "goal of freedom's race, baffled oft, but ever won," has been achieved. Upon her statute books were written for the first time in America laws that insured a fairer apportionment of the "race heritage of civilization" that embodied the best thought of the best brains in the world.

Six years ago, hazed and belittled and lampooned, he stood in the American senate the lone champion of the invested citadel of public right. Single handed he maintained its defense against open assault and covert subterfuge. Again and again he met the charge of the black cavalry of privilege, and they recoiled before the stroke of his unconquered sword. One by one fair seeming measures introduced under the specious guise of dealing with Indian coal lands, reforming the currency, revising the tariff, regulating railway rates, establishing a commerce court or enacting reciprocity with Canada, by the touch of his Ithuriel spear, stood revealed in all their hideous nakedness, poised and potent with menace, hissing with a thousand forked serpents' tongues.

They who scoffed have come to listen when he speaks. He is no mere jingler of euphonious words, no conjurer of fantastic phrases. In an orderly progression his speeches move to the conclusions of an inexorable logic. Devoid of poetry or classical allusion, they are crammed with facts and statistics. But they are facts—vitalized statistics dramatized into soul moving significance, ordered into an irresistible phalanx along whose lines there glisten everywhere the bayonets of truth that march to the inspiring music of hope for all mankind.

Step by step, no inch uncontested, undeterred by slander, ridicule, abuse, he fought along the way of dauntless self reliance till there came first one recruit and then another, and then they came by scores, and today a mighty army is assembled whose camp is filled with sounds of preparation for offensive warfare, with all in readiness to march forth upon the morrow to retake the land of our inheritance, too long the spoilers' prey.

Now, think you that the man who cut the way through the jungle and the wilderness can be taken up on a high mountain and bidden "look upon the promised land and die?" Think you that he who volunteered as leader of a forlorn hope and by the force of his genius transformed a political awkward squad into a conquering army can be cast aside? Think you that we will strike our colors, sound a retreat all along the line and march back with abject and servile tread into the thralldom of the pharaohs of monopoly?

Humanity, calling for leadership in this, a new crusade, thunders back the answer, NO!

She asks that this convention name as its candidate a representative of the state that gave the grand old Republican party birth and where, praise God, has been born a grander NEW Republican party. In him the spirit of democracy has been nurtured until it has become fiber of his fiber, brain of his brain, soul of his soul. He comes into this convention the representative of no class, the agent of no interest, the deputy of no principal. He is no man's man. He has no combination with any candidate, no back stairs alliance with the treasury of privilege. He voices the hope, the aspiration, the unconquerable determination of the common people of America to repossess their government.

Name him as our candidate and no flaming interrogation point will blaze athwart our path by night, no cloud of doubt envelop our line of march by day. But with countenances alight, with confidence in his leadership, we shall march along the great highway of truth into that new republic where, in "are justice and happiness and joy in widest commonalty spread," wherein each man is the "full heir of all the ages, in full enjoyment of the long results of time." His inspired eye, unobscured by the mist of personal ambition, first caught the vision of that glorious realm, and his thought and influence, whether in public office or out, whether this convention vote him up or down, will remake this nation in the light of that vision, will rededicate her government to humanity.

Name him your candidate and in November next the American people will acclaim him theirs by the mightiest majority in history, and the twenty-eighth president of the United States will be Robert Marion La Follette of Wisconsin.

The Kentucky Oil Fields

The United States Geological Survey has published a second edition of its report on the geology of the Campton oil field, Wolfe county, Ky., and the oil and natural gas field in Knox county, Ky. The report is the result of field investigation by M. J. Munn, a geologist of the Survey. The principal subject of the work in the Campton oil field was to ascertain if possible, the value of such work in locating favorable places for testing before drilling.

Mr. Munn made the statement that "good geologic work in advance of drilling could easily reduce the cost of thoroughly testing this region by at least 50 per cent." Since the publication of the first edition of the report prospecting in Wolfe County has resulted in the finding of an extension of the oil-bearing area northward from the old developments at Campton, which may result in the opening of a new pool on the northern limb of the anticline, on whose southern limb the Campton pool occurs. The altitude of the oil "sand" ("Corniferous" limestone) in these two areas appear to be practically the same. Prospecting in Wolfe County has also resulted in the discovery of a new oil pool south of Stillwater post office, 6 or 8 miles from the Campton field and within the belt previously pointed out in Mr. Munn's report as being worthy of careful geologic study. At this time it is not possible to say whether or not this new pool will prove to be of much value, as all the wells completed have been small producers. However, the additional data furnished by this prospecting have been strong corroborative evidence as to the value of geologic work in locating pools.

In the report on oil and gas in Knox county, Ky., attention is called to the fact that the finding of considerable flows of oil in a few very shallow wells in this county near Barboursville resulted in an oil excitement, during which an immense amount of valueless oil stock was sold to the public. This was followed by the collapse of the oil boom and the subsequent blacklisting of this district by oil men, without anything like a thorough testing of the deeper "sands," in which oil and gas pools of great value have been found farther north.

Want ads are profitable.

Professional Column

Funeral Directors

ALBERT R. McCOY
Funeral Director
and Embalmer.
Office 222 E. Court St. Bell Tel., office 27; residence 9 R; Citizen, office, 27; residence 541.

ELMER A. KLEVER,
Funeral Director.
Bell Phones: Res. 294-2; Office 294.
Citz. Phones: Res. 151; Office 180.

C. H. MURRAY
UNDERTAKING COMPANY,
223 E. Court St., Washington C. H.
Office—Both Phones 65.
Residence Phones, Bell 66; Home 1 on 55.

MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY TO LOAN
At all times, in any amount.
Frank M. Fullerton.

MONEY TO LOAN
on real estate, chattels and personal security.
Frank M. Allen.

CASHLOANS Arranged on Diamonds, Household Goods and Live Stock. $10 to $100 mail weekly or monthly payments.
Capitol Loan Company
Cit 346 W. So. Fayette St.

OPTICIANS

JAMES T. TUTTLE,
Optician,
Washington C. H., Ohio,
128 E. Court St.

THE LEAKS IN A PURSE

can be stopped if you have been paying too much for your living expenses by buying your meats and poultry from this shop. Our meats are choice and cut from the primest beef, mutton, lamb, pork. You can't find better meats or lower prices at any place.

BARCHET'S MARKET.
Wholesale and Retail.